Ed Conroy, a standout basketball cadet-athlete at The Citadel from 1985-89 and previous head coach of the Bulldogs from 2006-10, returned as sideline commander of his alma mater ahead of the 2022-23 season. Now entering his third season at the helm in 2025-26, Conroy continues to lead his alma mater.

He enters the 2025-26 campaign under the leadership of Director of Athletics Art Chase and The Citadel President Gen. Glenn M. Walters '79, USMC [Ret.].

Conroy previously served as head coach at The Citadel from 2006-10, guiding the Bulldogs to their first 20-win season in more than 30 years and a postseason berth in the CollegiateInsider.com Tournament.

During the 2024-25 season, The Citadel competed throughout a challenging schedule and was led by the play of Sola Adebisi and Christian Moore. Adebisi averaged 8.7 points and 6.0 rebounds per game, while Moore added 8.6 points per contest. Both return in 2025-26 as key pieces for a roster that combines returning experience with several new additions.

The 2023-24 campaign featured one of the program's most notable nonconference wins in recent years, as the Bulldogs defeated Notre Dame by 20 points in South Bend. AJ Smith and Elijah Morgan led the team offensively, averaging 16.2 and 14.5 points per game, respectively, while forward Quentin Millora-Brown ranked third in the Southern Conference in rebounding at 9.4 per game.

The 2022-23 season marked Conroy's return to Charleston and saw the Bulldogs record four Division I wins in November for the first time in program history, along with a victory over a 20-win Furman team.

Under Conroy's guidance, Stephen Clark was selected to both the All-Southern Conference Second Team and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Second Team, while Madison Durr was named to the SoCon All-Freshman Team.

The 20-win season of 2008-09 saw the Bulldogs amass a school-record 15 Southern Conference wins. The team was led by first-team all-conference selections Demetrius Nelson and Cameron Wells. Wells went on to become a three-time all-conference selection after being tabbed the Southern Conference Freshman of the Year by the coaches and media in 2007-08.

THE CITADEL BASKETBALL | GAME NOTES

HC^{ED} CONROY

Following the 2008–09 season, Conroy was selected as the SoCon Coach of the Year by the league’s head coaches and media members. He was also named the NABC District 22 Coach of the Year, CollegelInsider.com Coach of the Year, and the CollegelInsider.com Skip Prosser Man of the Year.

“I want to thank Gen. Walters and Director of Athletics Art Chase for their continued support of our basketball program,” said Conroy. “Ginny and I are extremely grateful to represent Charleston and be a part of a community and institution that mean so much to our family.”

“I look forward to building on the foundation we’ve established and continuing to recruit elite cadet-student-athletes who embody The Citadel’s values. It’s an incredible privilege to lead this program every day.”

“I look forward to building on the foundation we’ve established and continuing to recruit elite cadet-student-athletes who embody The Citadel’s values. It’s an incredible privilege to lead this program every day.”

Conroy most recently spent the 2021–22 season as the associate head coach at Vanderbilt. In his one season with the Commodores, Conroy helped guide the team to 19 wins and the third round of the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). The 19 wins marked the most for Vanderbilt since 2016–17, an improvement of 10 wins from the previous season.

He joined Vanderbilt after five seasons on staff at the University of Minnesota, serving as the associate head coach in his final year after four seasons as an assistant. During his time with the Gophers, Conroy guided the front court to three consecutive seasons with the conference’s leading rebounders in Jordan Murphy (2018, 2019) and Daniel Oturu (2020). Murphy left with the second-highest rebound total in Big Ten history, while Oturu earned the first Minnesota nod to an All-America team in 21 years. The Gophers made two NCAA Tournament appearances during his tenure, including a first-round victory over Louisville in 2019.

Conroy spent six seasons as head coach at Tulane, leading the Green Wave to a pair of postseason berths and the school’s first 20-win season in 13 years. The back-to-back postseason trips were the program’s first since 1996–97. His tenure included signature victories over Memphis and Cincinnati and produced seven all-conference players, including 2012 C-USA Freshman of the Year Ricky Tarrant.

The Davenport, Iowa, native has served as an assistant coach at seven different schools throughout his career. Prior to returning to The Citadel, he spent one season as an assistant at Coastal Carolina, following stints at Tennessee (2003–05) and Tulsa (2000–01). His first head-coaching position came at Francis Marion University (1997–2000), where he was named Peach Belt Conference Coach of the Year in 1998, after earlier assistant roles at Furman, VMI, and NC State.

A four-year letterwinner for the Bulldogs from 1985–89, Conroy still ranks among the all-time top 10 at The Citadel in career free-throw percentage [.815] and three-point percentage [.395]. A three-year starter, he served as team captain as a senior and held the rank of Lt. Colonel in the Corps of Cadets, the highest rank achieved by a basketball player in the modern era at The Citadel.

Conroy and his wife Ginny have three children: daughter Hannah and sons Riley and Hunt. He is also the cousin of The Citadel Hall of Famer Pat Conroy.

ACDEL HARRIS

BASKETBALL

Coach Del Harris is entering his second season as an assistant coach on Ed Conroy's staff at The Citadel, bringing more than two decades of coaching, player development, and program-building experience across the high school, collegiate, and grassroots levels.

Prior to returning to the Division I ranks, Harris spent eight years (2015–2024) as the head boys' basketball coach and program leader at Collegiate School in Richmond, Virginia. During his tenure, he guided the Cougars to over 100 wins in one of the top Division I private school leagues in the state, leading the program to two conference championship appearances, one regular season title, and three state tournament appearances. He coached 14 All-Conference players, one league MVP, and one ESPN Top 100 prospect.

In addition to his work at Collegiate, Harris operated Del Harris Basketball, hosting camps, mentoring student-athletes, and leading community outreach initiatives throughout the Richmond area.

At the collegiate level, Harris served as head coach and assistant athletics director at Vassar College (2008–2013). His Division I coaching background includes roles at the University of Richmond (administrative assistant, 2004–2005), Virginia Military Institute (assistant coach, 2005–2006), and Morgan State (assistant coach, 2007–2008).

Harris has also been a long-standing figure in grassroots basketball as the director and head coach of Team Richmond on the Hoop Group/Adidas circuit. Across two stints (2001–2004, 2015–2024), he has helped develop and place more than 100 players in Division I, II, and III programs.

Nationally, Harris has worked extensively with USA Basketball's Youth Development initiatives, serving as an on-court coach at regional academies and USAB Gold Camps. In 2019, he was selected as an on-court training camp coach for the USA Basketball U16 National Team, working with future NBA players such as Jalen Duren (Detroit Pistons), Grady Dick (Toronto Raptors), and Max Christie (Los Angeles Lakers).

In the summer of 2024, Harris was chosen as part of an elite group of Division I assistant coaches to participate in the Jay Bilas Leadership Program in Charlotte, North Carolina. From 2021–2024, he also worked alongside ESPN National Recruiting Director Paul Biancardi at evaluation and skills camps, while serving as an on-court coach at the NCAA Basketball Academies (2022–2024).

A native of Virginia, Harris was an all-state and all-region player at Fork Union Military Academy (1996) and graduated from Virginia State University in 2001 with a degree in Health and Physical Education.

AC CAMERON WELLS

The Citadel Head Men's Basketball Coach Ed Conroy welcomed back the program's all-time leading scorer, Cameron Wells 11', as an assistant coach in August 2023.

The Houston, Texas native started 126 games for the Bulldogs from 2007-2011 and is the only Citadel basketball player to reach the 2,000-career points mark, finishing with 2,049.

"I'm super excited to welcome Cameron back to our program following a long, successful pro career," said Coach Conroy. "Cam will be a terrific addition to our staff and a mentor for our young team. I was thrilled when he decided to forego the last few years of his pro career to get started in coaching. I believe he will quickly become a rising superstar in the profession."

Wells' career at The Citadel coincided with two of the most successful seasons in program history as the Bulldogs won 36 games, the most in any two-year stretch in school history, from 2008-2010. This included just the second 20-win season in program history during the 2008-09 campaign. That season culminated in The Citadel earning its first postseason appearance in school history as it was invited to compete in the CollegiateInsider.com Tournament.

The point guard also ranks among the Top 10 in program history in several career statistical categories including being first in assists (485), second in steals (187), sixth in points per game (16.1), and eighth in free throw percentage (80.4%).

After graduating from The Citadel, Wells spent the last 12 years playing professional basketball overseas, most recently in Poland with Trefl Sopot from 2022-23, winning the Polish Cup. Wells also played professionally in The Netherlands, Italy, and France.

While playing in the top-tier French pro league with Boulazac in 2017, Wells was named a league All-Star. The 6'1 guard won his first league championship in Germany in 2015 while also being named an All-Star in the top-tier Dutch Basketball League in 2012.

AC ANDREW GLOVER

BASKETBALL

The Citadel Head Men's Basketball Coach Ed Conroy has added a familiar face in the Charleston basketball scene with the addition of Andrew Glover to his staff ahead of the 2025-26 season.

Glover, a Charleston native and Wando High School alumna joins The Citadel after spending the past season as the head coach at Myers Park High School in Charlotte, North Carolina where he led his squad to a conference championship and Elite Eight finish while earning Conference Coach of the Year honors. Prior to Myers Park, Glover spent four years as the inaugural Head Boys' Basketball Coach at Lucy Beckham High School, leading the team to the Elite Eight in 2022-23 and Sweet Sixteen in 2023-24, earning Coach of the Year honors along the way. A captain of Wando's 2014 State Championship team, he has a proven track record of success and deep roots in the Lowcountry.

Glover's coaching journey includes experience at both the college and high school levels. He spent two seasons as an assistant coach at USC Aiken, contributing to player development and game strategy. Prior to that, he served as an assistant coach on state championship teams in 2018 and 2019 at Grey Collegiate Academy.

As a player, Glover competed at USC Aiken, Spartanburg Methodist and Hargrave Military Academy. He graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2019 with a bachelor's degree in Sport and Entertainment Management.

AC BRADY SCHUCK

BASKETBALL

The Citadel Head Men's Basketball Coach Ed Conroy has added Charleston native Brady Schuck to his staff as an assistant coach for the 2025-26 season.

Schuck brings a wealth of basketball knowledge and leadership to The Citadel. He spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach at Flagler College, being a part of two winning seasons with the Saints, including a 20-win campaign in 2023-24 that culminated in trip to the Peach Belt Conference Championship game.

He broke into the collegiate coaching ranks after two successful seasons as the Head Coach at James Island Charter School, compiling a 36-16 record and leading the Trojans to the Sweet Sixteen in 2023 and Region Championship in 2024, earning Region Coach of the Year honors in the process. He was the youngest high school head coach in the state at 24 years old.

Schuck played four seasons at Furman University and was a member of the Paladins 2016-17 SoCon Championship team. He received his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Furman.
