GAMECOCK NOTABLES

- Tuesday's game is the fourth South Carolina-Clemson matchup in the 2025-26 edition of the SC Education Lottery Palmetto Series, which the Tigers lead 2-0 after wins in men's soccer and volleyball and a tie in women's soccer.
- The Gamecock offense has been humming early, ranking 11th in the nation with 104.0 points per game behind 61.8 percent shooting that ranks third in the nation and sits atop the SEC. The team's 67.8 percent accuracy from 2-point range is sixth-best in the country.
- After head coach Dawn Staley challenged her team in the preseason to match their offensive energy on the defensive end, South Carolina has opened the season ranked 17th in the nation in field goal percentage defense, allowing opponents to shoot just 25.7 percent. The Gamecocks' +53.5 scoring margin is 18th in the country.
- South Carolina's quick-strike offense is fourth in the country with 34.5 fast break points per game, which accounts for 33.2 percent of the Gamecocks' total scoring.
- The Gamecocks' 53.0 points in the paint per game account for 51.0 percent of their offense and rank 12th in the nation. They are shooting 72.6 percent in the paint while allowing opponents to hit just 31.0 percent in that space.
- All 10 Gamecocks on the active roster are shooting at least 50.0 percent from the field this season, including five hitting at least 60.0 percent. Three Gamecocks are among the SEC's top 20 in shooting percentage – Madina Okot (5th, .714), Joyce Edwards (8th, .696) and Ta'Niya Latson (17th, .517).
- South Carolina's trio of starting guards have been masterful in all facets of the game early to start the season, combining to average 46.0 points on 61.8 percent (34-of-58) shooting, 15.0 rebounds and 16.0 assists.
- Sophomore forward Joyce Edwards has picked up right where she left off last season, which ended in NCAA Final Four All-Tournament Team honors. She is tied with Latson as the Gamecocks' top scorer at 18.5 points per game to rank sixth in the SEC, and her .696 field goal percentage is eighth-best in the league. Her 11-of-12 outing against Bowling Green (Nov. 7) was the fourth-best single-game field goal percentage in program history and the best since Aliyah Boston's perfect 13-of-13 game in November 2021.

Eight Gamecocks have played more than 15.0 minutes per game this season.

11

Raven Johnson's 11 assists against Bowling Green are the most by an SEC player this season.

300

A win tonight would be the Gamecocks' 300th in Colonial Life Arena, which opened Nov. 22, 2002, with a win over the Tigers.

The Staley Effect

Under Dawn Staley, South Carolina women's basketball has been a perennial national power since winning its first SEC title in 2013-14. A few of the highlights from that.

- 5 straight NCAA Final Four appearances (2021-2025) is the longest active streak and the second-longest streak in tournament history.
- 3 National Championships are third most by a single program in tournament history.
- 10th undefeated National Championship season in NCAA history (2023-24)
- 84 AP No. 1 rankings are third-most by a program in the poll's history.
- 119 straight AP Top-10 rankings is the longest active streak – more than three times the next program (Texas, 30)
- 11 Gamecocks have earned All-America status at least once in their careers

The Clemson Series

This in-state rivalry dates back to the Gamecocks' first official season of intercollegiate women's sports – 1975-76.

South Carolina's current 14-game win streak finally put the Gamecocks on top in the series 36-33. In the Dawn Staley era (beginning in 2008-09), South Carolina is 14-2.

In last season's 77-45 victory in Clemson (Nov. 20), the Gamecocks shook off an early Clemson lead to dominate the second quarter for a 29-17 halftime advantage. The Gamecocks went on to shoot 57.6 percent in the second half en route to the commanding victory. South Carolina native Joyce Edwards posted eight points and six rebounds, including five offensive, in her rivalry debut.

Home Sweet Home

The Gamecocks are 548-168 (.765) in home games (some records prior to 1976-77 did not include location of games). Current head coach Dawn Staley is 236-35 at home for a program-best .871 winning percentage.

Playing in its 24th season at Colonial Life Arena, South Carolina boasts a 299-68 (.815) record in the building, including four undefeated seasons since 2013-14. Staley's share of that record is 233-35 (.869).

South Carolina's longest home winning streak is 71 (Dec. 17, 2020 - Feb. 13, 2025), which is an SEC record and ranks fourth in NCAA history.

Ranking Review

South Carolina is currently ranked No. 2 in both the AP Poll and the USA Today/WBCA Coaches' Poll.

It marks the Gamecocks' 119th consecutive entry in the AP top 10, beginning with the 2019-20 preseason poll. It is the longest active streak and the eighth longest in the history of that poll (7th is 137, Baylor). Their 250 straight appearances in the AP Poll, dating back to Dec. 10, 2012, marks the second-longest active streak in the nation and is the seventh longest all-time (6th, Maryland, 251).

In the USA Today/WBCA Coaches' Poll, South Carolina has been in the top 10 since claiming the No. 10 spot in the 2019-20 preseason poll.

Schedule Sketch

South Carolina's schedule continues to challenge and prepare the team for the postseason. This year's slate features 11 games against teams ranked in the preseason top 25 – four at home, four on the road and three at neutral sites. Six of the 11 games are against teams in the preseason top 10.

The non-conference schedule is highlighted by four ranked matchups – vs. #18/16 Southern Cal (Nov. 15), vs. #7/6 Duke (Nov. 26) vs. #3/4 UCLA or #4/3 Texas (Nov. 27) and at #20/19 Louisville (Dec. 4).

The Staley File

In her 26th season as a head coach, Dawn Staley has a .774 (649-190) winning percentage, which ranks ninth in the nation among active head coaches and 10th all-time. With three national championships, she ranks fourth among head coaches all-time in NCAA titles.

Staley is one of just two women's basketball coaches to lead their teams to multiple 40-game win streaks in NCAA history with the Gamecocks' recent program-record 43-game streak ranking seventh longest in NCAA history. She is the first Black head coach to win multiple national championships in men's or women's basketball and one of just 11 men's or women's coaches to win at least three. She is one of seven coaches to lead a team to at least four NCAA National Championship games.

Now in her 18th season with the Gamecocks, Staley is the program's all-time winningest coach (477) with a program-record 14 postseason appearances. She accounts for all seven of the Gamecocks' Final Four appearances and the only NCAA National Championships in program history.

Staley's nine SEC regular-season championships trail only Pat Summitt's 16 in league history, and her seven SEC Coach of the Year awards trail Summitt's league record by just one. Staley's 214 SEC regular-season wins are the most among active league coaches and third all-time – behind just Summitt (Tennessee, 306) and Andy Landers (Georgia, 273). She was the second-fastest to the 200-win mark in league history with her 255 games trailing Summitt's mark of 229. Staley's .793 SEC winning percentage (214-56) is second only to Summitt (.874) among coaches in the league at least five seasons. She owns the SEC record for consecutive regular-season conference victories with a 57-game streak that began in the 2021-22 season and ended in 2024-25.

Balancing Act

South Carolina's active roster may only be 10 players, but the talent runs deep. Six Gamecocks average double-figure points this season with a seventh just behind at 8.5 points per game.

All 10 Gamecocks are shooting at least 50.0 percent from the field, including four who rank among the SEC's top 20 in field goal percentage led by Madina Okot's 71.4 percent and Joyce Edwards' 69.6 percent.

Four Gamecocks average at least 5.0 rebounds per game, including starting guards Raven Johnson (6.5 rpg) and Tessa Johnson (6.0 rpg).

Paint Production

South Carolina has long controlled the paint, and this season looks to be no different.

With 51.0 percent of their points coming in the paint, the Gamecocks are 12th in the nation with 53.0 paint points per game, according to CBBAnalytics.com, and are outscoring opponents in that space by 35.0 points per game. They are shooting 72.6 percent in the paint compared to opponents' 31.0 percent accuracy.

The paint production has been spread across the roster with guards accounting for 23.0 paint points per game – 43.4 percent of the total scoring in that space.

Quarter Breakdown

South Carolina has been quick out of the gate so far this season, outscoring its opponents in by 19.5 points per first quarter. The Gamecocks have shot 58.8 percent in the opening 10 minutes while holding opponents to just 18.8 percent in that stretch.

Here's a more detailed look at the quarter-by-quarter production for the Gamecocks this season:

Qtr.	SC-Opp		Avg. Pts.		SC-Opp
	Avg. Pts	Margin	Avg. Pts	Margin	Avg. Reb.	Margin
1	28.0-8.5	+19.5	12.5-7.0	+5.5
2	29.5-16.5	+13.0	14.5-6.5	+8.0

4	21.5-9.5	+12.0	9.0-7.0	+2.0

Individually, one Gamecock has scored double digits in a single quarter – Tessa Johnson. The top single-quarter individual scoring this season is 10 points by Johnson in the second quarter at Grand Canyon (Nov. 3).

First Watch

Gamecocks have dominated the many national award watch lists that are announced each preseason.

South Carolina is one of three schools with a player on each of the Naismith Hall of Fame Women's Starting Five watch lists.

Three Gamecocks – Joyce Edwards, Raven Johnson, Ta'Niya Latson – are on the watch lists for the Naismith Women's Player of the Year and the USBWA's Ann Meyers Drysdale Player of the Year award. South Carolina is one of two schools with three players on both lists.

Edwards and Latson are also among the 20 players on the Wade Trophy Watch List, which is the WBCA's national player of the year award.

Latson drew preseason All-America honors from both

71.4 percent accuracy stands fifth in the league. The 6-foot-6 center has drawn praise from her head coach on her strength and a challenge to impose her will, her dominance every time she steps on the court. After an average season opener, Okot responded in her second game as a Gamecock with 13 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high tying four blocks in just 22 minutes against Bowling Green (Nov. 7)

Freshman Findings

South Carolina freshman guards Agot Makeer (#6 in the 2025 Class) and Ayla McDowell (#15 in the 2025 Class) are both McDonald's All-Americans who represented their home countries in international competition this summer.

After leading Montverde Academy to a runner-up finish at the Chipotle High School National Championships, Makeer, suited up for Canada at the FIBA U19 World Cup, helping it to a fourth-place finish with 10.3 points, including 46.2 percent 3-point shooting, and 4.9 rebounds per game.

The long, lithe Makeer is adapting well to college, averaging 8.5 points on 55.6 percent shooting, and her 2.0 blocks per game are ninth in the SEC.

McDowell amassed over 2,700 career points in high school before wearing her Brazil jersey at both the FIBA AmeriCup and the FIBA U19 World Cup over the summer. For the U19 team, she was the top scorer with a 16.8 scoring average while averaging 4.5 rebounds and 2.7 steals.

That experience and versatility has translated to her college game with McDowell averaging 10.0 points on 60.0 percent shooting, and she is second on the team with 1.5 steals per game.

Everybody's All-American

The Gamecocks' 11-woman roster includes eight McDonald's All-Americans – Maryam Dauda, Joyce Edwards, Raven Johnson, Tessa Johnson, Ta’Niya Latson, Agot Makeer, Maddy McDaniel and Ayla McDowell.

At South Carolina, Staley has coached 29 McDonald's All-Americans, including 22 who signed as freshmen.

Up Next

Just as the 2025-26 season began, fans can make plans for the Gamecocks' 2026-27 season with three games already announced on the team's schedule – all are a return to events that have featured South Carolina before.

The Gamecocks will return to Paris for Oui Play 2026, facing Maryland in the season opener on Nov. 2. The Gamecocks are also slated to take on UConn in the 2026 Basketball Hall of Fame Women's Showcase on Nov. 24. Most recently, the Charlotte Sports Foundation announced South Carolina's three-year commitment to the Ally Tipoff with games against North Carolina (2026), UConn (2027) and NC State (2028).

WNBA Pipeline

Dawn Staley's status as a dream merchant is most evident by the steady stream of Gamecocks being drafted into and enjoying lengthy careers in the WNBA. Since her first Gamecock was drafted in 2015, she has seen 18 have their name called on draft night – the second-most by a program in that time.

Staley's numbers have skyrocketed since 2020 with an NCAA-best 12 draft picks since then, including a best-in-the-nation six first-round selections in that time.

In proof Staley sends players to the league ready, six Gamecocks have earned All-Rookie Team honors, including three WNBA Rookies of the Year – Allisha Gray (2017), Aja Wilson (2018), Aliyah Boston (2023).

Great Gamecock Fans

South Carolina fans have led the nation in average attendance for the last 11 seasons, although the NCAA does not officially recognize the COVID-limited attendance in the 2020-21 season. The Gamecocks are on track to continue that streak after selling out of season tickets for the second time in as many seasons and opening the 2025-26 slate with the two highest-attended games of the season so far.

The Gamecocks have had at least one sellout of their 18,000-seat Colonial Life Arena for eight straight seasons (excluding COVID-limited 2020-21 season) dating back to the first ever sellout of 18,000 on Feb. 8, 2016. There have been at least five sellouts in each of the last two seasons.

South Carolina's attendance average of 16,437 in 2024-25 is the second-highest in the history of the NCAA, narrowly trailing Tennessee's 1998-99 average of 16,565. That mark included a program-record seven sellouts.

SEASON THEME:
BEYOND MEASURE

Each year Dawn Staley chooses a theme for the team and fans to center their season around, and it often reflects not just the state of South Carolina women's basketball, but that of the game overall.

The Gamecocks' 2025-26 season theme is Beyond Measure, which centers on the value of the whole person or group beyond the commonly measured scale. A player's value to the team is not measured solely by her statline but also by a myriad of other ways she elevates her team. Championships and awards are not valued because they yield a trophy but also because they lift up a university, a city, a state. The value of the FAMS who support the team around the country is more than the value of ticket sales, but it is in the way they form a united community that supersedes all their difference.

More broadly, Beyond Measure is a reminder that the ceiling of the team and its players – and that of women's basketball as a sport – will always shatter any limitations others may place on it.

In women's basketball, Colonial Life Arena has become one of the most feared places to play as enormous crowds fill the building with passion for the Gamecocks.

The state of South Carolina has rallied around head coach Dawn Staley's program in unprecedented numbers as the Gamecocks have led the nation in average attendance in each of the last 10 seasons and boast 21 sellouts (18,000) in the last 10 seasons of full capacity arenas.

Colonial Life Arena is more than just the home of South Carolina men's and women's basketball, though. It is also a thriving entertainment venue that the city of Columbia and its surrounding metropolitan area are able to enjoy throughout the year.

Colonial Life Arena is the largest arena in the state of South Carolina with 18,000 seats, and the 10th-largest on-campus basketball facility in the nation. Located on the beautiful University of South Carolina campus, this one-of-a-kind facility features 41 suites, four entertainment suites, and the Frank McGuire Club, a full-service hospitality room that has a capacity of 300. The state-of-the-art facility also features plush seating, a technologically advanced sound system and a one-of-a-kind selection of unique concession foods that will delight fans of all ages.

In Summer 2017, a 12-display center-hung video board and ribbon boards were added to the arena bowl at a cost of $4.2 million. The center-hung board features four convex-curved main displays that measure approximately 12' x 20' and can show any combination of live video, instant replays, statistics and game information, graphics and animations, and sponsorship messages.

The Arena has hosted numerous sold out shows, including Barnum and Bailey Circus, Paul McCartney, country superstars Kenny Chesney and Taylor Swift, WWE Wrestling, Kanye West and numerous other acts.

The largest building ever constructed at the University of South Carolina at 342,000 square feet, the Arena has an intimate double-deck design that puts every seat close to the action. The cantilever of the upper deck over the lower deck extends further than any other arena of its size with great sight lines.

Two spacious locker rooms for Gamecock men's and women's basketball include team meeting rooms, recruiting rooms, coaches locker rooms and an athletic training room.

Head Coach DAWN STALEY

18th Season at South Carolina
26th Season in Career

Since thrusting South Carolina into the national spotlight when she was hired in May 2008, Dawn Staley has made the Gamecocks a mainstay in the battle for SEC and national championships. The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame inductee as a player is angling for another induction as a coach with her standing as one of five head coaches with at least three women's basketball National Championships and the only Black basketball head coach with multiple national titles, one of five head coaches to lead an undefeated team to a National Championship, and the first Black head coach of the USA Basketball Senior National Team.

In Staley's 17 seasons at the helm of the Gamecocks, highlights include:

- Three National Championships (2017, 2022, 2024)
- Seven NCAA Final Fours in the last 10 tournaments (2015, 2017, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025)

- 11 NCAA Attendance titles (2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021*, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025)
- 18 WNBA Draft selections, including 11 first-round and two overall No. 1 picks

While her coaching career is in full bloom, Staley is still recognized for her body of work as a one of the most decorated participants in United States women's basketball history. The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame solidified that legacy with her enshrinement as part of the Class of 2013. The Phoenix Club of Philadelphia established the Dawn Staley Award recognizing the nation's top guard in women's Division I basketball in 2013 as well. Staley was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2012, and she was part of the FIBA Hall of Fame Class of 2025.

In her 26th season as a head coach, Staley has led her college teams to 15 25-win seasons, a total of 21 postseason appearances (two WNIT) and 210 weeks in the Associated Press top 10, including 86 in the No. 1 spot – the third most times in the top spot in the history of that poll. Her .774 winning percentage (649-190) ranks seventh in the nation among active head coaches with at least 15 years of experience and ninth all-time.

Also a force in USA Basketball, Staley was named the U.S. Women's National Team head coach for 2017-21, leading the U.S. to 2018 FIBA World Cup gold to earn USA National Coach of the Year honors that year, adding gold medals at the 2019 and 2021 FIBA AmeriCups and stretching the U.S. Olympic gold medal streak to seven straight at the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games, for which she again earned Coach of the Year honors. Prior to that appointment, Staley led three other U.S. teams to gold medals – 2015 FIBA U19 World Championships, 2014 FIBA U18 Americas Championship, 2007 Pan Am Games – and served as an assistant on the Senior National Team 2006-08 and again 2014-16, during which the U.S. claimed gold in the 2014 FIBA World Championship and the 2008 and 2016 Olympics.

At the helm of the Gamecocks over the last 17 seasons, Staley has been named National Coach of the Year five times (2014, 2020, 2022, 2023, 2024). Her 2020 unanimous selection made her the first former Naismith Player of the Year to earn the Naismith Coach of the Year award, and she became the first men's or women's coach to claim the award in three straight seasons 2022-24. She is a seven-time SEC Coach of the Year and was the 2012 BCA Female Coach of the Year. She is the only Gamecock basketball coach – men's or women's – to amass 300 victories at South Carolina and became the fastest coach to 200 wins in program history, needing just 277 games at South Carolina to reach the plateau. She is the program's all-time winningest coach with 477 wins, a .813 (477-110) winning percentage and a program-record 14 postseason appearances.

In the vaunted SEC, Staley's 214 league wins are the most among active league coaches and third all-time, trailing just Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Inductees Andy Landers (Georgia, 273) and Pat Summitt (Tennessee, 306). She was the second fastest to 200 league wins (255 games), trailing only Summitt at 229. Her .793 SEC winning percentage (214-56) is second only to Summitt (.874) in league history. Her Gamecocks are the only SEC program with multiple 16-0 seasons in league history, hitting that mark four times (2015-16, 2019-20, 2022-23, 2023-24). Staley's back-to-back SEC undefeated seasons helped the Gamecocks to an SEC-record 57-game win streak in league play, which ranks sixth in NCAA history for conference win streaks.

In addition to coaching two National Players of the Year, two National Defensive Players of the Year and a National Freshman of the Year, Staley has helped 13 Gamecocks collect 29 All-America selections, three to pick up seven SEC Player of the Year honors, four to earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year recognition a total of eight times, three to SEC 6th Player of the Year honors and six to capture SEC Freshman of the Year. She has coached 23 Gamecocks to All-SEC honors a combined 44 times, including 22 first-team selections. Since her first Gamecock was selected in the 2015 WNBA Draft, a total of 18 South Carolina have been chosen, which is the second-most of any program in that timeframe. Of those 18, 11 have been first-round picks, highlighted by two No. 1 overall picks since 2018. Three Gamecocks have been named WNBA Rookie of the Year and have amassed 13 All-Star selections. Aja Wilson went on to become a three-time WNBA MVP and two-time WNBA Defensive Player of the Year.
