HEAD COACH MORITZ MORITZ

The first head coach in South Carolina beach volleyball history, Moritz Moritz, enters his sixth season leading the program.

Moritz and assistant coach RJ Abella have shown the ability to not only recruit and train high-level high school athletes, but also cross-train indoor collegiate athletes who look to pursue a post-graduate career on the sand. In the program's first five years, the team has trained six indoor athletes who have combined to go 137-66 (.675) as individuals, highlighted by Adrianna Culbert (Colorado St.), Katie Zimmerman (Wichita St.), Cadie Bates (Duke) and Leah Perri (Clemson) all winning over 20 matches apiece to send the team to NCAA tournament appearances in 2017 and 2018.

The Gamecocks set the program record with 24 wins in 2018, and earned the number six overall seed in the NCAA tournament. Twelve of those victories came against teams ranked in the top-20 during the season, and South Carolina ended the year ranked 9th in the country. Individually, eight Gamecocks won 20 or more matches and Moritz earned the conference coach of the year award. In the postseason, three pairs were recognized by the AVCA as Top Flight honorees, and two pairs earned a spot at the USA Volleyball Collegiate Championship.

The program broke on to the national scene in 2017, winning 23 duals and making its first-ever appearance at the NCAA tournament. The Gamecocks won five matches against teams ranked in the AVCA top-15 during the season, and ended the year ranked eighth in the country. All ten starters finished the year with 20 or more individual wins, also shattering the school record. Macie Tendrich broke the school record for wins by an individual, after finishing with 27 victories in 2017. Freshmen Ali Denney and Katie Smith made the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association's all-freshman team for Carolina, and Katie Zimmerman and Julia Mannisto were named the all-academic team in the postseason. After the season ended, two pairs represented South Carolina at the USA Volleyball Collegiate Championship at Hermosa Beach, another program first.

The 2016 season marked the sport's first as a NCAA-sponsored championship sport, and the program also enjoyed its first season as a member of the CCSA. The team also won their first-ever matchup with a top-10 team, after the Gamecocks upset 10th-ranked Florida International in the semifinal round of the inaugural CCSA tournament. Individually, Tendrich and Katie Reilly set the school record for overall and dual wins in a season (26-10) and made the conference's All-Tournament team.

During the 2015 season, Moritz guided Carolina to a 14-7 record, which is nearly triple the win total of the program's inaugural season, and a No. 17 ranking in the final DiG Magazine Poll. South Carolina's pairs combined for an 83-58 overall record, including a 65-40 mark in dual play. Four Gamecock pairs finished the season with winning records.

In Carolina's inaugural season in 2014, Moritz led the Gamecocks to five wins while facing a schedule that featured duals against three teams ranked in the AVCA Top 10, including national runner-up Florida State. In the second match of the season, Moritz guided the Gamecocks to the program's first victory on March 8, a 3-2 win over Jacksonville at the UNF Sand Invitational in St. Augustine Beach, Fla. In the program's first home dual, the Gamecocks defeated Oregon 4-1 on March 21 in front of 1,102 fans at the Carolina Beach Volleyball Complex.

From 2011-12, Moritz worked with the Gamecock indoor team, concentrating his on-court work with middle blockers and all defenders. He also assisted in scheduling, scouting, recruiting, video breakdown, game and practice planning and work with the Gamecock academic program.

Moritz spent five seasons at Idaho, where he worked as the defensive coordinator as well as film breakdown, academics and the Vandals' community service efforts. Idaho never finished below .500 in Western Athletic Conference play during Moritz's time with the team.

Prior to moving to Moscow, Moritz spent eight years in the Fort Collins, Colo., area. He worked at Colorado State as a volunteer assistant coach for five years and as an interim assistant coach for another while also working with the Norco Junior Volleyball Club and as an assistant coach for a season at Fort Collins High.

His first coaching job came in California as an assistant coach with Pacific Palisades High School and with the Island Juniors club.

Married to the former Kevann Tuell, the couple has two children, son Curren and daughter Gracyn. Moritz earned his bachelors from Colorado State in 2006.

Seniors Cadie Bates and Shannon Williams were the first Gamecocks to earn a spot on the CCSA All-Conference team, making the cut in 2019. The pair had a 17-13 overall record at the number one position in the lineup, setting a program record for most wins in the top spot for a single season with marquee wins over No. 2 Southern Cal and No. 18 Georgia State on their resume.

CCSA CONFERENCE INFO

South Carolina joined the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association (CCSA) in October 2015 as the eighth member of the conference. Entering 2020, the CCSA has also added Louisiana Monroe and Missouri State to bring the roster to 14 teams and will move its postseason championship tournament to Huntsville, Ala. for the first time after hosting it for four years in Emerson, Ga.. In its brief existence, the CCSA has proven to be one of the country's strongest beach conferences, boasting seven teams ranked in the final AVCA Coaches Top-20 Poll in 2019 and four participants in the 2019 NCAA championship.

WELCOME TO WHEELER BEACH

Wheeler Beach opened for the beach volleyball program's inaugural season in 2014. It is located between Carolina Softball Stadium and Carolina Tennis Center. The facility was dedicated at the team's home opener against Oregon on March 21, 2014, a dual that the Gamecocks went on to win, 4-1.

The complex is the first collegiate beach volleyball facility of its kind and the first ever in the SEC. It features five courts with lights and electronic scoreboards on each court, the first collegiate beach volleyball facility to have this feature. At the end of the complex is a master scoreboard that keeps fans informed with the latest scores on each of the five courts and the overall dual.

It's the first electronic scoreboard specifically for beach volleyball in the world. Palmetto trees have been placed throughout the facility, and fans can bring lawn chairs and blankets to sit on the turf and enjoy the matches. The facility also features a sound system which has music playing throughout the duals.

The facility is named Wheeler Beach in honor of the generosity of Jon and Kim Wheeler. The relationship began thanks in part to the on-court contributions of Paige Wheeler, who started her Gamecock career with the indoor volleyball program and moved to the beach in its first season of existence in 2014.

A wrought-iron gate spanning the entrances to Wheeler Beach now bears the family's name.

Tickets are not required to attend matches at Wheeler Beach and admission is free. Fans should park in the Heyward Street parking garage on levels three, four and five. Parking in the garage is free and Wheeler Beach is just a short walk along a paved path from the garage.
