The 2026 South Carolina Spring Football Media Guide was produced by the University of South Carolina Athletics Communications and Public Relations Office. The spring media guide was written, designed and edited by Steve Fink, Senior Associate Athletics Director/Communications and Public Relations, with assistance provided by David Fox and Kent Reichert. Information is based on that available as of March 1, 2026.

Finish.

That's the buzzword emanating out of the Long Family Football Operations Center on the University of South Carolina campus this spring.

The Gamecocks, under sixth-year head coach Shane Beamer, are looking to bounce back from a disappointing 4-8 campaign last season and look to climb their way back into the FBS playoff conversation again in 2026 like they were in 2024.

But to do so, they'll need to do a better job of finishing what they start.

The Gamecocks either led or were down by no more than one score entering the fourth quarter in 10 of their 12 games last season. In their eight losses, they led No. 23 Missouri, No. 4 Alabama and No. 3 Texas A&M heading into the final stanza only to lose, and trailed No. 11 LSU, No. 7 Ole Miss and in-state rival Clemson by just seven, six and six points respectively, with just 15 minutes left in regulation before ultimately falling short. Even in the two "blow-out" losses versus Vanderbilt and Oklahoma the Gamecocks were within one score going into the halftime intermission in each contest but could not rally in the second half.

The Gamecocks were a gaudy 25-3 when either leading or tied after three quarters through Coach Beamer's first four seasons as the Carolina head coach but posted just a 4-3 mark in those scenarios in 2025.

For the Gamecocks to have success in 2026, they'll need to get back to winning those tight games in a highly competitive Southeastern Conference where a single play here or there can make all the difference between a win and a loss.

Coach Beamer made several off-season moves to turn the tide back in the Gamecocks' favor with the goal of propelling them into the national picture again in 2026.

First, he revamped much of his offensive coaching staff, bringing in offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Kendal Briles, offensive line coach Randy Clements and running backs coach Stan Drayton to rejuvenate the attack. The Gamecocks need to find ways to more consistently move the ball and more frequently put points on the scoreboard, taking some of the pressure off their defense.

Next, Coach Beamer and his staff reached into the portal and re-stocked the roster with 25 transfers, many of who have been through the wars with significant game experience and can lead when the going gets tough and the game is on the line.

Most notably, Coach Beamer and his staff completely revamped an offensive line that has been considered a weak link for much of his tenure. The Gamecocks brought eight offensive linemen, six of whom are redshirt seniors. In fact, Carolina now boasts the most experienced offensive line in the nation, netting a combined total of 8,797 career snaps.

The Gamecocks also beefed up their ground game by adding three running backs from the portal, who join the three scholarship backs already on campus, in what should be a very competitive room.

Finally, Coach Beamer and his staff addressed some other areas of need, including the defensive line, both at tackle and Edge rusher, added a couple of veteran wide receivers to supplement a talented but still young unit, and brought in a couple of special teamers who will compete for starting slots.

While the 25 transfers, along with a dozen true freshmen who enrolled in January, give the Gamecocks a lot of new faces this spring, many of the core components of last year's squad are back, including 12 returning starters, most notably three standouts who could hear their names called early in the 2027 NFL Draft.

There aren't many schools in the country that can match a "Big Three" like the Gamecocks' trio of quarterback LaNorris Sellers, wide receiver Nyck Harbor and Edge rusher Dylan Stewart. All three have the God-given physical tools to play the game at the highest level and they will be counted on to take it to another level in what will likely be their final season of college football.

While the Gamecocks have always played a very challenging schedule as a member of the SEC, 2026 takes on a new challenge, as the conference has expanded to a nine-game league slate.

After opening with a pair of non-conference home games against Kent State and Towson, Carolina will embark on a nine-game gauntlet of conference opponents over a 10-week period that ping-pongs home and road venues before wrapping up the regular season with the annual Palmetto Bowl against in-state rival Clemson. The back half of the conference slate after the October 17 off week is especially loaded with consecutive games against Tennessee, Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Arkansas and Georgia scheduled before the aforementioned finale with Clemson. The Sooners, Aggies and Bulldogs all were College Football Playoff participants a year ago.

But first things first. The Gamecocks open spring practice on Wednesday, March 4 and will practice three times before taking a week off for spring break. They will return to the practice fields on March 18 and wrap up the 2026 spring drills on Saturday, April 11.

Offense

2025 Statistics

|-----------------------|----------------|
| Scoring Offense | 22.7 (15/102) |
| Rushing Offense | 111.1 (14/117) |
| Passing Offense | 225.3 (11/65) |
| Total Offense..... | 336.3 (15/107) |

For the third time in as many years, a new offensive coordinator will be putting his fingerprints on the Carolina attack. The keys to the offense have been turned over to Kendal Briles. Briles brought Randy Clements with him from TCU to direct the offensive line. Veteran Stan Drayton was added to coach the running backs.

Despite struggling for much of the 2025 season, the offense is not without some impressive weapons, most notably quarterback LaNorris Sellers and wide receiver Nyck Harbor. Sellers, a dual-threat signal-caller, looks to return to the form where he was playing as well as anyone in the country at the end of the 2024 season and one that made him a preseason Heisman Award candidate a year ago, while Harbor is one of college football most freakish athletes with his combination of size and speed that make scouts drool over.

The offensive line has been completely retooled, with the addition of eight transfers, all upperclassmen, but two-year starter Josiah Thompson and second-year player Shed Sarratt Jr. have both been starters since they stepped foot on campus.

The much-ballyhooed receiving class that enrolled a year ago is a year older, with Donovan Murph and Jayden Sellers making the most impact in their freshman seasons. With defenses having to gameplan for Harbor's unique talents, the opportunities for others to shine is real.

The running back position starts with a clean slate under Stan Drayton. Matt Fuller, Jawarn Howell and Isaiah Augustave return, while three transfers look to make a strong first impression.

Brady Hunt is the returning starter at tight end.

Defense

2025 Statistics

|-----------------------|---------------|
| Scoring Defense | 22.1 (10/45) |
| Rushing Defense | 136.7 (11/49) |
| Passing Defense | 216.3 (7/59) |
| Total Defense..... | 353.0 (10/52) |

One constant during Shane Beamer's tenure at South Carolina has been the solid play of the defensive unit, led by defensive coordinator Clayton White and co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach Torrian Gray, both of whom have been with Coach Beamer since the onset of his arrival five years ago.

The featured player is Edge rusher Dylan Stewart, whom one national publication has listed as one of its top three impact players for 2026. Stewart is the only returning starter on the defensive line, but between the returning players and those brought in through the portal, the Gamecocks should be solid again up front.

The linebacking corps is the only position group that did not see an infusion of talent from the portal. The Gamecocks are expected to roll with primarily with Fred "JayR" Johnson, Justin Okoronkwo and Shawn Murphy, who took most of the snaps last season. All return and will be counted on to take on more of a leadership role this season.

The secondary lost a possible first-round draft pick in Brandon Cisse at corner, an All-SEC performer in Jalon Kilgore at nickel, and a four-year starter in DQ Smith at safety, but return starters Judge Collier at corner and Peyton Williams at safety.

Special Teams

|---------------------------|-------------|
| Kickoff Returns | 21.2 (7/60) |
| Kick Return Defense..... | 17.5 (6/26) |
| Punt Returns..... | 13.4 (4/16) |
| Punt Return Defense | 7.1 (7/55) |
| Net Punting..... | 40.9 (6/34) |

The newest face to join the squad in the spring is special teams coordinator Matthew Smiley, who arrived in Columbia just a week before the start of spring practice. Smiley returns to the college ranks for the first time since 2012, having spent the past several years in the NFL.

Smiley has the benefit of having Mason Love, who was one of the top freshman punters in the country a year ago, return. He will need to replace both the placekicker and long snapper slots that are wide open due to graduation. The return units should be solid, if not spectacular, led by kick returner Nyck Harbor and All-American punt returner Vicari Swain.

All Dates and Times Subject To Change

QUICKLY: Year six of the Shane Beamer Era at South Carolina gets underway with the start of spring drills on Wednesday, March 4. The Gamecocks are scheduled to practice 15 times during the spring over a six-week period, concluding on Saturday, April 11.

WE'RE TALKIN' ABOUT PRACTICE: Spring practices will be held at the football practice fields, located at the west end of Gamecock Park adjacent to the Long Family Football Operations Center, or in the Jerri and Steve Spurrier indoor practice facility. All practices are scheduled to begin at 9:30 am.

SNEAK PEEK: Regularly credentialed members of the media will have five chances to watch a portion of spring practice. The viewing dates are Wednesday, March 4, Wednesday, March 18, Wednesday, March 25, Tuesday, March 31, and Wednesday, April 8. Media will be allowed to watch the first three periods (approximately 25 minutes) on each of those dates. No live streaming will be allowed. Entrance to the practice fields will be at the gate between the indoor facility and the operations building. Media will be escorted in by the Carolina communications staff at approximately 9:38 am when the flex period begins and will be asked to stay on the south end of the practice fields near the indoor facility unless otherwise advised.

HEARING FROM THE HEAD COACH: Head coach Shane Beamer will hold five press conferences on Tuesdays during spring drills - March 3, 24 and 31 and April 7 and 14. Coach Beamer's press conferences will begin at 1 pm and will be streamed live on the official website of South Carolina Athletics, Gamecocks Online.com.

OC/DC SOUND: Offensive coordinator Kendal Briles and defensive coordinator Clayton White will meet with the media twice during the spring - first on Monday, March 16, and again on Monday, April 6, beginning at 12:15 pm.

COACH SPEAK: The remaining eight on-field position coaches will each be made available to the media once during spring ball. Offensive line coach Randy Clements, run game coordinator/tight ends coach Shawn Elliott, outside linebackers/defensive ends coach Deion Barnes and defensive line coach Travian Robertson will be available on Monday, March 23. Assistant head coach - offense/running backs coach Stan Drayton, passing game coordinator/wide receivers coach Mike Furrey, co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach Torrian Gray, and special teams coordinator Matthew Smiley will be available on Monday, March 30. Both availabilities will begin at 12:15 pm.

WHAT DID THE GAMECOCKS SAY?: Requested and approved players will be available to meet with the media on five Wednesdays during the spring - March 4, 18, and 25, and April 1 and 8 - beginning around noon after practice. Player requests must be submitted to Steve Fink (finksc@mailbox.scedu) by 11 am on Monday, two days prior to the media availability. We will attempt to fulfill every request within reason. Please be aware that there is a finite amount of time to conduct the interviews and some players may have conflicts.

WHERE DOES THIS TAKE PLACE?: All press conferences during spring ball will take place in the defensive team/media room, located on the second floor of the Long Family Football Operations Center. Media attending any press conference should enter the football ops building through the media door located on the north end of the facility and take the service elevator to the second floor.

PRO TIMING DAY: South Carolina will hold its annual Pro Timing Day on Tuesday, March 17, when former Gamecocks will have their talents on display for NFL personnel. The event will begin in the weight room at the football ops facility beginning at 8 am before moving to the Jerri and Steve Spurrier indoor practice facility at approximately 9 am. Media will be able to observe the on-field portion of the workout. Selected players will be made available to the media as their schedule permits. Pro Day is closed to the public.

COACHING UP COACHES: The Sixth Annual Shane Beamer Football Coaches Clinic hosted by University of South Carolina, Head Coach Shane Beamer and the South Carolina Football Coaching Staff, will be held March 27-28. During the clinic attendees will be able to interact with the Gamecock coaching staff, learn from championship winning coaches, and talk a little football while enjoying great food and fellowship. Attendees will also be able to join the South Carolina Coaching Staff on the field for practice to observe demonstrations, drills and practice format. The entire staff including Directors of Strength & Conditioning, Operations, Recruiting, Nutrition, Sports Medicine and Player Development will be available to answer any questions about the program.

IF I COULD TURN BACK TIME: 2026 will mark the 133rd season of intercollegiate football at the University of South Carolina, dating back to 1892. It is the 120th-consecutive year in which Carolina has competed on the gridiron. The University did not field a team in either 1893 or 1906. South Carolina owns an all-time record of 647-625-44, a .509 winning percentage.

IT JUST MEANS MORE: The 2026 season will mark South Carolina's 35th year in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina and Arkansas joined the SEC prior to the 1992 campaign. The Gamecocks earned the SEC Eastern Division title in the 2010 season. The Gamecocks are 115-158-1 (.422) all-time in SEC regular-season play.

IT JUST MEANS MORE SEC GAMES: The Southeastern Conference moves to a nine-game conference schedule for the first time in history (excluding the COVID-19-induced schedule of 2020). The Gamecocks will play five conference games at home in 2026 (Mississippi State, Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas A&M and Georgia) and four SEC games on the road (Alabama, Florida, Oklahoma and Arkansas).

ALL ABOARD THE SHANE TRAIN: South Carolina head coach Shane Beamer owns a 33-30 record in five seasons at the helm. The 33 wins matches Lou Holtz for seventh on the Gamecocks' all-time list, while his 63 games coached ranks eighth on Carolina's all-time list.

WELCOME HOME: Half of the Gamecocks' coaches are new to Columbia this year. The newcomers include Deion Barnes (defensive ends/outside linebackers), Kendal Briles (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks), Randy Clements (offensive line), Stan Drayton (assistant head coach - offense/running backs) and Matthew Smiley (special teams coordinator).

THEY'RE HERE: The Gamecocks welcome 102 players including 32 returning letterwinners to begin the 2026 spring session. The lettermen consist of 13 offensive players and 17 on the defensive side of the ball. South Carolina also returns 20 specialists who have earned a varsity letter.

RETURNING STARTERS: The Gamecocks list a dozen returning starters of a possible 24 (offense, defense, punter, placekicker) from the 2025 squad, six on offense, five on defense and one specialist. The returning offensive starters are WR Nyck Harbor, TE Brady Hunt, WR Donovan Murph, QB LaNorris Sellers, LG Shed Sarratt Jr. and LT Josiah Thompson. The five returning starters on defense are CB Judge Collier, LB Fred Johnson, LB Justin Okoronkwo, ER Dylan Stewart and S Peyton Williams. Mason Love returns as the Carolina punter.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN: The Gamecocks said good-bye to 38 letterwinners including a dozen starters off last year's team - five on offense, six on defense and one specialist. The departed starters include RT Tree Babalade, RG Trovon Baugh, RB Rahsul Faison, WR Vandrevius Jacobs and OC Boaz Stanley on offense, DT Nick Barrett, CB Brandon Cisse, DT Monkell Goodwine, NB Jalon Kilgore, S DQ Smith, and ER Bryan Thomas Jr. on defense, along with PK William Joyce.

EVERY TIME OUT: The Gamecocks had six players start all 12 games in 2025 including LT Josiah Thompson, QB LaNorris Sellers, DT Nick Barrett, ER Bryan Thomas Jr., LB Fred Johnson and S Peyton Williams. Thompson, Sellers and Williams return for 2026.

BEEN THERE, DONE THAT: The 2026 spring roster features 21 players who have made at least one start for the Gamecocks in their career. Offensive players WR Nyck Harbor, QB LaNorris Sellers and LT Josiah Thompson lead the way with 24 starts each, while CB Judge Collier and ER Dylan Stewart are right behind with 23 starts apiece and have the most starts on the defensive side of the ball.

BY THE NUMBERS: Carolina returns 49.6 percent of its rushing yards, 93.1 percent of its passing yards and 57.6 percent of its receiving yards from 2025. Quarterback LaNorris Sellers (270 yards) and Matt Fuller (260) are the top returning rushers. Sellers is also the leading passer, having thrown for 2,437 of Carolina's 2,703 yards last season. Wide receivers Nyck Harbor (30 for 618) and Jayden Sellers (22 for 337) are the top two returning receivers. Four of the top six tacklers from 2025 return, led by Justin Okoronkwo (64), Fred Johnson (61), Peyton Williams (50) and Shawn Murphy (49). Williams, Gerald Kilgore and Vicari Swain return after tying for the team lead with two interceptions each. Edge rusher Dylan Stewart is the team's top returner in TFLs (12.0) and sacks (4.5).

UTILIZING THE PORTAL: The Gamecocks' spring roster features 25 scholarship players who were on other team's rosters last fall. Of the 25 transfers, 16 are coming from Power-4 conferences, including six from the SEC, five from the Big Ten, four from the Big 12 and one from the ACC. Five of the players, Kelby Collins (Alabama), Jayden Gibson (Oklahoma), Caleb Herring (Tennessee), Quay'sheed Scott (Kentucky) and Jordan Thomas (Georgia), will face their former team in 2026.

BROTHERLY LOVE: The Gamecocks have three sets of brothers on their roster. Drew and Kelby Collins are a pair of defensive linemen who transferred in this spring. Drew from Arkansas State and Kelby from Alabama. Aiden and Andrew Harris are freshman twins who both work on defense, Aiden at tackle and Andrew at linebacker. The offensive tandem of quarterback LaNorris Sellers and wide receiver Jayden Sellers return for a second season together.

EARLY ENROLLEES: The Gamecocks had 12 of their 17-member 2026 signing class enroll in January. The five signees who will join the team later this summer include Darius Gray, KJ Johnson, Matthew Oh, Sequel Patterson and Caden Ramsey.

CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN: The Gamecocks vote on permanent team captains following the regular season. A group portrait will be permanently displayed in the Hall of Captains at Williams-Brice Stadium.

The 2025 Rex Enright Captains were Nick Barrett, Luke Doty, Jalon Kilgore, LaNorris Sellers and Bryan Thomas Jr. Sellers, who became the first freshman to earn that distinction in school history in 2024, is a two-time permanent team captain.

YOU'RE NOT WORTHY: The Gamecocks are 49-17 in their last 66 non-conference games, a .742 winning clip. Removing Clemson from the equation, the Gamecocks are 41-8, an .837 clip. The Gamecocks went 3-1 in non-conference play in 2025 with wins over Virginia Tech, South Carolina State and Coastal Carolina and a loss to Clemson.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE: South Carolina has won 43 of its last 51 home games (.843) against non-conference foes. The Gamecocks were 2-1 in home non-conference games in 2025, defeating South Carolina State and Coastal Carolina and falling to Clemson.

THAT'S OUR BALL: Since Shane Beamer and Clayton White took over at South Carolina, the Gamecocks have registered 110 takeaways, most in the SEC and tying Penn State and Tulane for sixth among FBS programs during that five-year span.

BLOCK THAT KICK: Since the 2021 season, South Carolina has blocked 17 kicks, tying Old Dominion for third in the FBS behind only Notre Dame (19) and Indiana (18).

FINDING THE END ZONE: South Carolina logged seven non-offensive touchdowns during the 2025 campaign, tying for second in the FBS with Pitt, Notre Dame and Tennessee behind only Louisiana Tech (9).

OH SNAP: The Gamecocks have the most experienced offensive line in the nation, netting a combined total of 8,797 career snaps entering the 2026 season.

EARLY ACCOLADES: Several Gamecocks have been cited by national media:

▲ Edge rusher Dylan Stewart was named a 2026 second-team All-American by On3.

▲ Jacarius Peak was tabbed the fourth-most impactful move in this year's college football transfer portal window by On3.

▲ South Carolina features three of the top 25 players in the country, according to On3, with Dylan Stewart checking in at No. 3 ahead of Jacarius Peak at 14 and LaNorris Sellers at 23.

SHANE
BEAMER
HEAD COACH
VIRGINIA TECH (1999)

Shane Beamer begins his sixth season in Columbia leading the South Carolina Football program in 2026.

Beamer, who owns 33 wins in five seasons at the helm, ranks in a tie with Lou Holtz for seventh among all South Carolina head football coaches. With a 33-30 record, he has coached the eighth-most games in school history. He has posted three wins over top-10 teams and seven wins over top-25 teams in his first five seasons at Carolina, tops among all Gamecock head football coaches over their first five seasons. During his tenure he has posted victories over three coaches who have won national championships – Jimbo Fisher, Dabo Swinney and Mack Brown, and has led the Gamecocks to three bowl appearances.

Beamer's 2025 squad was competitive in every game but fourth-quarter struggles produced a 4-8 mark. The Gamecocks played nine teams that were bowl-eligible, six games against teams that were ranked when they played, and five that finished in the top-15 in the final CFP rankings. Carolina either led or was within a touchdown entering the fourth quarter in 10 of the 12 games, including losses to No. 23 Missouri, No. 4 Alabama and No. 3 Texas A&M when they took a lead into the final stanza. Individually, the Gamecocks placed two players on the SEC Coaches' second-team All-SEC unit, two on the third-team and two on the SEC All-Freshman squad.

Beamer's 2024 squad was his most successful to date. The Gamecocks finished the season with a 9-4 record including a 5-3 mark in the SEC, posting nine wins in a season for just the eighth time in school history. The Gamecocks recorded a school-record four wins against ranked opponents, including three in consecutive weeks as part of a regular season-ending six-game winning streak. Carolina finished the season ranked 19th in both the final Associated Press and Coaches polls, its highest ranking since 2013 and its second top-25 ranking in the past three seasons.

Beamer was the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week for the third time in his career following the Gamecocks' upset win over Texas A&M and earned SEC Coach of the Year accolades from the AP, USA TODAY, Bear Bryant and College Football Nation. He was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, the Bobby Dodd, and the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year honors and was a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year.

Individually, edge rusher Kyle Kennard was the school's first Bronko Nagurski Award winner as the nation's top defensive player and was the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year. Kennard, along with safety Nick Emmanwori, earned first-team All-America honors, while punter Kai Kroeger was a second-team selection. Quarterback LaNorris Sellers was selected as the SEC's Freshman of the Year. Sellers, offensive tackle Josiah Thompson and Edge rusher

Dylan Stewart earned Freshman All-America honors, giving the Gamecocks six All-Americans as selected by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), the most of any FBS school in 2024. In addition, Kennard and Raheim Sanders were named first-team Academic All-America.

Named the Gamecocks' 36th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2020, Beamer had a successful first season in Columbia, improving the Gamecocks by 3.5 games, from a 2-8 mark in 2020 to a 7-6 campaign in 2021, including a convincing win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. He tied the school record for wins by a first-year head coach, doubled the preseason's expected win total and surpassed the win total of the two previous seasons combined, earning him a share of the Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach of the Year Award, presented by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). Safety Jaylan Foster earned All-America honors and three players were selected in the NFL Draft following his inaugural season.

In 2022, the team again exceeded expectations by recording eight wins, including three wins over ranked opponents. The Gamecocks won eight games for just the 15th time in 129 seasons and for the first time since 2017. The Gamecocks were ranked 23rd in the country in the final AP and USA Today Coaches' polls. It marked the first time since 2013 that the Gamecocks finished the season ranked in the top-25 and the 10th time Carolina has finished the season ranked in the final AP poll. The Gamecocks defeated No. 5 Tennessee and No. 7 Clemson in the final two games of the regular season, the first time Carolina has posted back-to-back wins over top-10 teams and just the seventh time in history that a school has defeated AP Top-10 opponents in consecutive weeks as an unranked team, the first since 2003. Coach Beamer was a two-time Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week recipient after wins over Kentucky and Tennessee. Punter Kai Kroeger earned All-America honors, leading a special teams unit ranked No. 1 in the country. Five players were selected in the NFL Draft off that squad, the most since 2013.

Challenged by one of the toughest schedules in the FBS and in a season mired by numerous injuries, decimating the offensive line most notably, the 2023 Gamecocks finished the campaign with a 5-7 mark. The squad was led by quarterback Spencer Rattler and wide receiver Xavier Legette. Rattler set the school's single-season record for completions (275) and completion percentage (68.9), while his 3,186 passing yards was the third-highest total in school history. Legette, a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, led the team with 71 receptions for 1,255 yards and seven receiving touchdowns. His 1,255 receiving yards was the second-highest single-season mark in school history.

Prior to his first head coaching stint, Beamer had been an assistant coach at seven FBS schools for 21 seasons. During his career as an assistant, he coached in 17 bowl games, including a College Football Playoff National Championship Game, posted 18 non-losing seasons, six of those with double-digit victories, and his teams won 63 percent of its games. He coached all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams.

Beamer is not new to Carolina. The Charleston, S.C. native served as an assistant coach with the Gamecocks for four seasons from 2007-10 under Steve Spurrier. In 2007, he served as the outside linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator. He mentored the cornerbacks in 2008, then coached the Spurs and strong safeties and was the special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2009 and 2010, setting the foundation for the most successful run in school history.

In 2009 at South Carolina, Beamer was nominated for the Frank Broyles

Award. His special teams' units recorded five blocked kicks, tying for the SEC lead and for eighth in the nation. He also helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 15th in the country in total defense, and eighth in the nation in passing defense.

As the Gamecocks' recruiting coordinator, his 2009 class was ranked 12th-best in the country, and the 2010 and 2011 classes were ranked in the Top 25.

During his tenure as recruiting coordinator, nine Gamecocks were selected in the NFL Draft, including first round selection Stephen Gilmore (Buffalo) and second round picks Alshon Jeffery (Chicago) and D.J. Swearinger (Houston).

The Gamecocks all-time winningest quarterback, Connor Shaw, and rushing touchdown leader, Marcus Lattimore, were also in the 2010 class.

Beamer has helped build several programs during his career. He was on three coaching staffs where the head coach was in his first or second season at the school. He joined Sylvester Croom's staff at Mississippi State in his first season, Kirby Smart's program at Georgia in his first season, and Lincoln Riley's unit at Oklahoma in his second season.

Beamer served as the assistant head coach for offense and mentored the tight ends and H-backs at Oklahoma from 2018-20. In 2020, Oklahoma ranked sixth in the country in scoring, 11th in total offense and 14th in passing offense. In 2019, the Sooners led the nation in yards per play, ranked third in total offense and fourth in passing efficiency rating. Oklahoma led the nation in total offense, scoring offense and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), and ranked second in passing efficiency rating in 2018.

Beamer spent two seasons (2016-17) at Georgia as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator under Kirby Smart, helping the Bulldogs to a 21-7 combined record. In 2017, UGA won the SEC Championship before falling in the CFP title game to Alabama in overtime. His special teams ranked eighth nationally in net punting and 20th in kickoff returns while blocking four kicks.

The son of Hall of Fame coach Frank Beamer, he worked with his father as the associate head coach and running backs coach at Virginia Tech from 2011-15. In his first year, he coached David Wilson, who broke the Tech single-season rushing record, was named All-America and ACC Player of the Year, and went on to become a first-round NFL draft selection. Shane served as the Hokies' acting head coach in the 2014 Military Bowl win while his father watched from the press box following throat surgery.

Beamer's first full-time coaching position came at Mississippi State in 2004 as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first two seasons at State, he guided three defensive backs to SEC All-Freshman Team accolades. He maintained the recruiting coordinator title but made the move to running backs coach in the spring of 2006 where he tutored running back Anthony Dixon to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Beamer spent three seasons (2001-03) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, helping with the cornerbacks and assisting in all special teams areas. He also oversaw game opponent scouting while earning a master's degree in sport management in Dec. 2003.

Before joining the staff at UT, he worked one season (2000) as a G.A. at Georgia Tech, helping with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A December 1999 graduate of Virginia Tech, Beamer was a member of five bowl teams (1995-99 seasons) and three Big East Conference championship squads on the Hokie football team as a long snapper and wide receiver. He was a long snapper on the 1999 Virginia Tech team that played for the BCS National Championship.

Beamer and his wife, Emily, are the parents of three children – two daughters, Sutton and Olivia, both born in Columbia, and a son, Hunter, born in Blacksburg, Va.
