MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for South Carolina State must be requested through SCSU's official website. To begin the process, visit www.scsuathletics.com and under inside athletes, search Media Information. Only media covering the Bulldogs on a consistent basis and on assignment will be considered for season credentials. A lost season credential will result in credentials being issued on a game-by-game basis as available.

Thank you for your coverage of the South Carolina State Bulldogs and Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) football. Please let us know if we can assist your efforts at any time during the football season. The following is the list of policies and procedures of the SC State University Athletic Strategic Communications Office. Please contact the SC State Athletic Strategic Communications Office with any questions or concerns.

Kendrick D. Lewis (Klewis19@scsu.edu),Assistant AD for Strategic Communications, will serve as the primary contact for SC State football. All coaches/player interviews must be requested to him, and should be made at least 48 hours in advance.

PLAYER INTERVIEW AVAILABILITY

All interviews with SC State student-athletes should be coordinated through the Athletic Stratgeic Communications Office. During the season, SCSU players are available after practices. No interviews will be conducted during practice. Telephone and/or Zoom interviews may be arranged by contacting Kendrick D. Lewis in the Athletic Communications Office. ALL interview requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance. SC State's first-year players (true freshmen) are not available for interviews.

COACH INTERVIEW AVAILABILITY

Interviews with first-year Bulldog head coach Chennis Berry should also be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office. Head coach Chennis Berry is available for interviews throughout the week, after practices and after the conclusion of games. Telephone interviews with the head coach can be arranged by con- tacting the Athletic Communications Office. As with the student-athletes, interview requests should be made at least 48 hours in advance.

COACH CHENNIS BERRY WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

SC State head football coach Chennis Berry will meet with the media on Mondays at 12:00 p.m. during his weekly press conference inside Staley Hall room 204 (Media Room).

PRACTICE AVAILABILITY

SC State's football practices are open to the public and media. The first portion of the workouts (generally the first 15-20 minutes) is open to photographers. Members of the media planning to shoot practice should contact the SC State Athletic Communications Office in advance to confirm arrangements and practice times.

PRACTICE LOCATION

The Bulldogs practice inside Oliver C. Dawson Stadium.

SC STATE HEAD FOOTBALL COACH CHENNIS BERRY

Berry, entering his second year season at the helm at the South Carolina State Football program, made an historic run in year one (2024), leading the Bulldogs to their 19th MEAC Championship in school history, and a second appearance in the prestigious Cricket Wireless Celebration Bowl. He became the only coach in school history to guide his team to a conference championship in their first season.

Along with making his mark in SC State Football history, Berry earned numerous accolades along the way, among them AFCA Coach of the Year, MEAC Coach of the Year, and Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year finalist. Berry was also selected to the Advancement of Blacks in Sports (ABIS) Coach of the Year watchlist, while being named to the HBCU Legacy Bowl coaching staff for a third consecutive year.

Other achievements included coaching Nick Taste, MEAC Offensive Lineman of the Year, and MEAC Offensive Player of the Year and the first-ever HBCU+ National Player of the Year in quarterback Eric Phoenix.

In 2024, his teams ranked among the top in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) in several categories, including # 1 in Total Offense (405.7 ypg), #2 in Scoring (33.1), #1 in Rushing Defense (118.5 ypg), #1 in Passing Offense (262.4 ypg), #1 in Offense Passing Efficiency (155.8), #1 in Sacks (37), #1 Interceptions (3), #1 Forced Fumbles (12), #1 in First Down Conversions (248) and #1 in Red Zone Offense (40-49).

Nationally, the Bulldogs also ranked among the best, closing out the season ranked #20 in the final FCS Stats Top 25 poll as well as being ranked in several categories, including #7 in Defensive Touchdowns, #10 in Total Defense, #11 in Passing Yards, #12 Passes, #13 in Turnovers Gained, #15 in Winnining Percentage, #16 Passing Offense and #22 in Blocked Punts just to name a few.

No stranger to Historically Black College, Berry took over at SC State in 2023 after three seasons at Benedict where he amassed a 27–7 record, went undefeated in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) and earned postseason berths in the Division II playoffs each of the last two seasons.

Prior to his stint at Benedict, he served seven seasons (2013-19) as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Southern University. The Jaguars had a winning record every season and the offense under Berry's guidance set numerous schools and SWAC conference records.

His coaching resume also includes stops at Howard University, North Carolina A&T, Morris Brown, Kentucky State and Fort Valley State. He also served internships with six different NFL teams.

While at Southern, Berry helped direct one of the most prolific offenses in the country. The Jaguars led the SWAC in rushing ( ypg ) and ranked 13th in the nation. Southern also averaged more than 33 points, ranking 25th in the nation in scoring. In 2016, the Jaguars ranked fifth in the nation in scoring with 39.8 points per game and were 11th nationally in total offense (ypg). Individually, running back Lenard Tillery set the SWAC single- season rushing record (Yds) and became the all-time leading runner in conference history. As an offensive line coach, Berry guided the Jaguars to no lower than 12th in the nation in sacks allowed three seasons. During his time at Southern, Berry mentored ten offensive linemen who earned All-SWAC recognition and five who garnered All-America honors.

Before joining Southern, Berry spent two seasons (2011-12) as the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Howard University. The offensive line was key to the Bison success as Howard finished second in the MEAC with a 365.4 yards per game average. Howard was also second in the league in rushing with 221.5 yards per game. Those accomplishments led to four Howard offensive linemen earning All-MEAC honors, and the offensive line blocked for the MEAC's leading rusher.

Prior to Howard, Berry served two years (2009-10) as the associate head coach/offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at North Carolina A&T. Berry's offense had one of the top rushing attacks in the MEAC during both his seasons with the Aggies. He also had one of his early coaching stops at N.C. A&T, serving as offensive line coach from 2003-05. Over his first two seasons with the Aggies, he served as the offensive line coach. A strong running game led the Aggies to the 2003 MEAC Championship and a NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision playoff berth.

As part of the NFL's Minority Internship Program, Berry interned with six different NFL teams, including the Jacksonville Jaguars, Indianapolis Colts, Cleveland Browns, Detroit Lions, San Diego Chargers and Chicago Bears. In 2009, he participated in the NCAA Expert Coaches Academy Forum. The program prepares young minority assistant coaches for head coaching positions.

Berry served as Morgan State's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach three seasons (2006-2008). During Berry's time there, the Bears possessed one of the most envied running games in the MEAC. In each of his three seasons with Morgan State, the Bears' rushing offense ranked in the top 50 nationally.

Berry began his career at Morris Brown College in Atlanta in 1996 where he coached under Joe Crosby. After one season with Morris Brown, Berry became the offensive line and tight ends coach, as well as the strength and conditioning coordinator, at Kentucky State under George Small in 1997.

Behind Berry's strong offensive line at Kentucky State, Alvon Brown broke several school and national Division II records. Brown broke the single season rushing record at KSU twice and finished his career as the school's all-time leading rusher .

He also rushed for 405 yards in a game on September 16, 2000, which at the time was a Division II single-game record. Berry's offensive line also helped Brown win the SIAC Player and Back of the Year awards on two occasions.

In 2001, Berry became the assistant head coach at Fort Valley State. He was responsible for coaching the Wildcats' offensive linemen and tight ends. His impact at FVSU was immediately felt as Philip Shiflet earned SIAC Offensive Lineman of the Year and first-team Sheridan All-Americans honors in 2001.

Berry holds a master's degree in public administration from Kentucky State University and received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Savannah State University. As a player at Savannah State, he earned First Team All-SIAC accolades at offensive tackle and was named a Black College Honorable Mention All-American in 1994. He also served as Savannah State's team captain.

Berry is married to Mrs. Ramille Berry, and they have four children - Jasmin, Mia, Chennis III and Channing.
