SOUTH CAROLINA'S WINNINGEST COACH

NFCA Hall of Fame Member Joyce Compton

A legendary figure in the softball world, Joyce Compton retired following the 2010 season after 24 years at the University of South Carolina, while helping take the program to the Women's College World Series twice and to NCAA tournaments on 13 occasions.

Inducted into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2002, Compton was instrumental in the Southeastern Conference adopting softball as a sport in the mid 1990's. Once established, Compton's teams won four Eastern Division titles, two SEC Tournament trophies and the 1997 SEC Championship, the first season of the league's existence. Her record at South Carolina closed at 951-486-4 (.661), the winningest coach in South Carolina Athletics history.

Under her guidance, 11 Gamecocks earned a total of 21 All-America plaques, 28 earned 62 All-Region honors, while 12 garnered 15 All-SEC honors over the first 14 years of conference play. One player won the Honda Award, which goes to the most outstanding player in softball. Twice, Compton coached the SEC Player of the Year, while she mentored the SEC Female Athlete of the Year once.

The matriarch of SEC softball, Compton twice was named the SEC Coach of the Year, while she earned five Region Coach of the Year awards at South Carolina. Her teams performed well in the classroom as well, with 142 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections coming since 1997.

With an NCAA Division I record of 1,066-563-4, Compton ranked 10th among all NCAA softball coaches regardless of division and ninth in Division I history when she retired. In four years at Missouri, she went to the Women's College World Series once while claiming the Tigers' first Big 8 title.

Four times, her teams won an NCAA regional, three of those during her tenure at South Carolina.

"I have been fortunate to have had the pleasure to coach so many great players but more importantly great people in my 24 years as a Gamecock," Compton said. "My success is only because of these players, and I want to thank them. I take with me many great memories, and I will always treasure the friends that I have made not just here but throughout the softball community."

A New Jersey native, Compton began her coaching career at Mattatuck Community College, going 93-19 in seven seasons there. She earned coach of the year accolades five times. In 35 years as a head coach, Compton compiled a record of 1,159-582-3.

"Joyce has been a staple in the South Carolina Athletics Department for nearly a quarter of a century," South Carolina Director of Athletics Eric Hyman said. "A Hall of Fame coach, her career numbers speak for themselves. One of the top 10 coaches in the history of college softball and the winningest coach this school has ever known, Joyce is well-known and highly respected by her peers and throughout the softball circuit. We wish her the all the best in her retirement."

Some national marks her players have set still stand today. Tricia Popowski set the NCAA Division I record for triples in her career at Carolina under Compton, while Trinity Johnson holds the nation's record with 12 consecutive shutouts. The longest winning streak for a team in NCAA Division I history was compiled by her 1997 squad, who won 38 straight games during that magical season.

What Others Had to Say about Compton:

"Joyce Compton has been one of the leaders in our sport for the past 30 years. For me personally, I've known her and worked with her for a number of years. She has been a big influence on me with the way I coach and the way I run our program. It's sad to see a day like today come, but she has had a wonderful career and has been great for the game of softball, especially softball in the SEC. She will definitely be missed." - Jay Miller, former HC of USWNT.

"Joyce Compton has had a long and distinguished legacy in our sport. We should all be cognizant of her contribution as a player and a coach to the game of softball. A pioneer of the game, no one should forget how she fought to keep South Carolina softball when other schools were dropping the sport. She has been my longest and dearest friend in the coaching profession. Our sport and I will miss seeing Joyce at the ballpark." - Yvette Girouard, former LSU head coach

"Not only has Coach Compton had a major impact on SEC softball, she has also been such a big influence in my life. Coach has played a major role in shaping the type of person, player and coach that I am today. Not only was she able to pull the best out of me on the field, but she also taught me the value of hard work, perseverance and discipline. Those are lessons that stay with me every day. I am honored to have played for her at South Carolina. She will be greatly missed in the softball community." - Megan Matthews Buning, former South Carolina All-American

"Joyce gave SEC softball instant credibility when the league started playing back in 1997. It would have been a much tougher beginning without her in the league. She brought a powerhouse team to an eventual powerhouse league, and all of us now are very grateful to her and her great career. Joyce has been a very good friend and mentor during my 12 years at Bama, and I will certainly miss her." - Patrick Murphy, Alabama head coach

THE HISTORY OF BECKHAM FIELD

There is a plot of land that is nestled just off of Marion Street in Columbia, S.C., that since 1983 has served as the home of Gamecock softball. Though the actual field has been altered a couple of times, the area where Beckham Field sits has been the site of many memorable Gamecock softball moments over the years. The site is the oldest in the Southeastern Conference and among the oldest in the sport.

Lady Gamecock Field became part of the Roost footprint in the 1980s, with home plate near the current left field bullpen area during its original orientation. The field was rotated 90 degrees to have the plate closer to the Sarge Frye Field left-field corner in 1986, the configuration the stadium stayed in through 1996. The plate moved forward to its current placement in 1997, as new stands for 500 fans, lights and an updated press box were added to the venue. In 1998, the site was renamed Beckham Field, in honor of David and Mitzi Beckham. Loyal Gamecock fans, the couple rarely miss a game at the field and occupied seats on the top row of the facility just in front of the press box in its previous setup.

Even since the incarnation of Beckham Field in 1998, the stadium has continually been updated. The stands above the dugouts were constructed in time for the 1999 season, the same year that the dedication ceremony was held. In 2004, Beckham Field continued to expand with the addition of a 42' x 100' covered hitting facility. Fans enjoyed a new Daktronics scoreboard in 2008, while in 2009, nearly 700 permanent seats from old Sarge Frye Field were installed in the grandstand.

Beckham Field hosted seven NCAA Regionals, including one in 2007 that saw the fourth-seeded Gamecocks take out top-seeded North Carolina State and nationally-ranked Oregon to advance to Super Regionals for the first time since that round was introduced. In 2002, the Gamecocks compiled a record of 28 wins at Beckham Field, most in program history at home. That same year, the Gamecocks claimed the program's 1,000th win as they defeated top-ranked UCLA in NCAA Regional action.

In 30 years on the site, the Gamecocks have posted an impressive 525-198-2 (.726) home record. In the 1997 NCAA Regional, a record 2,250 fans watched the Gamecocks capture the regional championship. The attendance number was the highest single-game crowd of any of the eight NCAA Regionals that year.
