This year's slate features 14 games against teams ranked at the time of the game or in the current top 25 – six home, five road and three neutral sites. Six of the 14 games are against teams currently in the top 10.

The non-conference schedule was highlighted by three ranked matchups – vs. #8/10 Southern Cal (W, 69-52), vs. #4/4 Texas (L, 64-66), at #22/21 Louisville (W, 79-77) – and another win over Duke (83-66), which is currently ranked 20th in the AP Poll.

In the NET rankings, South Carolina is ranked fourth and has 13 Quad 1 games on the schedule, including four non-conference matchups. The Gamecocks are second in the SEC in the NET rankings.

Ranking Review

South Carolina is currently ranked No. 3 in both the AP Poll and the USA Today/WBCA Coaches' Poll.

It marks the Gamecocks' 129th consecutive entry in the AP top 10, beginning with the 2019-20 preseason poll. It is the longest active streak and the eighth longest in the history of that poll (7th is 137, Baylor). Their 260 straight appearances in the AP Poll, dating back to Dec. 10, 2012, mark the second-longest active streak in the nation and is the sixth longest all-time (5th, Duke/Stanford, 312).

In the USA Today/WBCA Coaches' Poll, South Carolina has been in the top 10 since claiming the No. 10 spot in the 2019-20 preseason poll.

Staley's Standard

In her 26th season as a head coach, Dawn Staley has a .777 (668-192) winning percentage, which ranks eighth in the nation among active head coaches and 10th all-time. With three national championships, she ranks fourth among head coaches all-time in NCAA titles.

Staley is one of just two women's basketball coaches to lead their teams to multiple 40-game win streaks in NCAA history with the Gamecocks' program-record 43-game streak (2023-24) ranking seventh longest in NCAA history. She is one of just 11 men's or women's basketball coaches all-time to win at least three NCAA National Championships and the first Black head coach to win multiple titles. She is one of seven coaches to lead a team to at least four NCAA National Championship games.

Now in her 18th season with the Gamecocks, Staley is the program's all-time winningest coach (496) with a program-record 14 postseason appearances. She accounts for all seven of the Gamecocks' Final Four appearances and the only NCAA National Championships in program history. Her leadership on the court and in the community resulted in the City of Columbia commissioning a statue of Staley, which stands a short distance from the Gamecocks' home Colonial Life Arena.

Staley's nine SEC regular-season championships trail only Pat Summitt's 16 in league history, and her seven SEC Coach of the Year awards trail Summitt's league record by just one. Staley's 221 SEC regular-season wins are the most among active league coaches and third all-time – behind just Summitt (Tennessee, 306) and Andy Landers (Georgia, 273). She was the second-fastest to the 200-win mark in league history with her 255 games trailing Summitt's mark of 229. Staley's .795 SEC winning percentage (221-57) is second only to Summitt (.874) among coaches in the league more than five seasons. She owns the SEC record for consecutive regular-season conference victories with a 57-game streak that began in the 2021-22 season and ended in 2024-25.

Efficiency Report

A focus for South Carolina is efficiency – creating its own and disrupting its opponents'. They are among the best in the nation at both – ranking fourth in the NCAA in field goal percentage (.512) and sixth in field goal percentage defense (.338). The Gamecocks are second in the nation in offensive points per possession (1.207) and points per possession allowed (0.716), per Synergy.

Individually, three Gamecock starters are shooting over 50.0 percent from the field and four are among the SEC's top 15. Madina Okot is second in the SEC at 59.7 percent shooting, which ranks 14th in the nation, and Joyce Edwards is just behind at 59.3 percent to rank third in the SEC and 16th in the country. Ta'Niya Latson's 49.3 percent accuracy comes in eighth in the SEC, and Tessa Johnson's 48.0 percent is 10th. Raven Johnson rounds out the group at 51.4 percent for the season, and her 54.8 percent shooting in SEC games is second in the league.

From 3-point range, the Gamecocks are 10th in the nation with an SEC-best .376 percentage. Tessa Johnson is among the nation's most accurate outside shooters with her SEC-best 46.0 percent accuracy ranking seventh in the nation. She is the only player ranked among the SEC's top 10 in both overall and 3-point percentage. Johnson's 2.6 made 3s per game are fifth in the SEC and include four games of at least four made 3s.

Century City

The Gamecocks have been reached 100 points in a program-record seven games this season, topping the 2023-24 team's six. This season, just one of those outings was against a ranked opponent, compared to the two such wins in the 2023-24 campaign. For each team, one of the games was in SEC play. The 2020-21 and 2024-25 teams each scored at least 100 points in two SEC outings.

That's So Raven

Senior point guard Raven Johnson has been at the tip of the spear for the Gamecocks on both sides of the ball and has led the team to nothing but winning.

In Johnson's fourth full season, South Carolina is 128-7 (.948) with her in the lineup (missed one game each in the 2022-23 and 2023-24 seasons), including a 39-5 mark (.886) against ranked teams. Her three complete seasons feature three trips to the Final Four, including a National Championship (2024) and runner-up finish (2025), three SEC Regular-Season titles and three SEC Tournament championships in the three full seasons of her career.

Johnson is fifth in program history in career assists (528 – 4th is Martha Parker, 543) and fourth in the category for SEC play (196 – 3rd in Destanni Henderson, 224). She owns three of the top seven single-season assist-to-turnover ratios in program history, including a program-record 3.33 mark in SEC play in 2024-25. Her current career 2.9 A:TO (528:184) is well ahead of the current program record of 2.55 by WNBA veteran Tyasha Harris (2017-20).

This season, Johnson is sixth in the SEC in assists per game (5.1), including a pair of double-digit assist games. She is fifth in the nation and second in the SEC with a 3.5 assist-to-turnover ratio. Her stat stuffing includes a career-best 9.9 points per game, to go with 4.3 rebounding and 1.5 steals averages. She is shooting 51.4 percent from the field, including 37.0 percent from 3-point range – both career-best numbers. Against ranked opponents, her numbers rise to 12.1 points per game on 55.4 percent shooting, 50.0 percent from 3-point range, and 4.6 rebounds per game.

In SEC action, Johnson has been especially assertive on offense with her 12.3 points per conference game coming in third on the team. She ranks second in the SEC in field goal percentage (.548) in conference games, including 35.3 percent accuracy from 3-point range.

Johnson has a pair of double-doubles this season in two different ways – 11 points, 11 assists vs. Bowling Green; 14 points, 11 rebounds vs. #8/10 Southern Cal.

Let Us Re-Joyce

Forward Joyce Edwards is backing up a solid freshman season – just the third freshman in program history to earn First-Team All-SEC honors – with a dominating sophomore campaign. Edwards is on the watch lists for every national player of the year award and the Katrina McClain Power Forward of the Year list as well.

Her team-high 20.0 points per game rank 17th in the nation (3rd in SEC), including a team-best 12 20-point outings. Her scoring has come on 59.3 percent field goal shooting, which is 16th in the nation (4th in SEC). She has a pair of games shooting over 90.0 percent, including a 14-of-15 (.933) outing at USF (Dec. 18), which tied for the second-highest single-game percentage in program history.

Edwards is stuffing the box score beyond scoring, averaging 2.4 assists, including four outings of at least five, and upping her rebounding to 6.2 per game. She is ninth in the conference with 1.3 blocks per game and 11th in steals at 2.0 per outing.

In SEC action, she is 10th in the league with 16.8 points per game. Her 6.6 rebounds per game are 16th in the league, and her 3.0 offensive boards per contest are 11th.

She has twice been named SEC Player of the Week (Nov. 11-17 and Dec. 16-22).

It's T-Time

Junior guard Tessa Johnson has shaken off her "Tournament Tessa" moniker to bring "Trusted Tessa" out every time she steps on the court and on both sides of the ball while adapting to a starting role this season.

After an offseason focused on her physical conditioning and how nutrition multiplies that effort, Johnson is logging 28.6 minutes per game and her scoring and efficiency have risen to career-best levels.

With an SEC-best .460 3-point percentage, Johnson is seventh in the nation, and her 2.6 made 3s per game are fifth in the league. She is 10th in the SEC with .489 overall field goal percentage, making her in the only player in the league ranked in the top 10 of both percentages.

Johnson's 13.9 points per game are fourth on the team, and the mark include 15.3 points per game against ranked opponents, which is second-best on the squad. Her 14.0 points per SEC game rank 14th in the league. She also averages a career-best 2.7 assists and 3.6 rebounds.

Johnson has built steadily year over year, beginning with a freshman year that saw her shine in the most crucial moments of the team's undefeated run to the 2024 National Championship. She averaged 14.0 points on 58.8 percent shooting in the final weekend of the season, including a team-best 19 points in the title game to earn a spot on the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament Team.

Changes in Lat-itude

The top scorer in the nation last season, senior guard Ta'Niya Latson decided to join South Carolina for her final college season because she knew head coach Dawn Staley and the Gamecocks had what she needed to challenge herself to expand areas of her game she was not able to hone at Florida State. Without the pressure of being the sole focal point of an offense, Latson's efficiency has skyrocketed and her defensive skills are steadily expanding.

Named an AP Preseason All-American and to the watch lists of every national player of the year award, Latson improved her strength in the offseason, which has helped her make strides defensively, and she is seeing the court better on offense.

Latson is 15th in the SEC in scoring at 15.2 points per game and eighth in field goal percentage, hitting 49.3 percent, including 39.2 percent from 3-point range – both career-high numbers. Her 3.7 assists per game (15th in SEC) have led to another 8.4 points per game, meaning she has her hands on 26.4 percent of the Gamecocks' total offense (23.6 ppg).

M.O.-mentum

After just starting the sport at 17 years old, 6-foot-6 center Madina Okot is becoming one of the most dominant centers in the sport. Last season at Mississippi State, she was the SEC's top percentage shooter (.649) and fourth in rebounding. With her final year of eligibility, she came to Columbia with the mindset to be the next entry in the Gamecocks' legacy of dominant post players.

The quiet Okot has drawn praise from her head coach on her strength and agility and been challenged to show her dominance every time she steps on the court. After an average season opener, Okot has been rising to that challenge, and both her production and her comfort level have been growing exponentially.

Okot is among the nation's top 20 in three stats, including ranking seventh in the nation with 13 double-doubles. She is 19th in rebounds per game (10.3– 3rd in SEC) and 14th in field goal percentage (.597 – 2nd in SEC). She is fourth in the SEC with 3.6 offensive rebounds per game, and she has turned 45.0 percent of those immediately into points. Her 1.5 blocks per game come in seventh in the SEC, and she has 1.6 steals per game, including a team-high 2.4 in SEC action to rank ninth.

Mighty Mouse

Sophomore point guard Maddy McDaniel, whose nickname is Mouse, is a spark of energy and speed off the bench. Now in her second season, she is showing

SEASON THEME: BEYOND MEASURE

Each year Dawn Staley chooses a theme for the team and fans to center their season around, and it often reflects not just the state of South Carolina women's basketball, but that of the game overall.

The Gamecocks' 2025-26 season theme is Beyond Measure, which centers on the value of the whole person or group beyond the commonly measured scale. A player's value to the team is not measured solely by her statline but also by a myriad of other ways she elevates her team. Championships and awards are not valued because they yield a trophy but also because they lift up a university, a city, a state. The value of the FAMS who support the team around the country is more than the value of ticket sales, but it is in the way they form a united community that supersedes all their difference.

More broadly, Beyond Measure is a reminder that the ceiling of the team and its players – and that of women's basketball as a sport – will always shatter any limitations others may place on it.

command on the court and a better understanding of balancing running the team and calling her own number.

In SEC action, McDaniel is second in the league with a 3.6 assist-to-turnover ration, and she is handing out 3.1 assists and scoring 3.8 points per SEC game.

A-got Send

Freshman guard Agot Makeer was ranked sixth in the Class of 2025 and drew McDonald's All-America and honorable mention Naismith All-America honors out of Montverde Academy (FL). She opened her college career on the USWBA Tamika Catchings Freshman of the Year and the Wooden Award watch lists.

The long, lithe Makeer is averaging 6.5 points to go along with 4.2 rebounds per game. In SEC games, her scoring rises to 7.3 points, and she is third on the team with 1.4 steals per league game.

The Ay-las Have It

The #15 player in the 2025 Class, freshman guard Ayla McDowell is a McDonald's All-American and a three-time district MVP out of Cypress, Texas, whose international experience with Brazil's national team has helped smooth her transition to college basketball.

Coaches have praised her competitive fire and her predictability, meaning she makes the right play. Lately, that reliability has begun to show up in the box score.

In the last five games, including three top-20 outings, McDowell averaged 5.5 points on 57.1 percent shooting, including 54.5 percent from 3-point range, in 14.9 minutes per game.

On the season, McDowell is scoring 4.8 points per game and shooting 41.5 percent. In the 12 games in which she has played at least 15 minutes, her scoring rises to 6.8 points per game.

Le Tour de France

Freshman Alicia Tournebize arrived in Columbia on New Year's Day to bolster the Gamecocks' frontcourt. She made her debut in the win over #4/4 Texas on Jan. 15, and scored her first points at Coppin State on Jan. 18.

The 6-foot-7 forward had a breakout game at #16/16 Oklahoma (Jan. 22) with nine points on 4-of-6 shooting and three rebounds in just 14 minutes on the court. A majority of her work came in the second quarter to help lead the Gamecocks to seven-point halftime lead.

Everybody's All-American

The Gamecocks' 11-woman roster includes eight McDonald's All-Americans – Maryam Dauda, Joyce Edwards, Raven Johnson, Tessa Johnson, Ta'Niya Latson, Agot Makeer, Maddy McDaniel and Ayla McDowell.

At South Carolina, Staley has coached 29 McDonald's All-Americans, including 22 who signed as freshmen.

Who's Next

Head coach Dawn Staley signed a pair of top-20 players in the early signing period in forwards Kelsi Andrews and Kaeli Wynn. Both are on the Naismith Trophy Girls' High School Player of the Year watch list, released in November.

The 6-foot-3 Andrews is the #18 player in the Class of 2026 after helping lead IMG Academy to a high school national championship in 2025 with a 12-point, 13-rebound performance in the title game. She has also helped the U.S. to gold medals in the 2024 FIBA U17 World Cup and the 2023 FIBA U16 Americas Championship.

Wynn is the #17 player in the 2026 Class, standing 6-foot-2 and coming from basketball coach parents. She was a first-team all-state selection as a junior, averaging 17 points, 7.1 rebounds and 2.7 assists at Mater Dei High School, which was ranked No. 1 in the nation throughout the season.

WNBA Pipeline

Dawn Staley's status as a dream merchant is most evident by the steady stream of Gamecocks being drafted into and enjoying lengthy careers in the WNBA. Since her first Gamecock was drafted in 2015, she has seen 18 have their name called on draft night – the second-most by a program in that time.

Staley's numbers have skyrocketed since 2020 with an NCAA-best 12 draft picks since then, including a best-in-the-nation six first-round selections in that time.

In proof Staley sends players to the league ready, six Gamecocks have earned All-Rookie Team honors, including three WNBA Rookies of the Year – Allisha Gray (2017), Aja Wilson (2018), Aliyah Boston (2023).

Great Gamecock Fans

South Carolina fans have led the nation in average attendance for the last 11 seasons, although the NCAA does not officially recognize the COVID-limited attendance in the 2020-21 season. The Gamecocks are on track to continue that streak after selling out of season tickets for the second time in as many seasons and hosting nine of the 10 highest-attended games of the season to average an NCAA-best 15,860 fans per game.

The Gamecocks have had at least one sellout of their 18,000-seat Colonial Life Arena for eight straight seasons (excluding COVID-limited 2020-21 season) dating back to the first ever sellout of 18,000 on Feb. 8, 2016. There have been at least five sellouts in each of the last two seasons.

South Carolina's 2024-25 attendance average of 16,437 was the second-highest in the history of the NCAA, narrowly trailing Tennessee's 1998-99 average of 16,565. That mark included a program-record seven sellouts.

In women's basketball, Colonial Life Arena has become one of the most feared places to play as enormous crowds fill the building with passion for the Gamecocks.

The state of South Carolina has rallied around head coach Dawn Staley's program in unprecedented numbers as the Gamecocks have led the nation in average attendance in each of the last 10 seasons and boast 21 sellouts (18,000) in the last 10 seasons of full capacity arenas.

Colonial Life Arena is more than just the home of South Carolina men's and women's basketball, though. It is also a thriving entertainment venue that the city of Columbia and its surrounding metropolitan area are able to enjoy throughout the year.

Colonial Life Arena is the largest arena in the state of South Carolina with 18,000 seats, and the 10th-largest on-campus basketball facility in the nation. Located on the beautiful University of South Carolina campus, this one-of-a-kind facility features 41 suites, four entertainment suites, and the Frank McGuire Club, a full-service hospitality room that has a capacity of 300. The state-of-the-art facility also features plush seating, a technologically advanced sound system and a one-of-a-kind selection of unique concession foods that will delight fans of all ages.

In Summer 2017, a 12-display center-hung video board and ribbon boards were added to the arena bowl at a cost of $4.2 million. The center-hung board features four convex-curved main displays that measure approximately 12' x 20' and can show any combination of live video, instant replays, statistics and game information, graphics and animations, and sponsorship messages.

The Arena has hosted numerous sold out shows, including Barnum and Bailey Circus, Paul McCartney, country superstars Kenny Chesney and Taylor Swift, WWE Wrestling, Kanye West and numerous other acts.

The largest building ever constructed at the University of South Carolina at 342,000 square feet, the Arena has an intimate double-deck design that puts every seat close to the action. The cantilever of the upper deck over the lower deck extends further than any other arena of its size with great sight lines.

Two spacious locker rooms for Gamecock men's and women's basketball include team meeting rooms, recruiting rooms, coaches locker rooms and an athletic training room.

– South Carolina Head Coach Dawn Staley

Head Coach DAWN STALEY

18th Season at South Carolina
26th Season in Career

Since thrusting South Carolina into the national spotlight when she was hired in May 2008, Dawn Staley has made the Gamecocks a mainstay in the battle for SEC and national championships. The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame inductee as a player is angling for another induction as a coach with her standing as one of five head coaches with at least three women's basketball National Championships and the only Black basketball head coach with multiple national titles, one of five head coaches to lead an undefeated team to a National Championship, and the first Black head coach of the USA Basketball Senior National Team.

In Staley's 18 seasons at the helm of the Gamecocks, highlights include:

- Three National Championships (2017, 2022, 2024)
- Seven NCAA Final Fours in the last 10 tournaments (2015, 2017, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025)
- Ranking in the AP Top 25 every week since Dec. 10, 2012, the second-longest active streak in the nation and sixth-longest all-time (260)
- 38 straight weeks at No. 1 in the AP Poll, just the third program to go wire-to-wire in back-to-back seasons
- 86 total weeks at No. 1 in the AP Poll, the third-most in the history of that poll

- 11 NCAA Attendance titles (2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021*, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025)
- 18 WNBA Draft selections, including 11 first-round and two overall No. 1 picks

While her coaching career is in full bloom, Staley is still recognized for her body of work as a one of the most decorated participants in United States women's basketball history. The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame solidified that legacy with her enshrinement as part of the Class of 2013. The Phoenix Club of Philadelphia established the Dawn Staley Award recognizing the nation's top guard in women's Division I basketball in 2013 as well. Staley was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2012, and she was part of the FIBA Hall of Fame Class of 2025.

In her 26th season as a head coach, Staley has led her college teams to 15 25-win seasons, a total of 21 postseason appearances (two WNIT) and 219 weeks in the Associated Press top 10, including 86 in the No. 1 spot – the third most times in the top spot in the history of that poll. Her .777 winning percentage (668-192) ranks eighth in the nation among active head coaches and 10th all-time.

Also a force in USA Basketball, Staley was named the U.S. Women's National Team head coach for 2017-21, leading the U.S. to 2018 FIBA World Cup gold to earn USA National Coach of the Year honors that year, adding gold medals at the 2019 and 2021 FIBA AmeriCups and stretching the U.S. Olympic gold medal streak to seven straight at the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games, for which she again earned Coach of the Year honors. Prior to that appointment, Staley led three other U.S. teams to gold medals – 2015 FIBA U19 World Championships, 2014 FIBA U18 Americas Championship, 2007 Pan Am Games – and served as an assistant on the Senior National Team 2006-08 and again 2014-16, during which the U.S. claimed gold in the 2014 FIBA World Championship and the 2008 and 2016 Olympics.

In her 19th season at the helm of the Gamecocks, Staley has been named National Coach of the Year five times (2014, 2020, 2022, 2023, 2024). Her 2020 unanimous selection made her the first former Naismith Player of the Year to earn the Naismith Coach of the Year award, and she became the first men's or women's coach to claim the award in three straight seasons 2022-24. She is a seven-time SEC Coach of the Year and was the 2012 BCA Female Coach of the Year. She is the only Gamecock basketball coach – men's or women's – to amass 300 victories at South Carolina and became the fastest coach to 200 wins in program history, needing just 277 games at South Carolina to reach the plateau. She is the program's all-time winningest coach with 496 wins, a .816 (496-112) winning percentage and a program-record 14 postseason appearances.

In the vaunted SEC, Staley's 221 league wins are the most among active league coaches and third all-time, trailing just Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Inductees Andy Landers (Georgia, 273) and Pat Summitt (Tennessee, 306). She was the second fastest to 200 league wins (255 games), trailing only Summitt at 229. Her .795 SEC winning percentage (221-57) is second only to Summitt (.874) in league history. Her Gamecocks are the only SEC program with multiple 16-0 seasons in league history, hitting that mark four times (2015-16, 2019-20, 2022-23, 2023-24). Staley's back-to-back SEC undefeated seasons helped the Gamecocks to an SEC-record 57-game win streak in league play, which ranks sixth in NCAA history for conference win streaks.

In addition to coaching two National Players of the Year, two National Defensive Players of the Year and a National Freshman of the Year, Staley has helped 13 Gamecocks collect 29 All-America selections, three to pick up seven SEC Player of the Year honors, four to earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year recognition a total of eight times, three to SEC 6th Player of the Year honors and six to capture SEC Freshman of the Year. She has coached 23 Gamecocks to All-SEC honors a combined 44 times, including 22 first-team selections. Since her first Gamecock was selected in the 2015 WNBA Draft, a total of 18 South Carolina have been chosen, which is the second-most of any program in that timeframe. Of those 18, 11 have been first-round picks, highlighted by two No. 1 overall picks since 2018. Three Gamecocks have been named WNBA Rookie of the Year and have amassed 13 All-Star selections. Aja Wilson went on to become a three-time WNBA MVP and two-time WNBA Defensive Player of the Year.
