The 2022 South Carolina Spring Football Media Guide was published by the University of South Carolina Athletics Communications and Public Relations Office. The spring media guide was written, designed and edited by Steve Fink, Associate Athletics Director/Communications and Public Relations, with assistance provided by Michael DeBates and Kent Reichert. Information is based on that available as of March 11, 2022.

The University of South Carolina does not discriminate in educational or employment opportunities on the basis of race, sex, gender, age, color, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, genetics, veteran status, pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions.

The 2022 edition of South Carolina Football begins with an optimism that hasn't been seen in Columbia in several years.

The Gamecocks, in the second year of the Shane Beamer Era, are coming off a 7-6 campaign, which included November wins over traditional SEC powers Florida and Auburn, along with a convincing victory over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. The experts had put the over/under win total at three-and-a-half prior to the start of the season after the Gamecocks could muster just six wins over the previous two seasons combined.

By winning twice as many games as predicted, the year culminated with Coach Beamer earning a share of the Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach of the Year Award, as selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

That success, along with Coach Beamer's infectious personality and positive vibe, has instilled a quiet confidence around the Long Family Football Operations Center, and a "buy-in" in the community. It has also removed much of the doubt that comes when a first-time head coach is hired, wondering if he is up for the challenge of coaching in the nation's toughest conference. The upward trajectory of the program has manifested in a solid recruiting class, along with a handful of high-level transfers that want to be part of the culture that Coach Beamer and his staff are building in Columbia.

Some of the national pundits are beginning to take notice as well, as the Gamecocks have entered the conversation as a pre-season top-25 team, according to some "way too early" prognostications.

But Coach Beamer is the first to acknowledge that, while seven wins was a step in the right direction following a two-win campaign in 2020, it's not the end goal. There is much work to be done to get the Gamecocks back to the level that he experienced while working as an assistant under Steve Spurrier a little more than a decade ago.

A pair of changes have been made to the coaching staff, as Coach Beamer hired Sterling Lucas and Jody Wright, two coaches with both college and NFL experience, to join his staff. Lucas, an Orangeburg, S.C. native who played his college ball at NC State, will coach the outside linebackers and defensive ends. Wright, who garnered several championship rings while serving a pair of stints on Nick Saban's staff at Alabama, will mentor the tight ends.

After a couple of months in the weight room with strength & conditioning coach Luke Day, the Gamecocks will take to the practice fields for the first of their 15 allotted spring practices on Tuesday, March 15. The 112 players on the spring roster includes 54 returning letterwinners (25 on offense, 24 on defense and five specialists), 13 of a possible 24 returning starters (seven on offense, five on defense and one specialist), six scholarship transfer players and seven of the 21 incoming freshmen from the 2022 signing class.

While depth remains an issue at some positions, the roster has undergone a complete makeover in just a year, and the talent level has been upgraded across the board.

The key returners from the offensive side of the ball include everyone from the offensive line, featuring multiple-year starters Jovaughn Gwyn, Eric Douglas and Dylan Wonnum, along with skill position standouts in tight end Jaheim Bell and wide receiver Josh Vann, along with Duke's Mayo Bowl MVP Dakereon Joyner.

The defense has talent at all three levels, and will be led by defensive tackle Zacch Pickens, the squad's top returning tackler in linebacker Brad Johnson, and All-SEC cornerback Cam Smith. Sherrod Greene also returns to bolster the linebacking corps after suffering a season-ending injuries early in both the 2020 and 2021 campaigns.

Freshman All-SEC all-purpose back and return specialist Juju McDowell and two-year starting punter Kai Kroeger lead the special teams units that made significant improvement a year ago.

Six mid-year transfers are all expected to make an immediate impact in 2022. Quarterback Spencer Rattler headlines the group. Rattler was a pre-season Heisman candidate at Oklahoma a year ago. A pair of running backs in Christian Beal-Smith (Wake Forest) and Lovasea Carroll (Georgia) replace the one-two punch of Kevin Harris and ZaQuandre White from a year ago. Antwane Wells Jr. (James Madison) provides another play-making threat at wide receiver. On the defensive side of the ball, Terrell Dawkins (NC State) joins Jordan Burch and Jordan Strachan at the EDGE position, while Devonni Reed (Central Michigan) should help shore up the secondary following the departure of All-American safety Jaylan Foster.

The Gamecocks once again have a difficult schedule to navigate as they hope to contend for a spot in Atlanta and the 2022 SEC Championship game. The schedule features home conference games against defending national champion Georgia, Texas A&M, Missouri and Tennessee, while Carolina will travel to Arkansas, Kentucky, Vanderbilt and Florida for SEC contests.

The non-conference slate includes a season-opening match with former Gamecock assistant coach Shawn Elliott and Georgia State, the first-ever gridiron meeting with Charlotte and a date with FCS South Carolina State, all at home, along with the annual regular-season finale with Clemson.

Offense

2021 Statistics

Scoring Offense	22.6 (13/104)
Rushing Offense	135.6 (11/93)
Passing Offense	201.2 (13/95)
Total Offense	336.8 (13/111)

Offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Marcus Satterfield would be the first to admit that the Carolina offense struggled at times last year and needs to be more consistent in moving the ball and scoring points. However, no one else in the country had four different starting quarterbacks lead their team to a win in 2021 like Satterfield and the Gamecocks did. Spencer Rattler, a Heisman hopeful a year ago, figures to upgrade the quarterback room that includes Luke Doty, who came out of the spring a year ago as the projected starter. The transfer tandem of Christian Beal-Smith and Lovasea Carroll replace Kevin Harris and ZaQuandre White, who both earned NFL Combine invitations, at running back, and will compete with MarShawn Lloyd and Juju McDowell for the bulk of the carries in a deep and talented backfield. Versatile Jaheim Bell and Traveon Kenion are the top returners at tight end, a position that will add Oklahoma transfer Austin Stogner in the fall. Josh Vann returns following a breakout season last year at wide receiver. Transfer Antwane Wells Jr. joins the receiving corps that has shown glimpses, but is otherwise mostly unproven outside of Vann. Dakereon Joyner is coming off an MVP performance in the Duke's Mayo Bowl, and has to be accounted for as a playmaker. The offensive line has everyone returning, including multi-year starters Jovaughn Gwyn, Eric Douglas and Dylan Wonnum, along with Vershon Lee, Jazston Turnetine and Tyshawn Wannamaker, who all started multiple games last season. That group as a whole is positioned to take a big step forward this season.

Defense

2021 Statistics

Scoring Defense	24.0 (7/46)
Rushing Defense	175.0 (11/94)
Passing Defense	180.8 (1/7)
Total Defense	355.8 (6/41)

Under the tutelage of defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach Clayton White, the Gamecock defense made tremendous strides a year ago and will look to build on that improvement this season. Carolina surrendered 24.0 points per game in 2021, down from 36.0 points in 2020. The unit loses EDGE rusher Kingsley "JJ" Enagbare, considered an early round pick in the 2022 NFL Draft, along with All-American safety Jaylan Foster. Five starters return, including three defensive backs - cornerbacks Cam Smith and Darius Rush, and safety R.J. Roderick - to a unit that led the SEC and ranked seventh in the country in passing defense. That unit adds Central Michigan graduate transfer Devonni Reed, who is expected to fill the void left by Foster's graduation. Zacch Pickens is a stalwart in the middle of the defensive line and is an all-league caliber player. Ubertalented Jordan Burch, Jordan Strachan, who led the nation in sacks two years ago, and NC State transfer Terrell Dawkins figure to provide pressure off the edge. The linebacking corps will get a boost with the return of Sherrod Greene, who was sidelined with an injury for much of the 2021 campaign, along with Brad Johnson, who was second on the team in tackles in 2021.

Special Teams

2021 Statistics

Kickoff Returns	24.0 (5/24)
Kick Return Defense	18.2 (4/25)
Punt Returns	7.6 (9/74)
Punt Return Defense	11.6 (12/120)
Net Punting	40.1 (6/52)

All phases of the Gamecock special teams, under the guidance of Pete Lembo, were vastly improved last year, but Lembo will need to find a replacement for placekicker Parker White, a five-year starter who graduated as the school's all-time leading scorer. White will be hard to replace, as he missed just one kick all season in 2021. Mitch Jeter has waited his turn for that role while serving as the kickoff specialist for the past two years and may be the guy to beat for the starting nod. The punting chores are in the capable hands (and left foot) of junior Kai Kroeger. Kroeger, a Freshman All-SEC selection in 2020, boomed a pair of 70-yard punts last season. Kroeger is also one of the best in the country as a holder on placements. Matthew Bailey and Hunter Rogers shared the snapping duties last year, with Bailey working with the field goal team and Rogers serving as the long snapper on punts. Juju McDowell earned Freshman All-SEC honors as a return specialist last year and will be a candidate for those duties again in 2022.

CLASS DISTINCTION: The SEC student-athlete classification subgroup recommended that schools advance student-athletes forward on their rosters as usual, adding a year on at the end of their eligibility. This more closely mirrors academic progress and is also consistent with criteria for a number of awards. Advancing a student-athlete also includes advancing him to the designation of redshirt freshman redshirt sophomore, etc.

IT JUST MEANS MORE: The 2022 season will mark South Carolina's 31st year in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina and Arkansas joined the SEC prior to the 1992 campaign. The Gamecocks earned the SEC Eastern Division title in the 2010 season. The Gamecocks are 102-139-1 (.424) all-time in SEC regular-season play, but posted a 42-38 (.525) record in conference action from 2010-19.

2021 IN REVIEW: South Carolina concluded its 128th season of intercollegiate football in 2021 with a record of 7-6, including a 3-5 mark in the SEC. In Shane Beamer's first year at the helm, the Gamecocks posted wins over traditional SEC powers Florida and Auburn in the regular season, and capped the season with a convincing 38-21 win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. Coming off a two-win campaign in 2020 and with just six wins total over the previous two seasons, the Gamecocks went into the 2021 season expected by the "experts" to win just 3.5 games on the season, but doubled that total with seven wins.

MAYO BATH: South Carolina dominated the North Carolina Tar Heels by a 38-21 margin in the Duke's Mayo Bowl, held in Charlotte, N.C., on Dec. 30. Dakereon Joyner, making his first start at quarterback in 2021, earned MVP honors after completing all nine of his passes for 160 yards and rushing 10 times for 64 yards. Kevin Harris rushed 31 times for 182 yards and a score. Tight end Jaheim Bell caught five passes for 159 yards, including touchdown catches of 69- and 66-yards on the Gamecocks' first two possessions. The Gamecocks rolled up a bowl-record 543 yards in the rout that matched the two boardering flagship state universities. To celebrate the win, head coach Shane Beamer was doused with a huge jar of mayonnaise.

BEAMER HONORED: Shane Beamer was recognized as the co-Steve Spurrier First-Year Head Coach of the Year, as selected by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), sharing the honors with Tennessee head coach Josh Heupel. Beamer tied the Carolina school record for wins by a first-year head coach with seven.

WHO'S NEW: The Gamecocks introduced two new assistant coaches who are joining the staff for the 2022 campaign. Sterling Lucas will coach the outside linebackers and defensive ends, replacing Mike Peterson, while Jody Wright has been hired to coach the tight ends, replacing Erik Kimrey. Both Lucas and Wright come most recently from NFL stints. Lucas has spent the past six years with the Ravens and Jaguars, while Wright has spent the past three seasons with the Browns and Giants.

BREAKING IT DOWN: The 112-man spring roster consists of two grad transfers, one other grad student, 15 "Super Seniors" (including the two grad transfers), 13 seniors, 26 juniors, 27 sophomores, 22 redshirt freshmen and eight true freshmen.

CLASS DISTINCTION: The SEC student-athlete classification subgroup recommended that schools advance student-athletes forward on their rosters as usual, adding a year on at the end of their eligibility. This more closely mirrors academic progress and is also consistent with criteria for a number of awards. Advancing a student-athlete also includes advancing him to the designation of redshirt freshman redshirt sophomore, etc.

THEY'RE BACK: The Gamecocks welcome 54 returning letterwinners to begin the 2022 spring session. The lettermen consist of 25 offensive players, 24 on defense and five special teams players.

RETURNING STARTERS: The Gamecocks list 13 returning starters of a possible 24 (offense, defense, punter, placekicker) from the 2021 squad, seven on offense, five on defense and one specialist. The returning offensive starters are OC Eric Douglas, RG Jovaughn Gwyn, WR Dakereon Joyner, LG Vershon Lee, LT Jazston Turnetine, WR Josh Vann and RT Tyshawn Wannamaker. The returning defensive starters are LB Brad Johnson, DT Zacch Pickens, S R.J. Roderick, CB Darius Rush, and CB Cam Smith. The specialist P Kai Kroeger.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN: The Gamecocks said good-bye to 25 letterwinners including 11 starters off last year's team, four on offense, six on defense and one specialist. The departed starters include WR Jalen Brooks, RB Kevin Harris, TE Nick Muse, and QB Zeb Noland on the offensive side of the ball, and DT Jabari Ellis, EDGE Kingsley Enagbare, S Jaylan Foster, N Carlins Platel, LB Damani Staley and DE Aaron Sterling on defense. Carolina also lost its all-time leading scorer in PK Parker White.

EVERY TIME OUT: The Gamecocks had eight players start all 13 games in 2021 including OC Eric Douglas, RG Jovaughn Gwyn, and TE Nick Muse on offense, and DT Jabari Ellis, S Jaylan Foster, LB Brad Johnson, DT Zacch Pickens, and DE Aaron Sterling on defense. Gwyn (34-consecutive starts), Douglas (23), Pickens (19) and Johnson (13) return in 2022.

IT'S A NUMBERS GAME: Carolina returns 37 percent of its rushing yards, 46 percent of its passing yards and 73 percent of its receiving yards from 2021. Juju McDowell (248 yards) and MarShawn Lloyd (228 yards) are the top returning rushers, while Josh Vann (679 yards) and Jaheim Bell (497 yards) are the top returning receivers. The Gamecocks top returning passer is Luke Doty (975 yards). Six of the squad's top 10 tacklers return for the 2022 season, including Brad Johnson (74 tackles), R.J. Roderick (64) and Cam Smith (41 tackles). Jordan Strachan (6.0 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks) and Zacch Pickens (5.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks) are the top returners in those two categories, while Cam Smith recorded three interceptions and 11 pass breakups a year ago.

SUPER SENIORS: The Gamecocks list 15 players whose eligibility would have expired had not the NCAA allowed the 2020 season to be a "free" year. Those "super" seniors are RB Christian Beal-Smith, DL Devonte Davis, OL Eric Douglas, DL Keem Green, LB Sherrod Greene, WR E.J. Jenkins, LB Brad Johnson, DB Devonni Reed, DB R.J. Roderick, EDGE Jordan Strachan, WR Chad Terrell, OL Jazston Turnetine, WR Josh Vann, DL M.J. Webb, and OL Dylan Wonnun. Beal-Smith (Wake Forest) and Reed (Central Michigan) are grad transfers.

ONE FOR THE THUMB: With the NCAA rule allowing for an extra year, five Gamecocks - OL Eric Douglas, LB Brad Johnson, DB R.J. Roderick, WR Josh Vann and OL Dylan Wonnun - can become five-year letterwinners. Last year, LB Damani Staley, EDGE Aaron Sterling and PK Parker White become the first players in school history to letter five times in their career.

TOP-10 FACILITIES: 247Sports.com ranked South Carolina's football facilities seventh in the country in 2022. Here's what the website said:

South Carolina has made one of the biggest jumps in our facilities ranking in recent years after debuting at No. 22 in 2016. The Gamecocks have one of college football's nicest football buildings — the 110,000-square foot, $50 million Cyndi and Kenneth Long Family Football Operations Center. The main entrance into the building opens into a two-story lobby with a 20-foot high "Block C" logo with several interesting features. The lobby includes a display of Georgia Rogers' Heisman Trophy and displays for bowl trophies.

Several interactive screens throughout the lobby of the ops center document the history of the the program. South Carolina's "Build Your Legacy" corridor connects all of the main spaces on the first floor from the player entry to the locker room to the training room to the weight room. The primary nutrition area located at the heart of the building allows for constant interaction with athletes and staff for nutritional guidance. The 20,000-square foot, two-story weight room includes custom weight racks and a variety of strength training equipment. There's a recording studio, too.

The Gamecocks' updated digs are jaw-dropping. The players lounge located within the locker room includes TVs and video game areas, a 15-seat movie theater with reclining seats and surround sound, a video arcade room and a sound studio. Also, within the locker room is a barbershop named "Spur-cuts."

ENROLLING EARLY: The Gamecocks' spring roster features seven high school recruits who graduated a semester early and enrolled in time for spring drills in 2022. Here is the list of the Gamecocks who have enrolled early since 2006:

CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN: Offensive guard Jovaughn Gwyn returns after being one of five permanent team captains from the 2021 squad. The other permanent captains named for the 2021 season were Jabari Ellis, Kingsley Enagbare, Jaylan Foster and Parker White. In addition, linebacker Brad Johnson returns after being one of four permanent team captains from the 2020 squad.

LOOKING AHEAD: The Gamecocks will open the 2022 season on Sept. 3 versus Georgia State and former South Carolina assistant coach/interim head coach Shawn Elliott. They will open SEC play the following week on the road at Arkansas, their first trip to Razorback Country since 2013. The annual border-war matchup with the Georgia Bulldogs is set for Columbia on Sept. 17, the first of three-straight home games for the Gamecocks. A pair of non-conference games are up next, as Carolina will host Charlotte and South Carolina State on Sept. 24 and Oct. 1, respectively. It will be the first meeting ever between the Gamecocks and 49ers, and just the third meeting ever and first since 2009 with the in-state Bulldogs from Orangeburg. The next six games are all SEC contests, as Carolina travels to Kentucky (Oct. 8), hosts Texas A&M (Oct. 22) and Missouri (Oct. 29), travels to Vanderbilt (Nov. 5) and Florida (Nov. 12), before wrapping up the conference slate with Tennessee on Nov. 19. The annual Palmetto State matchup with Clemson is set for Nov. 26 in the update.

2022 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME • DECEMBER 3 • MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA

COACHING STAFF

Full Name: Shane Oakley Beamer
Born: March 31, 1977 in Charleston, S.C.
Hometown: Blacksburg, Va.
Wife: Emily
Children: Sutton, Olivia and Hunter
High School: Blacksburg (1995)
College: Virginia Tech (1999)
 Tennessee (2003)

Beamer had a successful first season in Columbia, improving the Gamecocks by 3.5 games, from a 2-8 season in 2020 to a 7-6 campaign in 2021, including a convincing win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. Doubling the preseason's expected win total earned Coach Beamer a share of the Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach of the Year Award, presented by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). Safety Jaylan Foster earned All-America honors during Beamer's inaugural season.

Prior to his first head coaching stint, Beamer had been an assistant coach at seven Football Bowl Subdivision schools for 21 seasons. During his assistant coaching career he coached in 17 bowl games, including a College Football Playoff National Championship Game, posted 18 non-losing seasons, six of those with double-digit victories, and his teams won 63.0 percent of its games.

Beamer has been a part of building programs throughout his career. He has been a part of three coaching staffs, where the head coach was in his first or second season at the school. He joined Sylvester Croom's staff at Mississippi State in his first season, Kirby Smart's program at Georgia in his first season, and Lincoln Riley's unit at Oklahoma in his second season.

He came to Carolina from Oklahoma, where he most recently served as the assistant head coach for offense, coaching tight ends and H-backs, for three seasons. In 2020, Oklahoma ranked sixth in the country in scoring (43.0), 11th in total offense (494.7) and 14th in passing offense (315.0). The Sooners led the nation in yards per play (8.0) and ranked third in total offense (537.6) and fourth in passing efficiency rating (187.0) in 2019. Oklahoma led the nation in total offense (570.3), scoring offense (48.4) and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), and ranked second in passing efficiency rating (194.9) in 2018.

The Charleston, S.C. native, returned to one of his previous coaching stops, having been with the Gamecocks for four seasons from 2007-10. In 2007, he served as the outside linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator. He mentored the cornerbacks in 2008, then coached the Spurs and strong safeties and was both the special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2009 and 2010 under Steve Spurrier.

In 2009 at South Carolina, Beamer was nominated for the Frank Broyles Award, which goes annually to the nation's top assistant coach. His special teams' units recorded five blocked kicks that season, tying for the SEC lead and tying for the eighth-highest total in the nation. He also helped coach a defensive unit that ranked third in the SEC and 15th in the country in total defense, and second in the league and eighth in the country in passing defense.

Shane Beamer, considered to be one of the rising stars among coaches in college football, begins his second season as the University of South Carolina's head coach in 2022. He was named the Gamecocks' 36th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2020.

As the Gamecocks' recruiting coordinator, his 2009 class was ranked 12th-best by both Rivals and Scout, and the 2010 and 2011 classes were ranked in the Top 25.

During Beamer's tenure as recruiting coordinator at Carolina, nine of his signees were selected in the NFL draft. Those include first round selection Stephen Gilmore (Buffalo Bills) and second round selections Alshon Jeffery (Chicago Bears) and D.J. Swearinger (Houston Texans).

The Gamecocks all-time winningest quarterback, Connor Shaw, and rushing touchdown leader, Marcus Lattimore, were also in the 2010 class.

Prior to his arrival in Norman, Beamer spent two seasons on the staff at Georgia as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator under Kirby Smart. The Bulldogs posted a 21-7 combined record with Beamer on staff. In 2017, the Bulldogs won the SEC Championship and finished second in the nation, falling in the CFP title game to Alabama in overtime. His special teams ranked eighth nationally in net punting (41.7), and 20th in kickoff returns (23.5) while blocking four kicks.

The son of Hall of Fame coach, Frank Beamer, he worked with his father as the associate head coach and running backs coach at Virginia Tech from 2011-15. In his first year, he coached David Wilson, who broke the Tech single-season rushing record and was named All-American and ACC Player of the Year and went on to become a first-round NFL draft selection by the New York Giants. Shane served as the Hokies' acting head coach in the 2014 Military Bowl win while his father watched from the press box following throat surgery.

Beamer's first full-time coaching position was at Mississippi State, joining the Bulldogs in 2004 as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first two seasons at State, he guided three defensive backs to SEC All-Freshman Team accolades. He maintained the recruiting coordinator title but made the move to running backs coach in the spring of 2006 where he tutored running back Anthony Dixon to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Beamer spent three seasons (2001-03) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, helping with the cornerbacks, coaching the placekickers, punters, and long snappers, and assisting in all special teams areas. He also oversaw game opponent scouting while earning a master's degree in sport management in December 2003.

Before joining the staff at Tennessee, he worked one season (2000) as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech, helping with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A 2000 graduate of Virginia Tech, Beamer was a member of five bowl teams (1995-99 seasons) and three Big East Conference championship squads on the Hokie football team as a long snapper and wide receiver. He was a long snapper on the 1999 Tech team that played for the BCS National Championship.

Beamer and his wife, Emily, are the parents of three children - two daughters, Sutton and Olivia, both born in Columbia, and a son, Hunter, born in Blacksburg, Va.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — South Carolina coach turned quarterback Zeb Noland threw for four touchdowns on 13 completions as the Gamecocks beat Eastern Illinois 46-0 on Saturday night.

It was the debut for South Carolina coach Shane Beamer. He promised “Beamer Ball” just like his dad Frank Beamer played at Virginia Tech and his team delivered, holding the Panthers (0-2) to 109 yards and getting its first shutout in 13 years.

The Gamecocks version of Beamer Ball blocked two punts, picked off two passes with one going back for a 61-yard touchdown, ran a successful two-point trick play with the kicking team on the field after their first touchdown, converted all three fourth downs it tried including a fourth-and-goal from the 3, had two sacks and hit hard.

“People talk about Beamer Ball — that’s what it was. You have the ability to score on offense, defense or special teams no matter who is on the field. We want to have that mentality,” Shane Beamer said.

Beamer, 44, brought joy and enthusiasm to a team that had lost six in a row and 11 of its past 14 games — at least for a night and against a Football Championship Subdivision opponent.

Beamer won his opener with an unusual quarterback. Noland came to Columbia this spring to be a graduate assistant after playing seven games for North Dakota State in a season delayed to spring 2021 because of COVID-19.

Chris Katrenick was 13-for-22 for 78 yards and Tyler Hamilton caught five passes for 32 yards for Eastern Illinois.

GAME CHANGER

Jaheim Bell caught a 3-yard pass from Zeb Noland with 5:04 left in the first, giving Carolina a 15-0 lead on its way to the shutout of the Panthers. It was Bell’s first career touchdown.

KEY STAT

129 – ZaQuandre White led the Gamecocks with 129 yards rushing and a touchdown, including a 63-yard touchdown run with 10:24 left in the game. White also had 39 yards receiving, leading the Gamecocks in that category as well.

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Parker White kicked a 36-yard field goal as time expired as South Carolina rallied from 14 down to beat East Carolina 20-17 on Saturday, earning its first road win under first-year coach Shane Beamer.

Damani Staley had a 63-yard interception return for a touchdown just before halftime to give the Gamecocks a needed spark after trailing 14-0 in a mistake-filled opening half. Former graduate assistant Zeb Noland also had a game-tying touchdown pass to Dakereon Joyner in the back of the end zone late in the third quarter.

In the end, the Gamecocks (2-0) did enough to give themselves a shot, then rode the legs of Juju McDowell - who gained 45 yards on six carries on South Carolina's final 10-play drive - to set up White's winner that had the Gamecocks spilling onto the field from the sideline to celebrate.

South Carolina won despite committing three turnovers in its first five drives, including a goal-line fumble that went through the end zone for a turnover in the first half.

Tyler Snead hit on a 75-yard trick-play touchdown pass to Jsi Hatfield on the game's first offensive snap for the Pirates (0-2), while Holton Ahlers also ran for a short touchdown for the 14-0 lead. But East Carolina struggled to generate consistent offense, with Ahlers completing 11 of 24 passes for just 77 yards and two interceptions.

The Pirates were hosting a Southeastern Conference team for the first time since South Carolina's last visit here in 1997.

GAME CHANGER

The Gamecock defense stopped East Carolina on a 3rd-and-5 to force a punt, giving the Gamecocks the ball for its game-winning drive. Jaylan Foster and David Spaulding made the tackle to hold ECU's Tyler Snead to just a one-yard gain.

KEY STAT

54 – The Gamecocks ended the game on a 10-play, 54-yard drive that ended with Parker White's sixth career game-winning field goal. JuJu McDowell had 45 yards rushing on that final drive.

ATHENS, GA. (AP) — JT Daniels returned to the lineup with three touchdown passes, Georgia's fearsome defense nearly made it three-straight games without allowing a TD and the No. 2 Bulldogs romped to a 40-13 victory over South Carolina on Saturday night.

Daniels completed 23-of-31 for 303 yards, including scoring throws of 43 yards to Jermaine Burton, 38 yards to freshman Adonai Mitchell and 4 yards to James Cook.

Georgia (3-0, 1-0 Southeastern Conference) finally gave up a touchdown while on defense when Luke Doty, getting the ball on the Bulldogs' side of the field after a fumble, connected with Josh Vann on a 36-yard touchdown pass with 10:55 remaining.

To that point, the only touchdown against Georgia this season had come on an interception return.

With Doty playing for the first time this season, South Carolina (2-1, 0-1) gave up three sacks and a safety, along with two turnovers that led to Georgia touchdowns.

Daniels sat out a 56-7 victory over UAB with an oblique injury, watching as backup Stetson Bennett tied a school record with five touchdown passes.

Daniels wasted no time re-establishing his hold on the No. 1 spot, completing a 21-yard pass to Brock Bowers on his very first snap and guiding the Bulldogs to the end zone on their first two possessions.

Bennett got a shot the third time the Bulldogs had the ball. He promptly threw an interception that was returned to the Georgia 12, setting up a field goal.

Daniels returned to the game and didn't leave until early in the fourth quarter with the outcome no longer in doubt.

After punting the ball away in the closing seconds of the first half and content to settle for a 21-6 lead, Georgia wound up scoring five more points.

Backed up on their own 1, the Gamecocks explicitly attempted to throw out of the end zone. Doty was sacked by Jordan Davis and Nolan Smith for a safety.

Then, after receiving the free kick, Daniels completed three passes for 39 yards to set up Jack Podlesny's 36-yard field goal as time expired, sending Georgia to the locker room up 26-6.

Georgia put it away in opening minute of the second half, again sparked by a huge defensive play.

Doty's pass was picked off by Derion Kendrick, who returned it to the South Carolina 20. Zamir White ripped off a 15-yard run, then took it in from the 5 to pad the lead to 33-6.

Cook had two touchdowns, also scoring on a 23-yard run.

GAME CHANGER

Jaylan Foster picked off a JT Daniels pass at the Georgia 47 and returned it 35 yards to the Bulldog 12. Carolina was not able to punch it in the end zone, as Parker White's 27-yard field goal made it 14-6 Georgia with 1:34 left in the first quarter. The Bulldogs responded with a second quarter touchdown drive, a safety and a field goal as the Gamecocks did not get any closer in their first loss of 2021.

KEY STAT

128 — Josh Vann went over 100 yards receiving for the second straight game, hauling in three passes which included a 36-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter. Vann had 127 receiving yards last week vs. East Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Matt Ruffolo made three field goals to help Kentucky beat South Carolina 16-10 on Saturday night.

Despite its three turnovers, Kentucky (4-0, 2-0 Southeastern Conference) beat South Carolina (2-2, 1-1) for the seventh time in eight years, and set up a collision course toward next week's matchup at home against No. 11 Florida.

"We just have to worry about ourselves. We got to prove to each other and the team that we can go out there and compete with anybody who steps on the field," said Kentucky linebacker DeAndre Square, who led the Wildcats with eight tackles. "It's not about anybody else, it's about us."

Chris Rodriguez Jr. ran for 144 yards on 26 carries for the Wildcats. Will Levis was 15-of-22 passing for 102 yards and threw an interception.

Kavosiey Smoke scored on 15-yard touchdown run on the first series of the game, capping a 12-play, 75-yard drive for Kentucky. Ruffolo's 41-yard field goal to end the second quarter gave the Wildcats a 10-0 lead.

Luke Doty threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Jalen Brooks early in the third quarter for South Carolina. Ruffolo made field goals from 21 and 27 yards before Parker White's 54-yard field goal capped the scoring with 2:31 remaining.

Doty was 17-of-25 passing for 158 yards. Kevin Harris was held to just 38 yards rushing on 12 carries.

South Carolina recovered fumbles on back-to-back Kentucky possessions but couldn't get any points despite going for it twice on fourth down. Each time, a dropped pass ended the drive.

"If you just look at some things, our turning the ball over, there's no excuse for it. The ball bouncing to the other team sometimes, there's no controlling that," Kentucky coach Bob Stoops said. "When I first got here, we couldn't play a lick of defense, but we led the country in fumbles. With some of those fumbles (this year), we just can't do it."

The Gamecocks' defense has recovered multiple takeaways in every game but the offense hasn't been able to take advantage. After scoring 46 points over hapless Eastern Illinois in its opener, South Carolina has a mere 43 points since.

"I don't know. There's a lot. We ran the ball 26 times for 58 yards. Not good enough," South Carolina coach Shane Beamer said. "Each week's different, and right now, it ain't good enough."

GAME CHANGER

Kentucky had three field goals on the night, the final one with 4:26 left in the game that gave the Wildcats a 16-7 lead. Carolina answered with a field goal of its own, a career-high 54-yard field goal from Parker White, but the Wildcats were able to salt the clock and earn the six-point win.

KEY STAT

144 — Kentucky's Chris Rodriguez had 26 carries for 144 yards on the night as the Wildcat offense accounted for 230 rushing yards in the win. Rodriguez averaged 5.5 yards per carry.

Troy 14

October 2, 2021

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — South Carolina's offensive consternation still isn't cured. The Gamecocks have scored one rushing touchdown in five games.

But as long as the Gamecocks' defense can pick up the slack, as they did with their third touchdown of the year against Troy, they can continue to work on it without feeling too bad.

David Spaulding returned an interception 74 yards for a touchdown, Parker White kicked three field goals and South Carolina overcame several mistakes in the second half to hold off the Trojans 23-14 on Saturday.

White booted a 37-yard field goal in the fourth quarter with just over two minutes left to make it a two-possession lead and Damani Staley intercepted Taylor Powell with less than 30 seconds to play.

"I don't know about you guys, I feel like I aged about 40 years during that game," said South Carolina coach Shane Beamer, who saw his Gamecocks score one defensive TD and should have scored another. "We talk about playing smart football. We didn't do a great job of that today."

The Gamecocks (3-2) led 17-7 at halftime after Spaulding's return. Yet the Trojans (2-3) wouldn't go away and South Carolina's inability to take advantage of its numerous chances to score helped Troy stay in it.

"The key to the game, obviously, the turnovers. Seemed to be the difference," Troy coach Chip Lindsey said. "We matched their intensity, we matched their physicality, I thought. At the end of the day, we can't put the ball on the ground."

The Gamecocks still haven't found a solution for their sputtering running game, but quarterback Luke Doty completed 20 of 34 passes for 255 yards and a touchdown with no interceptions and one fumble.

The Gamecocks blocked a Troy punt in the third quarter but only got a field goal out of a possession starting at the Trojans' 23-yard line. Then after an interception by South Carolina's Jahmar Brown was wiped by a booth review, the nuttiness began.

The Gamecocks forced a punt but Ahmearan Brown muffed the catch. Troy set up for a third-and-9 on the next possession. The Gamecocks' Jaylan Foster sacked Powell on a safety blitz and the ball squirted loose. Staley retrieved it and tried to run, but was tripped.

The ball again tumbled to the turf and Brown picked it up and began running. He easily out-paced the rest of the field for a touchdown, except Brown flipped the ball to the referee a split-second before he crossed the goal line and it rolled out of bounds.

Touchback. Not touchdown.

South Carolina held again, forced a punt, and again tried to drive for the game-clinching score. Doty had the ball knocked out of his hand and the Trojans recovered.

The Gamecocks got it right back after Foster forced a fumble and Zacch Pickens recovered.

South Carolina managed to hold onto the ball and drove 53 yards in 12 plays for White's last field goal. The sixth-year "super senior" hasn't missed a kick all year and mentioned Samson in the post-game as he showed up with a bushy beard. He has vowed not to shave or cut his hair until he misses one.

GAME CHANGER

David Spaulding returned an interception 74 yards for a touchdown to give the Gamecocks a 17-7 lead heading into halftime. It is the third interception return for a touchdown by the Gamecocks this season.

KEY STAT

255 — Luke Doty set a career high with 255 passing yards and completed passes to nine different receivers. Doty was 20-for-34 with a touchdown in the win over the Trojans.

KNOXVILLE, TENN. (AP) — Hendon Hooker threw for 225 yards and three touchdowns to lead Tennessee to a 45-20 Southeastern Conference victory over South Carolina Saturday.

The Volunteers (4-2, 2-1) led 35-0 in the second quarter before the Gamecocks (3-3, 0-3) staged a recovery.

Vols' running back Tiyon Evans rushed for 119 yards and a touchdown before leaving midway through the third quarter with an injury.

South Carolina's Kevin Harris scored from a yard out to start the fourth quarter. A missed two-point conversion made the score 38-20. Tennessee's offense generated just 25 offensive yards in the third quarter. Len'Neth Whitehead, replacing the injured Evans at running back, scored Tennessee's last TD from two yards.

Trailing by 31 midway through the third quarter, South Carolina had fourth-and-9 on the Tennessee 44. Punter Kai Kroeger hit wide-open Payton Mangrum with what turned out to be a scoring pass and a 38-14 difference.

A 28-0 first-quarter lead blossomed to 38-7 by halftime. Hooker completed 15 of 20 passes for 217 yards and three scores in the first 30 minutes.

As the Vols were leading 28-0 with just under six minutes left in the first half, Evans found a seam up the middle and won the race to the end zone for a 45-yard TD and 35-0 Tennessee lead. With just over 2 minutes left in the half, South Carolina finally got on the board. Luke Doty's 24-yard pass to Dakereon Joyner was the key play in a 75-yard drive that was culminated by a 6-yard run by Harris.

Tennessee's Jalin Hyatt scored the game's first touchdown when he caught a slant from Hooker from three yards to cap a 66-yard drive. Less than three minutes later, Hooker connected with JaVonta Payton from 39 yards for a 14-0 advantage.

Before the first quarter ran out, Tennessee upped the score to 21-0. South Carolina had the ball inside the Vols' 5-yard line when receiver Jalen Brooks threw a pass that was intercepted in the end zone by Jaylen McCollough. Five plays later Hooker scored on an 11-yard run. With 12 seconds left in the first quarter, the Vols made it 28-0. Four plays after a Gamecocks fumble, Hooker hit Velus Jones for a 21-yard score.

GAME CHANGER

With Tennessee leading 14-0, Carolina drove down to the Volunteer one-yard line but a halfback pass from Jordan Burch was intercepted by Jaylen McCollough in the end zone. Tennessee then went 80 yards in five plays to go up 21-0.

KEY STAT

28 — The Volunteers scored 28 points in the first quarter with 227 yards of total offense in the first 15 minutes. Hendon Hooker was 10-for-13 for 164 yards and three touchdown passes while also recording a rushing touchdown.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Zeb Noland's played more than enough football to be ready when called on and cherish the moments of success. The former graduate assistant did both to rally South Carolina to its first Southeastern Conference win in more than year.

Noland entered on the Gamecocks' final drive and led a 75-yard touchdown drive, connecting with Xavier Legette on a 9-yard scoring pass with 37 seconds left for a 21-20 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday night.

But there was Noland, calm and confident, leading South Carolina (4-3, 1-3 SEC) to snap its nine-game losing streak against conference opponents.

Gamecocks coach Shane Beamer said Noland came in when Luke Doty was feeling some soreness in a foot injury he sustained this summer at practice. Noland started the first three games before Doty took over in the middle of a 40-13 loss to Georgia last month. Noland hadn't played since then.

Noland's message in the huddle was simple: "Keep me clean. I got you. That's what I said, and let's roll."

Noland got the Gamecocks rolling with a 29-yard pass to tight end Nick Muse to get into Vanderbilt territory.

He had completions of 15 yards to Josh Vann and 21 yards to Dakereon Joyner to the Commodores' 9. On Noland's winning throw, Legette ran to the back of the end zone and got open for the winning score.

Parker White made the extra point to send Vanderbilt, which held a 20-14 lead with less than two minutes left, to its 16th straight loss against SEC opponents.

Noland is not worried about when he'll play again, just about making sure he does what he can to be a good team and prepare Doty or anyone in the quarterback room for the next game.

Noland began his college career at Iowa State, moving on to North Dakota State where he was a teammate of San Francisco 49ers passer Trey Lance before accepting Beamer's offer to join the staff here.

Noland was convinced to put the pads back on when Doty hurt his foot this past August.

It looked like the Commodores would be the ones celebrating after Joseph Bulovas hit a 28-yard field goal with 1:36 to go for a 20-14 lead. Vanderbilt's defense had held South Carolina scoreless for nearly 49 minutes.

But Noland gave South Carolina the winning spark and Beamer his first SEC victory since taking over the program last December.

Vanderbilt quarterback Mike Wright threw for 206 yards including a 52-yard touchdown pass to Will Sheppard for a 17-14 lead in the third quarter that held up until the final seconds.

Vanderbilt broke its season-long scoring drought against the SEC with Bulovas' 42-yard field goal in the opening quarter. The Commodores added their first TD in league play when Rocko Griffin Jr. ran in from a yard out to take advantage of a South Carolina fumble and cut the lead to 14-10.

GAME CHANGER

Carolina's defense forced Vanderbilt into two turnovers and just 312 yards of total offense in the game. The Gamecocks capped off the game with a sack fumble from Kingsley Enagbare and a recovery from Jabari Ellis at the Vanderbilt 4-yard line.

KEY STAT

75 — The Gamecocks went on an eight-play, 75-yard drive to take a 21-20 lead with 37 seconds left in the game. The drive ended with a 9-yard pass from Zeb Noland to Xavier Legette in the back of the end zone. Legette had four catches for 31 yards in the game.

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS (AP) — Ainias Smith had a 95-yard punt return for a touchdown and Jalen Wydermyer added two TD catches as No. 17 Texas A&M built a huge first-half lead and coasted to a 44-14 rout of South Carolina Saturday night.

The star rushing duo of Isaiah Spiller and Devone Achane continued to do damage for the Aggies. They combined for 256 yards and two touchdowns a week after rushing for 292 yards and three touchdowns.

Texas A&M (6-2, 3-2 SEC) raced to a 31-0 lead by halftime, and Achane's 35-yard touchdown run made it 41-0 late in the third. It was the third straight victory for Texas A&M, which knocked off top-ranked Alabama two weeks ago before beating Missouri last week.

Zach Calzada had 187 yards passing with two touchdowns for the Aggies.

South Carolina graduate assistant-turned-quarterback Zeb Noland had a tough night before he was benched for Jason Brown early in the fourth quarter. Noland managed just 30 yards passing and had a snap fly over his head that the Aggies recovered and turned into a touchdown in the second quarter.

Noland started the first three games but was hurt Sept. 18 against Georgia and didn't play again until leading a game-winning drive in the last minute against Vanderbilt last Saturday. Luke Doty was injured against the Commodores and is out for the season after having foot surgery this week.

Brown led the Gamecocks (4-4, 1-4) on two touchdown drives after replacing Noland, but also threw an interception in the end zone.

Smith gave A&M an early lead with his punt return TD in the first quarter. It was the longest punt return for a touchdown in the FBS this season and the longest for the Aggies since Dustin Harris had a 96-yard return for a TD in 2012 against South Carolina State.

Jaylan Foster grabbed his NCAA-leading fifth interception later in the first, but the Gamecocks couldn't move the ball after the turnover and had to punt.

The Aggies extended the lead to 14-0 when Wydermyer grabbed a 25-yard touchdown reception on their next possession.

Wydermyer made it 21-0 when he grabbed a short pass and barreled through several defenders for a 28-yard score with about 10 1/2 minutes left in the first half.

He had 75 yards receiving to give him 1,306 in his career, passing Martellus Bennett (1,246) for most by a tight end in school history.

It looked like Noland had his coaching hat back on three plays after Wydermyer's second TD when he was so preoccupied yelling and gesturing at his teammates to get set that he didn't realize the ball had been snapped and it sailed over his head.

The ball rolled all the way to the South Carolina 6 - a loss of 19 yards - before Aaron Hansford pounced on it to give A&M the ball. The Aggies cashed in on the mistake three plays later on a 1-yard TD run by Spiller that made it 28-0.

GAME CHANGER

Carolina fumbled on a bad snap to Texas A&M's six-yard line, where the Aggies recovered. Isaiah Spiller scored on a one-yard rushing touchdown as the Aggies took a 28-0 lead.

KEY STAT

268 — The Aggies outgained the Gamecocks 268-11 in the first half, scoring four touchdowns and a field goal to take a 31-0 halftime lead. Ainias Smith had a 95-yard punt return for a touchdown and Jalen Wydermyer caught touchdown passes of 25 and 28 yards.

South Carolina 40 Florida 17

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — When Shane Beamer accepted the South Carolina job last December, he recalled his days as Steve Spurrier's assistant and the big wins and raucous atmosphere when the Gamecocks were rolling.

The first-year coach got his first true taste of that with Spurrier in the building as the Gamecocks routed Florida 40-17 on Saturday night.

First-time starter Jason Brown threw for two touchdowns, Kevin Harris and ZaQuandre White each rushed for over 100 yards and South Carolina's defense held the potent Gators' attack to just 82 yards rushing.

"I remember days and nights like this," when he was here from 2007-2010 as the Gamecocks won their only SEC Eastern Division in that final season, Beamer said.

"We're not there yet," Beamer cautioned. "We're still a work in progress, but we took a big step tonight."

A step that few expected out of South Carolina (5-4, 2-4 Southeastern Conference). The Gamecocks were routed at Texas A&M 44-14 two weeks ago and saw its starting quarterback Zeb Noland undergo knee surgery.

The Gators (4-5, 2-5) entered averaging 242 yards a game on the ground and 483 yards of total offense, third best in the SEC. But South Carolina became the first team this season to outgain them, 459-340.

Parker White had a career-best four field goals and defensive tackle Jabari Ellis had an 18-yard fumble recovery touchdown to put South Carolina up 30-10 at halftime.

"The fair just left town and I still feel like I'm on a rollercoaster," Ellis said of following the A&M loss with the biggest win of the season.

Brown became the Gamecocks' third starting passer this season and the FCS transfer made his first Southeastern Conference start an eye-opening one.

"He's always prepared himself for the moment," Gamecocks' receiver Josh Vann said.

Brown, who last played at St. Francis, steadily led South Carolina on five first-half scoring drives for a 30-10 lead at the break.

Brown looked like an SEC veteran as he filled in after grad-assistant coach turned quarterback Noland continued his recovery from knee surgery last week. It's probably not Brown's last start at South Carolina after what he showed in this one.

"Just like that, I was the next guy up," Brown said. "At this level, there's no excuses, you've got to be ready to play."

Emory Jones completed 17 of 30 passes for 258 yards and two touchdowns. He also threw an interception and the fumble that went for a score.

Harris, a 1,000-yard rusher last season, finished with 128 yards while White had 111.

Florida coach Dan Mullen said his team has struggled, losing four of the past five and three straight for the first time since 2017.

"You go look throughout the season, there's a lot of little things that have gone wrong," Mullen said. "We're not doing things that you play winning football at."

GAME CHANGER

Aaron Sterling forced a fumble at the Florida 20 and Jabari Ellis returned it 18 yards for a touchdown to give Carolina a 30-10 lead on Florida with 1:13 left in the first half. The Gamecocks scored 30 in the first half, the most in a half since the second half of the Vanderbilt game in 2020.

KEY STAT

459 — The Gamecocks had a season high 459 yards in the game. The Gamecocks rushed for 284 yards on 42 attempts while Jason Brown completed 14 passes for 175 yards and a pair of TDs in the win.

COLUMBIA, MO. (AP) — Tyler Badie rushed 34 times for 209 yards and a touchdown and Missouri held off South Carolina's fourth-quarter charge to defeat the Gamecocks 31-28 on Saturday.

The Tigers (5-5, 2-4 Southeastern Conference) built a 17-point lead when Badie scored on a 19-yard run with 12:31 left in the game. That's when the opportunistic Gamecocks (5-5, 2-5 SEC) made things interesting by converting two Missouri turnovers into touchdowns and slicing the deficit to three points with 4:32 left. But they never saw the ball again, thanks to Badie, who rushed for 63 yards on the final drive.

The game turned late in the third quarter when blitzing safety Martez Manuel jarred the ball from South Carolina quarterback Jason Brown and defensive end Trajan Jeffcoat recovered in the end zone to give the Tigers a 10-point lead. Missouri's Connor Bazelak completed 15 of 23 passes for 180 yards and two touchdowns. Mookie Cooper had three catches for 72 yards and a touchdown.

Brown, who was making his second start of the year, completed 16 of 30 passes for 193 yards, with two touchdowns and two interceptions. Josh Vann had five catches for 62 yards and a touchdown. But the Gamecocks rushed for just 57 yards against a defense that entered the game allowing 270 yards per game on the ground.

GAME CHANGER

Missouri recovered a fumble in the end zone with 4:28 left in the third quarter as Trajan Jeffcoat picked up the Jason Brown fumble to give Missouri a 24-14 lead. Carolina scored 14 straight points in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to three, but Missouri ran out the clock on its last drive to pick up the win.

KEY STAT

209 — Tyler Badie recorded 209 yards rushing for Missouri in the Tigers' win over Carolina on 34 carries. It's the first 200-yard rusher against Carolina's defense since Mark Ingram of Alabama had 246 yards on Oct. 17, 2009.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — It's not his ultimate goal at South Carolina, but first-year coach Shane Beamer couldn't hold back the tears after his Gamecocks became bowl eligible with a 21-17 win over Auburn on Saturday night.

Beamer said at practice this week, he got sad watching the first team he's even been in charge of, afraid they might lose their last two and have just a week-and-a-half left together.

"Thank God that's not the case," Beamer said getting emotional again in his postgame news conference. "I'm so happy."

The Gamecocks (6-5, 3-5 Southeastern Conference) fought back in this one. For the second week in a row, Auburn (6-5, 3-4) dominated early and jumped out to a big lead - this time 14-0 - but saw it evaporate as their defense suddenly lost its edge.

"We've got to show up in games and play four quarters," said Auburn coach Bryan Harsin, whose team blew a 28-3 lead to Mississippi State last week.

Zaquandre White, who finished the game with 99 yards running had just three yards on the ground when Auburn led by 14.

But the Gamecocks scored touchdowns on their next two drives with White running for 37 yards and popping uncovered out of the backfield for a 28-yard TD on a 4th-and-3 that turned the momentum of the game around.

It was nothing fancy, Beamer said.

"We talked about this being big boy SEC football," Beamer said. "We literally lined up in the second half and ran the same two plays over and over and over and over and over again."

Auburn appeared to have one last chance, but a review of several minutes determined a South Carolina punt barley brushed Jaylon Simpson's leg with 2:11 to go and the Gamecocks ran the clock out.

Auburn lost its third game in a row even though Tank Bigsby ran for a season best 164 yards on 22 carries. LSU transfer T.J. Finley made his first start for his new team, going 17-for-32 passing for 188 yards after Bo Nix was lost for the season with a broken ankle.

South Carolina made a bowl last season with a 2-8 record, but it was canceled because of COVID-19.

"This is just the start," Beamer said. "Our goal isn't to just win six games and go to a bowl."

GAME CHANGER

Auburn led 14-7 in the second quarter and had fourth and 1 at its 35-yard line. The Tigers went for it and failed on the fourth down and the Gamecocks responded with a six-play, 35-yard touchdown drive that ended with a 1-yard pass from Jason Brown to Trai Jones.

KEY STAT

99 — Zaquandre White led the Gamecocks' rushing attack with 99 yards on 16 carries and added three catches for 69 yards and a touchdown. Carolina had 149 net rushing yards as Kevin Harris added 63 yards in the win, clinching bowl eligibility for Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Will Shipley ran for 128 yards and a touchdown and Clemson's defense smothered South Carolina for its seventh-straight win in the Palmetto State rivalry 30-0 on Saturday night.

The Tigers (9-3; No. 23 CFP) won their fifth straight this season and matched the longest win streak in the series that they set from 1934-40.

Clemson's defense limited South Carolina (6-6) to 206 yards, its second lowest output this season. It was the Tigers' first rivalry shutout since a 45-0 win in 1989 and its first time holding an opponent scoreless since a 49-0 win over The Citadel in 2020.

The Tigers outrushed the Gamecocks 265 to 43. "There's nothing more demoralizing than to have the ball run on you," Clemson offensive coordinator Tony Elliott said.

The lone drama at the end was whether South Carolina could put points on the board. With five seconds left, quarterback Zeb Noland ran 12 yards to the Clemson 3 before getting tackled by Jeremiah Trotter Jr.

Clemson's bench jumped from the sidelines to celebrate the shutout and the landmark win in a game that's the most anticipated sporting event in South Carolina each year.

"I want to apologize to our fans for that performance," first-year South Carolina coach Shane Beamer said after the program was shutout for the first time since a 28-0 loss to Virginia in the Belk Bowl three seasons ago. "It starts with me as head coach."

Shipley past 100 yards for a second straight game and third time this season, the most by a Tigers freshman since his position coach, C.J. Spiller, had five such games in 2006.

Clemson had seen its chance at a seventh straight appearance in the Atlantic Coast Conference title game end with No. 24 North Carolina State's win over North Carolina on Friday night. The Tigers made sure they wouldn't lose their grip on the state against the Gamecocks.

D.J. Uiagalelei ran for 22 yards on third down to keep the Tigers' first drive going before Shipley broke free for a 29-yard touchdown run.

In the second quarter up 10-0, Clemson again called on its revived rushing attack - the Tigers ran for a season-best 333 yards a week ago in a 48-27 win over No. 21 Wake Forest - to wear down South Carolina.

Kobe Pace shot through the line for a twisting, 34-yard run to the end zone to extend the lead.

Uiagalelei struggled passing against South Carolina's defense as he went 9 of 19 for 99 yards with an interception. It was Uiagalelei's lowest passing output this season.

Clemson's defense, as it had done much of the year, guaranteed the offensive output would hold up.

South Carolina, which had beaten Florida and Auburn earlier this month, managed just 75 yards in the opening half. Quarterback Jason Brown threw for only 53 yards and was intercepted twice, both by cornerback Andrew Booth Jr.

Brown finished 8-of-19 passing for 67 yards and was replaced by Noland, the grad assistant coach turned quarterback, in the fourth quarter.

GAME CHANGER

Kobe Pace gave Clemson a 17-0 lead with 12:10 left in the first half on a 34-yard touchdown run. It was a seven-play, 79-yard drive that lasted 3:08. Pace had 58 of Clemson's 265 rushing yards on the night.

KEY STAT

206 — Clemson's defense held Carolina to 206 total yards, with just 43 yards on the ground, as the Tigers held Carolina off the scoreboard.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — South Carolina coach Shane Beamer had a bucket of mayonnaise dumped over his head Thursday, putting a memorable and messy finish on the Gamecocks' 38-21 victory over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl.

Jaheim Bell had five catches for 159 yards and two touchdowns for South Carolina (7-6), which rebounded nicely after it lost 30-0 to Clemson in its regular-season finale on Nov. 27. Kevin Harris added 169 yards rushing and a score, helping secure the mayo bath for Beamer.

Bell came into the game with 338 yards receiving and three TDs during the regular season, but figured prominently into the game plan early on.

The sophomore tight end got free for a 69-yard touchdown reception from wide receiver-turned-quarterback Dakereon Joyner and hauled in a 66-yard TD catch from former graduate assistant coach Zeb Noland on South Carolina's first two possessions.

Juju McDowell added a 35-yard TD run in the second quarter as South Carolina averaged 11.6 yards per play while opening a 25-13 lead in the first half.

Sam Howell threw for 205 yards and a touchdown for the Tar Heels (6-7), and reserve running back British Brooks had a bowl record 63-yard touchdown run for the Tar Heels.

South Carolina rotated Joyner and Noland under center, and both were effective.

Joyner came into the game having attempted only one pass this season and 31 in his college career.

But the element of surprise proved effective on the Gamecocks' first possession, when Joyner hit the 6-foot-3, 232-pound Bell in stride down the middle of the field.

Joyner finished 9-of-9 passing for 160 yards and also ran for 64 yards. Noland was 3-of-6 passing for 82 yards as the Gamecocks went nearly three quarters before their first incomplete pass.

Howell, a projected first-round pick in the NFL draft, made several impressive throws with his strong, accurate arm. But the junior quarterback spent most of the game under heavy duress playing behind an offensive line that struggled most of the season.

The Tar Heels cut the lead to 11 midway through the third quarter on a double-reverse flea flicker, with Howell finding a wide-open Garrett Walston for a 37-yard touchdown.

But South's Carolina's offense proved too much for a porous North Carolina defense as the Gamecocks racked up 543 yards on offense.

GAME CHANGER

Dakereon Joyner found Jaheim Bell on Carolina's first possession for a 69-yard touchdown pass with 10:15 left in the first quarter, giving the Gamecocks a lead it would not relinquish. Joyner was a perfect 9-for-9 passing and earned MVP honors while Bell had a career high 159 yards on five receptions.

KEY STAT

543 — Carolina had a season and bowl game high 543 yards of total offense in the win, 301 on the ground and 242 in the air. The previous Gamecock high in a bowl game was 512 vs. Houston in the 2006 Liberty Bowl.
