Head Coach Nate Oats Postgame Comments

"I thought Ole Miss came into the game ready to go. Defensively, they did a great job on us early in the game and we did not get a good flow on offense for the first 10-12 minutes of the first half. Our defense was good enough to keep us in striking distance and their lead never got above nine so credit to them.

"We started the second half well, obviously we have had issues with starts but I thought as the ball moved quicker and better, shots went in more. Defensively, Coach (Brian) Adams, who runs our defense, did a great job adjusting, cross-matching and switching some stuff to take away lobes they were getting out of timeouts. Our guys did a good job adjusting on the fly and learning how to guard what they were seeing.

"I'm super proud of (Latrell) Wrightsell. When we got the news Charles (Bediako) wouldn't be able to play, we understood we would have to go small at the four spot and not have as much interior depth. One of the smaller guards was going to have to be removed from the starting lineup and he stepped up and was willing to do it so the team would have a better chance of winning. I've always had the thought that when you do things like that, you get rewarded, and he got rewarded in a big way, leading us in scoring and going 7-of-13 from three."

When Nate Oats was formally introduced as head men's basketball coach at The University of Alabama on March 28, 2019, he promised fans would see an entertaining, up-tempo and fast-paced style of play. And that's exactly what he has delivered during his five years in Tuscaloosa highlighted by Alabama's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Final Four.

Oats continues to lead the Crimson Tide men's basketball resurgence to national prominence, having guided his team to 117 wins, highlighted by a pair of SEC Regular Season championships, two SEC Tournament championships, three trips to the Sweet 16 and the program's first ever appearance in the Final Four. Oats the only coach in program history to win multiple SEC regular season and tournament championships. He has compiled a record of 117-54 (.684) in his five years at The Capstone. In fact, in his nine years as a head coach, Oats owns an impressive record of 213-97 (.687) and has led his teams to NCAA Tournament appearances seven separate times with one of those years being the global pandemic.

After agreeing to contract extensions in 2021 and 2023, Oats received a third contract extension during the 2024 season that is set to keep him in charge of the Crimson Tide basketball program through the 2030 season.
