North Florida: Elon and North Florida last played each other in 1997, two years prior to Elon transitioning to Division I. The series is tied at 1-1.

• Virginia: Going into the weekend, Elon and Virginia have faced each other 14 times with the Cavaliers holding an 11-3 lead all-time in the series. The Phoenix hosted Virginia in 2019 in the last meeting versus the two schools, with the Cavaliers coming away with a 7-3 win.

LAST TIME OUT

• The Phoenix captured its first CAA Tournament title after winning four games at the league championships last weekend, including winning a pair of games versus host Campbell last Saturday. Elon, who was the No. 2 seed at the tournament, defeated No. 3 seed Charleston, No. 1 seed Delaware and No. 4 seed Campbell for its first conference tournament title of any kind since 2010.

• Kaitlyn Wells was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player after the Roswell, Ga., native led the Phoenix at the plate with a .429 average (6-of-14) with a home run and eight RBI. She was joined on the All-Tournament Team by teammates Chloe Hatzopoulos, Allee Seering and Meredith Wells.

• Meredith Wells went 2-0 at the tournament and recorded a save for the Phoenix as she posted a 1.17 ERA in 12.0 innings of action. As a team, the Phoenix pitching staff had a 2.00 ERA with five arms seeing time toeing the rubber.

ELON AT THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

• The Phoenix is making its second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament during its Division I era (since 1999-2000). Elon last reached the national tournament in 2010 after winning the Southern Conference Tournament championship and traveled to the Athens Regional in Georgia.

• Current Phoenix head coach Kathy Bocock was an assistant coach the last time the maroon and gold reached the NCAA Tournament in 2010. She would remain as an assistant coach for the following season before taking the reins of the program in 2012.

KAITLYN WELLS, MCCARD EARN ALL-REGION HONORS

• On Thursday, May 15, Kaitlyn Wells and McKenna McCard earned NFCA Mid-Atlantic All-Region honors. Wells was placed on the second team while McCard received third team laurels.

• Wells is the Phoenix's leader in several offensive categories including batting average (.417), hits (68), slugging percentage (.785), home runs (16) and RBI (58).

• Likewise, McCard paces the Phoenix in a few pitching categories, including ERA (1.98), innings (102.2), strikeouts (84) and wins (13). Both players were All-CAA honorees during the regular season.

SCOUTING ELON

• As a team, Elon is batting .294 while scoring 296 runs with 41 home runs and 250 RBI. The Phoenix's 296 runs are the most for the program since scoring 293 runs in 2010, while its 41 homers are the most since the maroon and gold had 44 dingers in 2019. Overall, the Phoenix is 66th in the country in runs per game at 5.69.

• Kaitlyn Wells leads the Phoenix with her .417 batting average. The Roswell, Ga., native broke the program's single-season school record in RBI (58) and home runs (16) during her outstanding senior campaign. Her 128 total bases are also the most for a player in school history at the Division I level, while her 68 total hits are the eighth-most for Elon in a single-season and the most since Kara Shutt had 74 during her All-American campaign in 2018.

• Greta Hessenthaler is second to Wells on the team in batting average (.355) and on-base percentage (.479). The Liberty, N.C., native is fourth in the CAA in walks (32) while accounting for 54 hits, a team-best two triples with 19 RBI. During the year, Hessenthaler reached base in 34 straight games, at one point the longest active streak in the nation.

• Allee Seering is batting .343 on the season and is second to Wells on the team with 59 hits. She has also accounted for six doubles, three home runs and 31 RBI. Seering ranks in the top 10 of the CAA in hits and stolen bases, as her 17 swiped bags lead the Phoenix.

• Elon's pitching staff has posted a 3.65 cumulative ERA this season in 341.0 innings of action. The Phoenix hurlers have accounted for 229 strikeouts compared to 173 walks. As a team, opposing hitters are batting .267 versus Elon.

• McCard has been the Phoenix's ace in the circle most of the season, leading the team in ERA (1.98), opposing batting average (.228), innings pitched (102.2), strikeouts (84), and wins (13).

SIX NAMED ALL-CAA

• On Tuesday, May 6, the Phoenix had six members of its program recognized on the 2025 CAA postseason awards. The Phoenix had two members of the program, senior Kaitlyn Wells and sophomore Greta Hessenthaler, receive First Team All-CAA laurels while three other members — Allee Seering, Chloe Hatzopoulos and McKenna McCard — earned spots on the Second Team. First-year Kayla Wilson rounded out the Elon honorees with her spot on the CAA All-Rookie Team.

PRESEASON PRAISE

- Elon had four members of its program recognized on the 2025 Preseason All-CAA Softball Team as announced by the league office on Jan. 31. Fifth-year Gabi Schaal, senior McKenna McCard and junior Mauri Murray were selected to the Preseason All-CAA Team in their respective positions. Senior Allee Seering was an honorable mention nod.
- Schaal was a Second Team All-CAA choice last season as the Lakeland, Fla, native led the CAA in home runs with 11 and finished third in the league with 38 RBI. She finished in the top 10 of the CAA in slugging percentage (.556).
- Murray was selected to the All-CAA First Team after leading the team in batting average (.361) and slugging percentage (.583). The Marvin, N.C., native notched 52 hits in 144 at-bats while scoring 32 runs with eight homers and 33 RBI while ranking in the top-10 of the CAA in several categories. She also earned NFCA Mid-Atlantic Third Team All-Region honors.
- McCard served as the Phoenix's ace in the circle, leading the Phoenix in appearances (30), starts (21), complete games (11) and innings pitched (122.0). The Ashburn, Ga., native posted a 2.52 ERA while also striking out a team-high 85 batters while posting four shutouts on the season.
- Seering was named to the All-CAA Second Team during her junior campaign last season. The Waxhaw, N.C., native led the Phoenix with 40 RBI and 15 stolen bases and was second on the squad in doubles (12) and hits (49).

RETURNING PHOENIX

- Outside of the four preseason All-CAA honorees, the Phoenix returns several key players in 2025, including starters Greta Hessenthaler (second base), Kaitlyn Wells (outfield) and Reagan Hartley (outfield). Hessenthaler was a CAA All-Rookie team choice last season while Wells was third on the team with six home runs. Hartley finished third on the program with 11 stolen bases.
- In the circle, Elon returns 100 percent of its pitching staff last season. Along with McCard, the Phoenix welcomes back the arms of Taylor Cherry, Meredith Wells, Isley Duggins, Michaela Hobson, Kyra Leonard, Anna Dew and Lia Miller.

CALL HER COACH CAR

- Elon added a familiar face to its coaching staff this summer as Carley Davis begins her first season as an assistant coach on head coach Kathy Bocock's staff in 2025.
- Davis concluded her career with the Phoenix last spring, spending most of her time as a starter behind the plate. She appeared in 197 career games with 194 starts for the maroon and gold and was a two-time All-CAA Second Team selection. A native of Bridgewater, Va., Davis finished her career as Elon's all-time Division I leader in runners caught stealing with 37. This past season, Davis hit a career-best .312 with four homers and 24 RBI.
- Along with Davis, Bocock also made another staff change with the elevation of Sophia Devesa to a full-time assistant and recruiting coordinator after Devesa spent her first season as a volunteer for the Phoenix in 2024. Devesa was part of a staff that helped mentor the Phoenix batters to hit .270 last season, Elon's highest batting average since 2018. The Phoenix's offense was also second in the CAA in runs scored with 252 while its 34 home runs were a league best.

2025 CAA PRESEASON POLL

- The Phoenix was selected to finish sixth in the 2025 CAA Preseason poll. Delaware was voted as the CAA favorites by the league's 12 head coaches. Reigning CAA Tournament Champion UNCW checked in at No. 2 in the preseason poll while Campbell matched UNCW with two top votes and was selected third by the conference's coaches. Hofstra edged out Elon for fifth as both teams received a first-place nod.

THERE'S IS ONLY ONE

As there can only be one Phoenix at any time, please refer to the Phoenix in the singular.

LEGEND OF THE PHOENIX

Throughout history there is told the legend of the rare and remarkable Phoenix, a crimson and gold bird that lived 500 years. It was sleek, swift and strong — the most marvelous bird ever created by human imagination. At the end of its life, with death approaching, it built a nest in an oak tree and was consumed in flames ignited by the sun. From the ashes emerged the next Phoenix — reborn and renewed, with strength forged in fire. Fire, too, has shaped the history of Elon University. The disastrous fire of 1923 all but destroyed Elon. Gone college records, classrooms, the library and the chapel. Within days of the fire, trustees set in motion the plan for Elon to rise from the ashes, stronger than ever.

Kathy Bocock is in her 14th season at the helm of the Elon University softball program in 2025. Bocock was promoted the head coach of the Elon softball program after serving as the interim head coach during the 2012 season.

The Phoenix went 30-22 during the 2022 campaign for Bocock's fourth 30-win season at Elon. Highlights of the season include a pair of Power 5 victories versus North Carolina and Michigan State while leading the Phoenix to its second CAA Championship game. Three players also earned All-CAA accolades under Bocock's guidance in Rebecca Murray, Gabi Schaal and Taylor Cherry.

In 2021, Elon went 18-21 overall and earned the No. 3 seed for the CAA Tournament after going 10-8 in the South Division. Among the highlight wins of the season was the Phoenix handing James Madison its lone loss of the regular season, as the Dukes would go on to advance to the College World Series in Oklahoma City. Individually, the maroon and gold had five members recognized by the CAA including All-CAA members Ally Repko, Megan Grant, Alexa Nemeth and Rebecca Murray while Gabi Schaal was placed on the All-Rookie team.

Bocock led the Phoenix to a 11-11 record during the abbreviated 2020 season. Among the accomplishments achieved by the program during the shortened campaign was Elon going 7-3 on its home field at Hunt Softball Park including a doubleheader sweep versus 2019 Big South champion Longwood, who reached the NCAA Tournament. The Phoenix also earned a 2-1 win at intrastate rival North Carolina for Elon's third win in a row over the Tar Heels. Individually, Bocock saw Kenna Quinn earn her first-ever CAA Pitcher of the Week award and also tutored Megan Grant to a CAA Rookie of the Week accolade.

In 2019, Bocock led the Phoenix to its best season ever since joining the CAA in 2015. Elon finished second overall in the league with a 13-7 record and earned a trip to the CAA Championship game for the first time. Overall, the Phoenix ended 2019 with a 33-20-1 ledger and defeated two top-25 teams during the season at No. 8 Georgia and at No. 19 James Madison. The Phoenix also received votes in the NFCA Top-25 poll for the first time while coaching four members of the program to All-CAA accolades.

Under Bocock's guidance in 2018, seniors Hannah Olson and Kara Shutt posted career seasons for the Phoenix with both players being All-CAA selections and earning spots on the NFCA Mid-Atlantic Region teams. Olson was named the 2018 CAA Defensive Player of the Year while Shutt was honored as the second NFCA All-American in school history with a third team selection.

The 2017 campaign saw Bocock lead the Phoenix to its second 30-win season in the last three years and its highest winning percentage since 2010 with its 32-21 ledger (.604). It was also the Phoenix's third straight winning season; the first time it has accomplished that feat at the Division I level. Bocock's sixth season saw the Phoenix earn three victories versus opponents from the ACC and had five players receive All-CAA honors.

In 2016, Bocock led the Phoenix to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in her tenure as well as a return trip to the CAA Tournament. Elon also earned its second-ever victory over a top-10 opponent with the Phoenix knocking off No. 6 and CAA perennial power James Madison on April 30, 5-4, in 15 innings. The win gave JMU its first loss of the season during CAA play and its first since 2014.

In 2015, Bocock led Elon to 31 wins and its first winning record since 2011. The Phoenix also posted its first winning season during league play as the maroon and gold posted an 11-10 mark in its first year in the Colonial Athletic Association, finishing third in the league. Elon tied its Division I program-record with seven straight wins and defeated Atlantic Coast Conference foes Virginia and NC State during the season.

The 2013 season saw Bocock earn more wins in her first two seasons than any other coach in school history in the fastpitch era. Bocock's squad was among the tops in the Southern Conference offensively as the Phoenix ranked among the top-five in batting average, slugging percentage, on-base percentage and home runs. The program also earned its highest win ever over a ranked opponent on Opening Day as the Phoenix upset No. 8 Georgia in Athens, Ga., 5-2. Elon would then go on to sweep perennial SoCon power Chattanooga for the first time in school history. Two players would earn NFCA All-Region accolades under Bocock's watch while Bocock's tutelage helped Tomeka Watson become the program's first-ever NFCA All American.

Bocock helped guide Elon to its most successful season in program history in 2010, as the Phoenix won the Southern Conference Tournament and made its first-ever NCAA Regional appearance. The Phoenix finished the season with a program-record 38 victories.

Bocock is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators, the National Fastpitch Coaches Association and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. She earned her bachelor's degree in recreation and leisure services from Ferrum in 1986.
