Personal

Birthday: July 2, 1989
 Husband: Robert Woodard
 Hometown: Palmetto, Ga.

Ashley Woodard was named the 11th head coach on June 11, 2024.

In her first season at Carolina, Woodard took the program one win away from the World Series. The Gamecocks finished the season with a 44-17 overall record, earned the No. 8 National Seed, won the Columbia Regional, and hosted a Super Regional for the first time in program history. For her efforts, she was named the D1Softball Coach of the Year.

She returned to South Carolina after serving as head coach for the Charlotte 49ers for five seasons, where she led her teams to a 154-96 overall record (61.6 percent), a 65-32 conference mark (67.0 percent) and two NCAA post-season berths.

She is one of 38 Division I coaches who transitioned from player to coach at their alma mater. Of those players who are now coaches, Woodard is the lone representative in the SEC. Among the Power 4 schools, she is one of 13 former players to lead their alma mater.

In 2024, Charlotte had a 39-18 overall mark, a 21-6 record in the American Athletic Conference and the program's first conference tournament championship, advancing to the NCAA Regionals for the second year in a row. The 49ers reached as high as 15th in the NCAA RPI.

In 2023, she led the Niners to 35 wins and the program's first-ever outright regular season conference championship. The 49ers also earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history. Charlotte won two games at the Durham Regional and made an appearance in the regional final. The Niners had four players named First Team All-Conference USA in addition to Newcomer of the Year Award. She led them to three wins over ranked opponents, beating #10 Georgia, #11 Virginia Tech, and #23 Arizona State, with all three wins coming on the road.

In 2022, the Niners finished with a 35-23 record, and their first-ever national ranking in school history. She guided Charlotte to its biggest win in school history when they beat #6 Virginia Tech 5-2 on March 2. She was critical in the development of Bailey Vannoy, who won back-to-back C-USA Player of the Year honors and was named an NFCA Second Team All-American in 2022. Four total Niners collected All-Conference honors, while two Charlotte players threw no-hitters on the season.

She previously spent two seasons at Ole Miss, helping the team advance to the NCAA Super Regionals in 2019 with a 41-20 record, with a 2.29 team ERA. She was named the 2019 Softball America Pitching Coach of the Year. In 2018 Ole Miss advanced to the NCAA Regionals. The Rebels posted 24 shutouts over her two seasons. In 2019, the Rebels had the fifth-lowest ERA and third-most strikeouts in the SEC. Her staff included Molly Jacobsen, who earned Second Team All-SEC and Second Team NFCA All-South Region honors. In 2018, Kaitlin Lee, became the second Rebel ever selected in the NPF Draft.

She was an assistant pitching coach for one season at Michigan State, helping the Spartans to a 34-24 overall record and a run to the Big Ten Tournament semifinals and the National Invitational Softball Championships. The Michigan State pitching staff lowered its team ERA by nearly a run and a half.

In three seasons as the pitching coach for the College of Charleston, she helped the Cougars to a 99-68 record. She produced four All-Conference players and three NFCA All-Region stars in her three years.

She pitched for three seasons for the Gamecocks and finished 11th in career relief appearances for the Gamecocks. She led the team in starts, innings pitched, and ERA during her junior season. She was a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll. She served as a graduate assistant coach following her playing career. In 2012-13 she served as the pitching coach for the German National Team.

A 2011 graduate of South Carolina with a bachelor's degree in history, she earned her master's degree in secondary education from Carolina in 2012. Her husband Robert is the head baseball coach at Charlotte.

CAROLINA FEELS LIKE HOME FOR DAVIS

Tate Davis was raised less than an hour from Clemson, but the sophomore infielder transfer always wanted to wear garnet and black.

"I grew up in Tiger town, but I grew up a Carolina fan," said Davis, who is from Greer, S.C. and came to Columbia after one season at Ole Miss. "I can say that confidently. My parents went to law school here, and my brother played baseball for (South Carolina alumnus) Landon Powell at North Greenville University. I had a lot of connections to bring me back."

Another one of those connections was South Carolina associate head coach Katie Browder, who had recruited her to play at Ole Miss while an assistant for the Rebels.

"When I entered the portal, I wanted to come home because I knew the type of culture they had here," said Davis, who committed before she visited campus and is studying sports media. "I really do believe that the coaches care deeply about us. I just believed that this is where God wanted me to be."

"The campus and all of that didn't matter as much to me. I had a list of questions when I was entering the portal. Coach Katie was my first call about one minute after I entered portal, and before I could really ask anything, she had answered all of my questions. Everything I wanted to know, they told me. I just knew!"

Whether it's a love of Harry Potter movies or practicing her faith with many of her teammates, Davis found a lot of common ground with her new team.

"I'm a huge Harry Potter nerd," Davis said. "So, is my roommate JAM (Jamie Mackay), who transferred with me from me Ole Miss. My dog is named Dobby after the house elf."

"My faith is very important to me, too. We have bible study as a team. The girls make it so you don't feel obligated to do anything. It's player-led. We just say, if you want to come to bible study, that's great. If you don't, that's fine too. Our teammates know that we love each other unconditionally, and that means that no matter who you are or what you believe in, I love you just the same. I love playing softball with you, and first and foremost we are teammates, and we're a family. There's no judgement ever passed. Everybody is just so welcoming. I've grown in my faith so much since I've been here. I thank God every day that I have the opportunity to play softball and wake up and get to live out my dreams. We have the freedom to be who we are."

Davis grew up in an athletic family, with her mother (Joy) being a four time All-American at Ohio for swimming and her father (Dodd) ran track and Furman. The youngest of four, her two older brothers played baseball, and she always wanted to be just like them.

THE GAMECOCKS

- Carolina comes into the 2026 season looking to fight back after falling to UCLA in the Columbia Super Regional.
- The Gamecocks advanced to the Super Regionals for the third time in program history and were one win away from the WCWS.
- The 2026 squad will look to build on that momentum, as they'll have just nine underclassmen (five sophomores and four freshmen).
- The Gamecocks welcome four freshmen to the program (Ansley Bennett, Kai Byars, KG Favors, Dakota Potter).
- Carolina will have five left-handed batters available in the lineup. It had four in 2025, seven in 2024, 2023 and 2022, nine in 2021, five in 2020, and seven in 2019. Of the five left-handed batters, none are listed as a slap hitter.
- Six South Carolina and five California natives help make up the Gamecock roster. They're the most from any single state.

THAT'S...INTERESTING!

- South Carolina will have at least one student-athlete from the state of California for the 31st-consecutive year dating back to 1994. The Gamecocks have freshmen and California native Dakota Potter, ensuring the tradition continues for years to come.
- The Gamecocks have two players on the roster who have a twin sibling in Sage Scarmardo and Jori Heard. Sage and her identical twin sister Summer played together at Purdue. This will be Sage's first season not playing on the same team as her sister since starting softball at 4 years old. Sage will wear No. 12 this season, the number her sister used to wear. Jori's fraternal twin brother Gavin was a multi-time state champion swimmer as a senior in high school at the Illinois High School Athletes With Disabilities State Meet. He won the 200 freestyle, 50 freestyle, 100 freestyle, and 100 breaststroke.
- Quincee Lilio (43) and Julie Kelley (55) are the first players in program history to wear their respective numbers.
- Lilio is a second cousin once removed of former Gamecocks Hannah (2020-22) and Alyssa Kumiyama (2018-21). Their grandparents are cousins.
- Karley Shelton (33) wears the same number as head coach Ashley Woodard did as a player at Carolina.
- Karley Shelton is the fifth member of her immediate family to play softball or baseball in college. She joins her father and mother who both played at Charlotte, her older brother Colby played at Florida and was drafted by the Chicago White Sox last season, and older sister Kiley is at Florida Atlantic.
- Arianna Rodi doesn't just fly in her softball cleats, she can also fly on ice skates. Rodi was a dual-sport athlete in high school, winning three state championships in ice hockey as a defenseman. Her father, brother, and sister all played hockey, but Ari decided to forge her own path on the softball diamond.
- Associate head coach Katie Browder (Rietkovich) isn't the first Gamecock in her family. Browder's South Carolina roots run deep, as her father and sister have also donned the garnet and black. Her dad Ty Rietkovich played tight end for the Gamecocks from 1980-83 and worked on the football staff from 1984-86. Her sister Caroline (Rietkovich) Coleman was a cheerleader and is currently on the football staff as the coordinator of football operations.

IT'S GOOD TO BE HOME

- It's technically the sixth time in the last seven seasons, and the third straight, they have opened the year at home, however the 2022 the tournament was cancelled due to weather.
- For the sixth straight season, South Carolina will play over 30 home games.
- Carolina will host 33 home contests, including the Gamecock Invitational, Garnet & Black Invitational, and Carolina Classic.
- Outside of tournaments they will also host a three-game series against Boston College, along with four mid-week games.
- They will play just four true non-conference road games (Clemson, Coastal Carolina, North Carolina, and Winthrop). The schedule also includes 12 road SEC games.

MACKAY ALSO CHASING BASEBALL DREAMS

Jamie Mackay recently started collecting baseball cards. Maybe someday, South Carolina softball's senior catcher/outfielder will have one of herself. Mackay has played with the United States Women's National Baseball Team as a pitcher and catcher and has aspirations of working for a Major League Baseball organization.

"I always loved baseball," said Mackay, who transferred to South Carolina after three years at Ole Miss. "My dad (Dana) played in college. I remember the very first time I picked up a bat. From then on, I was hooked. I started playing when I was 4 years old. I grew up in an environment where nobody pressured me to switch to softball. My dad never missed a game.

"I didn't even know we had a women's national team until they asked me to try out! Women's baseball is never at the forefront."

Mackay tried out for Team USA in 2019 and competed as a pitcher in the Pan Am Games in Mexico, where she was named the relief pitcher of the tournament. She had been asked back to several Team USA camps and events after that, but some of her other coaches didn't want her to miss time with her team. This past fall she was able to go back with the blessing of Gamecock head coach Ashley Chastain Woodard.

"I didn't know how she was going to feel about it because it was in the middle of our fall practice in October, and I'd be gone for a week," Mackay said. "Without missing a beat, she told me to go. That really showed me how much she cares about my interests outside of softball. I'm really happy that she allowed me to do it because the Women's Professional Baseball League is going to start this year, and I want to be in that. The people running the draft were going to be watching, so I think that helped my draft stock a little bit. I don't know what the competition level will look like, but I'm really excited about it.

"I love my country. I was very honored to be able to wear that uniform and understand the gravity behind it. Anytime I get to suit up with those three letters across my chest, I'm incredibly grateful. The meaning of it is not lost on me."

Mackay was drafted in the second round of the Women's Professional Baseball League in November by Los Angeles.

She started catching when she was ten, and she admits, initially it was because she liked the gear. She had been a pitcher prior to that.

"It was easy for me to be a good pitcher early on because girls mature faster than boys, so I was throwing harder than the guys and throwing accurately," Mackay said. "Around eighth grade, I got out there, and the guys were throwing in the eighties, and I realized I was going to have to make catching my primary position."
