SERIES HISTORY

The game between the Zips and the Gamecocks will mark the second encounter between the two schools. South Carolina leads the all-time series, 1-0, capturing the lone meeting on Dec. 1, 2018 (28-3). The game was added to the schedule during the 2018 season due to the Zips game against Nebraska being halted due to a lightning storm. In addition, South Carolina had a game canceled against Marshall in 2018 due to hurricane Florence.

SCOUTING SOUTH CAROLINA

South Carolina currently sits at 2-1 overall and 1-1 in the SEC, defeating Old Dominion (23-19) in their home opener and claiming the conference opener over Kentucky (31-6). Last week, the Gamecocks nearly knocked-off league foe No. 16/17 LSU Tigers in Columbia (36-33). SC averages 29.0 points per game on 312.7 total yards per game. The Gamecocks balanced attack averages 165.3 yards on the ground and 147.3 yards through the air. Defensively, South Carolina limits opponents to 20.3 points and 301.7 total yards per game, allowing 175.3 yards in the air and 126.3 on the ground. The Gamecocks have generated 12 sacks for a total loss of 102 yards and five interceptions for 67 return yards and one pick-6 (Nick Emmanwori).

Norris Sellars is the primary passer, completing 29 of 53 attempts with two INT's for 393 yards (131.0 avg) and two touchdowns. He is also the second leading rusher on the squad with 135 yards on 40 carries (3.4 yds/c - 45.0 yds/g) with three touchdowns. Raheim Sanders does the bulk of the work on the ground, averaging 5.1 yards per carry for 286 total yards (95.3 yds/g) with four TDs. Jared Brown leads the receiving corps with seven targets for 98 yards (32.7 yds/g), followed by Mazeo Bennett (6-88 yds-29.3 yds/g-1 TD), Joshua Simon (5-66 yds-22.0 yds/g-1 TD) and Michael Smith (5-48 yds-16.0 yds/g). Emmanwori paces the defense with 21 tackles and two INTs, while Debo Williams follows with 19 tackles and two tackles for loss of two yards. Kyle Kennard leads in the sack category with five for 38 yards of loss and seven total tackles for loss of 44 yards.

AKRON NAMES CAPTAINS FOR THE 2024 CAMPAIGN

The Zips elected junior LB Bryan McCoy (Chicago, Ill.) as captain for the second consecutive season. McCoy is joined by senior DL Bennett Adler (Lakewood, Ohio), redshirt junior WR Myles Walker (Monaca, Pa.) and redshirt junior QB Ben Finley (Phoenix, Ariz.) as captains for Akron for the 2024 campaign.

WHO IS WEARING NO. 1

Senior DL Bennett Adler and redshirt junior WR Myles Walker have emerged as leaders for third-year head coach Joe Moorhead as the Zips enter their season opener at Ohio State on Aug. 31 and the duo was recently rewarded with the No. 1 jerseys for the upcoming campaign.

Under Moorhead at Akron, head strength and conditioning coach Orië Sahlfeld identifies one player on each side of the ball that demonstrated their leadership both on and off the field over the course of the spring to earn the privilege of wearing the No. 1 jersey in the Akron Blue and Gold for the 2024 season.

"Coach Moorhead and I spoke about performance and leadership and all the qualities you want in someone in an elite or leadership position," said Sahlfeld. "They earned it all the way from January being accountable, holding their teammates to higher standards, doing all the little things right on a day-to-day basis and being consistent. They have a voice on the team and when they talk people listen. Both are the leaders on their side of the ball when it comes to holding their teammates accountable, having a high standard for themselves and their teammates and bringing people with them and picking people up when they're having bad days."

vs Rutgers

Akron fell 49-17 to Rutgers on the road Saturday, Sept. 7. Redshirt Jordon Simmons totaled 109 yards to lead the Zips' ground attack and added one touchdown, picking up 12.1 yards per carry along the way. Simmons broke loose for a 73-yard TD run which stands as the longest run from the line of scrimmage since 2021 (Jonzell Norrils vs Buffalo, 10/23/21). Redshirt junior Ben Finley led the passing game with 138 yards (14 of 31), including a 32-yard TD pass to sophomore Adrian Norton. Finley tacked on 29 yards on the ground, picking up 7.2 yards per carry. Norton reeled in three catches for 55 yards, including the Zips first touchdown of the season. Junior Bryan McCoy led the defensive efforts with 11 total tackles while senior Antavious Fish was close behind with 10. In addition, redshirt junior Daymon David registered the Zips first takeaway and appearance of the turnover tire with an interception deep in Rutgers territory on the Scarlet Knights first drive.

vs No. 2 Ohio State

Akron fell 52-6 in the 2024 season opener to the No. 2 ranked Ohio State Buckeyes. Redshirt junior K Garrison Smith made a pair of field goals, scoring the Zips six points. Smith split the uprights with 48- and 49-yard kicks, marking the longest field goals since Robert Stein buried a 50-yarder in 2015. Three quarterbacks saw action for the Zips in the season opener as redshirt junior Tahj Bullock paced both the passing (68 yards) and rushing (42 yards) categories. Redshirt junior Ben Finley earned the starting role and threw for 53 yards, while redshirt sophomore RB Charles Kellom added nine yards on the ground. In addition, redshirt sophomore TE Jake Newell reeled in two catches for 41 yards to lead receiving corps, while redhirt junior RB Jordon Simmons caught four passes for 25 yards. Redshirt junior S Daymon David paced the Akron defense with six tackles while redshirt junior DL CJ Nunnally IV and senior LB Antavious Fish each had five tackles.

DID YOU KNOW

- Zippy is just one of eight female-gendered college mascots in Division I athletics. Do you know the other seven? (YoUDee, the Delaware Blue Hen; Mrs. Wuf of N.C. State; Lucy Lobo of New Mexico; Sue E. Pig of Arkansas; Miss Pawla of South Alabama, Kate the Lion of Hofstra; and Wilma Wildcat of Arizona).
- Akron was the first school to jump from Division I-AA football (now called FCS) to I-A (now called FBS). The Zips made the move in 1987.
- Hall of Fame coach John Heisman coached football from 1893-94 for Buchtel College (Akron's original name). The Cleveland native went on to take Georgia Tech to the national championship in 1917. The Heisman Trophy, given to the nation's most outstanding college player, is named in his honor.
- On Sept. 12, 2015, an 8-ft., 750-lb. bronze statue of Heisman was unveiled at InfoCision Stadium (outside Gate 1).
- Only one player in school history has had his number retired- #89 Chris Angeloff. The junior tight end collapsed and died of cardiac arrest during UA's 20-8 victory over Marshall on Sept. 6, 1975. The Chris Angeloff Scholarship was created in his honor.
- Three players, two coaches, and two teams are members of Akron's Ring of Honor: Coach Jim Dennison, Chris Angeloff, 1968 team, and the 1976 team (all inducted in 2003); Jason Taylor (2004); Gordon Larson (2005); and Charlie Frye (2015).

'Symbolic in a lot of ways': Akron football team finds inspiration in Turnover Tire

Akron Beacon Journal - By George Thomas -Published 1:58 p.m. ET Sept. 12, 2023

Viral moments related to the University of Akron football team rarely turn up in the program's favor. That changed Saturday when the Zips and their Turnover Tire enjoyed a moment in the spotlight after beating the Morgan State Bears on the type of play that sealed the team's fate in the past.

On a third-and-9 at their own 21 with 59 seconds left in the game and protecting a four-point lead, running back J.J. Davis took a handoff for the Bears. UA defensive lineman CJ Nunnally IV busted through the left side of the Bears O-line and poked the ball free. A split second later, linebacker Bryan McCoy scooped the ball up and ran 13 yards for a UA touchdown to ultimately give them a 24-21 victory in their home opener.

For their efforts, the team brought out the Turnover Tire in recognition.

The symbolism of it being associated with a college football team representing the Rubber City is inescapable, but it goes beyond that for UA coach Joe Moorhead, who is in his second year coaching the team.

Akron football coach Joe Moorhead looks to establish tradition

The tire was something he conceived at the tail end of camp, he told the Beacon Journal on Tuesday.

"Other people have the chains and the thrones and the slot machines, and that's kind of a lot of pomp and circumstance and glitz and glamor, and that's cool," he said. "But the identity that I want this football team to kind of embody is what the Akron area is." Moorhead understands where Akron fits in the fabric of Northeast Ohio and had his equipment manager acquire a couple of worn-down tires.

"It's almost symbolic in a lot of ways of how people view this program that we are just not a worthy or worthwhile program," he said. "And at the end of the day, what we got to do is find a way to dust it off and shine them up. And there's still plenty of tread on the tires in this program and we're going to find a way to make it work, put it on the car and drive this thing, drive this thing to success."

Akron Zips football get positive feedback for Turnover Tire

Not surprisingly, his players greeted the addition of the tire with enthusiasm. And Moorhead admits that it's pretty cool that it had a viral moment on the national stage, but he also appreciates hearing from fans.

"I was taking out the garbage [Monday] night and the guy who lives across the street from me was having a catch with his son and yelled across the street, 'Hey coach, great win. Congratulations. Love the tires, keep it rolling,'" he said. "So, I didn't mean for it to be gimmicky, there really is some substance to it, but at the same time it's kind of the anticelibration in a lot of ways."

JOE MOORHEAD

Head Coach
Third Season at Akron
Fordham '96

Joe Moorhead, an inspirational leader of student-athletes and one of the most ingenious offensive minds in football, was named the head coach of The University of Akron football program on Dec. 4, 2021.

In his second season at Akron, Moorhead brought the Wagon Wheel back to Akron as he led the Zips to a 2-10 overall record and 1-7 in MAC play. The Zips continued the trend of being competitive as Akron dropped five games by seven points or less, including three overtime games against Indiana (4OT), Eastern Michigan (3 OT) and Buffalo (OT). Five Zips were named to the All-MAC squad, bringing the total (First Team - DL CJ Nunnally, IV | Second Team - WR Jasaiah Gathings, WR Daniel George | Third Team - LB Bryan McCoy, S KJ Martin).

In his first season with the Zips, Moorhead led the Zips to a 2-10 overall record and 1-7 in MAC play. The Zips ability to be competitive and be in a position to win games was evident as Akron dropped five of the final eight games by seven points or less. Five players were named to the All-MAC team (First-Team - LB Bubba Arslanian, WR Alex Adams | Third-team - QB DJ Irons, WR Shockey Jacques-Louis and OL Anthony Whigan).

A native of Pittsburgh, Moorhead returns to the Midwest, where he was a member of the Zips coaching staff from 2004-08, including serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2006-2008.

Moorhead, who has spent two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Oregon, has a proven track record of success over his nearly quarter century in coaching, including six seasons as a head coach at Mississippi State (2018-19) and Fordham University (2012-15).

Moorhead has been the play-caller for five programs that have won a conference championship, including Oregon (2020), Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

Moorhead has played an integral role in player development during his coaching career, including mentoring 20 players who have been chosen in the previous five NFL drafts. Among those selections were four first-round picks, headlined by New York Giants running back Saquon Barkley, who was named the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2019.

Moorhead guided Oregon's offensive efforts in 2021 in his 14th season as a team's primary offensive play-caller in the last 15 years. He played a key role in the success of the Oregon football team last fall, a 10-4 squad that played in its third consecutive Pac-12 Championship Game before competing at the Valero Alamo Bowl against No. 16 Oklahoma.

Moorhead directed the Ducks' offense to success last fall as Oregon ranked 42nd in the NCAA with 31.4 points per game and 50th with 423.6 yards of total offense per contest. Moorhead's unit was even more impressive on the ground as the Ducks rated 24th nationally with 202.4 rushing yards per tilt, including 36 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked sixth in the NCAA in 2021.

Moorhead came to Oregon from Mississippi State, where he served as head coach during the 2018 and 2019 campaigns. He led the Bulldogs to back-to-back bowl appearances, the first Mississippi State head coach to do so in their first two seasons in program history, while also sparking the Bulldogs to a pair of triumphs over rival Ole Miss, claiming the Golden Egg Trophy both seasons.

Prior to his time at Mississippi State, Moorhead spent a pair of seasons at Penn State (2016-17), where the Nittany Lion offense averaged 39.3 points per game, including scoring 30 or more points 21 times, a mark that represents the third-highest total in the NCAA from 2016-17. He was honored as National Offensive Coordinator of the Year in each of the two seasons in State College.

Moorhead spent four seasons as the head coach at Fordham, compiling a 38-13 record from 2012-15. After taking over a program that was 1-10 in 2011, Moorhead led the Rams to a 12-2 record, the best season in program history in 2013 and the Patriot League title in 2014.

Fordham reached the FCS playoffs the last three seasons under his leadership while compiling a 32-8 record. The Rams reached the highest ranking in program history, No. 5 in 2013, and the highest final in program history, No. 9 in 2013 and 2014, while recording the first two wins over FBS schools in program history.

In 2013, Moorhead earned AFCA Regional Co-Coach of the Year and Patriot League Coach of the Year honors and was also a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award and the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

Moorhead served as the assistant head coach, pass game and recruiting coordinator on Akron's Mid-American Conference championship team in 2005 when the Zips claimed the MAC Eastern Division title and then edged Northern Illinois in the MAC Championship Game, 31-30, to secure the school's first-ever bowl appearance.

Moorhead is a graduate of Fordham University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English in 1996. A team captain and three-year starter at quarterback, he garnered second-team All-Patriot League accolades as a senior en route to ranking 13th nationally in total offense.

Moorhead and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: daughter Kyra, and sons Mason and Donovan.
