The Gamecocks' recent program-record 33-game road win streak (Jan. 6, 2022 - Nov. 20, 2024) is the third-longest in NCAA Div. I history.

3x USBWA Team of the Week (12/10, 1/14, 1/21)

Picked by league coaches to win its fourth-straight SEC title this season, South Carolina has been the benchmark in the league over the last decade, amassing eight regular-season titles since 2013-14 (11 seasons) and finishing no lower than second in that time. Since that season, the Gamecocks have a 174-16 record (.916) in league action including an 90-4 mark (.957) since 2019-20. South Carolina set a new SEC record with its 43rd-consecutive league victory with its win over Georgia on Feb. 18, 2024, and went on to make that new mark 57 consecutive regular-season conference victories. The streak, which is tied for the sixth-longest in NCAA history, spanned three seasons, beginning on Jan. 2, 2022, with a win over Mississippi State and ran through a win at Georgia on Feb. 6, 2025.

The Gamecocks have also had a lock on the SEC Tournament, winning eight titles since claiming their first in 2015. They became the first program to win four consecutive tournaments, claiming the crowns 2015-18.

In the last decade, three Gamecocks have been named SEC Player of the Year a combined seven times, three have collected seven SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors, two have been the league's 6th-Woman of the Year, three have been the league Freshman of the Year, one has been the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and Staley has been the Coach of the Year seven times – one shy of Pat Summitt's league-record eight selections.

Ranking Review

South Carolina is ranked No. 6 in both the AP Poll and the USA Today/WBCA Coaches' Poll this week.

It marks the Gamecocks' 113th consecutive entry in the AP top 10, beginning with the 2019-20 preseason poll. It is the longest active streak and tied for the eighth longest in the history of that poll (7th is 137, Baylor). Their 244 straight appearances in the AP Poll, dating back to Dec. 10, 2012, marks the second-longest active streak in the nation and is the eighth longest all-time (7th, Texas Tech, 248).

In the USA Today/WBCA Coaches' Poll, South Carolina has been in the top 10 since claiming the No. 10 spot in the 2019-20 preseason poll.

The Staley File

In her 25th season as a head coach, Dawn Staley has a .771 (637-189) winning percentage, which ranks eighth in the nation among active head coaches with at least 15 years of experience and 10th all-time.

Staley is one of just two women's basketball coaches to lead their teams to multiple 40-game win streaks in NCAA history with the Gamecocks' recent program-record 43-game streak ranking seventh longest in NCAA history. She is the first Black head coach to win multiple national championships in men's or women's basketball, the fifth women's coach to win at least three NCAA titles and one of just 11 men's or women's coaches to hit that mark.

Now in her 17th season with the Gamecocks, Staley is the program's all-time winningest coach (465) with a program-record 13 postseason appearances. She accounts for all six of the Gamecocks' Final Four appearances (2015, 2017, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024) and the only NCAA National Championships in program history (2017, 2022, 2024).

Staley's eight SEC regular-season championships trail only Pat Summitt's 16 in league history, and her seven SEC Coach of the Year awards trails Summitt's league record by just one. Staley's 212 SEC regular-season wins are the most among active league coaches and third all-time – behind just Summitt (Tennessee, 306) and Andy Landers (Georgia, 273). She was the second-fastest to the 200-win mark in league history with her 255 games trailing Summitt's mark of 229. Staley's .791 SEC winning percentage (212-56) is second only to Summitt (.874) among coaches in the league at least five seasons. She owns the SEC record for consecutive regular-season conference victories with a 57-game streak that began in the 2021-22 season and ended in 2024-25.

Serious Scheduling

South Carolina head coach Dawn Staley has never been afraid to challenge her team to prepare it for the rigors of March and April. This season is no different.

The Gamecocks' 30-game regular-season schedule includes 13 games against teams in the national rankings this week or at the time of the game, including seven against teams in the top 10. Six of the 13 games are against non-conference opponents.

Over the last 10 seasons, South Carolina has played an average of 9.6 regular-season games against ranked foes. If this season's current 14 holds, it would be the most regular-season ranked games in program history. The six against non-conference foes matches the 2021-22 schedule for the program high.

So far, South Carolina is 9-3 against ranked foes – vs #9/8 NC State (W, 71-57; 11/10), at #5/6 UCLA (L, 62-77; 11/24), vs. #15/15 Iowa State (W, 76-36; 11/28), vs. #8/9 Duke (W, 81-70, 12/5), vs. #9/13 TCU (W, 85-52, 12/8), vs. #5/6 Texas (W, 67-50), at #13/13 Alabama (W, 76-58), vs. #13/13 Oklahoma (W, 101-60), vs. #5/4 LSU (W, 66-56), at #18/17 Tennessee (W, 70-63), at #4/6 Texas (L, 62-66), vs. #7/7 UConn (L, 58-87).

Freshman Favorite

Dawn Staley has laid down her marker for Joyce Edwards becoming an elite college basketball player in her career, thanks to her tireless work ethic and passion for the knowledge and experience needed to become great. The Gamecocks' top scorer is already among the best in her class, while logging just 21.2 minutes per game on the Gamecocks' deep roster. Edwards is second among freshmen in win shares per 40 minutes (0.25) and third in offensive win shares per 40 minutes (0.17).

Edwards' 25.2 points per 40 minutes is sixth among freshmen nationally and second in the SEC. Her 57.5 percent shooting on the season is 19th in the nation overall and fourth among freshmen (min. 5 FGA/gm). All of that production while her usage rate is just 27th.

Quarter Breakdown

South Carolina's defense has held an opponent to single digits in a quarter 16 times this season, including seven against ranked teams. The Gamecocks have out-scored their opponent by 10 or more points in a quarter 32 times. The scoring differential is largest in the third quarter (+7.1), and the Gamecocks are best in the second quarter (+3.4).

All About Balance

Like last season, South Carolina's greatest asset is its depth with 10 Gamecocks averaging at least 14.0 minutes. Seven average at least 7.0 points, including four who average 9.0 or more. Eleven Gamecocks have scored in double figures at least once, including five who have done it at least 10 times, and six players have led the team in scoring at least once.

Five players have grabbed at least 4.0 rebounds per game, and four have had at least one double-digit rebounding game this season. Six have led the team in rebounding at least once.

Bench Mob

Head coach Dawn Staley's 13-player roster gives her the ability to make a full line change with little drop off.

This season, the Gamecock bench leads the nation with 42.6 points per game to account for 52.8 percent of the total offense, which rises to 57.9 percent of the offense against ranked opponents and 77.3 percent in SEC play. The South Carolina bench has out-scored its opponents' bench by 26.9 points per game, including 18.8 against ranked teams and 26.0 in SEC play. The bench has outscored the opponent's starting lineup 15 times, including three ranked teams, and outscored the entire opposing team eight times.

On the glass, the bench averages 16.8 rebounds per game (42.9 percent of team total) compared to just 9.5 rebounds per game for their opponents' bench.

Paint Production

South Carolina has long controlled the paint, and this season's numbers have upheld that standard.

With 51.6 percent of their points coming in the paint, the Gamecocks are third in the nation with 41.7 paint point per game, according to CBBAnalytics.com, and are out-scoring opponents in that space by 15.9 points per game. They are shooting 54.7 percent in the paint compared to opponents' 41.0 percent accuracy. South Carolina has been outscored in the paint just twice this season (at UCLA, at Texas) and tied three times (Texas, at Tennessee, UConn), going 2-3 in those five games.

Glass Work

South Carolina continues to show a full team rebounding effort, ranking eighth in the nation with 43.1 rebounds per game and 17th in rebounding margin (+8.2).

South Carolina's 39.3 offensive rebounding percent is 15th in the nation, according to CBBAnalytics.com. The Gamecocks are ninth in the nation in second-chance points, averaging 18.3 on the season, meaning they score 1.04 points per offensive board.

Five Gamecocks average at least four boards on the season with junior Chloe Kitts leading the way at 7.63 to rank ninth in the SEC. Junior Ashlyn Watkins is second with 6.07, and freshman Joyce Edwards is next at 5.1. Raven Johnson leads the guards with 4.5 per game, and Sania Feagin rounds out the group with 4.46 per game (5.1 vs. ranked teams).

Block Party

South Carolina annually ranks among the best shot blocking teams in the country, and, with every Gamecock recording at least one block this season, they are continuing the tradition. Even without a dominant center and the loss of top shot blocker Ashlyn Watkins to injury, the Gamecocks are eighth in the nation with 5.7 blocks per game, including 2.07 per game from guards.

Senior Sania Feagin is seventh in the SEC with a team-high 1.46 blocks per game, including 1.86 in SEC play, which ranks second the league. MiLaysia Fulwiley is the league's top shot-blocking guard in conference play, ranking 10th in with 0.93 blocks per SEC game.

Dial Up the Defense

Head coach Dawn Staley has always put a premium on defense, and this year's team has kept that tradition while facing one of the toughest schedules in the nation.

The Gamecocks are fifth in the nation in field goal percentage defense, allowing teams to shoot just 34.7 percent from the field. That number drops to 34.0 percent in SEC games, which leads the league. Only six teams have shot at least 40.0 percent against the Gamecocks, and six have failed to reach 30.0 percent.

Pao-erful Impact

Fifth-year senior guard Te-Hina Paopao is a four-time all-conference selection across two conferences, but she added two first-time accolades to her resume last season – All-American and NCAA Div. I 3-point percentage leader. This season she is on the watch lists for the Naismith Trophy and Wooden Award and on the Nancy Lieberman Award Top 10.

After choosing to transfer to South Carolina because of her belief in head coach Dawn Staley's ability to develop the skills she needs to succeed at the next level, Paopao chose to return for her fifth season of college basketball because of the significant strides she made in her overall game in just a few months in Columbia. This season, Staley has challenged her again to raise her skills, and the veteran is delivering.

Paopao's 10.3 points per game this season include 11.4 points per game against ranked opponents. She is shooting 46.2 percent from the field, which rises against ranked opponents to 48.1 percent overall and 41.1 from the arc.

Paopao is second on the team with 2.9 assists per game overall and 3.2 per SEC game. Her 1.96 assist-to-turnover ratio in league play is sixth in the conference.

In addition to amping up her defensive skills this season, Paopao has diversified her offense as well. She is averaging 4.8 points from 3-point range, 3.4 from the paint and 1.4 from her midrange game.

CK Obsession

Forward Chloe Kitts spent the offseason focusing on building her physical and mental strength as much as her skills. The result has allowed her to fully get to her skill set and play with more confidence this season.

Kitts is averaging 9.1 points on 50.0 percent shooting, including 14 double-figure scoring games and four games as the team's top scorer. Her six double-doubles are a team high and match her sophomore year total.

In just her fourth semester on campus, Kitts is ninth in the SEC in rebounding average (7.63 per game, compared to 5.9 last season) and has been the team's top rebounder a team-high 14 times. Kitts' 7.79 rebounds per SEC game are seventh in the league and include 2.36 offensive boards per game., which ranks 13th.

The Full-wiley

The generational talent that is sophomore MiLaysia Fulwiley wow-ed fans last season with her creativity and athleticism. This season, the extremely coach-able guard – who drew SEC All-Freshman and SEC Tournament MVP honors last season – is learning the art of steadying her play between the “wow” moments and embracing her ability to impact the game on the defensive end as well.

Fulwiley is second on the team in scoring at 12.1 points per game, including a 14.0 average in SEC action that ranks 20th in the league. She has three 20-point games, including 20 against #9/13 TCU (Dec. 8), and she has been the team's top scorer seven times. Her .811 free throw percentage in SEC action is 12th in the league.

In league play, Fulwiley's defense is equally impressive, and she is 11th in the league with 0.93 blocks per game while ranking ninth in the SEC, averaging 1.93 steals in league play, including five games of at least three steals for the season (3 against top-10 foes).

That's So Raven

Junior Raven Johnson has turned her 2024 All-SEC effort into spots on the Naismith and Nancy Lieberman Point Guard of the Year Award preseason watch lists after capping her 'Revenge Tour' with a lock-down defensive effort in the National Championship game.

This season Johnson's scoring volume has dipped – although it's often timely – but her contributions continue to be integral to the team's success. As Staley says, the Gamecocks have done nothing but win with Johnson in the lineup.

The junior leads the team with 3.0 assists per game and her 3.00 assist-to-turnover ratio is eighth in the NCAA. In SEC play, she is 14th in the league with 3.29 assists per game and a league-best 3.54 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Johnson is the team's top rebounding guard at 4.5 per game, including a 10-rebound outing against #5/5 Texas (Jan. 12) and four other games with at least seven rebounds. She continues to be a menace on the defensive end as well, ranking 14th in the SEC with 1.71 steals per league game, including five-steal outings against #5/4 LSU (Jan. 24) and at Mississippi State (Jan. 5) and a career-best six swipes against Auburn (Feb. 2).

Let Us Re-Joyce

The No. 3 recruit in the 2024 signing class, according to ESPNW, forward Joyce Edwards has been as advertised with her athleticism and intellect. She has drawn SEC Freshman of the Week honors three times and has a team-high three 20-point games this season.

In her college debut against Michigan (Nov. 4), the National Gatorade Player of the Year delivered a clutch defensive rebound and a pair of free throws all in the final 13 seconds to close out the win.

For the season, Edwards leads the team with 13.4 points per game, including 15.3 per game in SEC play to rank 17th in the league. She has been the team's top scorer a team-high 13 times, including seven against ranked opponents. She ranks 19th in the nation (4th in the SEC) shooting 57.5 percent on the season, and she is second in the SEC with a .606 field goal percentage in conference games.

Edwards has three double-doubles on the season, including the first of her career in a 13-point, 11 rebound effort against #15/15 Iowa State (Nov. 28) and two in SEC action.

Sage Seniors

Four-year seniors Sania Feagin and Bree Hall are this year's most veteran players as the two on the roster with the most games in a Gamecock uniform. Communication has played a role in both players' longevity and success with their impact showing up in team results beyond their individual box score entries.

Staley lauds Feagin's on-court communication as the back-line director of the Gamecocks' defense. Her energy and steady play show the confidence and fitness of the first-year starter with career numbers this season of 7.1 points and 4.46 rebounds per game, playing just three minutes per game more than last season. Defensively she has been a difference-maker for the Gamecocks manning the center position. Seventh in the SEC with 1.46 blocks per game overall, she is second in the league with 1.86 per conference contest.

The more experienced of the two, Hall requires little communication from the coaches as she understands what they want and her value to the team outside traditional measures. A career built on defensive effort has also yielded timely big shots in big games en route to 6.5 points per game, including 8.0 per game over the last three.

It's T-Time

Sophomore guard Tessa Johnson saw her consistent effort and steady demeanor pay off in the biggest moments of her freshman campaign, and she picked up right where she left off this season.

In the season opener against Michigan, Johnson was the steadiest guard offensively, pouring in 15 points on 6-of-12 shooting, including 3-of-6 from 3-point range, highlighted by netting seven points in an 11-5 run midway through the second half.

For the season, Johnson's 8.3 points per game have come on 46.7 percent shooting, including 11 double-figure scoring games and her first career 20-point outing with 22 at Mississippi St. (Jan. 5), which included 14 points (4-of-5 3FGs) in the pivotal second quarter.

In SEC action, she averages 8.6 points on 48.8 percent shooting, including 40.9 percent from 3-point range.

Streaking

South Carolina's 43-game win streak that included the first five games of this season featured 12 games against ranked opponents. The run put the Gamecocks in elite company, joining UConn as the only teams to have multiple 40-game win streaks in program history – only six have hit the mark once. South Carolina's first such streak was a 42-game run March 18, 2022, through March 27, 2023.

The Gamecocks' SEC-best 71-game home winning streak (Dec. 18, 2020 - Feb. 13, 2025) is fourth in NCAA history. The stretch included 16 wins over ranked opponents. Their 33-game road win streak (Jan. 6, 2022 - Nov. 20, 2024) is the third longest in NCAA history with seven games versus ranked teams.

South Carolina's 57-straight SEC regular-season win streak (Jan. 2, 2022 - Feb. 6, 2025) is a league record and tied for sixth in NCAA history. The Gamecocks' 48-game streak against all SEC foes (regular-season and tournament games) is also a league record (Dec. 29, 2022 - Feb. 6, 2025).

The Gamecocks' 14-straight games with double-digit winning margin this season (Nov. 28-Jan. 23) is a program record and included seven games against ranked opponents.

Who's Got Next

On the first day of the early signing period, South Carolina landed No. 22 recruit Ayla McDowell (Cypress, TX). The 6-foot-2 wing poured in 19.6 points and 9.2 rebounds per game in leading Cypress Springs to a 30-3 record and a spot in the 6A regional semifinals in 2023-24. This season, she was named a McDonald's All-American and is on the Naismith Trophy High School Midseason Team.

WNBA Pipeline

With 12 alumnae playing in the WNBA in 2024, South Carolina had the second-most players in the league of any college program.

Since the first Staley-trained Gamecock was drafted in 2015 (Aleighsa Welch), a total of 15 South Carolina players have been taken in the WNBA Draft with 11 of those going in the first round, including two No. 1 overall picks.

In proof Staley sends players to the league ready, six Gamecocks have earned All-Rookie Team honors, including three WNBA Rookies of the Year – Allisha Gray (2017), Aja Wilson (2018), Aliyah Boston (2023).

Great Gamecock Fans

South Carolina fans have led the nation in average attendance in each of the last 10 seasons with an eye on tying Tennessee for the NCAA-record streak of 11 seasons after selling out of season tickets for the first time in program history – 13,152. They are currently leading the country in average attendance at 16,958, and the Gamecocks have played in front of the six largest crowds in college women's basketball this season.

The Gamecocks have had at least one sellout of their 18,000-seat Colonial Life Arena for eight straight seasons (excluding COVID-limited 2020-21 season) dating back to the first ever sellout of 18,000 on Feb. 8, 2016. After setting the single-season program record of five sellouts last season, the Gamecocks reset the mark this season with seven – vs. East Carolina (Nov. 17), vs. Texas (Jan. 12), vs. Oklahoma (Jan. 19), vs. LSU (Jan. 23), vs. Auburn (Feb. 2), vs. UConn (Feb. 16) and vs. Kentucky (Mar. 2).

SPORTS PERFORMANCE

The Gamecocks' athleticism and physicality are both natural and fine-tuned by hours in the weight room under the guidance of sports performance coach Molly Binetti. A few key measurements from the team...

Speed

The Gamecock have serious speed in the open court.

- MiLaysia Fulwiley registered the fastest 3/4-court sprint time at 2.98 seconds.
- Joyce Edwards is right behind at 3.00 seconds
- Maddy McDaniel came in at 3.07 seconds.
- Raven Johnson and Bree Hall round out the top five at 3.15 seconds

Jumping

Standing Vertical

MiLaysia Fulwiley – 32.8 inches
Ashlyn Watkins – 29 inches

All 13 Gamecocks can do at least one chin-up.

BEST: MiLaysia Fulwiley – 10

This year's Iron Gamecock winners were MiLaysia Fulwiley and Joyce Edwards. The Iron Gamecock recipients exhibit exceptional performances in areas of speed, power, strength, and competitive challenges in the weight room. This is MiLaysia's second consecutive Iron Gamecock award, and the first for Joyce.

SEASON THEME: UNCOMMON

South Carolina women's basketball has been UNCOMMON since Staley's arrival as she brought her reputation as an elite international player and coach to a program that had been mired in the highly competitive SEC and proceeded to build a national powerhouse.

What makes Staley's program UNCOMMON goes beyond the tangible measures of success, though.

Staley's program is grounded by players trusting the process, sacrificing for the good of the team and understanding that commitment will lead them to realize their individual dreams as well as the team's goals. Those actions come from the feeling, the culture of a program based on love and embracing the joy of being part of it.

As always, the FAMS are a key part of this season's theme. They are UNCOMMON in their commitment to supporting the program from Columbia to Paris and every stop in between, building their vacation plans and days off work around the Gamecocks' schedule.

In women's basketball, Colonial Life Arena has become one of the most feared places to play as enormous crowds fill the building with passion for the Gamecocks.

The state of South Carolina has rallied around head coach Dawn Staley's program in unprecedented numbers as the Gamecocks have led the nation in average attendance in each of the last 10 seasons and boast 20 sellouts (18,000) in the last 10 seasons of full capacity arenas.

Colonial Life Arena is more than just the home of South Carolina men's and women's basketball, though. It is also a thriving entertainment venue that the city of Columbia and its surrounding metropolitan area are able to enjoy throughout the year.

Colonial Life Arena is the largest arena in the state of South Carolina with 18,000 seats, and the 10th-largest on-campus basketball facility in the nation. Located on the beautiful University of South Carolina campus, this one-of-a-kind facility features 41 suites, four entertainment suites, and the Frank McGuire Club, a full-service hospitality room that has a capacity of 300. The state-of-the-art facility also features plush seating, a technologically advanced sound system and a one-of-a-kind selection of unique concession foods that will delight fans of all ages.

In Summer 2017, a 12-display center-hung video board and ribbon boards were added to the arena bowl at a cost of $4.2 million. The center-hung board features four convex-curved main displays that measure approximately 12' x 20' and can show any combination of live video, instant replays, statistics and game information, graphics and animations, and sponsorship messages.

The Arena has hosted numerous sold out shows, including Barnum and Bailey Circus, Paul McCartney, country superstars Kenny Chesney and Taylor Swift, WWE Wrestling, Kanye West and numerous other acts.

The largest building ever constructed at the University of South Carolina at 342,000 square feet, the Arena has an intimate double-deck design that puts every seat close to the action. The cantilever of the upper deck over the lower deck extends further than any other arena of its size with great sight lines.

Two spacious locker rooms for Gamecock men's and women's basketball include team meeting rooms, recruiting rooms, coaches locker rooms and an athletic training room.

"It is a beautiful thing to see unfold because a lot of people really didn't think it could get done. I tip my hat to Gamecock Nation for making this a wonderful place and creating a home court advantage that allows us to win close basketball games."

– South Carolina Head Coach Dawn Staley

DAWN STALEY Head Coach

17th Season at South Carolina • 25th Season in Career

Since thrusting South Carolina into the national spotlight when she was hired in May 2008, Dawn Staley has made the Gamecocks a mainstay in the battle for SEC and national championships. The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame inductee as a player is angling for another induction as a coach with her standing as one of five head coaches with at least three women's basketball National Championships and the only Black basketball head coach with multiple national titles, one of five head coaches to lead an undefeated team to a National Championship, and the first Black head coach of the USA Basketball Senior National Team.

In her 17th season at the helm of the Gamecocks, Staley's highlights include:

- Three National Championships and six NCAA Final Fours in the last nine tournaments
- Ranking in every AP Top 25 since Dec. 10, 2012 (second-longest active streak and ninth-longest all-time (244)
- 38 straight weeks at No. 1 in the AP Poll, (2021-23) third program to go wire-to-wire in that poll in back-to-back seasons
- 86 total weeks at No. 1 in the AP Poll, the third-most in the history of that poll
- Eight SEC regular-season championships and eight SEC Tournament titles
- SEC-record 57 consecutive league regular-season victories (t-6th in NCAA history for conference win streaks)
- Four top-two recruiting classes (#2 in 2024, #1 in 2021, #1 in 2019, #2 in 2014)
- 10 NCAA Attendance titles (2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024)

While her coaching career is in full bloom, Staley is still recognized for her body of work as a one of the most decorated participants in U.S. women's basketball history. The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame solidified that legacy with her enshrinement as part of the Class of 2013 after Staley was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame as part in 2012. Most recently, Staley was announced as part of the Class of 2025 for induction to the FIBA Hall of Fame.

In her 25th season as a head coach, Staley has led her college teams to 15 25-win seasons, a total of 20 postseason appearances (two WNIT) and 203 weeks in the Associated Press top 10, including 86 in the No. 1 spot – the third most times in the top spot in the history of that poll. Her .771 winning percentage (637-189) ranks eighth in the nation among active head coaches with at least 15 years of experience and 10th all-time.

In her 17th season at the helm of the Gamecocks, Staley has been named National Coach of the Year five times (2014, 2020, 2022, 2023, 2024). Her 2020 unanimous selection made her the first former Naismith Player of the Year to earn the Naismith Coach of the Year award, and she became the first men's or women's coach to claim the award in three straight seasons 2022-24. She is a seven-time SEC Coach of the Year and was the 2012 BCA Female Coach of the Year. She is the only Gamecock basketball coach – men's or women's – to amass 300 victories at South Carolina and became the fastest coach to 200 wins in program history, needing just 277 games at South Carolina to reach the plateau. She is the program's all-time winningest coach with 465 wins, an .810 (464-109) winning percentage and a program-record 13 postseason appearances.

In the vaunted SEC, Staley's 212 league wins are the most among active league coaches and third all-time, trailing just Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Inductees Andy Landers (Georgia, 273) and Pat Summitt (Tennessee, 306). She was the second fastest to 200 league wins (255 games), trailing only Summitt at 229. Staley's .791 SEC winning percentage (212-56) is second only to Summitt (.874) in league history among coaches with at least five seasons in the SEC. Staley's Gamecocks are the only SEC program with multiple 16-0 seasons in league history, hitting that mark four times (2015-16, 2019-20, 2022-23, 2023-24). Staley's back-to-back SEC undefeated seasons helped the Gamecocks to a 57-game win streak in league play (Jan 2, 2022-Feb. 6, 2025), which is an SEC record and ranks seventh in NCAA history for conference win streaks.

In addition to coaching two National Players of the Year, two National Defensive Players of the Year and a National Freshman of the Year, Staley has helped 11 Gamecocks collect 26 All-America selections, three to pick up seven SEC Player of the Year honors, four to earn eight SEC Defensive Player of the Year recognitions, two to SEC 6th Player of the Year honors and six to capture SEC Freshman of the Year. She has coached 21 Gamecocks to All-SEC honors 41 times, including 21 first-team selections. In the last 10 seasons, 15 Gamecocks have been selected in the WNBA Draft, including 11 first-round picks, highlighted by two No. 1 overall picks in the last seven years. Three Gamecocks have been named WNBA Rookie of the Year.
