Women's basketball had a dream season, despite losing its postseason due to the outbreak of the Coronavirus. The Gamecocks finished the season 32-1 and won the SEC regular season and tournament championships, spending 10 weeks atop the national polls.

Women's soccer rode a defensive hot streak into the postseason, shutting out all three opponents on the way to the SEC tournament title and the program's second conference title overall and first since 2009. The Gamecocks made it to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA tournament.

GAMECOCK LEADERSHIP AWARD
The University of South Carolina Athletics Department concluded the Spring 2020 semester with a departmental grade point average (GPA) of 3.700. It marks the department’s highest GPA in history and the 27th-consecutive semester with a departmental GPA above 3.0. For the first time in history, all 18 teams earned a GPA of 3.0 or better in the spring. Beach volleyball (3.947) earned the highest team GPA in the spring, while women’s golf (3.913) earned the second-highest team mark.

Seventeen teams earned their highest GPA to date in the spring: baseball (3.399), men’s basketball (3.349), women’s basketball (3.664), equestrian (3.786), football (3.614), men’s golf (3.670), women’s golf (3.913), men’s soccer (3.723), women’s soccer (3.867), softball (3.758), men’s swimming & diving (3.670), women’s swimming & diving (3.898), men’s tennis (3.807), men’s track & field (3.474), women’s track & field/cross country (3.807), beach volleyball (3.947) and volleyball (3.731). Additionally, women’s tennis (3.830) earned its second-highest team GPA on record.

The department also set a record by naming 140 student-athletes to the President’s List for earning a 4.0 this spring. Additionally, 164 were named to the Dean’s List (3.5) and 502 to the Athletics Director’s Honor Roll (3.0).

The spring followed an equally impressive fall semester, when the department posted a combined 3.378 GPA, at the time its highest GPA in history. Of the 18 Gamecock programs, 16 earned a 3.0 or better GPA during the fall. Beach Volleyball (3.760) earned the highest team GPA among all athletics teams, while Women’s Golf (3.753) earned the second-highest team mark within the department.

The department also set a record by naming 97 student-athletes to the President’s List by earning a 4.0, which was only surpassed in the spring. Additionally, 168 were named to the Dean’s List (3.5) and 424 to the Athletics Director’s Honor Roll (3.0).

South Carolina had 142 student-athletes make the 2019-20 First-Year SEC Academic Honor Roll, another record for the department. The Gamecocks lead the SEC for total honorees for the eighth time in the last decade, and now have eclipsed 100 student-athletes on this honor roll for three consecutive school years. The previous record for South Carolina was 127, from the 2018-19 school year.

All of the University of South Carolina’s eligible sports posted a multi-year APR score of 950 or better for the ninth-consecutive year, according to the NCAA’s Academic Progress Rate (APR) statistics. Thirteen sports recorded multi-year APR scores of 980 or better. Seven sports scored a perfect single-year score (1000) for the 2018-19 campaign. Men’s tennis led the pack in single-year improvements with a jump of 40 points from 2017-18 to 2018-19.

Volleyball registered a perfect single-year score for the sixth straight year. The Gamecock women’s basketball and volleyball teams led all South Carolina schools in 2018-19 Multi-year APR. An impressive five teams were recognized by the NCAA for earning multiyear Academic Progress Rates in the top 10 percent of all squads in each sport.

South Carolina ranked second among SEC schools in the latest Graduation Success Rate. The GSR measures the number of scholarship student-athletes that graduate within a six-year period of their initial full-time enrollment. The rates are based on student-athletes who entered college in the fall of 2012. South Carolina athletic teams had a 94 percent score, second only to Vanderbilt (97).

A total of 306 Gamecock student-athletes have earned their degrees during the last two years (since Spring 2018) – 79 following the 2020 spring semester, 31 following the 2019 fall semester, 78 following the 2019 spring semester, 26 following the 2018 fall semester and 92 following the 2018 spring semester.

“\nThe classroom achievements of our student-athletes are outstanding, especially when you consider how their academic instruction methods changed due to COVID-19. Their discipline and effort in taking care of their studies help make these successes happen.\n

Nine new members were inducted into the University of South Carolina Athletics Hall of Fame, sponsored by the Association of Lettermen, on October 17 at Colonial Life Arena. Since the University of South Carolina Athletics Hall of Fame was created in 1967, 187 members, including these nine, have been selected by the University of South Carolina Association of Lettermen.

Gary Binfield – Swimming (1986-89) Binfield was one of the greatest swimmers in South Carolina history and a 15-time All American. He competed in the 1988 summer Olympics for his home team, Great Britain. Upon graduation, Gary held the Carolina record in the 100m and 200m backstroke. He was the Metro Conference champion in the 200-yard backstroke and 200 individual medley in 1986.

Kristi Coggins – Women’s Golf (1994-2007) Coggins was the head women’s golf coach at South Carolina for 13 years, leading the Gamecocks to 12 trips to the postseason and six NCAA championship appearances. Coggins was named SEC Coach of the Year in 1999 and her 2002 team claimed its first SEC title. She mentored two players who are currently in the USC Hall of Fame, and four players who went on to the LPGA Tour as professionals.

Rashad Faison – Football (1999-2002) Named a Freshman All-American in 1999, Faison is the Carolina school record holder with 247 unassisted career tackles. A defensive back, Faison is seventh in total tackles with 349, 10th in tackles for loss with 27.5, and ranks fourth in school history with 25 career passes broken up.

Joe Grugan – Multi-Sport (1937-41) Grugan spent five different decades either playing, coaching or serving the University of South Carolina in an administrative role. He was a star running back in football from 1937-41 for Rex Enright. He was a star pitcher and outfielder in baseball for coach “Catfish” Smith. Following his military service during the war years, he returned to South Carolina to coach PE, which he did for 25 years. He also resurrected the USC intramural program, working as its director. Grugan served as the head baseball coach, tennis coach and golf coach, as well as assisting on the football and basketball staffs.

Marcus Lattimore – Football (2010-12) Despite an abbreviated career due to injury, Lattimore ranks sixth on the school’s all-time rushing list with 2,677 yards, and owns the school record for both rushing touchdowns (38) and touchdowns scored (41). His best season came as a freshman in 2010 when he rushed for 1,197 yards while being a unanimous selection as a Freshman All-American. He was a fourth-round pick by the San Francisco 49ers in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Cally Plummer – Volleyball (1998-2002) Plummer is one of just four Gamecocks in program history to be a four-time All-SEC performer. As a right-side attacker, Plummer is still the program’s all-time leader in career aces, and ranks fourth in career kills and fifth in career attacks. For her career she finished with 1,295 kills, 233 aces, 956 digs, and 270 blocks, and the Gamecocks made the NCAA tournament in all four of her seasons on the court.

Jim Schaper – Track & Field (1971-74) Schaper was a two-time All American in track and field. He ranked 10th in the world in the mile run, and still holds the school record in the 1,500 meters, the two-mile relay, and the distance medley relay. He was a member of the second NCAA Championship in Gamecock track and field history as a member of the 1974 NCAA Championship indoor two-mile relay. He won a gold medal in the AAU Championships in the sprint medley relay, and a silver medal in the 880-yard run against the Russians in Moscow in 1974.

Derick Urquhart – Baseball (1995-98) Urquhart played baseball at Carolina from 1995-98. He holds the Gamecock record with 223 runs scored in a career while owning a .332 batting average. He also ranks among the all-time career leaders in doubles (T6th-51), hits (T4th-265), RBIs (T7th-180) and total bases (5th). He is one of only seven players to hit for the cycle and the only one to do it twice.

Harry Wolf – Multi-Sport (1925-28) One of the more incredible athletes to ever attend the university, Wolf was a star in the late 1920s. During this era, the Gamecocks were members of the 22-school Southern Conference, of which 20 schools were future members of either the SEC or ACC. Wolf won the conference heavyweight boxing championship, was a member of the football and basketball teams and competed in the weight throws in track & field where he was the Southern Conference shot put champion.
• The team finished the shortened season at 12-4, including a 10-3 mark at home and on a five-game winning streak.
• Head Coach Mark Kingston picked up his 350th career win on the team’s final game of the season.
• Wes Clarke was named a Collegiate Baseball Newspaper Third Team All-American after leading the SEC with eight home runs to go along with 22 RBI.
• Brett Kerry was named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Watch List, awarded to the top relief pitcher in college baseball. Kerry was 2-0 with a save in six appearances in 2020.
• Dallas Beaver was named to the Buster Posey Award Watch List, given to the best catcher in college baseball. Beaver hit .256 with three doubles in 14 games this season.
• Carmen Mlodzinski was the 31st player selected in the MLB Draft, taken by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Carolina has had 6 players taken in the first 100 picks of a draft since 2014.
• Cam Tringali was named to the SEC’s Community Service Team on May 25. Tringali helped out with the Week of Giving at Heathwood Hall, helped host the Chapin Screaming Eagles at Founders Park and volunteered with the Ray Tanner Run.
• In the spring semester, the team posted a program-record 3.399 combined GPA.
After a 10-win season in SEC play, Carolina has 51 conference victories dating back to 2016. Only Kentucky (69) and Florida (54) have more during that stretch. The Gamecocks have reached double-figure conference wins in four of those five seasons.

Senior Maik Kotsar earned the first postseason honor of his career when he was named to the All-SEC Second Team by the league’s coaches in March. Kotsar had a career year in 2019-20, averaging career highs of 11.2 points, 6.3 rebounds, 1.1 blocks and 1.5 steals per game.

South Carolina led the SEC in field goal percentage defense, in 2019-20 holding opponents to just 39.3 percent from the floor. That mark ranked 18th nationally.

Freshman Jermaine Couisnard was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team by the conference coaches. His selection marks the second straight year Carolina has had a freshman selected to the squad and the fourth time under head coach Frank Martin. He led the team with 3.2 assists per game, and finished tied for ninth in the league with an assist to turnover ratio of 1.4.

2019-20 was another great season for the Gamecock defense. From 3-point range, opponents hit just 197-of-665 attempts (3rd in the SEC/19th nationally). Carolina forced 15.55 turnovers per contest, second in the SEC and 41st in the nation. Carolina held 13 opponents to under 40 percent from the field and five of those under 30 percent. And 16 Gamecock opponents were held to under 30 percent from 3-point range.

South Carolina defeated #9-ranked Virginia, 70-59, in Charlottesville on Dec. 22. It was the Gamecocks’ first win against a Top 10 opponent since defeating #10-ranked Auburn, 84-75, on Feb. 17, 2018, and the first road win over a Top-10 opponent since February 2016.
South Carolina finished the season ranked No. 1 in both national polls for the first time in program history. The Gamecocks’ 10 weeks atop the AP poll were the most of any team this season.

The Gamecocks are one of six programs in the country to appear in every AP Poll in the last four seasons and one of four in every AP Poll in the last seven seasons. In those seven seasons, South Carolina spent 22 weeks at No. 1 (second-most among the group) and 111 of the 136 weeks in the top 10.

South Carolina won its fifth SEC Tournament in the last six seasons for the best six-year run in SEC history.

The Gamecocks claimed their fifth SEC Regular-Season Championship in the last seven seasons, putting together their second 16-0 season during that stretch. The SEC has seen just four 16-0 conference records in history.

The unanimous National Coach of the Year, Dawn Staley became the first person to be named the Naismith Coach of the Year after previously earning the Naismith Player of the Year Trophy.

Senior Tyasha Harris and freshman Aliyah Boston were consensus All-America selections.

Boston was the unanimous National Freshman of the Year, becoming the first Gamecock to claim that award from any outlet, and also won the Lisa Leslie Award for best center in the country.

Harris and Boston were named to the All-SEC First Team, while senior Mikiah Herbert Harrigan was a second-team selection. Boston earned SEC Freshman of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year honors. Zia Cooke was also named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Harris was a finalist for all three national player of the year awards and won The Dawn Staley Award, which honors the nation’s guard who most exemplifies the traits of Staley as a player.

South Carolina led the nation in average attendance for the sixth-straight season, drawing 12,218 fans.
BEACH VOLLEYBALL

Despite the season being limited to just three weeks, the team came away with three wins over teams ranked in the top-15 nationally, a feat only accomplished two other times in program history over the course of a full season. The highlight came in a 3-2 upset of No. 4 Southern Cal on Feb. 29 at the Hilton Head Island Invitational.

SUCCESS ON THE SAND

- In the three weeks of play before the season was cut short, the Gamecocks played far and away the most difficult schedule in the country. Of the 12 teams played, 10 were ranked in the top-20 nationally and eight were ranked in the top-10. On top of that, the team didn’t get to play a single match at home.

- The team’s 5-7 final record still yielded three wins over teams ranked in the top 15 or higher nationally – something that the program had accomplished only two other times in its history.

- The 3-2 win over No. 4 Southern Cal on Feb. 29 was the program’s fourth win ever against a team ranked inside the top 10; the Gamecocks also defeated No. 14 Long Beach State and No. 10 Stetson in their March trip to California.

- In the team’s upset of Long Beach State, senior Katie Smith earned her 75th career dual win. She is now just one of three members of the program to ever surpass the 75-win milestone.

- Freshmen Ashley Brasfield and Kaeli Crews were named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association’s High School Beach All-America teams. The Gamecocks have five past or present honorees on the roster, and have six total in the six years the award has existed.

- Junior Jess Vastine earned the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) All-American Athlete Award in late March. It recognized her efforts with the indoor and beach volleyball teams. Vastine is the first-ever honoree for the Gamecock indoor program, and second for the beach volleyball program.

CONFERENCE: 1-3

SUCCESS ON THE COURSE

- The Gamecocks finished 45th in the final Golfstat Team Rankings in a shortened season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. South Carolina played in seven events (five fall, two spring) before play was stopped in March. There was no postseason or NCAA Championship for the first time since the NCAA sponsored a championship in 1939.
- The team had four top-five finishes, tallying a season scoring average of 285.43 – good for the third-best mark in program history.
- South Carolina had its best showing of the season at the J.T. Poston Invitational in the fall. The Gamecocks took second but were able to set the program 54-hole scoring record at 806 (-46) and also broke the 18-hole scoring record after shooting 264 (-20) in the second round of the event. Sophomore Ryan Hall was medalist for his first career win with a 54-hole total of 199 (-14) after tallying just the sixth sub-200, 54-hole score in school history. He became the 25th individual winner in Bill McDonald’s 14 seasons as head coach.
- Senior Jamie Wilson was Carolina’s top ranked golfer, at 59th in the Golfstat Individual Rankings. Wilson was named First Team All-SEC, PING Honorable Mention All-American and PING All-Southeast Region. He led the team in every major statistical category and finished in the top-15 five times in seven starts. Wilson’s 70.86 season scoring average was the fifth-lowest all-time at Carolina.
- Wilson, Hall and freshman Jack Wall all played in the U.S. Amateur in Bandon Dunes, Oregon.
- Senior Caleb Proveaux, junior Jack Parrott and junior Andrew Spiegler were named All-American Scholars by the Golf Coaches Association of America. The Gamecocks excelled in the classroom as a team as well, posting the highest single semester team GPA (3.760) in program history in the spring.
- Alumni Matt NeSmith advanced to the FedEx Cup Playoffs in his first full season on the PGA TOUR. He finished 93rd on the regular season points list after five top-25 finishes including his first career top-10 when he T-6th at the Puerto Rico Open. NeSmith made 13 cuts in 22 starts during the 2019-20 season.
The Gamecocks finished the abbreviated season ranked 7th in the final Golfstat Team Rankings and 10th in the Golfweek/Sagarin Team Rankings.

Freshman Pauline Roussin-Bouchard was Carolina’s top-ranked golfer in Golfstat (5th) and Golfweek/Sagarin (8th) rankings, while senior Ana Pelaez (39th in Golfstat/45th in Golfweek) and senior Lois Kaye Go (46th in Golfstat/47th in Golfweek) were also ranked in the Top 50.

Roussin-Bouchard earned First Team All-American honors from both the Women’s Golf Coaches Association and Golfweek, while Pelaez and Go both earned All-American Honorable Mention.

Go competed in the 2019 Southeast Asia games, helping her native Philippines take gold in the team competition and tying for fourth place in the individual tournament.

Roussin-Bouchard earned All-SEC first team and all-freshman honors, while senior Pelaez earned second team All-SEC distinction and freshman Smith Knaffle was named to the SEC community service team.

Go earned SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors for women’s golf and was named CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2019-20, earning a 4.0 GPA in accounting and finance.

Roussin-Bouchard closed out the year at No. 1 in the women’s amateur golf rankings and made the cut for the final Fall ANNIKA Award Watch List.

Pelaez took second at the Spanish Individual Women’s Championship in Valencia, Spain in July. The senior finished the weekend with an 8-under 280, four strokes behind the leader.
SOCORR - MEN'S

- The Gamecocks finished the season 7-9-2 with a 2-5 mark in Conference USA play.
- Carolina had impressive outings, defeating #13-ranked Florida International, 1-0, in the final home game of the season, and tying #20-ranked N.C. State, 0-0.
- Defender Frano Buhovac was named second-team All-CUSA and midfielder Logan Hitzeman and forward Brian Banahan were named third-team and also earned Freshman All-CUSA honors.
- Banahan finished his debut season as the team’s leading goal scorer, netting six during the season. Senior Tucker Monheimer followed close behind with five total goals on the year.
- Senior Luca Mayr was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team.

SUCCESS ON THE FIELD

The Gamecocks pulled off their best result in a key moment, upsetting No. 13 FIU in the final home game of the regular season to clinch a spot in the conference’s postseason tournament. Freshman Brian Banahan scored the match’s lone goal in the 51st minute.

• The Gamecocks finished the season with a 19-2-3 overall record, 7-0-3 in the SEC, and went to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championships.

• Carolina finished the season ranked 6th in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25 poll, the highest final ranking for the Gamecocks since placing 4th following the 2017 season.

• South Carolina won the 2019 SEC Tournament, the second time the Gamecocks have won the tournament (also in 2009). Grace Fisk was the tournament MVP while Jyllissa Harris, Sutton Jones and Mikayla Krzeczowski were also named to the All-Tournament team.

• Fisk was named the United Soccer Coaches Scholar Player of the Year, the award for the nation’s top Student-Athlete. Fisk (First Team), along with Krzeczowski (Second Team), were also named Scholar All-Americans.

• Fisk and Krzeczowski were named All-Americans by ESPNW and the United Soccer Coaches. Fisk was also named a semifinalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy, recognizing the nation’s top player.

• Krzeczowski’s 50 career shutouts makes her just the fifth goalkeeper in NCAA Division I (men’s or women’s) to reach that milestone and her 0.44 goals against average is the eighth best mark in NCAA Division I history.

• Elexa Bahr’s 21 points in 2019 led the team. She tied with Luciana Zullo for the lead in goals (6) and also added nine assists.

• South Carolina’s 43 goals this season is the most since 2016 (51) and the third time in five years they have reached at least 40 goals as a team

• South Carolina finished as the only team in the country who played at least 20 matches and allowed seven or less goals.

SUCCESS ON THE field

The Gamecocks went undefeated in the SEC regular season and then took down No. 6 Arkansas for the SEC Tournament title in the postseason. The Carolina defense totaled six consecutive shutouts in the postseason (SEC tournament and NCAA tournament).

For the fourth-straight year, South Carolina softball closed the season ranked in the top-25 polls. With a 17-6 record following the conclusion of the shortened season, Carolina closed the 2020 campaign at No. 15 in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll and tied at No. 15 in the ESPN/USA Softball Rankings.

In home games, the team finished 14-1 overall.

The Gamecocks have been ranked in every poll since Feb. 23, 2018. This marks the first time since 2001 Carolina opened and closed back-to-back seasons ranked while the four-straight years having appeared in the final coaches poll of the season is the longest streak in program history dating back to 1995 when the NFCA Coaches Poll started.

Karsen Ochs was named SEC Freshman of the Week for her efforts in the Gamecock Invitational (3-0 record, complete game shutout vs. #8 Michigan).

Kelsey Oh was named SEC Pitcher of the Week for her performance in the Carolina Classic (Feb. 7-9). She was 3-0 for the weekend with 22 strikeouts and just one extra-base hit allowed.

Mackenzie Boesel and Kenzi Maguire were named 2020 Academic All-Americans, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). This marks the first time since 1989 Carolina has had multiple Academic All-America honors in the same year and just the second time ever. It’s the fourth-straight year the Gamecocks have had at least one selection, the longest streak in program history.

Boesel joins Ashley Smith (2003-06) as the only student-athletes in program history to be named Academic All-Americans three times. She’s the first in Carolina’s history to earn multiple first-team selections.

South Carolina introduced its new state-of-the-art video board from Daktronics. The board features industry-leading through-hole LED technology at 13HD pixel spacing to provide exceptional image clarity and contrast. It measures 20.5 feet high by 36 feet wide and is capable of live video, instant replays, up-to-the-minute statistics, graphics and animations, and sponsorship messages.
Itay Goldfaden won the 100 breaststroke at the SEC championship for the second year in a row, and was one of three members of the men’s program to earn CSCAA All-America honors in 2019-20.

SUCCESS IN THE POOL

- Itay Goldfaden won the 100 breaststroke at the SEC Championships for the second year in a row. He is the first back-to-back SEC breaststroke champion since 16-17.
- Carolina had three CSCAA All-Americans in 2019-20, including Goldfaden (100 breaststroke), sophomore Lewis Burras (50 and 100 freestyle) and sophomore Anton Down-Jenkins (1-meter and 3-meter diving).
- Goldfaden was named first-team All-SEC while Burras earned second-team recognition after finishing third in the 50 freestyle.
- Down-Jenkins was named the SEC Male Diver of the Week twice this fall, after sweeping the 1-meter and 3-meter diving competitions against N.C. State, followed by the same results against North Carolina.
- While it was ultimately canceled, three Gamecocks qualified for the NCAA championships in five total events; Goldfaden, Burras and Down-Jenkins.
- Senior Lionel Khoo won a Gold medal for team Singapore at the 2019 Southeast Asian Games in the 50m Breaststroke with a record time of 28.15.

Five members of the team and two relay groups earned invitations to the NCAA Championships, which were ultimately cancelled due to the outbreak of the Coronavirus in March.

SUCCESS IN THE POOL

- Five members of the team earned invitations to the 2020 NCAA Championships; sophomore Hallie Kinsey, freshman Taylor Steele and seniors Albury Higgs, Christina Lappin and Emily Cornell. The Gamecocks also qualified to race in two relay events.
- Steele (100 breaststroke), Higgs (100 and 200 breaststroke), Kinsey (200 butterfly), Lappin (100 butterfly) and Cornell (200 freestyle) were named CSCAA All-Americans in the postseason.
- Steele was named to the SEC All-Freshman team after reaching the A-final of the 100 breaststroke in her first championship meet.
- Lappin broke the 100 butterfly school record at the Georgia Tech invite with a time of 52.43.
The team earned its first berth in the ITA National Team Championships in 14 years during the indoor season, upsetting No. 19 Georgia to earn a bid. Paul Jubb clinched the 4-3 win with a three-set win on court one.

SUCCESS ON THE COURT

- Reigning NCAA individual champion Paul Jubb became the first Gamecock ever to win the ITA National Arthur Ashe, Jr., Leadership and Sportsmanship Award.
- The Gamecocks advanced to the ITA National Team Indoor Championships for the first time since 2006, knocking off #19 Georgia, 4-3. Jubb provided the clinching point with a 4-6, 6-4, 6-0 comeback on court one, ending a comeback that erased Georgia’s 3-1 lead in the dual’s team score.
- Three Gamecocks finished the shortened season ranked among the top 50 in singles – Jubb (No. 40), Raphael Lambling (No. 45) and Daniel Rodrigues (No. 46). Lambling and Rodrigues combined to form the No. 30 doubles team in the country with Jubb and freshman Connor Thomson coming in at No. 41 in the final rankings.

The group was on a hot streak entering conference play before the season was cut short from the outbreak of the Coronavirus. South Carolina had won five duals in a row, including four against SEC rivals all ranked in the top 50 nationally, before the season ended in early March.

SUCCESS ON THE COURT

- Emma Shelton took home SEC Freshman of the Week honors in February.
- Shelton was also named the ITA Carolina Region Rookie of the Year, the first Gamecock to win the award since 2006.
- Megan Davies ended the season as the highest ranked Gamecock at No. 25 in singles and was ranked as high as 20th during the spring.
- Horvit held a No. 39 singles ranking and ascended as high as 25th.
- Shelton went undefeated in singles during the spring with an 11-0 record and ended the season with a career-high No. 92 ranking.
- The Gamecocks had two ranked doubles teams with Silvia Chinellato/Shelton topping the list at No. 24, and Davies/Horvit checking in at No. 77. Chinellato and Shelton were ranked as high as No. 12 in the spring.

CONFERENCE: 4-0

- The Gamecocks’ shortened season ended with South Carolina ranked No. 19 nationally.
- South Carolina was off to a 4-0 start in the SEC when the season ended, one of only two undefeated teams in the SEC through the first two weeks of conference play.
- The Gamecocks won their sixth match in a row over rival Clemson, matching the longest win streak in school history against the Tigers.
- Mia Horvit was named UTR/ITA National Player of the Week and SEC Player of the Week right before the season ended.

SUCCESS ON THE TRACK

While the indoor national championship and the entire outdoor season was canceled due to the outbreak of the Coronavirus, Stephanie Davis provided a highlight with a silver medal in the 400m at the SEC Championships. Her time was the fifth-fastest indoor quarter mile finish in program history.
Volleyball finished the season at 20-12 overall and 11-7 in the SEC. The conference win total is the most since 2008, and this season marks the second year in a row with 20 wins after not achieving it since 2001-02.

Prior to this, the program had never won 20 matches and a postseason contest in back-to-back seasons in its 47-year history. Head coach Tom Mendoza is the first South Carolina head coach ever to win 20 games and make the postseason in their first two seasons as coach.

Senior Mikayla Shields made program history, earning a spot on the American Volleyball Coaches Association's Division I All-America third team. Shields is the first Gamecock in the program's 47 seasons to make one of the three All-America teams. In the program's all-time history, Shields ranks in the top 10 in kills, attacks, hitting percentage and points, and cracked 1,500 career kills.

Shields and Mikayla Robinson made the All-SEC team and also earned AVCA All-Southeast honors. Shields is the program's first three-time All-SEC honoree since 2006, Robinson collected her second all-conference honor.

In SEC matches only, Robinson totaled 96 blocks, more than any conference rival despite the team playing the second-fewest sets (61) in SEC play. Those 96 blocks in conference matches only are more than any member of the program in the rally-scoring era, she also set the record for solo blocks (18).

Senior Courtney Koehler surpassed Taylor Bruns' record for most assists in the rally-scoring era (since 2001), and against Auburn on Nov. 24 she passed 3,500 career assists. Only four other Gamecocks in the program's 47-year history have reached 3,500. The four-year starter finished her career ranked fourth in the program's all-time history for assists.

Senior Claire Edwards finished her career on a high note, with her best season totals in kills, blocks, hitting percentage and service aces. The Columbia, S.C. native moved to sixth in career hitting percentage, third in solo blocks, fourth in total blocks and seventh in matches played in the rally-scoring era by the end of the season.

Senior Mikayla Shields made program history, earning a spot on the American Volleyball Coaches Association's Division I All-America third team. Shields is the first Gamecock in the program's 47 seasons to make one of the three All-America teams. In the program's all-time history, Shields ranks in the top 10 in kills, attacks, hitting percentage and points, and cracked 1,500 career kills.

Shields and Mikayla Robinson made the All-SEC team and also earned AVCA All-Southeast honors. Shields is the program's first three-time All-SEC honoree since 2006, Robinson collected her second all-conference honor.

South Carolina reached the NCAA Tournament for the second year in a row and defeated 10th-ranked Colorado State in the opening round. It was the highest-ranked opponent the Gamecocks defeated since Sept. 17, 2006, when it won against 6th-ranked Florida. It also clinched the program's first back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since 2001-02.
