QUICK NOTES

- Kentucky will play at South Carolina in Columbia, South Carolina, on Saturday, Sept. 27 at 7:45 p.m. ET. It will mark UK's second Southeastern Conference game and its first on the road.
 - Prior to the current two-game winning streak by the Gamecocks, the Wildcats had won eight of the previous nine meetings from 2014-22.
- In Kentucky's most recent win over Eastern Michigan on Sept. 13, it put up 492 total yards, which marked UK's most against an FBS opponent since at Louisville on Nov. 27, 2021.
 - The Wildcats' offense featured eight rushes of 10 or more yards and seven passes - behind redshirt freshman quarterback and Bluegrass native Cutter Boley - of more than 20 yards.
 - Seth McGowan, a senior running back, earned Player of the Week Honorable Mention by the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award for his 18 carries for 104 yards and three touchdowns rushing in the game.
- Josh Kattus, a senior tight end, was named to the 2025 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. He is also a semifinalist for the 2025 Allstate Wuerffel Trophy.
- Mark Stoops is the SEC's longest-tenured coach, currently in his 13th season at the helm of the Wildcats in 2025.
 - He also is UK's all-time winningest head coach with a 69-74 overall record.
- UK executed an expansive overhaul of its roster during the offseason, bringing in 55 new players, including 27 via the transfer portal.
 - The offensive side of the football in particular looks different. UK returned 39 percent of its rushing yards from 2024, 37 percent of its receiving yards and just 15 percent of its passing yards (all by RS-F Cutter Boley).
- UK has one of the most experienced offensive lines in FBS, with 166 career starts between them, which was the third-most in FBS prior to the start of the season.
- Defensively, UK returned 46 percent of their total tackles, including four of their top six tacklers in Jordan Lovett, Alex Afari Jr., JQ Hardaway and Ty Bryant.
 - Going into Week 5, Afari leads the SEC in total tackles per game with 8.7.
- Kentucky will play the nation's fifth-toughest schedule in 2025, according to USA Today.
 - UK is set to play five teams ranked in the current Associated Press Top 25 poll, including two in the top 10. Two other opponents are receiving votes in the current poll (Auburn and Louisville), while Toledo also was receiving votes the week it played Kentucky.

KENTUCKY-SOUTH CAROLINA

THE SERIES

- South Carolina leads the all-time series, 21-13-1.
 - The Gamecocks also lead, 10-5-1, in Columbia
- UK's last win in Columbia was in 2021, 16-10.
- South Carolina has won each of the last two meetings, including winning, 17-14, in Kentucky's last trip to Columbia on Nov. 18, 2023.
- Prior to the current two-game winning streak by the Gamecocks, the Wildcats had won eight of the previous nine meetings from 2014-22.
- The two teams first met in 1937 but not again until 1978.
 - They began playing annually in 1992 when South Carolina joined the Southeastern Conference.

IN THE LAST MEETING

- South Carolina defeated Kentucky in Lexington, 31-6, on Sept. 7, 2024.
 - It marked both teams' first conference game of the season, while it marked UK's first complete game of the season after only playing until the 10-minute mark in the third quarter of its season opener because of continuous storms.
- Neither team was able to get much going offensively.
 - South Carolina had 252 yards of total offense, while Kentucky was held to 183 for the game, including just 44 yards passing.
- UK's defense registered 12 tackles for loss, including three sacks.

THE CONNECTIONS

- Mikkell Skinner, UK freshman tight end, hails from Greer, South Carolina.
- Eric Wolford, UK offensive line coach, held the same position with the Gamecocks in 2009.
- Jordan Dingle, former UK tight end, is a transfer at South Carolina.
 - He played 39 games at UK (21 starts) and caught 43 passes for 615 yards and four touchdowns. He hails from Bowling Green, Kentucky.

KENTUCKY IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

- The Wildcats have a 189-414-12 (.317) all-time record in Southeastern Conference games.
 - UK head coach Mark Stoops has a 31-63 (.329) all-time record in SEC games.
- The Wildcats have won three of their last five league openers (2021-25).

TOUGH SCHEDULE

- Kentucky had the nation's fifth-toughest schedule at the start of 2025, according to USA Today.
- Going into Week 5, UK is set to play five teams ranked in the current Associated Press Top 25 poll, including (5) Georgia, (10) Texas, (13) Ole Miss, (15) Tennessee and (18) Vanderbilt.
 - Additionally, two other opponents are receiving votes in the current poll (Auburn and Louisville), while Toledo also was receiving votes the week it played Kentucky.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

RECONSTRUCTED OFFENSIVE LINE

- The reconstruction of the Big Blue Wall had a significant focus on size, depth - and maybe most important - experience during the offseason. UK now has a group that - prior to the season opener - featured the third-most collegiate starts in the nation and more than 200 career games played.
 - Included in that group is transfer lineman and 2025 Preseason Coaches All-Southeastern Conference Third Teamer Josh Braun, who has played 52 career games (two at Kentucky, 26 at Florida and 24 at Arkansas) with 34 career starts (two at Kentucky, eight at Florida and 24 at Arkansas).

- The Big Blue Wall has helped the offense rush for 644 yards through the first three games, the most through the first three games since 2018.
 - Kentucky rushed for 252 yards in its last game against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 13, the first time it has rushed for at least 170 in each of the first three games since 2018.
 - Kentucky's 492 yards of total offense in its last game against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 13 was its most against an FBS opponent since Nov. 27, 2021, at Louisville (511).
- Moreover, the wall has given up just three sacks through three games, which ranks sixth in the league and 31st in the nation.
- FUN FACT: While offensive lines don't get much of the limelight, the Big Blue Wall is a fairly popular group, from Jager Burton spearheading a tornado relief drive that filled more than two semi-trucks full of goods for those affected this summer in Eastern Kentucky to Shiyazh Pete's unique perspective on his Navajo roots.

PETE ONE OF FIVE NATIVE AMERICANS IN FBS

The representation of Native American players in college football is limited but growing, with five notable players proudly carrying their tribal heritage onto the national stage, including Kentucky's Shiyazh Pete. Here are the other Native American players and their tribes:

Name	School	Tribe
Shiyazh Pete	Kentucky	Navajo Nation
Tao Johnson	Utah	Northern Arapaho and Bishop Paiute
Walter Young Bear	West Virginia	Kiowa, Comanche, Mandan, Hidatsa and Arikara Tribes
Zae Thomas	Florida State	Seminole
Prayer Young-Blackgoat	Arizona State	Navajo Nation

FUN FACT: During preseason media day, Pete referred to the offensive line, which consists of three new starters, as "Beasts of No Nation," a quote that resonated with fans across the Bluegrass state.

THREE UK BACKS LED THEIR TEAMS IN RUSHING LAST SEASON

- The running room features two veteran "big backs" plucked from the transfer portal in Seth McGowan (New Mexico State) and Dante Dowdell (Nebraska) and a pair of young men, Jason Patterson and Jamarion Wilcox, who gained unexpected, valuable experience as UK freshmen in 2024.
- McGowan, Dowdell and Wilcox led their teams in rushing last season.
 - McGowan led New Mexico State with 153 carries, 823 yards and three touchdowns rushing - also added three touchdowns receiving - though 12 games and 11 starts.
 - Dowdell paced Nebraska in rushing with 143 carries, 614 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns through 12 games and seven starts.

- Wilcox came on strong late last season to lead Kentucky with 590 rushing yards (6.4 per carry).
- Patterson was limited to four games in order to retain his redshirt but showed plenty of ability by running for 111 yards and averaging 5.6 per carry.

2-3 PUNCH

- No. 2 Dante Dowdell and No. 3 Seth McGowan are the bell cows of the ground game. They each rank in the SEC's top 10 in rushing yards per carry and rushing yards per game, while McGowan is second in the league and fifth in the nation with six touchdowns rushing going into Week 5.
- Dowdell shined against Toledo on Aug. 30, recording 14 carries for a career-best 129 yards and a career-long, 79-yard touchdown, which remains the longest run by an SEC player this season going into Week 5.
 - It was the most rushing yards for a UK player in the season opener since Stanley "Boom" Williams jetted for 135 yards against Louisiana Lafayette in 2015.
 - FUN FACT: In meetings with the television announcers prior to the season opener, linebacker Alex Afari Jr. was asked to talk about the UK transfer running backs. Afari quipped, "Dowdell runs like he's mad at the ground."
- McGowan was a workhorse against No. 20/14 Ole Miss on Sept. 6 and against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 13. For his 18 carries, 104 yards and three TDs rushing against EMU, he was named Player of the Week Honorable Mention by the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award.
 - He became the first UK player with at least 75 yards rushing and a touchdown rushing in each of the first three games of the season since Derrick Locke in 2010.
 - He is also the first UK player – since at least 1984 – with six rushing touchdowns in the first three games of the season.

IN THE TRENCHES

- UK has had at least 170 yards rushing and two touchdowns rushing in each of the first three games this season, the first time that's happened since 2010.

WIDE NET OF WIDE RECEIVERS

- With transfers going out and transfers coming in, this has proven to be a competitive room, which now includes a whopping 18 men.
 - The wide receiver room includes:
 - No returning starters.
 - Two returners that played on offense in all 12 games last season - Ja'Mori Maclin, Fred Farrier II.
 - Five transfers - Troy Stellato (Clemson), Kendrick Law (Alabama), J.J. Hester (Oklahoma), Hardley Gilmore IV (Nebraska), Ashton Cozart (SMU).
 - FUN FACT: Gilmore did not actually play for Nebraska, he played for Kentucky last season. However, he did enter the transfer portal and signed with the Cornhuskers in the offseason, following former UK wide receivers coach Dakiel Shorts. He made his return back to the Bluegrass in April. In an interview with the Lexington Herald Leader, Hardley said, "I'm where I'm supposed to be.... I'm comfortable here.... It's just genuine love here.... There isn't anybody like Coach Stoops to me."
 - Five scholarship freshmen - DJ Miller (4-star), Cam Miller (4-star), Quintin Simmons Jr. (4-star), Montavin Quisenberry (3-star), Preston Bowman (3-star).
 - Maclin, who prior to the season opener had 87 career receptions for 1,702 career yards and 17 career scores, recorded 13 catches for 313 yards and four scores last season at Kentucky. However, seven of his 13 catches came in the final four games, while three catches for 121 yards and two touchdowns came in the season finale against Louisville.
 - Not included in his four TDs, he also caught a two-point conversion pass following his own TD at Tennessee.
 - FUN FACT: Maclin desires to have an impact on younger players - both on and off the

BLUE IN THE RED

- Kentucky is 14-of-15 in the red zone going into Week 5.
 - The only miss came on a turnover on downs against No. 20/14 Ole Miss on Sept. 6, when Kentucky was trying to tie the game in the fourth quarter.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

FOUR YEARS OF CONTINUITY

- The Wildcats' defensive coaches have been together for at least four years:
 - Brad White (defensive coordinator) - Eighth season at UK
 - Chris Collins (co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach) - Fifth season
 - Frank Buffano (safeties coach) - Sixth season
 - Anwar Stewart (defensive line coach) - Sixth season
 - Mike Stoops (inside linebackers coach) - Fourth season

A DEFENSE THAT RANKS...

UK concluded last season ranked in the nation's top 25 and the Southeastern Conference's top five in five categories, including two special teams categories, which is coached by Jay Boulware.

GOOD TO SEE YOU BACK!

- Two defensive linemen were tagged as Comeback Player of the Year Watch List candidates this preseason after suffering injuries in Spring 2024.
 - Tavion Gadson, a sophomore, has been very patient since stepping foot in Lexington as a freshman two years ago. He played just four games as a freshman in 2023, with the goal to redshirt, then he suffered a knee injury in Spring 2024. It kept him out for majority of last season, playing limited snaps in just two games in 2024.
 - Josaih Hayes is due for a big season. This will mark his sixth season in the program, with 45 career games, four starts and 57 career tackles under his belt prior to this season. He sat out most of last season after suffering a torn Achilles tendon in Spring 2024. He, too, played limited snaps in three games in 2024.

BRAD'S BENCHMARKS

- Brad White is in his seventh season as the defensive coordinator, and his eighth season overall at Kentucky, since Mark Stoops plucked him from the NFL in 2018. He became defensive coordinator in 2019, and UK has steadily become more stout on that side of the ball.
 - Other programs have taken notice, too, as White has turned down other coaching opportunities in that time.
- Kentucky's defense has remained constant under White, and that is evident by the benchmarks he continues to reach year-in and year-out.
 - The UK defense has held opponents to 30 points or fewer in 60-of-76 games - 78.9 percent - with White as the defensive coordinator (2019-present).
 - The UK defense has held opponents to 24 points or fewer in 30 of the last 43 games - 69.8 percent - since November 2021.

- For the first time since 1983-89, UK has allowed 26 points or fewer per game in seven straight seasons (2018-24).
- For the first time since 1946-54, UK has yielded fewer than 162 rushing yards per game for seven straight seasons (2018-24).

TACKLE TERROR

- Going into Week 5, senior linebacker Alex Afari Jr. leads the league and is 36th in the nation in total tackles per game with 8.7. He also is first in the league and tied for sixth in the nation in solo stops per game at 6.0.
 - He has had at least 10 tackles in three of his last four games, a stretch that dates back to the end of last season.
- Prior to Eastern Michigan in Week 3, Afari had nine straight games with a tackle for loss, which tied the second-longest streak in program history and one short of the school record.
- FUN FACT: A native of Italy, Afari’s family moved to Ghana, then moved to the United States when he was eight-years-old. A friend asked him to play youth league football and he agreed - thinking he was going to play soccer. American football was initially a total mystery, but he stuck with the sport, and the rest is history.

STEVEN “SACK ‘EM” SOLES JR.

- Against Toledo in Week 1, Steven Soles Jr., sophomore linebacker, had a career-high two quarterback sacks (-20 yards), causing a fumble on both plays. He had another strong pass rush that drew a hands-to-the-face penalty, nullifying a completion for a first down and forcing a punt.
 - He is the first player to have two sacks in a game since Octavious Oxendine had two at Ole Miss on Sept. 28, 2024.

TY BRYANT’S TWO INTERCEPTIONS

- Ty Bryant, junior safety from right here in Lexington, had two interceptions on back-to-back drives against Ole Miss on Sept. 6, each of which set up a Kentucky score.
 - He is the first Wildcat with two interceptions in an SEC home game since Anthony Wajda against LSU in 1999.
 - His two pickoffs lead the SEC in that category.
- The performance earned him honorable mention for the Thorpe Award National DB of the Week.
- Bryant also has been an active tackler, as his 26.0 sacks per game rank second on the team and ninth in the SEC.

AN APPETITE FOR TURNOVERS

- The Wildcats improved their streak to 12 straight games forcing a turnover after Terhyon Nichols’ breakup and Daveren Rayner’s pick on the first play of the game against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 13.
- Kentucky’s defense has intercepted the ball on the opponents’ first possession in two of three games thus far in 2025.
 - FUN FACT: UK has only allowed 19 yards total on opponents’ first possessions.
- The Wildcats have forced six turnovers on downs so far this this season.

PICK SIX

- UK has had 11 interceptions returned for touchdowns since 2020, including two each in two different games.
- UK has had at least one interception returned for touchdown in each of the last five seasons (2020-24).
 - It marked the first time UK has assembled five straight seasons with a pick six since 1968-72.
 - An interception return for TD this season would give UK six straight seasons with a pick six, setting the school record for consecutive seasons.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

AIDAN LAROS' "ZERO TOUGHNESS"

- Aidan Laros (pronounced luh-ROSS), starting punter, was named to the 2025 Preseason Coaches All-Southeastern Conference Third Team after handling kickoffs and also was the primary punter in the last nine games last season.
- He's become wildly popular for his "zero toughness" rating on EA Sports' College Football 26, which he humbly and comically calls an obvious mistake. He's undoubtedly the first rugby player in history to have a zero toughness rating (see below).
 - FUN FACT: Aidan played rugby growing up in South Africa. Also, his father, Adrian, played 14 seasons of Division I rugby in South Africa and three seasons of professional rugby in France.
- Laros, who is already on the watch list for the Ray Guy Award, was named one of "Ray's 8" after his last performance against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 13.
 - In that game, Laros punted three times, totaling 152 yards for a 50.7 yards-per-punt average. Two of his punts were 50-plus yards (51 and 54), and he also landed two of his three punts inside the 20-yard line. Laros' punting average improved to 44.71 yards per punt, which going into Week 5, ranks sixth in the Southeastern Conference and 32nd nationally. Meanwhile, his career average at UK is now 45.2 yards per punt.

HOLY KAUWE!

- Jacob Kauwe (pronounced COW-way), a redshirt freshman from Billings, Montana, handles field goals and extra points for the Wildcats.
 - Going into Week 5, he has made all six field goal attempts and all 11 extra points this season, which are also his career numbers.
 - Kauwe's longest field goal - in high school or in college - is 51 yards, which he set against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 13.

- Mark Stoops has said he would be willing to try Kauwe from as long as 60 yards.

AGE IS ONLY A NUMBER

UK holder and punter Wilson Berry is one of the oldest players in college football this season. At 27 years old he is the fifth-oldest player:

Name	Age	Pos.	Birthday	School
Jack Murley	30	P	4/23/95	Southern Miss
Monte Harrison	30	WR	8/10/95	Arkansas
Billy Gowers	29	P	6/10/96	Hawaii
Mitch McCarthy	27	P	10/10/97	Indiana
WILSON BERRY	27	P	6/8/98	KENTUCKY

KICKOFF RETURN FOR TOUCHDOWN

- Kentucky is one of two schools (also Florida State) that have at least one kickoff return for touchdown each of the last three years (2022-24).
 - 2024 - 1
 - 2023 - 3
 - 2022 - 1

NONCONFERENCE COMPETITION

- The Wildcats have won 21 of their last 22 nonconference games in the regular season.
 - Kentucky had won 19 straight nonconference games in the regular season, a stretch that was second in the nation behind Georgia, before falling to Louisville on Nov. 30, 2024.
- Kentucky has won 24 of its last 27 nonconference games.
 - That stretch featured 16 straight nonconference wins, which was the longest active streak in FBS at the time, including four straight bowl wins. The streak began in the season opener on Sept. 1, 2018 and ended in the Music City Bowl game on Dec. 31, 2022.

YOUNGSTOWN BOYS

- A neighbor of Pittsburgh, a.k.a. Steel City USA, Youngstown, Ohio, has a reputation as a blue collar community defined by hard work and relationships forged over generations that are stronger than steel. Kentucky's football program is, in many ways, defined by that bond as it creates a southern alumni club from Youngstown, the hometown of head coach Mark Stoops, his brother Mike Stoops and several other key members of the program. Below is a list of staffers and players from Youngstown:
 - Mark Stoops – Head Coach (Cardinal Mooney High School)
 - Mike Stoops – Inside Linebackers Coach (Cardinal Mooney)

 - Washington starred at Missouri from 2009-2013, helping lead the Tigers to four bowl games. He returned for one year as the school's Director of Player Development in 2020. He then spent time at Southern University and Oklahoma as a wide receivers coach before moving to South Florida the past two seasons, which both ended in bowl appearances.
- Shay played at both Western and Eastern Illinois before beginning his coaching career as a student assistant in 2011.
 - One of Shay's early stops included prep powerhouse IMG Academy, where he was the Co-Offensive Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach. He guided six All-American linemen while there and 10 who signed Division I.
 - Shay's collegiate coaching experience includes stops at McNeese State, LSU, Missouri and Marshall before spending the 2024 season as a senior offensive analyst and run game specialist at Kentucky.

KROGER FIELD

On game day, Kroger Field often becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 338 games within the friendly confines of newly-named Kroger Field. UK has a 185-149-4 record (.553), 49-34 (.590) under Mark Stoops.
- 2024 marks the 52nd season at the facility.
- UK set a new Kroger Field attendance record when 63,543 fans packed the stadium for the Nov. 3, 2018 game vs. No. 6 Georgia.
- Two of the top five crowds in Kroger Field history came in 2018.
- UK announced its first sellout since 2015 when 62,945 fans attended the Florida game on Sept. 23, 2017.
- Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 60,261 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance in 17 of the last 19 seasons. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years. *Note: Kroger Field capacity was limited to 12,000 fans per game in 2020 due to COVID-19 restrictions
- The stadium footprint is named C.M. Newton Grounds at Kroger Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.

KROGER FIELD

Commonwealth Stadium was renamed to Kroger Field in May of 2017. The agreement--which is between Kroger and JMI Sports, UK's multimedia rights partner-- begins at approximately $1.85 million annually with a term of up to 12 years. With the partnership, Kroger becomes the Official Fuel Partner of the University of Kentucky and the Official Grocery Partner of Move-In at UK while also providing additional engagement opportunities with UK students. Per the agreement, Kroger is also the Official Nutrition and Pharmacy Partner of UK Athletics.

Kroger Field was transformed into a state-of-the-art facility after a $126-million reinvention which was completed prior to the 2015 season. The project was handled by HNTB. The outside of the stadium underwent a dramatic external facelift, receiving a modern look, but one that remained uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Kroger Field was reduced over the course of the two-year project to approximately 61,000, but the value of all remaining seats were increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses were revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches reaped the benefits of the new Kroger Field as well, as home-team facilities were built, and a multi-purpose recruiting room hosts future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.

NEW LIGHTING, RIBBON BOARDS

In 2024, Kroger Field featured brand new lighting and ribbon boards. The LED lighting system will include the ability to do light shows during timeouts and breaks in play similar to those at games in Rupp Arena and Kentucky Proud Park. The new ribbon boards have greater functionality, featuring sharper visual resolution than the previous set and expanded capability for display of video and graphics.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Seating Capacity: 61,000, including the Commonwealth Suites

Playing Field: UK switched from natural grass to synthetic turf for the 2015 season. Other SEC schools with a turf surface are: Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Missouri. The end zones and team sideline areas feature a checkerboard pattern in alternating shades of blue. It was designed to mimic the pattern of Secretariat's silks, which has been part of the football uniforms for five seasons. The school's new interlocking "UK" logo is positioned in the center of the field.

Video Boards: Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage.

Sound System: Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

GAME DAY EXPERIENCES

The "Cat Walk" on Talbott Todd Way: With the unveiling of the new $45 million Kentucky Football Training Facility in August of 2016, the headquarters of the program moved next door to Kroger Field. Therefore, the Cat Walk was moved to Talbott Todd Way. The Cat Walk typically begins outside Gate 1 two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff, and the team proceeds past Gate 1 and between Kroger Field and Nutter Field House. It was dedicated to former Wildcat Talbott Todd (1963-65) who passed away from ALS in August of 2017 and was an avid supporter of the program. From Talbott Todd Way the team walks to the locker room in the Joe Craft Kentucky Football Training Facility.

Lift Them Up: A unique partnership with Toyota Motor Manufacturing Kentucky (TMMK), the Kentucky College of Engineering and the Kentucky Children's Hospital was launched in 2019 that brings special guests to the Cat Walk as the Kentucky football team arrives at Kroger Field. A specially built push cart vehicle provides a Kentucky Children's Hospital patient the chance to both accompany the Wildcats on the Cat Walk and attend a game at Kroger Field. A new patient is chosen by the Kentucky Children's Hospital each week to participate.

HEAD COACH MARK STOOPS / 13TH SEASON / IOWA, 1989

The longest-termed coach in Kentucky history and having the longest term of any current coach in the Southeastern Conference, Mark Stoops looks to add to his legacy of success entering his 13th season with the Wildcats in 2025.

Stoops holds school records for wins (69), home wins (49), SEC wins (31) and wins over ranked opponents (12). Last season's victory at No. 6 Ole Miss was fifth straight season that his Wildcats had knocked off a ranked opponent, yet another school record.

In addition to the records listed above, a partial accounting of Stoops' exploits features:

- Seven bowl appearances
- A school-record, 16-game win streak against nonconference competition (2018-22), which was the nation's longest active streak at the time.
- First top-10 ranking in each the Associated Press poll and the coaches' poll since 2007 (Sept. 11, 2022)
- First consecutive top-10 rankings in each poll since 1977 (Sept. 18, 2022)
- First home win over Florida since 1986, also marking the first win over an Associated Press top 10-ranked opponent since 2010 (2021)

- First win at Tennessee since 1984 (2020)
- First New Year's Day Bowl win since 1951 (2018 season)
- First 10-win season since 1977 (2018)
- First SEC Coach of the Year since 1983 (2018)
- First final poll ranking since 1984 (2018)
- First bowl win since 2008 (2018 season)
- First win vs. Florida since 1986 (2018)
- First bowl appearance since 2010 (2016)

Individually, Stoops' players have won All-America accolades, along with honors such as the Bronko Nagurski Award, Chuck Bednarik Award, Paul Hornung Award, Ronnie Lott Trophy, Ray Guy Award, Danny Wuerffel Trophy, Jason Witten Man of the Year, Pop Warner Award, Freddie Solomon Spirit Award, Academic All-America and National Good Works Team.

Kentucky's football team has fared well academically under Stoops, as each year UK's football score in the NCAA Academic Progress Rate has been well above the benchmark of 930.

Off the field, Stoops is a staunch supporter of the Kentucky Children's Hospital, helping raise more than $500,000 annually for the kids. He was named the Honorary Coach of the 2022 AFCA Good Works Team.

The bountiful crop of victories and honors are the fruit of the last nine seasons, but the harvest didn't come easily. Arriving in 2013, inheriting a team that had gone 2-10 the season before, it took three years of plowing, planting and growing before the results came.

Stoops earned his first bowl game as head coach in 2016, when the Wildcats overcame an 0-2 start to go 7-3 down the stretch and advance to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. UK duplicated seven wins in 2017, playing in the Franklin-American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

Led by linebacker Josh Allen, the National Defensive Player of the Year, and Benny Snell Jr., the school's all-time leading rusher, the 2018 squad went 10-3. It was UK's best season in 41 years, topped by a win over Penn State in the VRBO Citrus Bowl. It was only the third 10-win season in school history.

In addition, the 2018 campaign featured a win at Florida -- the Wildcats' first victory over the Gators in 32 years -- resulting in UK being named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America. The regular season concluded with a 56-10 win at in-state rival Louisville, the largest margin of victory in the history of the Governor's Cup series.

UK was No. 11 in the final USA Today coaches' poll and No. 12 in the final Associated Press tabulation, the school's first appearance in the final rankings since 1984. The 2018 season also continued a remarkable trend -- since Stoops took over as coach of the Cats in 2013, UK was the only school in the nation that tied or improved its win total in six straight seasons.

CollegeFootballNews.com listed Stoops as the best coaching performance of the season and he was named Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year by The Associated Press, Athlon Sports and the league coaches.

The 2019 season was one of the most unusual in school history. A succession of injuries decimated the quarterbacks and Stoops turned to wide receiver Lynn Bowden Jr. to man the QB position. Running the ball almost exclusively, UK went 6-2 down the stretch and closed the season with four straight wins, topped by a dramatic come-from-behind Belk Bowl win over Virginia Tech when Bowden threw the game-winning touchdown pass with only 15 seconds remaining.

Stoops followed with the Covid-shortened 2020 season that was capped by a Gator Bowl win over No. 23 North Carolina State.

More winning seasons and bowl appearances have followed, giving Stoops the school records in both categories, and prompting ESPN analyst Tom Luginbill to call Stoops "the best program builder in all of college football.”

How has Stoops accomplished all of this? The coach would tell you that there’s been nothing magical about the process.

True to his blue-collar roots in Youngstown, Ohio, the methodical advancement made by Stoops’ teams is a reflection of the coach’s rock-steady work ethic, tireless recruiting, and ability to adapt.

Stoops came to Kentucky from Florida State, where he was defensive coordinator from 2010-12. He inherited a unit ranked 108th in the nation in total defense and turned it into one of the nation’s best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game. Playing well against the run and the pass, FSU was third in the country in rushing defense and led the nation in pass defense. FSU led the ACC in seven defensive categories. Stoops also coached the defensive backs under head coach Jimbo Fisher.

Eight Seminoles on defense earned 2012 All-ACC honors, including four first-team selections, highlighted by one of the nation’s top defensive end duos in Bjoern Werner and Corneliuss Carradine, who combined for 24 sacks and 31 tackles for loss. Werner was a finalist for the 2012 Bronko Nagurski Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and was among the national leaders in sacks with 13.

Stoops also coached cornerback Ronald Darby to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year. The Seminoles’ prowess was a continuation of the 2011 season, when Stoops’ defenders led the nation in fewest yards allowed per carry (2.3), ranked fourth in the nation in total defense (275 yards per game), second in rushing defense (82.7 ypg), fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), and eighth in tackles for loss (8.6 per game) and quarterback sacks (3.1 per game). FSU led the ACC in eight defensive categories.

Stoops overhauled the Florida State defense in 2010, his first season as defensive coordinator. The Seminoles gave up 19.6 points per game, third-best in the ACC and 20th nationally. FSU ranked 42nd nationally in total defense that season; in contrast, the team was 108th nationally in total defense and 94th in scoring defense in 2009, the year before Stoops’ arrival. FSU improved its overall defense by more than 80 yards per game, primarily by limiting opponents to 75 fewer rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and were 21st in tackles for loss. In the secondary, Stoops coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades.

During Stoops’ three seasons, FSU went 10-4, 9-4 and 12-2, including wins over South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Notre Dame in the 2011 Champs Sports Bowl and Northern Illinois in the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Stoops was defensive coordinator and DBs coach at Arizona from 2004-09, working for his brother, Mike, who was head coach of the Wildcats. During Mark’s time there, Arizona’s records improved steadily, going 3-8, 3-8, 6-6, 5-7, 8-5 and 8-5. The Wildcats advanced to the Las Vegas Bowl and Holiday Bowl during the last two years.

Stoops inherited an Arizona unit that was 109th in the nation in total defense and 107th in scoring defense in 2003, the year before he arrived. By the end of his term at Arizona, the Wildcats ranked in the nation’s top 25 in total defense his final two seasons and ranked as high as 33rd in scoring defense.

Mark and Mike are also brothers of Bob Stoops, who spent 18 years as the Oklahoma head coach and has been elected to the College Football Hall of Fame. The eldest Stoops brother, Ron Jr., is retired after coaching at Youngstown State. Mark and Mike have reunited in Lexington, as Mike joined the UK staff in 2022 as inside linebackers coach.

Prior to Arizona, Mark Stoops coached the defensive backs three years at Miami (Fla.). The 2001 national champion Hurricanes led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin. That team also established a school record with 27 interceptions and 45 total takeaways.

Stoops’ 2002 secondary led the nation in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Despite having to replace all four starters in the defensive backfield, the 2003 team led the nation in pass defense. In his three seasons, Miami went 35-3, including the 12-0 Rose Bowl title campaign, plus appearances in the Fiesta and Orange bowls. Ten Miami defensive backs who played at least one season under Stoops were eventually selected in the National Football League draft – seven in the first round.

Stoops got his first experience in leading a defense as co-defensive coordinator at Houston in the 2000 season. He coached the secondary at Wyoming from 1997-99 and the Cowboys notched three straight winning seasons. A highlight of his time there was a school-record 24 interceptions in the '97 season. His first full-time coaching job was in 1996 at South Florida, helping USF in the start-up of its program before the Bulls had their first kickoff in '97.

STOOPS AND CO. MAKING A HIT IN RECRUITING

Now in his 13th season at the helm of the Kentucky football program, head coach Mark Stoops and his staff have been making noise on the recruiting trail. Kentucky’s 13 classes under Stoops have ranked in the top 50 by all four major recruiting services. Below is a look at UK’s recruiting success under Stoops and Co.

Kentucky’s Signing Day class for 2022 was UK’s highest-rated class in the available history of recruiting rankings.

Stoops has recruited and developed numerous outstanding defensive backs, many of whom went on to National Football League careers. Among the notables are Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson at Arizona, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Meriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph and Sean Taylor and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

Stoops was raised in Youngstown, Ohio. As did brothers Bob and Mike, Mark played in the secondary at the University of Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. He participated in four bowl games as a player. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant coach at Iowa in the 1990 and '91 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl, duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player. Stoops went on to coach four years in high school before entering the collegiate ranks.

Stoops has two sons, Will and Zack.
