MEDIA GUIDE

WELCOME HOME

1 WELCOME HOME

The South Carolina Gamecocks are set for their 133rd season of intercollegiate football in 2026. An overview of the 2026 football season, including the schedule, outlook, roster, squad breakdown and other notes of interest, is provided. For the latest up-to-date information, visit the team's official website: www.gamecocksonline.com

35 FOOTBALL STAFF

Shane Beamer begins his sixth season guiding the Gamecocks in 2026. With 33 wins, he ranks tied for seventh on the school's all-time wins list with Lou Holtz. Beamer has turned over half of his assistant coaches from the 2025 staff, most notably adding offensive coordinator Kendal Briles to reinvigorate the Gamecock offense.

61 THE GAMECOCKS

Carolina returns 32 lettermen including 12 starters from the 2025 squad. The offense features electric quarterback LaNorris Sellers and talented wide receiver Nyck Harbor, while Edge rusher Dylan Stewart is the most accomplished of the returning starters on defense. All-America punt returner Vicari Swain and Freshman All-SEC punter Mason Love lead the special teams units.

99 2025 IN REVIEW

After winning their first two contests and climbing into the top-10 in the national polls, the Gamecocks were snakebit through the remainder of the 2025 season, finishing with a disappointing 4-8 mark. The Gamecocks either led or were down by no more than one score entering the fourth quarter in 10 of their 12 games but struggled to finish.

117 RECORDS

Punt returner Vicari Swain etched his name in the South Carolina record books with three returns for touchdowns. Mason Love had a prolific start to his career, earning Freshman All-SEC honors after posting the school's fourth-best single-season punt average.

139 HISTORY

The Gamecocks have a long and storied history, but lost two of their legends since the 2025 season ended in former head coach Lou Holtz and flamboyant quarterback Steve Taneyhill. Carolina had three players selected in the 2026 NFL Draft, the eighth-consecutive year in which at least three Gamecocks were taken in the draft.

193 BOWL GAMES

South Carolina has celebrated a victory in six of their last 10 bowl games, defeating Nebraska (2012 Capital One), Michigan (2013 and 2018 Outback), Wisconsin (2014 Capital One), Miami (Fla.) (2014 Independence) and North Carolina (2021 Duke's Mayo) during that stretch.

211 INFORMATION

As the flagship institution in the Palmetto State, the University of South Carolina is a proud member of the Southeastern Conference. Located in the capital city of Columbia, the Gamecocks are known for their loyal fanbase. The four-time (2021, '22, '24, '25) "Super 11" communications staff is ready and willing to assist in the coverage of Gamecock Athletics.

IT'S SATURDAY

IN SOUTH CAROLINA

WELCOME TO WILLIAMS-BRICE

Under a Carolina sky I stand.

Under the palmettos and beneath the crescent moon.

*I am a structure forged
from concrete and time.*

*As strong as our pride,
as enduring as our passion,
tradition originates from my core.*

History echoes through my walls.

For eight decades, I've given rise to legends and today, I await the next one.

I am not a desert, but a Sandstorm builds within me.

*I am a sea of garnet and black with a sound that doesn't just pierce the air,
it penetrates your soul.*

I am the place where every odyssey starts with 2001.

is our battle cry.*

Trespassers beware, to enter is to sacrifice.

It is Saturday in South Carolina.

WELCOME TO WILLIAMS-BRICE

Built during the Great Depression with help from federal Works Progress Administration (WPA) funds, the stadium was completed in 1934 and was known as Carolina Municipal Stadium. The original seating was 17,600 and included seating along the sidelines only.

During the 1940s and 1950s, endzone seating was added which turned the stadium into a bowl and increased capacity to over 40,000.

Martha Williams-Brice's husband, Thomas H. Brice, was a Gamecock football letterman from 1922-24, and her family operated the Williams Furniture Company in Sumter. She left a substantial inheritance from the furniture fortune to her nephews, Thomas W. and Philip L. Edwards, much of which they passed on to the University of South Carolina. That included a bequest from her estate for stadium renovations in the early 1970s which included the addition of over 14,000 seats, an Astroturf playing surface and a west upper deck. This brought the seat count up to 54,000. The name was officially changed from Carolina Stadium to Williams-Brice Stadium in dedication ceremonies during the Sept. 9, 1972 opener with Virginia.

The east upper deck was added in 1982 and capacity grew to 72,400.

In the 1990s, the Kay and Eddie Floyd Building was added behind the north endzone and suites, clubs and a new press box were added on the west side. This was quickly followed by a south upper deck which increased total seat count to over 80,000.

Added in 2012 was a $6.5 million state-of-the-art videoboard that sits above the north stands. It measures 36' x 124'.

In 2015, the $14.5 million Springs Brooks Plaza transformed the circumference of Williams-Brice Stadium into an aesthetically-pleasing footprint.

- First game as Carolina Stadium: Oct. 6, 1934 (USC 22, VMI 6)
- Dedicated as Williams-Brice Stadium: Sept. 9, 1972 (UVA 24, USC 16)
- Capacity: 77,559
- Stadium Record: 320-209-14 (.602)
- When the Gamecocks take the field on gameday, Williams-Brice Stadium is packed with approximately 80,000 screaming Gamecock fans, making it more populated than all but four cities in the state of South Carolina.
- Williams-Brice Stadium is recognized as one of the finest facilities in all of college football. Carolina annually ranks among the nation's leaders in attendance, and Gamecock fans are regarded as some of the most loyal in the country.
- South Carolina established a school record for football season tickets sold in 2005, selling 62,604 season tickets, surpassing the previous mark of 62,103 set in 2002. The numbers do not include student tickets and tickets contractually obligated to visiting teams.
- South Carolina ranked 14th in the nation in home attendance in 2025, averaging 79,334 fans for seven games all sellouts.

WILLIAMS-BRICE REIMAGINED

The Williams-Brice Reimagined project is rooted in four key pillars:

For All

This project is not just for a subset of Gamecock Fans. During the reimagination of Williams-Brice Stadium, our department and partners focused on creating an enhanced game day experience that will build lasting memories for present and future generations with inspiring admiration from visiting fans.

Legacy & Tradition

This project focuses on the history of Williams-Brice Stadium and what it means to be a Gamecock. It bridges the nostalgia and tradition of the past, while creating enthusiasm for the future.

Home

This project creates a place of belonging that brings fans together and fosters South Carolinian camaraderie.

Pride of the State

This project is more than just a football stadium, it creates a year round venue that highlights the beauty and culture of South Carolina.

Building for the Future – Where Tradition Meets Tomorrow

The project will focus on three key areas:

Overall Fan Experience

This project touches on four key areas of improvement

- ❖ Stadium Circulation – How fans move around the stadium
- ❖ Concessions – Improvements that provide more offerings and quicker service
- ❖ Restrooms – Increasing the number to reduce wait times
- ❖ The Cockpit – Improving the overall student experience and providing more amenities to current USC students

Premium Offerings

This project seeks to significantly increase the number of premium seats, clubs and suites as well as significantly enhance the offerings for fans in those areas.

Student-Athlete Experience

The football team's space inside Williams-Brice Stadium is completely redesigned including a new team lobby/recruit lounge, locker room with new lockers, equipment room, training room, player holding area, interview room and new male and female trainer's locker rooms. Additionally, to assist with back-of-house operation on the ground level, the visiting team locker room has been moved to the southeast corner of Williams-Brice Stadium.

With over 77,000 LOYAL fans, Williams-Brice Stadium is one of the LOUDEST and most INTIMIDATING venues in the country.

Nickname: The Fighting Gamecocks

The University of South Carolina is the only major college athletic program in the country that uses "Fighting Gamecocks" as its official nickname and mascot. The University's athletic teams have been known as Gamecocks since the early 1900s.

At the turn of the 20th century, after struggling for more than decade under numerous nicknames, the school's football team was the impetus of the new moniker. In 1903, Columbia's morning newspaper, The State, shortened the name to one word and Carolina teams have been Gamecocks ever since.

Those early teams must have been a feisty and spirited group. A gamecock is a fighting rooster known for its spirit and courage. A cock fight, which was a popular sport throughout the United States in the 19th century, would last until the death of one of the combatants. Cock fighting has been outlawed by most states for humanitarian reasons, but it is still held surreptitiously in many areas.

The South Carolina Mascot

The State of South Carolina has long been closely connected with the breeding and training of fighting gamecocks. General Thomas Sumter, famed guerrilla fighter of the Revolutionary War, was known as "The Fighting Gamecock."

Beginning in 1971, John Nelson, an undergraduate biology student, began attending games in a Gamecock costume. He was known as "The Rooster". This evolved to Big Spur, who appeared during the 1970s and was a bit intimidating.

At the 1980 Homecoming game, the current version of Cocky, by Robert Lane, made his debut as Big Spur's son. Cocky became the University of South Carolina's official mascot after this appearance and has maintained this role ever since.

Cocky soon won the hearts of Gamecock fans and is one of the most recognizable figures in college athletics. In 1986, he was chosen as America's First "National Mascot" by the Universal Cheerleading Association, Ford Motor Company and American Airlines.

That same year, Cocky brought home his first UCA Mascot Championship. He continued his success by capturing his second championship in 1994 and also won the Capital One mascot championship in 2003.

Cocky can be seen pepping the crowd up at a variety of athletics events and also makes numerous community service appearances throughout the year.

Sir Big Spur

Sir Big Spur, is the official live mascot of the Gamecock Athletics. Sir Big Spur is an Old English Black Breasted Red Gamecock. He debuted in 1999 at a Carolina baseball game and his first game at Williams-Brice Stadium was in 2006. He can now be seen at all home football games, various baseball games and other events supporting the Gamecocks.

"2001"

The South Carolina Gamecocks feature perhaps the most unique and electrifying pregame entry in all of college football. In fact, Sporting News rated USC's "2001" as the most exciting pregame entry in all of college football. As the minutes wind down on the game clock prior to the opening kickoff, the Gamecocks leave the locker room following final pregame instruction from their coaching staff and assemble in the tunnel in the southwest corner of Williams-Brice Stadium. Then, as the crowd of nearly 80,000 begins its roar of anticipation, the first notes of the theme song from "2001-A Space Odyssey" blare over the stadium sound system. As the music continues, the enthusiasm of the crowd is feverish. Finally, at just the exact moment, in perfect coordination with the music, the Gamecocks hit the field running.

Sandstorm

Visit Williams-Brice Stadium a few hours before kickoff on any gameday and one will see a series of white towels being distributed at seats throughout the stadium. A visitor may pause and wonder upon seeing this activity but Gamecock fans know exactly why the towels are there. A sandstorm is coming...

"Sandstorm" is an instrumental piece by Finnish DJ and record producer Darude that was originally released in the late 1990s. The piece was played during the South Carolina-Ole Miss game in 2009 and was instantly embraced by the student body. Since then, it has been incorporated into football opening game festivities, is heard after football scores and is used at other sports venues as a rally cry for fans and players alike. A sequence of up and down motions are executed in unison as the music starts and these ultimately culminate in a flurry of waving white towels as the song progresses. Chants of "USC" are also repeated in rhythm with the music. What began as a celebration tune toward the end of a big game has become one of the most loved traditions at University of South Carolina athletics events.

Gamecock Walk

Approximately two hours and 20 minutes prior to every home game, the Carolina team buses drop the players off on the Garnet Way in Gamecock Park. Through a throng of Gamecock fans and well-wishers along with the Carolina Marching Band, the team walks on the Garnet Way, crosses Bluff Road and the stadium tarmac and heads to the locker room, located in the southwest corner of Williams-Brice Stadium, to prepare for the game ahead.

School Colors

Garnet and Black were adopted near the turn of the century as the official colors of the University of South Carolina athletic teams. The colors are the dominant ones on the gamecock, which is the University's official mascot.

The Cockaboos Railroad

What is perhaps the most unique form of tailgating and featured throughout the years in numerous magazines and television shows, the Cockaboos Railroad has made its way to Columbia and University of South Carolina football. Twenty-two cabooses line a railroad track just outside of Williams-Brice Stadium - but these rail cars don't move and they certainly aren't something you would see passing by on the rear end of a train.

In the late 1980s, a local businessman and his wife dreamt up a highly unique concept of combining tailgating for University of South Carolina football games with an abandoned set of railroad tracks running along the south end of the Williams-Brice Stadium property. In 1990, the beautifully-designed Cockaboos Railroad began catering to the serious Gamecock tailgater with amenities never before associated with in tailgating: running water, cable television, air conditioning, and heating, and a living room highlight each and every Cockaboos.

The Cockaboos Railroad - it's different, it's unique, and it's exciting; and there's nothing else like it in the nation.

Alma Mater: "We Hail Thee Carolina"

Set to the tune of Robert Burns' "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton", the alma mater was written in 1911 by George A. Wauchope, an English professor at the university. At the time, several songs submitted as candidates for the alma mater were collectively placed in a songbook and sung at chapel; however, Wauchope's emerged as the most popular and later became the official alma mater.

The first stanza of the alma mater is sung at all athletics events and the custom of raising one's right hand with fingers cupped as if offering a toast is visible among fans when the phrase "Here's a Health, Carolina" is sung at the end.

*We hail thee, Carolina, and sing thy high praise;
With loyal devotion, remembering the days;
When proudly we sought thee, thy children to be:
Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!*

Fight Song: "The Fighting Gamecocks Lead the Way"

The lyrics listed below comprise the official university fight song entitled "The Fighting Gamecocks Lead the Way". The song's tune is from the musical "How Now, Dow Jones" and the original song in the musical was titled "Step to the Rear". The music was chosen as the fight song by former football coach and Athletics Director, Paul Dietzel, who also wrote the lyrics. The song is played by the school band during athletics events to motivate players and inspire fans, many of whom throw a hearty fist pump when they hear "Go Cocks!" toward the end of the song.

*Hey, Let's give a cheer,
Carolina is here,
The Fighting Gamecocks lead the way.
Who gives a care,
If the going gets tough,
And when it is rough,
That's when the 'Cocks get going.*

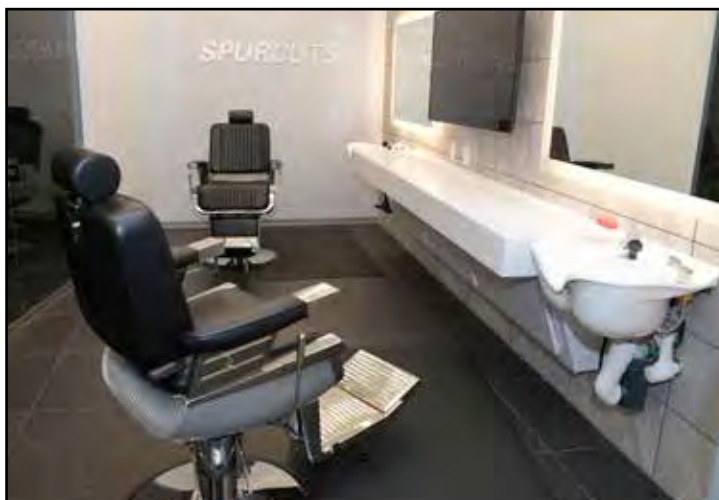

*Hail to our colors of garnet and black,
In Carolina pride have we.
So, Go Gamecocks Go - FIGHT!
Drive for the goal - FIGHT!
USC will win today - GO COCKS!
So, let's give a cheer,
Carolina is here.
The Fighting Gamecocks All The Way!*

LONG FAMILY OPERATIONS CENTER

Opened in January 2019, the Cyndi and Kenneth Long Family Football Operations Center provides the Gamecocks' program with a recruiting center, locker room, weight room, athletic training room, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, dining room, equipment room and player lounges; all in one convenient location.

SPURRIER INDOOR FACILITY

The Jerri and Steve Spurrier Indoor Practice Facility opened in 2015 at the west end of Gamecock Park.

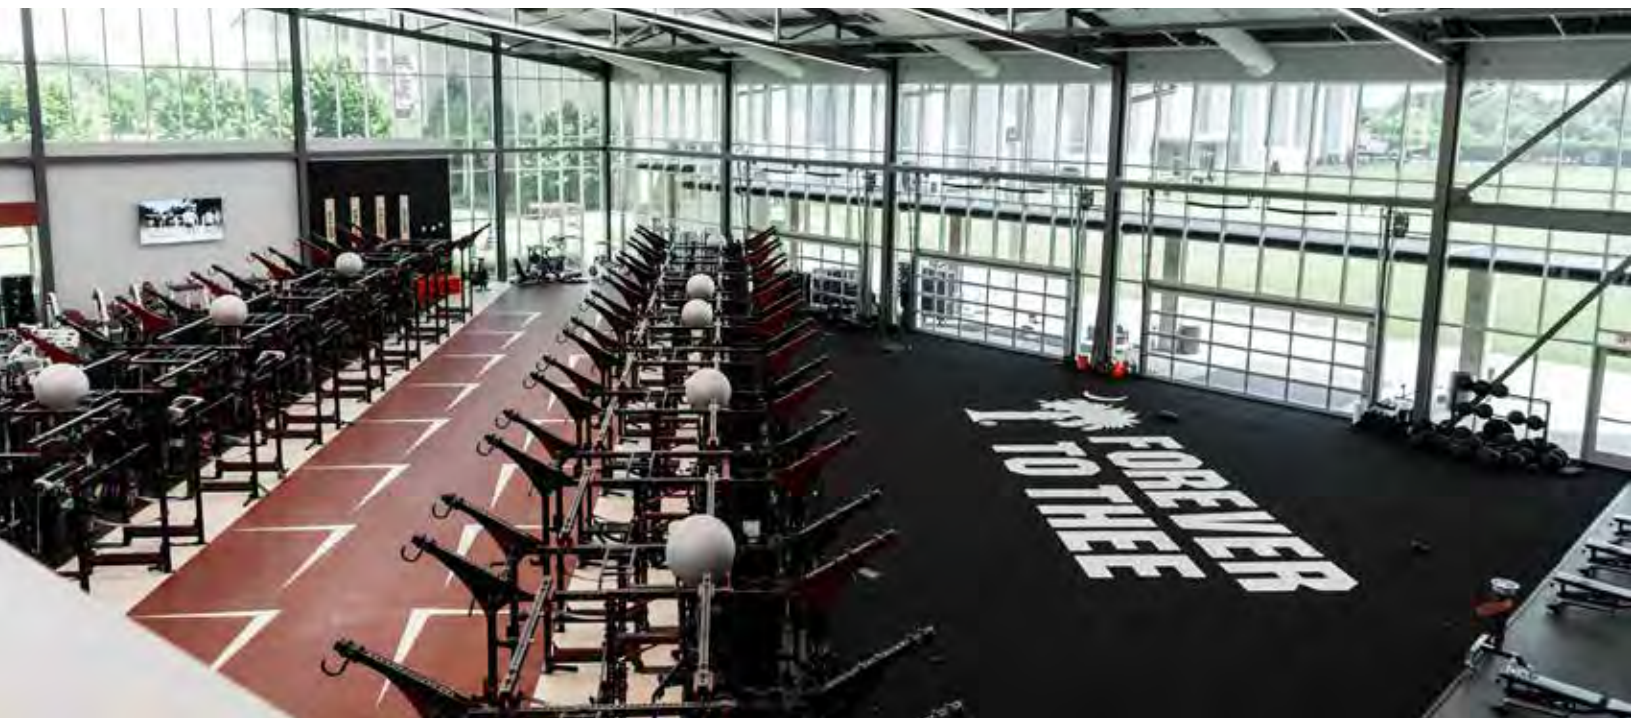

The state-of-the-art facility houses a full indoor field. The graphics honor the program's retired numbers, major award winners and Gamecock Greats.

Two full-length natural grass football fields run adjacent to the indoor facility, giving the team the opportunity to change practice sites as quickly as the weather.

“We wear many hats, but the No. 1 role for the strength and conditioning coach is to serve as the executive branch of the vision Coach Beamer has for his program. We are executing that vision or projecting that vision and putting it into action every single day.”

- Luke Day

Gamecock Football works out in a 24,000-square foot weight room/cardio deck that rivals any in the country. It features 20 customized Armor Camp House Racks from Sorinex. Twenty Olympic drop zones are built into the floor. There is a motion capture machine, and a recovery nutrition station inside the weight room, in addition to the nutrition hub outside the locker room.

The University of South Carolina provides its student-athletes with high-quality health care from nationally recognized surgeons and athletic trainers. This care includes a comprehensive physical medical exam with lab tests (e.g., sickle cell, CBC blood test, and Ferritin) and comprehensive medical, dental, vision, psychological, rehabilitation and associated health care services for injuries or illnesses sustained by a student-athlete while practicing or competing in a varsity sport.

We care about the mental health and well-being of our student-athletes. The staff includes a director of mental health, psychologists and psychiatrists available to assist in dealing with issues affecting the student-athletes' lives and sports performance.

Jamian Risher Jr.
Seth Smith
Peyton Williams
George Wilson Jr.

“When you recruit a young man out of high school, that’s the ultimate goal - to graduate. We’ve had a bunch of guys graduate since I became head coach that didn’t have a chance to go on to the NFL and play professionally. It’s really cool to see so many of those guys accomplish that goal.”

- Shane Beamer

Recognizing their role and the importance of giving back, Gamecock Football student-athletes are active at various events throughout Columbia and the Midlands.

10

All 10 of Carolina's team national championships have occurred in the last 23 years. Equestrian claimed the title in 2026.

Finish.

That's the buzzword that emanated throughout the Long Family Football Operations Center on the University of South Carolina campus as the team went through its winter workouts, spring drills and summer conditioning in preparation for the 2026 campaign.

The Gamecocks, under sixth-year head coach Shane Beamer, are looking to bounce back from a disappointing 4-8 campaign and focusing their attention on making their way back into the FBS playoff conversation like they were in 2024.

But to do so, they'll need to do a better job of finishing what they start.

The Gamecocks either led or were down by no more than one score entering the fourth quarter in 10 of their 12 games last season. In their eight losses, they led No. 23 Missouri, No. 4 Alabama and No. 3 Texas A&M heading into the final stanza only to lose, and trailed No. 11 LSU, No. 7 Ole Miss and in-state rival Clemson by just seven, six and six points respectively, with just 15 minutes left in regulation before ultimately falling short. Even in the two "blowout" losses versus Vanderbilt and Oklahoma the Gamecocks were within one score going into the halftime intermission in each contest but could not rally in the second half.

The Gamecocks were a gaudy 25-3 when either leading or tied after three quarters through Coach Beamer's first four seasons as the Carolina head coach but posted just a 4-3 mark in those scenarios in 2025.

For the Gamecocks to have success in 2026, they'll need to get back to winning those tight games in a highly competitive Southeastern Conference where a single play here or there can make all the difference between a hard-earned win and a heartbreaking loss.

Coach Beamer made several off-season moves to turn the tide back in the Gamecocks' favor with the goal of propelling them into the national picture again in 2026.

First, he revamped much of his offensive coaching staff, bringing in offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Kendal Briles, offensive line coach Randy Clements and running backs coach Stan Drayton to rejuvenate the attack. The Gamecocks need to find ways to more consistently move the ball and more frequently put points on the scoreboard, taking some of the pressure off their defense.

Next, Coach Beamer and his staff reached into the portal and re-stocked the roster with 27 transfers from other four-year universities and one JUCO transfer, many of whom have been through the wars with significant game experience and can lead when the going gets tough and the game is on the line.

Most notably, Coach Beamer and his staff completely revamped an offensive line that has been considered a weak link for much of his tenure. The Gamecocks brought 10 offensive linemen, six of whom are redshirt seniors. In fact, Carolina now boasts the most experienced offensive line in the nation, netting a combined total of nearly 10,000 career snaps.

The Gamecocks also beefed up their ground game by adding three running backs from the portal, who join the three scholarship backs already on campus, in what should be a very competitive room.

Finally, Coach Beamer and his staff addressed some other areas of need, including the defensive line, both at tackle and Edge rusher, added a couple of veteran wide receivers to supplement a talented but still young unit, and brought in a handful of special teamers who will compete for starting slots.

While the 28 transfers, along with 19 true freshmen, a dozen of whom enrolled in January, give the Gamecocks a lot of new faces, many of the core components of last year's squad are back, including 12 returning starters, most notably three standouts who could hear their names called early in the 2027 NFL Draft.

There aren't many schools in the country that can match a "Big Three" like the Gamecocks' trio of quarterback LaNorris Sellers, wide receiver Nyck Harbor and Edge rusher Dylan Stewart. All three have the God-given physical tools to play the game at the highest level and they will be counted on to take it to another level in what will likely be their final season of college football.

While the Gamecocks have always played a very challenging schedule as a member of the SEC, 2026 takes on a new challenge, as the conference has expanded to a nine-game league slate.

After opening with a pair of non-conference home games against Kent State and Towson, Carolina will embark on a nine-game gauntlet of conference opponents over a 10-week period that ping-pongs home and road venues before wrapping up the regular season with the annual Palmetto Bowl against in-state rival Clemson. The back half of the conference slate after the October 17 off week is especially loaded with consecutive games against Tennessee, Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Arkansas and Georgia scheduled before the aforementioned finale with Clemson. The Sooners, Aggies and Bulldogs all were College Football Playoff participants a year ago.

It all gets started when the squad officially reports back to campus on August 6 and the first practice is slated for the following day, August 7.

But that's just the start of a four-month grind. What's important is how they finish.

2025 Statistics

Scoring Offense	22.7 (15/102)
Rushing Offense	111.1 (14/117)
Passing Offense	225.3 (11/65)
Total Offense	336.3 (15/107)

For the third time in as many years, a new offensive coordinator will be putting his fingerprints on the Carolina attack. The keys to the Gamecock offense have been turned over to Kendal Briles. Briles brought Randy Clements with him from TCU to mentor the offensive line. Veteran Stan Drayton was added to coach the running backs.

QUARTERBACK

LaNorris Sellers will once again be the focal point of the Gamecock offense. How Sellers fares will in many ways dictate the Gamecocks' success in 2026. A dual-threat QB, Sellers was playing as well as anyone in the country at the end of the 2024 season and was a preseason Heisman Award candidate a year ago. Hampered by a leaky offensive line, the numbers were not quite as good in 2025, but the talent is obvious. He will be backed up by redshirt freshman Cutter Woods and transfer Lucian Anderson III. Landon Duckworth is a true freshman who made an immediate impression in the spring. Jimmy Francis and Brandon Cunningham are walk-ons that complete the room.

RUNNING BACK

The running back room starts with a clean slate under new assistant coach Stan Drayton. Matt Fuller made an immediate impression, earning Offensive Player of the Spring honors, moving to the head of the class entering the fall. Returnees Isaiah Augustave and Jawarn Howell, along with newcomers Christian Clark and Jabree Coleman will compete for playing time. Neil Salvage III and newcomer Ethan Kellum are walks-ons that round out the room.

WIDE RECEIVER

One of college football's most freakish athletes, Nyck Harbor, returns for his senior season. Possessing elite size and speed, Harbor has steadily improved his pass catching and route running skills each year and figures to put together his best season in 2026. Transfers DJ Black, Jayden Gibson, Charly Mullaly and Nitro Tuggle, will compete with returning letterwinners Mazeo Bennett Jr., Donovan Murph and Jayden Sellers in a talented room. Malik Clark, Lex Cyrus and Jordon Gidron along with Jackson Repp were part of a highly-touted corps of receivers that joined the squad a year ago. Sequel Patterson and Stone Furrey, the son of wide receivers coach Mike Furrey are the newcomers.

TIGHT END

Veteran Brady Hunt is the returning starter at the tight end position and provides strong leadership. Sophomore Mike Tyler got his feet wet a season ago and took another step, earning Most Improved Player of the Spring for the Offense. Maurice Brown II has shined on special teams and brings a toughness to the position. Max Drag, who hails from nearby Chapin, S.C., returns to the Midlands after stops at Appalachian State and UCF. Reno Roehm has been a standout on the scout team, while Caden Ramsey is a true freshman who joined the squad in the summer.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line has been completely retooled with the addition of 10 transfers, six of whom are redshirt seniors. New offensive line coach Randy Clements will be tasked with determining the best players, putting them in the right position and building a cohesive unit. The redshirt senior transfers are Dayne Arnett, Carter Miller, Aramando Nieves, Jacarrius Peak, Emmanuel Kojo Poku and Seth Smith. Nolan Hay is another redshirt senior who is in his second season in Columbia. Junior newcomers include Ebubedike Nnabugwu, Vincent Chen, Ashton Mozone and Hank Purvis. Sophomore left guard Shed Sarratt Jr. and junior left tackle Josiah Thompson are returning starters, but Thompson will miss the entire 2026 season after undergoing surgery. Redshirt junior Markee Anderson has the most time in the program while redshirt freshman Adedamola Ajidahun showed promise in limited duty a year ago. Jake Recker, who was placed on scholarship in the spring, joins Blake Franks as redshirt sophomores. Four freshman, Anthony Baxter, Neff Giwa, Darius Gray and Zyon Guilles, will try to make an early impact. Baxter and Guilles have the advantage of having been on campus in the spring. Gray was a highly coveted recruit while Giwa, who has never played organized football, may be the most intriguing prospect with his excellent size and athletic ability.

2025 Statistics

Scoring Defense	22.1 (10/45)
Rushing Defense	136.7 (11/49)
Passing Defense	216.3 (7/59)
Total Defense	353.0 (10/52)

One constant during Shane Beamer's tenure at South Carolina has been the solid play of the defensive unit, led by defensive coordinator Clayton White and co-defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach Torrian Gray, both of whom have been with Coach Beamer since the onset of his arrival five years ago. The Gamecocks consistently are one of the best teams in the country in take-aways and are efficient in White's Flex-Nickel defense, allowing just 20.0 points per game over the past two campaigns. In addition, the Gamecocks have 14 defensive scores over the past five seasons under White and Gray.

DEFENSIVE LINE

A blend of experienced players, both returning and newcomers, with some younger talent sprinkled in, make up the interior of the Gamecocks' defensive line. Veterans Gabriel Brownlow-Dindy and Troy Pikes are both in their second year in the program and figure to see even more playing time than they did a year ago. Brownlow-Dindy has also taken on more of a leadership role in the room. Tomiwa Durojaiye (Illinois), Kelby Collins (Alabama) and Jordan Thomas (Georgia) join the corps after cutting their teeth at strong Power-4 programs. Christian Ingram and Caleb Williams are back for their second year in the program. Williams is working his way back after suffering a broken leg late in the 2025 season. Noah Clark and Aiden Harris are true freshmen looking to make their mark. Clark showed quickness and agility in the spring, especially for a man 6-5 and 345 pounds. The most significant returnee might be defensive line coach Travian Robertson, who was sidelined for much of the 2025 season following a serious automobile accident.

EDGE

The featured player is junior Dylan Stewart, who is a preseason All-American and considered one of the nation's most impactful players for 2026. Those players who have lined up on the opposite side of the line for the past two seasons have benefited greatly from the focus placed on Stewart. Transfers Caleb Herring (Tennessee) and Drew Collins (Arkansas State) join the fold that includes George Wilson Jr., who missed all of last season with a knee injury. Redshirt freshman Anthony Addison was named the Most Improved Player of the Spring on defense and will be a player to watch. Jacquavious Dodd and Kobby Sakyi-Prah are both in their second year in the program, while highly touted freshman Julian Walker figures to get a long look for early playing time.

LINEBACKER

The linebacking corps is the only position group that did not see an infusion of talent from the portal. The Gamecocks are expected to roll primarily with Fred "JayR" Johnson, Justin Okoronkwo and Shawn Murphy, who took most of the snaps last season. All return and will be counted on to take on more of a leadership role this season. Jamian Risher Jr. has the inside track to be the fourth linebacker in the rotation. Donovan Darden, A.J. Holloway and Josh Smith are all in their second year in the program and look to take a big step forward. Keenan Britt and Andrew Harris are true freshmen who add depth to the room.

DEFENSIVE BACK

The secondary lost a second-round NFL draft pick in Brandon Cisse at corner, an All-SEC performer in Jalon Kilgore at nickel, and a four-year starter in DQ Smith at safety, but return starters Judge Collier at corner and Peyton Williams at safety. Vicari Swain figures to get the nod at the other cornerback position, with Quay'sheed Scott and Gerald Kilgore battling for the starting slot at Nickel. The other safety position is more wide open with several candidates in the mix. Zahbari Sandy has been in the program the longest of those candidates but has not played in over two years due to injuries. David Bucey, Jackson Burger, Kelvin Hunter, Landon Kurtz, Isaiah McClary and Jalewis Solomon are all in their third season in the program. Kendal Daniels Jr., Jaquel Holman and Damarcus Leach all lettered in their first year under Gray's tutelage in 2025, gaining experience primarily as special teams contributors. Tony Brown, Cedric Cisse and Chris Hatfield are also in their second season in the fold and look for a role after serving on the scout team a year ago. Four freshmen in Kosci Barnes, J'Zavien Currence, KJ Johnson and Triston Lewis, join the unit this year.

For the third time in the last four years, the Gamecocks will have a new voice leading the special teams units. The newest face to join the coaching squad is special teams coordinator Matthew Smiley, who arrived in Columbia just a week before the start of spring practice in 2026. Smiley returns to the college ranks for the first time since 2012, having spent the past several years in the NFL.

PLACEKICKER

One of the more interesting positions to watch during fall camp will be the competition for the starting placekicker role. After converting 39-of-42 field goal attempts (92.9 pct.) from 2021-2023, the Gamecock kickers have hit on just 27-of-37 tries (73.0 pct.) over the past two seasons. Four kickers will get an opportunity in fall camp to make their case and earn that important role in 2026. Mason Love and Max Kelley are the two returnees. Both have big legs and can hit from distance but need to continue to hone their consistency and accuracy. Redshirt senior Upton Bellenfant joins the competition after a one-year stint at Texas Tech. He is 24-of-27 in his career in field goal attempts, including 18-of-21 in 2024 when he was a third-team All-MAC selection while kicking for former Gamecock special teams guru Pete Lembo at Buffalo. Redshirt freshman Malik Orsan was a late addition, joining the squad in the summer after spending the 2025 campaign as a reserve kicker at Southeast Missouri State.

PUNTER

While competition is a core tenant of the program, one of the positions that is set more in pen than pencil is punter. Redshirt sophomore Mason Love returns after earning the nod on the Coaches' SEC All-Freshman team a year ago. In his first season as the Gamecock punter replacing replacing All-American Kai Kroeger, Love posted the fourth-best punting average in school history at 45.1-yards. Max Kelley and Malik Orsan provide depth should something happen to Love.

KICKOFF SPECIALIST

Max Kelley, who earned a spot on the SEC Coaches' All-Freshman team as a kickoff specialist a year ago, figures to be the favorite to hold down those duties again this year, but he won't do so without some competition. Mason Love had a handful of opportunities a year ago, while Upton Bellenfant was Buffalo's kickoff specialist in 2024. Malik Orsan could also be an option for Coach Smiley.

LONG SNAPPER

Like the starting placekicker role, the starting long snapper, an underappreciated and often overlooked position, is wide open entering the 2026 fall camp, with four candidates vying for the duties. Redshirt junior Emmet Rhoades is the most experienced of the group, having played in 12 games as the long snapper at Western Carolina a year ago. Redshirt sophomore Gunner Yocum and redshirt freshman Kyler Farrow both have been in the program, working in a reserve role. Freshman Matthew Oh was the lone February signee for the 2026 freshman class and joined the squad in the summer.

HOLDER

Mason Love did a solid job as the holder on placekicks in his first season in the role in 2025 and figures to be the odds-on-favorite to do so again in 2026. The obvious caveat to that is if Love would win the starting placekicker duties, paving the way for someone else to take on that role.

KICK RETURNER

Few kick returners in the country can match the size and speed of Nyck Harbor, who was tabbed as the preseason third-team All-SEC kick returner by Phil Steele. If and when Harbor finds a crease, he is a candidate to take it to the house. He averaged 22.0-yards per return a season ago and expect that number to increase this season if teams are willing to take the chance to kick it to him.

PUNT RETURNER

There may not be a better punt returner in the country in 2026 than Vicari Swain. Swain, who was named a preseason second-team All-American and first-team All-SEC punt returner by Phil Steele, averaged 15.9 yards per return a season ago, taking a school-record three to the house for touchdowns.

QUICKLY: 2026 marks year six of the Shane Beamer Era and the 133rd season of intercollegiate football at the University of South Carolina, dating back to 1892. It is the 120th-consecutive year in which South Carolina has competed on the gridiron. The University did not field a team in either 1893 or 1906. Carolina owns an all-time record of 647-625-44, a .508 winning percentage. Since the start of the 21st century, the Gamecocks have posted a 181-143 record, a .559 winning clip. Under Coach Beamer, the Gamecocks are 33-30, a .524 winning clip.

IT JUST MEANS MORE: The 2026 season will mark South Carolina's 35th year in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina and Arkansas joined the SEC prior to the 1992 campaign. The Gamecocks earned the SEC Eastern Division title in the 2010 season. The Gamecocks are 115-158-1 (.422) all-time in SEC regular season play but posted a 42-38 (.525) record in conference action from 2010-19.

START ME UP: The 2026 edition of South Carolina Football will officially report to fall camp on Thursday, Aug. 6, with the first practice scheduled for the following day, Friday, Aug. 7. The Gamecocks will generally practice in the mornings. Fall classes will begin on Tuesday, Aug. 18. The Gamecocks will open the 2026 season on Saturday, Sept. 5, when they host the Kent State Golden Flashes. That contest will be televised on the SEC Network with a 12:45 pm kick time.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS: The 2026 home slate features seven quality opponents with special events added to enhance the in-game festivities.

Sept. 5 - Kent State, 12:45 pm

We will be welcoming High School Bands to Williams-Brice Stadium for our annual High School Band Day.

Sept. 12 - Towson, 7 pm

We will be celebrating 250 years of America with our annual Salute the Troops game with the Tigers come to town. This game will also serve as our Scouts, Youth Sports and Faith & Family group theme days.

Sept. 19 - Mississippi State, 4:15 pm

We will be welcoming families of current University of South Carolina students to Columbia for our annual Family Weekend. This game will also serve as our First Responder Appreciation Game.

Oct. 3 - Kentucky, Flex (3:30-4:30 pm or 6-8 pm)

We will be welcoming cheer and dance teams in the 6th grade and above to Williams-Brice Stadium for Spirit Day where they will be able to participate in a pre-game clinic and halftime performance with our cheer and dance teams.

Oct. 24 - Tennessee, Afternoon (3:30-4:30 pm)

The Volunteers are back on the schedule for the first time since 2023 and will be coming to Columbia while the SC State Fair is in town.

Nov. 7 - Texas A&M, Afternoon (3:30-4:30 pm)

We'll be ready to welcome home our Alumni for this year's Homecoming Game when Texas A&M comes to town. This game will also serve as our Teacher Appreciation Day.

Nov. 21 - Georgia, Flex (3:30-4:30 pm or 6-8 pm)

We'll close our home schedule with Senior Day when the Bulldogs come to town.

SCHEDULE SNIPPETS: The SEC moves to a nine-game conference slate for the first time in history (excluding the COVID-19-induced 10-game SEC-only schedule of 2020). Three of the Gamecocks' top SEC rivals - Florida, Tennessee and Georgia - return to the schedule after a two-year hiatus. Kent State returns to Columbia for the second time and for the first time since the 1995 season when Carolina scored a modern-day school record 77 points. Towson makes its way onto the Gamecocks' schedule for the first time. The schedule features four SEC teams that made the 2025 CFP 16-team playoffs - Alabama, Oklahoma, Texas A&M and Georgia.

ALL ABOARD THE SHANE TRAIN: South Carolina head coach Shane Beamer owns a 33-30 record in five seasons at the helm. The 33 wins matches Lou Holtz for seventh on the Gamecocks' all-time list, while his 63 games coached ranks eighth on Carolina's all-time list.

WELCOME HOME: Five of the Gamecocks' coaching staff are new to Columbia this year. The newcomers include Deion Barnes (defensive ends/outside linebackers), Kendal Briles (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks), Randy Clements (offensive line), Stan Drayton (assistant head coach - offense/running backs) and Matthew Smiley (special teams coordinator).

THEY'RE HERE: The Gamecocks list 110 players including 32 returning letterwinners on the 2026 roster. The lettermen consist of 13 offensive players and 17 on the defensive side of the ball. South Carolina also returns two specialists who have earned a varsity letter.

RETURNING STARTERS: The Gamecocks list a dozen returning starters of a possible 24 (offense, defense, punter, placekicker) from the 2025 squad, six on offense, five on defense and one specialist. The returning offensive starters are WR Nyck Harbor, TE Brady Hunt, WR Donovan Murph, QB LaNorris Sellers, LG Shed Sarratt Jr. and LT Josiah Thompson. The five returning starters on defense are CB Judge Collier, LB Fred Johnson, LB Justin Okoronkwo, ER Dylan Stewart and S Peyton Williams. Mason Love returns as the Carolina punter.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN: The Gamecocks said good-bye to 38 letterwinners including a dozen starters off last year's team - five on offense, six on defense and one specialist. The departed starters include RT Tree Babalade, RG Trovon Baugh, RB Rahsul Faison, WR Vandrevius Jacobs and OC Boaz Stanley on offense, DT Nick Barrett, CB Brandon Cisse, DT Monkell Goodwine, NB Jalon Kilgore, S DQ Smith, and ER Bryan Thomas Jr. on defense, along with PK William Joyce.

EVERY TIME OUT: The Gamecocks had six players start all 12 games in 2025 including LT Josiah Thompson, QB LaNorris Sellers, DT Nick Barrett, ER Bryan Thomas Jr., LB Fred Johnson and S Peyton Williams. Thompson, Sellers, Johnson and Williams return for 2026.

BEEN THERE, DONE THAT: The 2026 fall roster features 21 players who have made at least one start for the Gamecocks in their career. Offensive players WR Nyck Harbor, QB LaNorris Sellers and LT Josiah Thompson lead the way with 24 starts each, while CB Judge Collier and ER Dylan Stewart are right behind with 23 starts apiece and have the most starts on the defensive side of the ball.

BY THE NUMBERS: Carolina returns 49.6 percent of its rushing yards, 93.1 percent of its passing yards and 57.6 percent of its receiving yards from 2025. Quarterback LaNorris Sellers (270 yards) and running back Matt Fuller (260) are the top returning rushers. Sellers is also the leading passer, having thrown for 2,437 of Carolina's 2,703 yards last season. Wide receivers Nyck Harbor (30 for 618) and Jayden Sellers (22 for 337) are the top returning receivers. Four of the top six tacklers from 2025 return, led by Justin Okoronkwo (64), Fred Johnson (61), Peyton Williams (50) and Shawn Murphy (49). Williams, Gerald Kilgore and Vicari Swain return after tying for the team lead with two interceptions each. Edge rusher Dylan Stewart is the team's top returner in TFLs (12.0) and sacks (4.5).

CRACKED REAR VIEW: The Gamecocks opened the 2025 season ranked 13 in both national polls and moved up to No. 10 in the A.P. poll after a season-opening win over Virginia Tech in the Aflac Kickoff Game in Atlanta. After a win in the home opener over South Carolina State, the Gamecocks struggled to find the win column, posting just two victories in their final 10 games to finish with a 4-8 record and a 1-7 mark in the SEC.

CLOSE BUT NO CIGAR: The Gamecocks either led or were down by no more than one score entering the fourth quarter in 10 of their 12 games in 2025. In their eight losses, they led No. 23 Missouri, No. 4 Alabama and No. 3 Texas A&M heading into the final stanza only to lose, and trailed No. 11 LSU, No. 7 Ole Miss and in-state rival Clemson by just seven, six and six points respectively, with just 15 minutes left in regulation before ultimately falling short. Even in the two "blowout" losses versus Vanderbilt and Oklahoma the Gamecocks were within one score going into the halftime intermission in each contest but could not rally in the second half.

UTILIZING THE PORTAL: The Gamecocks' fall roster features 27 players who were on other team's rosters last fall. Of the 27 transfers, 15 are coming from Power-4 conferences, including six from the SEC, four from the Big Ten, four from the Big 12 and one from the ACC. Five of the players, Kelby Collins (Alabama), Jayden Gibson (Oklahoma), Caleb Herring (Tennessee), Quay'sheed Scott (Kentucky) and Jordan Thomas (Georgia), will face their former team in 2026.

BROTHERLY LOVE: The Gamecocks have three sets of brothers on their roster. Drew and Kelby Collins are a pair of defensive linemen who transferred in this spring. Drew from Arkansas State and Kelby from Alabama. Aiden and Andrew Harris are freshman twins who both work on defense, Aiden at tackle and Andrew at linebacker. The offensive tandem of quarterback LaNorris Sellers and wide receiver Jayden Sellers return for a second season together.

TOP ACCOLADES: South Carolina features three of the top 30 players in the country, according to On3, with Dylan Stewart checking in at No. 4 ahead of LaNorris Sellers at 22 and Jacarrius Peak at 30.

EARLY ENROLL- EES: The Gamecocks had 12 members of their 2026 signing class enroll in January. The seven freshmen who joined the team in the summer include Neff Giwa, Darius Gray, KJ Johnson, Ethan Kellum, Matthew Oh, Sequel Patterson and Caden Ramsey.

YOU'RE NOT WORTHY: The Gamecocks are 49-17 in their last 66 non-conference games, a .742 winning clip.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE: South Carolina has won 43 of its last 51 home games (.843) against non-conference foes.

THAT'S OUR BALL: Since Shane Beamer and Clayton White took over at South Carolina, the Gamecocks have registered 110 takeaways, most in the SEC and tying Penn State and Tulane for sixth among FBS programs during that five-year span.

BLOCK THAT KICK: Since the 2021 season, South Carolina has blocked 17 kicks, tying Old Dominion for third in the FBS behind only Notre Dame (19) and Indiana (18).

FINDING THE END ZONE: South Carolina logged seven non-offensive touchdowns during the 2025 campaign, tying for second in the FBS with Pitt, Notre Dame and Tennessee behind only Louisiana Tech (9).

Shane Beamer is in his sixth season in Columbia leading the South Carolina Football program in 2026.

Beamer, who owns 33 wins in five seasons at the helm, ranks in a tie with Lou Holtz for seventh among all South Carolina head football coaches. With a 33-30 record, he has coached the eighth-most games in school history. He has posted three wins over top-10 teams and seven wins over top-25 teams in his first five seasons at Carolina, tops among all Gamecock head football coaches over their first five seasons. During his tenure he has posted victories over three coaches who have won national championships – Jimbo Fisher, Dabo Swinney and Mack Brown, and has led the Gamecocks to three bowl appearances.

Beamer's 2025 squad was competitive in every game but fourth quarter struggles produced a 4-8 mark. The Gamecocks played nine teams that were bowl-eligible, six games against teams that were ranked when they played, and five that finished in the top-15 in the final CFP rankings. Carolina either led or was within a touchdown entering the fourth quarter in 10 of the 12 games, including losses to No. 23 Missouri, No. 4 Alabama and No. 3 Texas A&M when they took a lead into the final stanza. Individually, the Gamecocks placed two players on the Coaches' second-team All-SEC unit, two on the third-team and two on the SEC All-Freshman squad.

Beamer's 2024 squad was his most successful to date. The Gamecocks finished the season with a 9-4 record including a 5-3 mark in the SEC, posting nine wins in a season for just the eighth time in school history. The Gamecocks recorded a school-record four wins against ranked opponents, including three in consecutive weeks as part of a regular season-ending six-game winning streak. Carolina finished the season ranked 19th in both the final Associated Press and Coaches polls, its highest ranking since 2013 and its second top-25 ranking in the past three seasons.

Beamer was the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week for the third time in his career following the Gamecocks' upset win over Texas A&M and earned SEC Coach of the Year accolades from the AP, USA TODAY, Bear Bryant and College Football Nation. He was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, the Bobby Dodd, and the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year honors and was a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year.

Individually, edge rusher Kyle Kennard was the school's first Bronko Nagurski Award winner as the nation's top defensive player and was the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year. Kennard, along with safety Nick Emmanwori, earned first-team All-America honors, while punter Kai Kroeger was a second-team selection. Quarterback LaNorris Sellers was selected as the SEC's Freshman of the Year. Sellers, offensive tackle Josiah Thompson and Edge rusher Dylan Stewart earned Freshman All-America honors, giving the Gamecocks six All-Americans as selected by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), the most of any FBS school in 2024. In addition, Kennard and Raheim Sanders were named first-team Academic All-America.

Named the Gamecocks' 36th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2020, Beamer had a successful first season in Columbia, improving the Gamecocks by 3.5 games, from a 2-8 mark in 2020 to a 7-6 campaign in 2021, including a convincing win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. He tied the school record for wins by a first-year head coach, doubled the preseason's expected win total and surpassed the win total of the two previous seasons combined, earning him a share of the Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach of the Year Award, presented by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). Safety Jaylan Foster earned All-America honors and three players were selected in the NFL Draft following his inaugural season.

In 2022, the team again exceeded expectations by recording eight wins, including three wins over ranked opponents. The Gamecocks won eight games for just the 15th time in 129 seasons and for the first time since 2017. The Gamecocks were ranked 23rd in the country in the final AP and USA Today Coaches' polls. It marked the first time since 2013 that the Gamecocks finished the season ranked in the top-25 and the 10th time Carolina has finished the season ranked in the final AP poll. The Gamecocks defeated No. 5 Tennessee and No. 7 Clemson in the final two games of the regular season, the first time Carolina has posted back-to-back wins over top-10 teams and just the seventh time in history that a school has defeated AP Top-10 opponents in consecutive weeks as an unranked team, the first since 2003. Coach Beamer was a two-time Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week recipient after wins over Kentucky and Tennessee. Punter Kai Kroeger earned All-America honors, leading a special teams unit ranked No. 1 in the country. Five players were selected in the NFL Draft off that squad, the most since 2013.

Challenged by one of the toughest schedules in the FBS and in a season mired by numerous injuries, decimating the offensive line most notably, the 2023 Gamecocks finished the campaign with a 5-7 mark. The squad was led by quarterback Spencer Rattler and wide receiver Xavier Legette. Rattler set the school's single-season record for completions (275) and completion percentage (68.9), while his 3,186 passing yards was the third-highest total in school history. Legette, a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, led the team with 71 receptions for 1,255 yards and seven receiving touchdowns. His 1,255 receiving yards was the second-highest single-season mark in school history.

Prior to his first head coaching stint, Beamer had been an assistant coach at seven FBS schools for 21 seasons. During his career as an assistant, he coached in 17 bowl games, including a College Football Playoff National Championship Game, posted 18 non-losing seasons, six of those with double-digit victories, and his teams won 63 percent of its games. He coached all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams.

Beamer is not new to Carolina. The Charleston, S.C. native served as an assistant coach with the Gamecocks for four seasons from 2007-10 under Steve Spurrier. In 2007, he served as the outside linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator. He mentored the cornerbacks in 2008, then coached the Spurs and strong safeties and was the special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2009 and 2010, setting the foundation for the most successful run in school history.

BEAMER

In 2009 at South Carolina, Beamer was nominated for the Frank Broyles Award. His special teams' units recorded five blocked kicks, tying for the SEC lead and for eighth in the nation. He also helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 15th in the country in total defense, and eighth in the nation in passing defense.

As the Gamecocks' recruiting coordinator, his 2009 class was ranked 12th-best in the country, and the 2010 and 2011 classes were ranked in the Top 25.

During his tenure as recruiting coordinator, nine Gamecocks were selected in the NFL Draft, including first round selection Stephen Gilmore (Buffalo) and second round picks Alshon Jeffery (Chicago) and D.J. Swearingen (Houston).

The Gamecocks all-time winningest quarterback, Connor Shaw, and rushing touchdown leader, Marcus Lattimore, were also in the 2010 class.

Beamer has helped build several programs during his career. He was on three coaching staffs where the head coach was in his first or second season at the school. He joined Sylvester Croom's staff at Mississippi State in his first season, Kirby Smart's program at Georgia in his first season, and Lincoln Riley's unit at Oklahoma in his second season.

Beamer served as the assistant head coach for offense and mentored the tight ends and H-backs at Oklahoma from 2018-20. In 2020, Oklahoma ranked sixth in the country in scoring, 11th in total offense and 14th in passing offense. In 2019, the Sooners led the nation in yards per play, ranked third in total offense and fourth in passing efficiency rating. Oklahoma led the nation in total offense, scoring offense and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), and ranked second in passing efficiency rating in 2018.

Beamer spent two seasons (2016-17) at Georgia as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator under Kirby Smart, helping the Bulldogs to a 21-7 combined record. In 2017, UGA won the SEC Championship before falling in the CFP title game to Alabama in overtime. His special teams ranked eighth nationally in net punting and 20th in kickoff returns while blocking four kicks.

The son of Hall of Fame coach Frank Beamer, he worked with his father as the associate head coach and running backs coach at Virginia Tech from 2011-15. In his first year, he coached David Wilson, who broke the Tech single-season rushing record, was named All-America and ACC Player of the Year, and went on to become a first-round NFL draft selection. Shane served as the Hokies' acting head coach in the 2014 Military Bowl win while his father watched from the press box following throat surgery.

Beamer's first full-time coaching position came at Mississippi State in 2004 as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first two seasons at State, he guided three defensive backs to SEC All-Freshman Team accolades. He maintained the recruiting coordinator title but made the move to running backs coach in the spring of 2006 where he tutored running back Anthony Dixon to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Beamer spent three seasons (2001-03) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, helping with the cornerbacks and assisting in all special teams areas. He also oversaw game opponent scouting while earning a master's degree in sport management in Dec. 2003.

Before joining the staff at UT, he worked one season (2000) as a G.A. at Georgia Tech, helping with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A December 1999 graduate of Virginia Tech, Beamer was a member of five bowl teams (1995-99 seasons) and three Big East Conference championship squads on the Hokie football team as a long snapper and wide receiver. He was a long snapper on the 1999 Virginia Tech team that played for the BCS National Championship.

Beamer and his wife, Emily, who was named the 2025 South Carolina Football Hall of Fame Humanitarian of the Year, are the parents of three children – two daughters, Sutton and Olivia, both born in Columbia, and a son, Hunter, born in Blacksburg, Va.

Deion Barnes was named the Gamecocks' defensive ends/outside linebackers coach on December 23, 2025.

Barnes spent the past three seasons as the defensive line coach on James Franklin's staff at Penn State after working with the Nittany Lions for three years as a graduate assistant tutoring the defensive line.

During his six seasons working with the PSU defensive line, Barnes mentored 21 All-Big Ten selections, including five first-team picks, along with a first-team, a second-team and a third-team All-American.

During Barnes's coaching tenure with the Nittany Lions from 2020-25, Penn State led the nation in most defensive ends selected in the NFL Draft with seven.

Penn State's defense has consistently been among the FBS leaders in both sacks and tackles for loss. In 2025, PSU ranked third in the Big Ten and 37th in the country in tackles for loss, averaging 6.1 per game, and fifth in the Big Ten and 39th in the nation in sacks with 2.3 per contest.

In 2024, the Nittany Lion defense ranked second in the FBS in tackles for loss (119) and fifth in sacks (44). In 2023, Penn State's defense ranked first nationally in sacks (49) and first among Power Five teams (2nd nationally) in tackles for loss (111). During the 2022 campaign, Penn State led the Big Ten with 104 tackles for loss (T-4th nationally) and 42 sacks (T-6th).

South Carolina and Penn State are tied for fourth nationally in turnovers forced since 2021 with 110.

The most decorated player Barnes coached, Abdul Carter, was named a unanimous All-American, the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year in 2024 before becoming the third pick in the 2025 NFL Draft pick. He led the nation with 23.5 tackles for loss and ranked seventh nationally in sacks (12.0).

Barnes has also coached 2024 first round NFL pick Chop Robinson, 2024 third round pick Adisa Isaac, 2022 second round pick Arnold Ebiketie and 2021 first round pick Odafe Oweh, among others.

Barnes was a three-year letterwinner at Penn State from 2012-14 and earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors in 2012. He spent two years in the NFL with the New York Jets (2015) and Kansas City Chiefs (2016), and an additional season in the AAF with the San Antonio Commanders in 2019. He earned his bachelor's degree from PSU in 2014 in Recreation, Park and Tourism Management.

Prior to returning to Penn State as a graduate assistant, Barnes worked as an assistant coach at his former high school, Philadelphia Northeast, eventually becoming the Vikings' defensive coordinator.

Barnes and his partner, Emily Vroom, have one son, Deion Jr.

Kendal Briles was named the Gamecocks' offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach on Dec. 11, 2025.

Briles spent the past three seasons (2023-25) as the associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at TCU. During his tenure in Fort Worth, the Horned Frogs were ranked among the national leaders in several offensive categories. TCU finished 40th, 25th and 43rd nationally in scoring offense under Briles and never had a season averaging under 30 points. In addition, they were 11th, 31st and 30th in total offense during those three seasons. The Frogs produced back-to-back 1,000-yard receivers in 2024 and '25, while Josh Hoover set the school's single-season passing record in 2024.

Briles came to TCU after serving the previous three seasons (2020-22) in a similar role at Arkansas. Briles made an immediate impact upon his arrival, improving the Razorbacks' offense by more than 50 yards per game in his first season. The following season, Arkansas posted its best offensive numbers in five seasons with averages of 30.9 points and 441.7 yards. Arkansas led all Power 5 teams and ranked seventh in the FBS with 227.8 rushing yards per game in 2021, the most since setting a school record in 2007. The Hogs eclipsed 300 yards rushing three times, including a season-best 353 in the Outback Bowl win over Penn State.

Prior to his time in Fayetteville, Briles was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Florida State, Houston, FAU and Baylor. At each of his stops, his units were ranked among the nation's leaders in offense.

At Florida State in 2019, Briles took over a unit that averaged just 21.9 points and 361.2 yards per game and engineered a Seminole offense that averaged 29.1 points and 403.2 yards per game.

Briles led one of the most explosive offenses in the nation in 2018 at Houston. The Cougars ranked fifth in scoring (43.9), seventh in total offense (512.5 yards) and were one of three teams to place in the top-25 nationally in passing and rushing, averaging 295.5 and 216.8 yards, respectively. The Cougars scored 30+ points in 12 games and led the NCAA with 40+ points 10 times.

Briles directed the offense at FAU in 2017, helping the Owls to top-10 rankings in rushing (6th-285.3), scoring (8th-40.6) and total offense (9th-498.4). He was instrumental in FAU winning its first Conference USA title and added a victory in the Boca Raton Bowl. Devin Singletary became FAU's first A.P. All-American after leading the nation with 32 rushing TDs.

The first nine years of Briles' coaching career were spent at Baylor University. His first game as the play caller was the 2015 Cotton Bowl, when the Bears set an NCAA bowl record with 601 passing yards against Michigan State. He served in numerous roles at Baylor, including inside receivers coach, passing game coordinator and recruiting coordinator before taking over as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach his final two seasons in Waco. He was recognized in 2013 and 2014 as the Big 12's Recruiter of the Year.

In 2015, Briles led Baylor's offense to historic numbers while being tabbed a Broyles Award finalist. The Bears topped the nation at 48.1 points per game and 616.2 yards of total offense, the third-best mark in NCAA history. Behind an NCAA bowl record 645 rushing yards and a bowl mark 756 in total offense, Baylor closed the season with a win over No. 10 North Carolina in the Russell Athletic Bowl. Briles' 2016 unit led the Big 12 in rushing with 241.2 yards per game. Baylor's 2013 offense produced the second-highest total offense season average in NCAA history at 618.8 yards per game.

During his seven years as the Bears' wide receivers coach, Briles tutored four All-Americans and five eventual NFL receivers.

An outstanding high school quarterback, Briles earned Texas 4A Offensive Player of the Year and all-state honors in each of his final two seasons at Stephenville and Frenship high schools after generating 9,322 yards of total offense and accounting for 98 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 2014.

He began his collegiate playing career at Texas. After redshirting in 2001, he played seven games at safety, intercepting two passes in 2002. He transferred to Houston and moved to wide receiver, catching 70 passes for 680 yards and a touchdown. He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from Houston in 2005.

Born Nov. 10, 1982, in Abilene, Texas, Briles and his wife, Sarah, have three children: sons Jaytn and Kru, and daughter Kinley.

Randy Clements was named the Gamecocks' offensive line coach on Dec. 11, 2025.

Clements is a 35-year coaching veteran with 23 seasons mentoring the offensive line at the college level. He came to Columbia after a one-year stint as an assistant offensive line coach at TCU, where he was reunited with offensive coordinator Kendal Briles.

Prior to his time at TCU, he logged collegiate stints as the offensive line coach at North Carolina (2023-24), North Texas (2021-22), Ole Miss (2020), Florida State (2019), Houston (2003-07, 2018), Southeastern (2017), Baylor (2008-16) and Stephen F. Austin (1986-87).

In his first year in Chapel Hill, three Tar Heel offensive linemen earned All-ACC honors on a team that averaged 192.1 yards rushing, ranking 19th nationally and 491.2 yards of total offense that ranked seventh in the nation. The following season, two UNC offensive linemen earned All-ACC distinction.

During the 2022 season at North Texas, the Mean Green offensive line paved the way for 201.7 rushing yards per game, ranking 24th nationally. They ranked ninth in both sacks and tackles for loss allowed, while averaging 33.9 points and 453.8 yards per game.

From 2010-2020, Clements was the offensive line coach for nine offenses that ranked in the top 13 nationally, which included three-straight at Baylor from 2013-15.

In 2020, Clements served as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Ole Miss. While in Oxford, the Rebels paced the SEC in total offense (555.5 ypg) and broke the conference record for total offense in conference play (562.4 ypg). The Rebels averaged 39.2 points and ran for 210.6 yards per game.

During the 2018 season in Houston, the Cougars averaged 43.9 points, ranking fifth in the nation, and 512.3 yards of total offense, the seventh-highest total in the FBS. Clements unit blocked for 217.1 rushing yards per game, which ranked 24th nationally.

Clements helped elevate the Baylor program to historic heights, including back-to-back Big 12 championships, behind a record-setting offense. While with the Bears, he coached linemen who earned a combined 13 All-Big 12 accolades and six All-America recognitions, including three unanimous selections. He produced the Big 12's Offensive Lineman of the Year four-straight seasons from 2012-15 and mentored eight NFL Draft picks.

Clements began his coaching career as a student-assistant at his alma mater, Stephen F. Austin, graduating in 1989. He then spent 12 successful seasons at Stephenville (Texas) High School, where he served as offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and head power lifting coach.

Born Sept. 10, 1966, in Wichita Falls, Texas, Clements and his wife, Polly, have two children, Jordan and Jayson.

Stan Drayton was named the Gamecocks' assistant head coach - offense and running backs coach on Dec. 11, 2025. He was promoted to associate head coach in March 2026.

Drayton is a 33-year coaching veteran with 26 years of experience tutoring running backs. He has been part of two national championship coaching staffs (Florida in 2006 and Ohio State in 2014) and has five years of NFL coaching experience. He spent the 2025 season on James Franklin's staff at Penn State after serving as the head coach at Temple University from 2022-24.

During his career, Drayton has mentored several prominent running backs including Brian Westbrook, Jerious Norwood, Carlos Hyde, Ezekiel Elliott, Bijan Robinson, Matt Forte and Jordan Howard. He has coached seven 1,000-yard rushers, five NFL Draft picks and two All-Americans.

Drayton has extensive experience in the SEC, logging stints at Mississippi State (2004) where he worked with Coach Beamer under head coach Sylvester Croom. He also had two tours of duty at Florida under Urban Meyer (2005-07 and 2010) and spent a year at Tennessee on Phillip Fulmer's staff (2008).

Drayton's career has also included stops at his alma mater, Allegheny (1993), Eastern Michigan (1994), Penn (1995), Villanova (1996-99), Bowling Green (2000), Syracuse (2009), Ohio State (2010-14) and Texas (2017-21). In addition, he worked for the Green Bay Packers (2001-03) and Chicago Bears (2015-16) in the NFL.

During the 2025 season, the running back duo of Kaytron Allen and Nicholas Singleton continued their assault on the Penn State record books under Drayton's watch. The tandem rushed for nearly 1,900 yards with 28 rushing touchdowns. Allen was recognized as a 2025 first-team All-Big Ten performer and an All-American.

In 2016, Jordan Howard set the Bears single-season rookie record with 1,313 yards, despite only having 12 carries in the team's first three games. His total was the second-best of any player in the NFL regular season that year.

During Ohio State's National Championship season in 2014, Drayton tutored Ezekiel Elliott, who finished third in the nation and second in single-season school history with 1,878 rushing yards. Elliott was the College Football Playoff National Championship Offensive MVP with 246 rushing yards (tied for third most in single-game school history) and four touchdowns on 36 carries against Oregon. He was also named Offensive MVP of the Sugar Bowl (230 rushing yards and two TDs on 20 carries) versus Alabama in the semis.

In 2013, Drayton helped Carlos Hyde finish eighth in the nation in rushing, averaging 126.8 yards per game.

Hyde was named the Big Ten's Ameche-Dayne Running Back of the Year as his 1,521 rushing yards were eighth-most in school history and his 7.3 yards per carry was the highest single-season average in school history.

In 2006, Florida won the BCS National Championship while averaging 160 rushing yards per game.

Drayton mentored Brian Westbrook at Villanova, who became the first collegiate player on any level to record more than 1,000 yards both rushing and receiving in the same season in 1998. Westbrook was a two-time All-American, the winner of the 2001 Walter Payton Award as the Offensive Player of the Year in NCAA Division I-AA, was a third-round pick by the Philadelphia Eagles and became a College Football Hall of Famer.

A three-time first-team All-America selection as a running back and a two-time All-American on the track, Drayton was inducted into the Allegheny College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio and a 1993 graduate of Allegheny, Drayton and his wife, Monique, have two daughters, Amari and Anaya.

Shawn Elliott is in the third year of his second stint with Carolina Football. He was named the Gamecocks' run game coordinator and tight ends coach, on Feb. 16, 2024. The Camden, S.C., native has been part of 24 winning campaigns and 22 postseason appearances in 29 seasons as a college coach.

Elliott's tight ends combined to catch 36 passes for 361 yards in 2025. Brady Hunt, who had just two receptions in 2024, led the way with 21 catches for 168 yards. Elliott added the offensive line coaching duties midway through the campaign and that unit showed significant improvement down the stretch.

Elliott's first year back in Columbia proved to be successful. Led by Raheim "Rocket" Sanders, Carolina averaged 184.4 yards per game on the ground, its most since 2013 and nearly 100 yards per game more than 2023. Sanders earned second-team All-SEC honors and was recognized as College Football's Comeback Player of the Year. His 881 yards rushing were the most for a Gamecock since 2020. The tight end room was led by Joshua Simon, who paced the team with 40 receptions, 519 yards and seven touchdowns, the first tight end in school history to lead the team in all three categories.

Elliott served for seven seasons (2017-23) as the head coach at Georgia State where he posted a 41-44 record and led the Panthers to four bowl wins in five appearances. Elliott built the GSU program by establishing one of the nation's most productive rushing attacks. Over his last five seasons, the Panthers averaged 214 yards rushing per game.

Elliott posted GSU's first winning season as an FBS program in 2017. He logged three-straight bowl berths from 2019-21, culminating with a school-record eight wins in 2021. He pulled a stunning upset in 2019 with a win at Tennessee for the program's first Power 5 win, earning him Dodd Trophy National Coach of the Week honors, and engineered the school's first win over a ranked opponent with a win at No. 21 Coastal Carolina in 2021.

Elliott produced 71 All-Sun Belt Conference players, one All-American and one Freshman All-American at GSU. Eleven of his players signed NFL free agent contracts, including five who played in the league. In addition, GSU had eight Academic All-District selections and one Academic All-American during his tenure.

Elliott worked seven seasons (2010-16) at South Carolina under Steve Spurrier and Will Muschamp, highlighted by three consecutive 11-win seasons from 2011-13. In addition to coaching the offensive line, he was the running game coordinator in 2010 and 2011, was elevated to co-offensive coordinator in 2012, and then served as the interim head coach following Spurrier's retirement midway through the 2015 season.

Elliott originally joined the Carolina staff in 2010 and helped the Gamecocks reach five-straight bowl games while coaching some of the most prolific and balanced offenses in school history. The Gamecocks turned in the program's best offensive season in 2013, averaging 34.1 points while rolling up a school-record 452.3 yards per game.

South Carolina's 2014 unit scored nearly 33 points per game while averaging over 440 yards of offense as All-American offensive guard A.J. Cann paved the way. In 2010, Elliott's first season in Columbia, his offensive line blocked for record-setting running back Marcus Lattimore, the National Freshman of the Year.

In addition to Cann, Elliott developed future NFL linemen Corey Robinson, Ronald Patrick, Brandon Shell, T.J. Johnson and Roquevious Watkins.

Prior to South Carolina, Elliott coached his entire career at his alma mater, Appalachian State. In 13 seasons, he was an integral part of App State's three-consecutive NCAA titles from 2005-07 and the Mountaineers' historic upset at Michigan in 2007. He worked two seasons as a defensive assistant (1997-98) and then two seasons as the tight ends coach (1999-00) before taking over the offensive line in 2001.

In nine seasons as the Mountaineers' O-line coach, Elliott's players earned All-America distinction 12 times, including four different linemen who received first-team accolades. He also coached All-American and future NFL tight end Daniel Wilcox in 2000. In 2003, offensive lineman Wayne Smith was the first pick in the CFL Draft. From 2005-07, Elliott coached three-consecutive Southern Conference Jacobs Blocking Trophy recipients.

Elliott helped lead the Mountaineers to 10 NCAA playoff berths in 13 seasons with two trips to the national semifinals and three appearances in the quarterfinals in addition to the three championships.

He was one of three App State coaches to earn the NCAA's Award of Valor for their efforts in rescuing two individuals from an automobile accident in 2000.

Elliott was the first player in Mountaineer annals to appear in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in four seasons. A four-year letterwinner, he helped the Mountaineers to two Southern Conference titles and a combined record of 36-16. He served as a co-captain of the 1995 squad that finished 12-1 while earning all-SoCon distinction at defensive end.

Born June 26, 1973, Elliott earned his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State in 1996. He is married to the former Summer Scruggs, also an App State grad and a stand-out tennis player for the Mountaineers. The couple has two children, Maddyn and Max.

Mike Furrey is in his third season with the Gamecock Football program. He was tapped as the Gamecocks' wide receivers coach on February 29, 2024. He was given the additional title of passing game coordinator on Dec. 17, 2024. In addition, he assumed the play-calling duties over the final three games of the 2025 season.

In his second campaign, Furrey mentored a very young receiving corps. Nyck Harbor made significant strides, catching 30 passes for 618 yards, an SEC-leading 20.6 yards per reception, with six TDs including a score in each of his last five games. Vandrevius Jacobs had a trio of 100-yard games while pacing the team with 32 receptions. True freshmen Jayden Sellers and Donovan Murph showed flashes, with Sellers posting a 127-yard effort against Coastal Carolina.

In his first season with the Gamecocks, Furrey meshed a receiving unit that was comprised of several newcomers, many of whom did not participate in spring drills. Despite not having a true WR1, six wide receivers hauled in at least a dozen passes, led by true freshman Mazeo Bennett Jr.'s 30 catches. Furrey's relentless recruiting also saw the wide receiver room completely flip heading into the 2025 season, as he signed six top-flight prospects.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Furrey spent the previous two seasons as the head coach at Limestone University, a Division II school located in Gaffney, S.C.. In his second stint at the school, he led the Saints to back-to-back 8-4 campaigns, a share of the title in the South Atlantic Conference's Piedmont Division and a spot in the Division II playoffs. He previously served as the Saints' head coach in 2016 and 2017.

Sandwiched between the two stints at Limestone, Furrey logged four seasons as the wide receivers coach on Matt Nagy's staff with the Chicago Bears. He helped Chicago to an NFC North title in 2018, while the Bears reached the playoffs in both 2018 and 2020. The Bears posted a 34-31 record during his four-year tenure.

Furrey began his coaching career in 2011 as the head coach at Kentucky Christian University, an NAIA program in Grayson, Ky. He turned the struggling program around from an 0-11 campaign in the year prior to his arrival to a 7-4 season and a Top-25 ranking in 2012.

He left KCU after two seasons to become the wide receivers coach at Marshall University, a position he held for three years. During his tenure with the Thundering Herd, Furrey helped guide the program to three-straight bowl wins and the 2014 Conference USA Championship. Marshall led C-USA in scoring offense while ranking in the Top-5 nationally in total offense during the 2013 and 2014 campaigns.

Over six years as a head coach, Furrey posted a combined record of 36-31, including an 11-11 mark at Kentucky Christian and a 25-20 ledger at Limestone. He resigned as Limestone's all-time leader in wins.

Furrey played eight years in the NFL with St. Louis (2003-05), Detroit (2006-08), Cleveland (2009) and Washington (2010). His best season came during the 2006 season with the Lions when he led the NFC with 98 receptions for 1,086 yards and seven touchdowns. His 98 catches that season set an NFL record for most receptions in a season after having none the previous year. He played on defense with the Rams in the prior season.

After signing with the Indianapolis Colts as an undrafted free agent in 2000, Furrey spent one season with the Las Vegas Outlaws in the XFL before playing two years with the New York Dragons of the Arena Football League. He would then sign with the St. Louis Rams in 2003, playing in 13 games during his rookie year. He helped guide the Rams to the NFC Divisional Round as a safety a year later.

Twice nominated for the NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year Award while with the Lions, Furrey was a finalist for the prestigious award during the 2009 season as a member of the Cleveland Browns. The Walter Payton Man of the Year Award honors a player's volunteer and charitable work as well as his excellence on the field.

Furrey won the 2009 JB Award, an accolade given to those who specialize in community service by then CBS studio host James Brown, and was selected as the 2009 NFL Ed Block Courage Award recipient, an honor that highlights courage, compassion, commitment, and community service.

After spending his freshman season as a walk-on at Ohio State, Furrey transferred to the University of Northern Iowa, where he was a three-time All-American. He was inducted into the UNI Athletics Hall of Fame in 2017. In 2025, he was named to the 40th Anniversary All-MVFC football team.

In 2007, he founded the Mike Furrey Foundation, raising money to help improve the lives of those who are hurting, hungry, hopeful and/or homeless. He also served as the board president for Basket of Hope with former NFL coach Tony Dungy as the organization's spokesperson.

Furrey graduated from UNI in 2000 with a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies. He and his wife Koren have three children, Makayla, Stone and Kanon. Stone is a freshman wide receiver on the South Carolina squad.

Torrian Gray is in his sixth season in Columbia. He was named Carolina's defensive backs coach on Jan. 15, 2021. He added the title of Defensive Pass Game Coordinator in January 2025 and was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in December 2025.

Gray has coached the secondary for 26 years, including 22 at the collegiate level. He has developed numerous NFL defensive backs, including Brandon Flowers, Kam Chancellor, Kyle Fuller and Kendall Fuller at Virginia Tech; Teez Tabor, Marcus Maye, Quincy Wilson, Duke Dawson and C.J. Henderson at Florida and Cam Smith, Darius Rush and Nick Emmanwori at South Carolina.

The Carolina secondary was solid again in 2025, as the defensive backs contributed 10 of the team's 12 interceptions. DQ Smith tied for the team lead with 64 tackles while Jalon Kilgore earned second-team All-SEC accolades.

The Gamecocks 2024 secondary was led by All-American Nick Emmanwori, who led the team with 88 tackles and had four picks, returning two for TDs. Carolina ranked 21st in the country in team passing efficiency defense while intercepting 14 passes. Jalon Kilgore paced the team with five INTs, tying for fourth in the country.

In 2023, Gray mentored a young defensive secondary that featured Freshman All-American Jalon Kilgore. Carolina ranked fifth in the SEC in defensive passing efficiency.

In 2022, the Gamecocks ranked 27th in the country in pass efficiency defense and 34th in passing defense, allowing just 206.7 yards per game. Carolina intercepted 15 passes, tops in the SEC and 14th in the nation. They had a pair of "pick-6s" in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl versus Notre Dame. Emmanwori earned first-team Freshman All-America honors while DQ Smith was a CFN third-team Freshman All-American.

In 2021, Carolina surrendered 180.8 yards per game through the air, the fewest since 2011, tops in the SEC and seventh in the nation. Carolina intercepted 15 passes, tying for second in the SEC and for 14th in the country. Jaylan Foster earned second-team All-America honors after leading the team with 96 tackles and five picks, tied for fourth in the country. Cam Smith defended 14 passes with three INTs and 11 PBUs.

Gray spent two seasons (2019-20) coaching the cornerbacks at Florida, his second stint with the Gators. In 2019, the Gators tied for ninth in the FBS with 16 interceptions. UF featured four players with at least three picks. Cornerbacks CJ Henderson (First Team) and Kaiir Elam (Freshman) earned All-SEC honors. Henderson was the ninth pick in the 2020 NFL Draft, while Elam earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2020.

Gray worked with the defensive backs for the NFL's Washington franchise from 2017-18. In 2017, Gray's unit helped produce the team's strongest season against the pass in nearly a decade. They ranked third in completion percentage allowed (57.6 pct.), the team's best ranking since 2005, while finishing ninth in passing yards allowed per game (213.8), the team's lowest since 2009, and 10th in opponent passer rating (81.0), the lowest since 2008. One of his standout performers was former Gamecock D.J. Swearinger.

In 2016, Gray served as the defensive backs coach at Florida. Under Gray's guidance, Teez Tabor earned first-team All-SEC and second-team All-American honors, while Quincy Wilson earned second-team All-SEC accolades.

Gray spent a decade (2006-15) at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, leading some of the nation's best defensive backfields. In his 10 seasons under head coach Frank Beamer, his unit allowed 185.0 passing yards per game and a 106.5 opponent passer rating – both ranked second in the nation over that span. Opposing QBs completed just 50.4 percent of their passes, the lowest percentage of any defense in the nation. The Virginia Tech secondary ranked in the top 15 nationally in opponent passer rating eight times including three top-five finishes. During Gray's tenure, a total of 11 Hokie defensive backs were selected in the NFL Draft.

In 2006, his first year leading the group, they ranked first in the country in passing yards allowed per game (128.2) and second in opponent passer rating (91.3).

Gray spent two seasons in the NFL as assistant defensive backs coach for the Chicago Bears from 2004-05. In 2005, the Bears ranked fifth in the NFL in passing defense and tied for second in interceptions as defensive backs Nathan Vasher and Mike Brown earned Pro Bowl selections.

Gray began his coaching career at Maine, serving as defensive backs coach from 2000-01. He spent the 2002-03 seasons as defensive backs coach at Connecticut. During his time with the Huskies, he coached cornerback Justin Perkins, helping him to two all-conference selections and 12 career interceptions.

Following a standout career at Kathleen High in Lakeland, Fla., Gray played collegiately at Virginia Tech and became a three-time all-conference selection. He helped lead the Hokies to a pair of conference titles and was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the second round (49th overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft. He spent three seasons with the Vikings before retiring after a career-ending knee injury in the spring of 2000.

A native of Lakeland, Fla., Gray has two daughters, Tori and Lexi.

Trey Money is in his fifth season working on the Carolina football staff in 2026 and his first as the Linebackers Coach. He has fast-tracked his way up the coaching chain during that time, earning three promotions along the way.

Money joined the Gamecocks' coaching staff in 2022 as a graduate assistant. The following year, he was promoted to an analyst role working with the linebackers. In 2024, he spent the first of two years as an assistant linebackers coach, working closely with defensive coordinator Clayton White. In January 2026, he was given the title and responsibilities of Linebackers Coach.

During his time in Columbia, Money has developed standout linebackers Demetrius Knight Jr., Bam Martin-Scott and Debo Williams. Knight and Martin-Scott took their talents to the NFL with Knight being a second-round pick by the Cincinnati Bengals, while Williams was an All-SEC selection.

Money came to Columbia after a two-year stint at his alma mater, Appalachian State where he worked in quality control with the Mountaineer linebackers.

Money also began his coaching career at App State, where he spent four seasons – three as a student assistant (2014-16) and one as a G.A. (2017). During that time, App State compiled a 37-14 record, won bowl games in each of its first three seasons as full-fledged members of NCAA Division I FBS (2015-17) and claimed back-to-back Sun Belt Conference championships (2016-17).

Sandwiched between his two stints at App State, Money spent one year at Georgia Tech as a G.A. working with the inside linebackers, then one year at Louisville as a G.A. assisting the safeties.

Money graduated from App State in 2017 with a degree in finance. He and his wife, Alli, have a son named Tripp.

Travian Robertson is in his fourth season as the Gamecocks' defensive line coach. He was named to the post on May 1, 2023.

The 2025 season was one that Robertson will never forget. He was seriously injured in a fatal car accident while driving to work on Aug. 22, just a little more than a week before the start of the season. He underwent a half-dozen surgeries, and was physically unable to coach for much of the season. After persevering through a long recovery, Robertson was able to attend his first game of the season against Coastal Carolina in the second-to-last week of the campaign. Despite his absence, defensive tackle Nick Barrett was recognized as the co-Most Outstanding Senior, a co-winner of the Steve Wadiak Team MVP Award and a Rex Enright permanent team captain.

Led by a trio of veteran defensive tackles in Tonka Hemingway, T.J. Sanders and Alex Huntley, the Gamecocks were 12th in the country in scoring defense and 18th in the nation in rush defense while forcing 24 turnovers during the 2024 campaign. In addition, Carolina totaled 41 sacks, just two shy of the school record and tying for the sixth-best mark in the country. Sanders earned second-team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press.

In his first season back in Columbia in 2023, the Carolina alum led a defensive line that surrendered 149.4 rushing yards per game, the fewest since 2017 and the second fewest since 2012. Both T.J. Sanders and Alex Huntley were recognized as SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week during the 2023 campaign. Sanders led the team with 9.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks from his defensive tackle position.

Robertson spent the 2022 season at Tulane, where he helped head coach Willie Fritz and the Green Wave to a 12-2 record overall, including a win over Southern California in the 2023 Cotton Bowl. The Green Wave went 7-1 in the American Athletic Conference, defeated UCF in the conference championship game for their first-ever AAC football title, and finished the season ranked ninth in both the AP and Coaches' polls. Tulane allowed 22.2 points and 360.4 yards per game, surrendering just 3.9 yards per rush. Defensive tackle Patrick Jenkins and defensive end Darius Hodges both earned second-team all-AAC honors.

Robertson came to Tulane after serving as a defensive line coach at Georgia State, where he worked under former Gamecock assistant and interim head coach Shawn Elliott for three years. During that three-year stint, the Panthers collected 94 sacks (2.4 per game), including a school-record 38 sacks in 2021.

The Panthers earned back-to-back-to-back bowl berths in his three seasons, and under Robertson's tutelage, defensive linemen Dontae Wilson and Hardrick Willis earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors. Willis also became the Panthers' career sack leader.

In 2021, GSU ranked 15th nationally in tackles for loss at 7.1 per game. The team was second in the Sun Belt Conference and 23rd nationally in sacks, averaging 2.92 per contest.

In 2020, Robertson helped the GSU defense rank No. 8 in FBS with 21 turnovers forced while allowing a program-record 3.86 yards per rush. The Panthers' average of 136.6 rushing yards allowed per game was the second-best mark in school history, while boasting four of the program's top 11 single-game performances against the run.

A former graduate assistant on the Georgia State staff, Robertson returned to Atlanta in June 2019 after one season as the defensive line coach at Albany State. He helped the Rams to a 7-4 record, including the SIAC East title, in 2018.

Robertson originally served on Elliott's staff in 2017 as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line. The Panthers posted a 7-5 record, capped by the program's first bowl victory over Western Kentucky in the AutoNation Cure Bowl. The GSU defense set school records for fewest points allowed per game, fewest rushing yards allowed per game (136.4) and fewest yards per rushing attempt (4.13) as well as most sacks in a game (7) and season (24.0).

Robertson was an outstanding defensive lineman himself, lettering four years at South Carolina from 2007-11, where he earned Southeastern Conference All-Academic honors and served as team captain in 2011.

He was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the seventh round of the 2012 NFL Draft and played for the Falcons as well as the Seattle Seahawks and Washington Redskins over four seasons.

Born Dec. 9, 1988, Robertson is a native of Laurinburg, N.C. He and his wife Kettiany, who ran track at South Carolina, have three sons: Travian Jr., Trenton and Tristan.

Matthew Smiley is in his first season with the Carolina Football program. He was named as the Gamecocks' special teams coordinator on Feb. 21, 2026.

Smiley came to Columbia after spending the 2025 season as a special teams analyst at Penn State. Overall, he has 21 years of coaching experience, logging stints at both the collegiate and professional levels.

Smiley worked for the Buffalo Bills in the National Football League for eight years from 2017-24. He served on Sean McDermott's staff as the Bills' assistant special teams coach for five seasons (2017-21), then spent three years (2022-24) as Buffalo's special teams coordinator.

Prior to his stay in Buffalo, Smiley spent four years (2013-16) as an assistant special teams coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

A native of East Lynn, Ill., and a 2001 graduate of the University of Illinois, Smiley began his coaching career in the collegiate ranks, first at Dartmouth College, where he served as an assistant quarterbacks and specialists coach for the Big Green in 2005 before assuming the duties of special teams coordinator in 2006.

He spent the following two seasons at Eureka (Ill.) College where he served as the offensive coordinator in 2007 and the defensive coordinator in 2008, competing at the Division III level. He also logged a brief stint as the Red Devils' interim head coach in 2008.

Smiley took over as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Eastern Illinois from 2009-2011, then had a similar role at Charleston Southern in 2012 before moving to the professional ranks in Jacksonville.

Prior to his coaching career, Smiley served in the U.S. Air Force for four years as a maintenance officer in Grand Forks, N.D. While on active duty, Smiley was deployed overseas four times in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and received the U.S. Air Force Commendation Medal for his efforts. Between deployments, he served as a football coach for the specialists at the University of North Dakota.

Smiley was the Bills' nominee for the annual Salute to Service Award presented by USAA in 2024. The award recognizes NFL players, coaches, staff and alumni who make exceptional efforts to honor and support military and veteran communities.

Smiley and his wife, Marissa, have four children, Madelyn, Ella, Ava and Caleb.

Five-time Frank Broyles Award nominee (2017, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2024) including a semifinalist in 2024, and 23-year coaching veteran, Clayton White is in his sixth season in Columbia. He was named the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2021.

White's defenses have forced 110 turnovers, the highest total in the SEC and tying for the sixth-highest mark in the country during his five-year run in Columbia.

In 2025, the Gamecocks allowed 22.1 points per game. Subtracting the 24 points scored when the defense was not on the field, the number dips to 20.1 points and a top-30 ranking. Despite losing five players in the NFL Draft, they finished in the top half of the country in rushing defense, passing defense, and total yards allowed. They forced 22 turnovers, tops in the SEC and 13th in the FBS in the regular season, returning four for scores. Carolina gave up TDs on 20 of 43 chances in the redzone, its best performance since 2012. Jalon Kilgore, Dylan Stewart and Bryan Thomas Jr. earned All-SEC honors.

In 2024, Carolina ranked among the nation's top-25 in nearly every defensive statistical category including scoring defense (12th), rush defense (18th), pass efficiency defense (21st), total defense (16th), turnovers gained (16th), sacks (6th), forced fumbles

(1st), fumbles recovered (19th), and opponents fourth down pct. (1st). Kyle Kennard was the first Gamecock to earn the Bronko Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player and was selected as the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year. Kennard and Nick Emmanwori earned All-America honors. In addition, Dylan Stewart was a True Freshman All-American and a finalist for the Shaun Alexander National Freshman of the Year Award.

In 2023, the Gamecock defense surrendered 149.4 rushing yards per game, the fewest since 2017 and the second-fewest since 2012. Opponents rushed for just 3.88 yards per carry, the best mark since 2012. The Gamecocks posted the SEC's second-best red-zone defense and forced 17 turnovers in 12 games. Debo Williams was a first-team All-SEC selection, while Jalon Kilgore earned Freshman All-America accolades.

In 2022, the Gamecocks ranked 27th in the country in pass efficiency defense and 34th in passing defense, allowing 206.7 yards per game. They forced 23 turnovers, ranking second in the SEC and 20th in the nation. Their 15 picks ranked first in the league and 14th in the nation. The defense scored twice, both on pick-sixes in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl versus Notre Dame. Nick Emmanwori earned Freshman All-America honors.

In his first season in Columbia, the Carolina defense allowed 24.0 points per game, an improvement of 12.0 points, with six of its opponents scoring 17 or less. The Gamecocks forced 24 turnovers, first in the SEC and tied for 14th in the country. Their 15 interceptions tied for second in the SEC and 14th in the country. Nine fumble recoveries tied for the SEC lead and for 25th in the nation. The defense scored four times, tying for the SEC lead and for seventh in the nation. Carolina surrendered 180.8 yards per game through the air, the fewest since 2011, ranking atop the SEC and seventh in the nation. Jaylan Foster earned All-America honors.

White spent the prior four seasons as the defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Western Kentucky University.

In 2020, the Hilltoppers ranked 28th in total defense, including eighth in the nation in passing defense, allowing just 177.3 yards per game through the air. WKU was third in the nation with 68 passes defended and the defense scored three touchdowns.

In 2019, WKU produced a top-25 overall defense, allowing 20.1 points per game, the lowest mark for the program since 2004. DeAngelo Malone was the CUSA Defensive Player of the Year after collecting 99 tackles including 21 TFLs, 11.5 sacks and 16 hurries.

In 2018, WKU allowed just a 103.41 passer rating in the redzone, good for the sixth-best mark nationally. Even better, the Hilltoppers allowed opposing quarterbacks to complete passes in the redzone at just a 32.7 percent clip, the best mark in the nation.

During White's first campaign as the defensive playcaller in 2017, the Hilltoppers held opponents to their fewest point totals through the season's first seven games in 15 years and a record over that span in the FBS era. The Hilltoppers ranked 40th nationally in pass defense – an improvement of 79 spots from 2016.

Prior to his arrival in Bowling Green, White spent four seasons as the co-Special Teams Coordinator/Safeties Coach at NC State (2013-16). The Wolfpack ranked in the top-30 in total defense in both 2015 and '16. In 2015, NC State was one of only two schools in the FBS to finish in the Top 20 in both kickoff return and punt return. Dontae Johnson was selected in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

White served as the Special Teams Coordinator/Running Backs Coach at UConn from 2011-12. The Huskies tied for the national lead with three punt returns for TDs and led the Big East with a 12.5 punt return average. Lyle McCombs was a Freshman All-American after becoming just the second Husky to rush for 1,000 yards in his freshman season.

White spent one season (2010) as the Co-Special Teams Coordinator and Defensive Backs Coach at Western Kentucky, helping WKU transition from FCS to FBS.

White had a three-year stint at Stanford (2007-09) where he coached the defensive backs, including future NFL Pro Bowler Richard Sherman. The Cardinal rose to No. 14 in the polls in 2009 and reached a bowl game for the first time since 2001.

White's first coaching stop came as a defensive backs coach at Sanderson (N.C.) High in 2003. He also had stints at Western Carolina and Western Michigan.

A 2001 graduate with a degree in sport management, White played linebacker at NC State from 1997-2000. He ended his career in the Wolfpack record book in career tackles for loss (33), single-season tackles for loss (16) and tackles in a single game (23). He had a three-year NFL career with the New York Giants (2001-02) and Tampa Bay (2003).

Luke DAY

Director - Football
Strength & Conditioning
Miami (0) (2011)

Luke Day is in his sixth season at Carolina after being tabbed to lead Gamecock football's strength and conditioning program on Jan. 10, 2021.

Day, who has experience at both the collegiate and professional levels, came to Columbia after spending the 2020 season as the head strength & conditioning coach at Marshall University, his second stint with the Thundering Herd. Day worked on the staff at the University of Colorado in 2019.

Day initially joined the Herd as the head strength and conditioning coach in January of 2016, a position he held for three seasons. He was recommended by Scott Sinclair, Day's predecessor, who in three years transformed the Herd strength and conditioning philosophy during a run of three-straight seasons of 10 or more wins by Coach Doc Holliday's team. Day and Sinclair – who moved from MU to the strength and conditioning director's role at Georgia – previously worked together at UCF under veteran strength coach Ed Ellis.

Prior to his arrival in Huntington, Day spent one year as an assistant on the Cincinnati Bengals' strength and conditioning staff.

Day is a native of Hamilton, Ohio, where he was significantly involved with inner-city ministry for the Hamilton Dream Center. Prior to his year with the Bengals, he spent two years as an assistant in strength and conditioning at UCF, following stints at USF (2012) and Cincinnati (2011-12). He also served as a summer volunteer in strength and conditioning with the New Orleans Saints in 2010.

Day graduated from Hamilton High School in 2006 and went to Morehead State, where he played defensive line for two years. He transferred "back home" to Miami (Ohio) and started working as a strength room intern and graduated with a degree in physical education.

His first job was designing, developing and implementing a weight room and strength program at Mount Healthy High School in Cincinnati, and through that work he made connections to the University of Cincinnati, where he spent 14 months on the strength and conditioning staff.

Day and his wife, Trisha, have a son, Jay and a daughter, Norah.

In 2017, Samford finished eighth nationally in net punting while Austin Barnard finished second in the nation in yards per punt and led the league with 18 punts of 50+ yards en route to being named Third-Team All-America by Phil Steele and the Associated Press.

Krysl spent two seasons (2014-15) at Georgia Southern as the director of player development and special teams coordinator. In 2015, Georgia Southern posted a 9-4 overall record, claiming a berth in the program's first ever bowl game which saw the Eagles defeat Bowling Green in the Go-Daddy.com Bowl.

In 2015, the Eagles punt return unit and kickoff return unit finished tops in the Sun Belt Conference while returner Derek Keaton earned All-Sun Belt honors for the second-straight season. That season, the Eagles kickoff unit finished claimed the number one spot in the FBS.

In 2014, Georgia Southern finished the season with a 9-3 overall record while going 8-0 in the program's first season in the Sun Belt Conference, claiming the outright conference title.

In 2013, Krysl served as offensive line/tight ends coach at West Virginia State. Krysl also served as the program's strength and conditioning coordinator. Offensive tackle Ricardo Figueroa earned All-Mountain East honors for the Yellow Jackets.

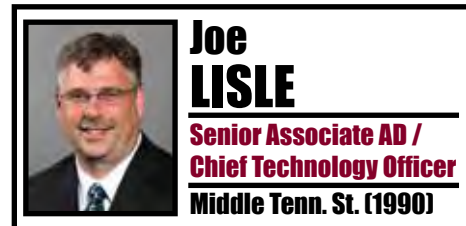

In 2012, Krysl served as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Lexington (Mo.) High.

Prior to joining the Lexington program Krysl served as an offensive G.A. at his alma mater, Central Missouri, from 2010-2011. In 2011, Central Missouri, which finished sixth nationally in passing offense, went 8-4, earning a trip to the Kanza Bowl.

Central Missouri had its most successful season in 2010 posting an 11-3 record. The 2010 season also produced the program's first playoff victory. The Mules finished the 2010 season as a national semifinalist. They ranked fourth in the nation in both passing offense and scoring offense, while finishing sixth in total offense.

Krysl earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education in 2010 and master's degree in sports & business administration in 2011 from Central Missouri. He is originally from Hillsboro, Mo., his wife's name is Allison.

Joe Lisle is in his 30th year as the Football Video Coordinator. In 2021, he was promoted to Associate AD/Video Operations and in 2024 he was promoted to Senior Associate AD/Chief Technology Officer.

In addition to his football duties, Lisle also serves as the director of the athletic department's Live Video Operations unit, which produces events for linear and digital live broadcast and video board operations.

Lisle has twice been honored as the Collegiate Sports Video Association's Outstanding SEC Video Coordinator and was Carolina's Teammate of the Year in 2008-09.

Lisle came to Columbia after two years as the video coordinator at Memphis.

Lisle received his degree in mass communications with an emphasis in broadcast production from Middle Tennessee State in 1990. He assumed the role of video coordinator at his alma mater while in his last year of undergraduate study. Lisle also coached kickers at MTSU, including four who earned all-conference honors and one All-American.

A placekicker at MTSU, Lisle led the nation in field goals as a senior.

He and his wife, Anne, have three children, Mark, Gordon and Maggie Grace.

Derrick Moore was named the program's Executive Director of Character and Player Development on Jan. 21, 2021. He brought his leadership, passion, energy, experience of inspiring student-athletes, coaches, and administrators to Columbia. He is also one of the most sought-after speakers in the nation.

Moore worked with the Georgia Tech football program from 2001-20. He originally was on staff with the FCA and later became the Director of Character Development for Georgia Tech Athletics. He was a key member of the renowned Georgia Tech Total Person Program.

A native of Albany, Ga., Moore is a 1992 graduate of Northeastern State University where he was an All-American running back. He was selected by

FOOTBALL STAFF

Atlanta in the 1992 NFL Draft and played six years in the NFL with stops in Detroit, Carolina and Arizona. After his pro career, he coached running backs and special teams for three years at Morehouse College in Atlanta.

Moore and his wife, Stephanie Perry Moore, have three adult children, Dustyn, Sydni and Sheldyn.

Jacob OHRLEIN

Assistant Quarterbacks Coach
SMU (2021)

Jacob Oehrlein joined the Gamecocks' football staff in January 2026 as an assistant tight ends coach. During the summer he transitioned to an assistant quarterbacks coach.

Oehrlein spent the 2025 season as an assistant tight ends coach at TCU. Prior to that, he worked for three seasons as a graduate assistant for the Horned Frogs.

Oehrlein played quarterback and saw action as the holder on placements while attending SMU. He earned a spot on the American Athletic Conference All-Academic team after both his freshman and sophomore seasons and graduated in 2021.

Oehrlein was a two-time all-district second-team selection on the gridiron at Brenham (Texas) High School. He also lettered in basketball, baseball, golf and track. His wife's name is Callie.

Yimy Queipo RODRIGUEZ

Director - Football Performance Nutrition
State Univ. of NY at Buffalo (2017)

Yimy Queipo Rodriguez joined the Gamecocks' staff in the spring of 2023 as the team's Director - Football Performance Nutrition.

In his role he is responsible for managing all aspects of performance nutrition for the team which includes coordinating all meals throughout the year, counseling athletes, and analyzing the athletes body compositions and hydration needs. He collaborates with the coaching and training staffs to provide updates on nutrition concerns, priorities, and accomplishments for each individual player.

A former minor league baseball pitcher in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization, Rodriguez came to Columbia after serving as the Coordinator and Performance Dietitian for the Chicago Cubs. Prior to that, he spent five and a half years as the lead sports dietitian at the University of Rochester Sports Medicine.

On the side, Rodriguez provides professional pitching instruction to baseball athletes of all ages.

Rodriguez graduated from State University of New York at Buffalo with a bachelor's degree in dietetics. He completed a clinical internship at Buffalo (N.Y.) General Hospital allowing him to become a Registered Dietitian. He is also a certified sports dietitian specialist and strength and conditioning coach.

Sam SERBAY

Director of Recruiting - Offense
VCU (2014)

Sam Serbay, who had served as a player personnel and recruiting assistant for South Carolina Football since 2021, was named Director of Recruiting - Offense in July of 2024.

Serbay got his start as an assistant coach at his alma mater, James Monroe High School, from 2009-14 while attending Virginia Commonwealth.

After earning his bachelor's degree from VCU in 2014, Serbay worked as a defensive and special teams quality control coach at Towson in 2015. After one year as an external scout for the Cleveland Browns, Serbay spent 2017 as an offensive quality control coach and assistant Director of Football Operations at Richmond. In 2018, he served as the assistant DFO at William & Mary.

Serbay worked in the private sector from 2019-21 before joining Coach Beamer's staff in Columbia in July of 2021.

A native of Fredericksburg, Va., Serbay is the son of VHSL Hall of Fame coach Richard Serbay, who captured four state titles in a 30-year career as the head coach at James Monroe High.

Jason SMITH

Assistant Offensive Line Coach
Baylor (2008)

Jason Smith was added to the South Carolina staff as an assistant offensive line coach in 2026.

Smith came to Columbia after two seasons at Abilene Christian. He spent the 2024 season as the Wildcats' tight ends coach, then transitioned to become ACU's running backs coach for the 2025 campaign. During ACU's United Athletic Conference championship season in 2024, Smith coached All-UAC tight end Jed Castles. In both 2024 and '25, the Wildcats posted identical 9-5 overall records and 7-1 conference marks, reaching the second round of the FCS playoffs each year.

Smith was a standout tight end and tackle at Baylor, where he was a team captain, and earned All-American and All-Big 12 Conference honors. He was selected No. 2 overall by the then-St. Louis Rams in the 2009 NFL Draft. Smith played with the Rams, New York Jets and the New Orleans Saints, during his NFL career.

Smith joined the North Texas coaching staff in 2022 as an analyst and coached with the Mean Green for two seasons.

In 2022, North Texas advanced the Conference USA Championship game and earned a trip to the Frisco Bowl. The Mean Green finished in the top three in CUSA in total offense, scoring offense, and rushing offense. UNT finished No. 6 nationally in sacks allowed per game (0.79).

Nicknamed "Smooth", Smith was inducted into the Baylor Hall of Fame in 2020. He earned his bachelor's degree from Baylor in 2008.

Smith and his wife, Dacie, have two children, Jate and Drue.

Darren USCHER

Director - Player Personnel & Recruiting
South Carolina (2009)

Darren Uscher was named the Gamecocks' Director of Player Personnel and Recruiting on July 8, 2024.

Uscher returned to his alma mater after serving in a personnel and recruiting role at Oregon. In 2023, the Ducks posted a 12-2 record, reaching the Pac-12 Championship Game, while Uscher helped construct a recruiting class for the 2024 season that was ranked as high as No. 3 nationally. He briefly joined Chip Kelly's staff at UCLA as the executive director for recruiting for the 2024 season before returning to Eugene following a coaching change in Westwood.

Prior to his stint in Eugene, Uscher spent two years (2021-22) in the SEC as Auburn's director of football recruiting. During his time on The Plains, he oversaw all areas of recruiting, player personnel and roster management, while also serving as football's liaison with the compliance department. Uscher helped produce a pair of top-25 recruiting classes, including the No. 21 class for the 2022 season and the No. 18-ranked group for 2023.

Uscher came to Auburn after spending seven seasons (2014-2020) at Boise State, serving as the Broncos' football operations/recruiting coordinator for two years before being promoted to director of football recruiting and player personnel. The program boasted the Mountain West Conference's No. 1 recruiting class in each of his seven years on staff and posted a 69-19 record during his tenure.

Uscher's first full-time position came at Georgetown, where he served as the director of operations, assistant recruiting coordinator and video coordinator for the 2013 season. He earned his master's degree in sports industry management during his time at Georgetown.

Uscher, who earned a degree in sport and entertainment management from the University of South Carolina in 2009, got his start in college athletics as an undergrad in the Gamecocks' marketing department when he helped execute marketing plans for the football, baseball, men's and women's basketball and men's and women's soccer programs. He also interned with the Washington franchise in the NFL and Major League Soccer's D.C. United during his collegiate days.

Larry WATERS

Director - Football Equipment Operations
Mississippi State (2010)

Larry Waters joined the Carolina football staff in 2016 as Director - Football Equipment Operations.

Waters came to Columbia following a five-year stint as an assistant equipment manager for football at Alabama. During that time, the Crimson Tide won a pair of football national championships.

Waters earned a degree in political science from Mississippi State in 2010. While an undergrad, he served as a football student manager.

In 2010, Waters worked first as an equipment intern for the New Orleans Saints in the NFL, before being named a full-time equipment assistant for the Saints upon graduation. He left New Orleans in 2012 to join the Alabama football equipment staff.

Waters, who hails from Collins, Miss., and his wife, Sarah Weed Waters, have three daughters, Harper, Mary Collins and Whitley.

Jordan WILLIAMS
Defensive Assistant -
Defensive Line
Alabama State (2020)

Jordan Williams joined the Gamecocks' staff in 2026 as a defensive assistant where he works closely with Travian Robertson and the Carolina defensive line.

Williams most recently worked as a graduate assistant on the defensive side of the ball at Arkansas State.

Prior to his stint in Jonesboro, Williams was in a quality control position working with the offense at his alma mater, Alabama State. He worked with the offensive line while also running the scout team defense.

Originally from Tallahassee, Fla., Williams was an offensive lineman for the Hornets from 2015-19.

Clyde WRENN
Director - High
School Relations
NC State (1965)

Clyde Wrenn returned to the football offices in 2016 after working in the development arm of Gamecock Athletics. He has accrued more than 40 years of experience at the high school, college and professional levels.

Wrenn spent 11 years at South Carolina as an Assistant Athletics Director from 1993-2004, first as Football Recruiting Coordinator and later for High School Relations, before leaving to pursue other opportunities. Prior to his return to Columbia, he spent one year as the director of football operations at Southern Miss under Ellis Johnson.

A native of Chester, S.C., Wrenn was a football coach at the high school level for seven years and worked as the recruiting coordinator at Clemson for 11 seasons. He also spent two years as a scout with the NFL's Denver Broncos.

Wrenn earned his bachelor's degree from NC State in 1965. He later received a master's degree from Western Carolina in 1969.

George WYNN
Director - Football
Operations
Georgia (1992)

George Wynn was named Director of Football Operations at the University of South Carolina on February 1, 2018.

Wynn oversees the logistics relating to the spring, preseason and postseason practices, serves as the liaison to the compliance office and several other athletics and university departments, coordinates team travel arrangements and oversees the football budget.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Wynn logged stops as DFO at Arizona State (1999-05), Texas (2005-11) and at Florida (2011-17).

Wynn was a three-year starter in football at Georgia. A team captain as a senior (operation turnaround), Wynn earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1992. He played football professionally for two seasons in the CFL with the Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Following his retirement as a player, Wynn returned to Georgia, where he earned a master's degree in sports management in 1995 while serving as a recruiting coordinator assistant for the Bulldog football team. He then logged a stint as a compliance services intern for the NCAA before taking a position as a regional marketing director for the Harlem Globetrotters working with Geese Ausbie from 1996-1999.

Wynn and his wife, Leesha, have two children, Royce and Lena.

South Carolina fielded its first football team in 1892 and for the first three seasons no head coach was designated. The all-time won-lost-tie record includes those three seasons. No football was played in 1893 and in 1906 the trustees abolished the sport for one season.

George Rogers
1980 Heisman Trophy Winner

All-America running back George Rogers won the 1980 Heisman Trophy following his senior season at South Carolina, as he was recognized as the nation's top collegiate football player. The Duluth, Ga., native was a consensus first-team All-America selection that year after leading the nation in rushing with 1,894 yards. Rogers went on to become the first player chosen in the 1981 NFL draft and starred for the New Orleans Saints before moving on to the Washington Redskins, where he helped lead his team to a Super Bowl Championship in 1988. Rogers was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1997.

2 Sterling SHARPE

Sterling Sharpe concluded his career as the school's all-time leading receiver with 169 catches for 2,497 yards and 17 touchdowns. Sharpe had his jersey retired following the 1987 regular season. He became only the second Gamecock to have his jersey retired while he was still active at the school. Sharpe was a first-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in 1988. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 2014.

37 Steve WADIAK

Running back Steve Wadiak, who wore No. 37 for Carolina from 1948-51, was the first to have his number retired, after a tragic automobile accident claimed his life. Wadiak, who still appears throughout the Carolina record book, was the school's all-time rushing leader for 28 years after his senior season. Wadiak rushed for 2,878 yards in his career. He led the team in scoring and rushing all four years he played. His number was retired in 1951.

38 George ROGERS

Considered the greatest player in school history, 1980 Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers had his No. 38 jersey retired during halftime ceremonies at Carolina's final 1980 home game. Rogers was the first South Carolina player to have his jersey retired while still active at the school. Rogers was the first player chosen in the 1981 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1997.

56 Mike JOHNSON

Mike Johnson, a 6-4, 226-pound offensive center from Church Hill, Tenn., became gravely ill around Christmas time prior to the start of his junior season and the illness cut short a potentially great football career. While just a sophomore, Johnson served as the Gamecocks' starting center over the final half of the 1964 campaign. His number 56 was retired following his death in 1965.

7 Jadeveon CLOWNEY

Jadeveon Clowney, a two-time first-team All-American and All-SEC selection and the 2012 SEC Defensive Player of the Year, had his jersey retired in ceremonies at halftime of the Georgia State game on Sept. 3, 2022.

The Rock Hill, SC, native came to South Carolina as the nation's top high school recruit in 2011 from South Pointe (S.C.) High School and immediately made an impact for the Gamecocks.

As a true freshman in 2011, he was named SEC Freshman of the Year and second-team All-SEC. He was named to multiple Freshman All-America teams after being credited with 36 total tackles, 12 for losses, including eight sacks and five forced fumbles.

His sophomore season in 2012 was his greatest year as a Gamecock. He tallied 54 total tackles, a school single-season record 23.5 for losses, including a school-record 13 sacks and three forced fumbles. Clowney became South Carolina's second unanimous All-American in school history and first since George Rogers in 1980. He was the recipient of the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end. Additionally, he was a finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award, and finished sixth overall in the 2012 Heisman Trophy voting. In addition, he was voted by the fans as the 2012 AT&T All-America Player of the Year.

Clowney's tackle, forced fumble and fumble recovery against Michigan in the 2013 Outback Bowl is regarded as one of the most iconic moments in college football history.

In his junior and final campaign as a Gamecock, Clowney registered 39 total tackles, 11.5 for losses, including three sacks and a forced fumble on his way to a second-straight first-team All-American season.

The Gamecocks were a combined 33-6 overall and 18-6 in SEC play during his three seasons wearing the Garnet and Black. Carolina finished each of the three seasons with bowl victories – 2011 vs. Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl, 2012 vs. Michigan in the Outback Bowl and 2013 vs. Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl. Carolina finished in the Top 10 in each of his three seasons and was ranked in the AP Top 25 every week of Clowney's career.

He was the first selection of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

1 Alshon JEFFERY

All-America and All-SEC wide receiver Alshon Jeffery had his jersey retired at halftime of South Carolina's Sept. 23, 2023 game against Mississippi State.

The St. Matthews, S.C. native finished his three-year career with 183 catches for 3,042 yards and 23 touchdowns. In the Gamecock career record books he ranks third in receptions, second in receiving yards, tied for first in receiving touchdowns, first in 100-yard receiving games (12), sixth in yards per reception (16.6) and third in consecutive games with a reception (36).

In 2009, he was named consensus Freshman All-SEC and a first-team Freshman All-American. He had a team-high 46 catches for 763 yards and six touchdowns during his first year at Carolina. Against Kentucky in his freshman season, he had seven catches for 138 yards and three touchdowns and was named SEC Freshman of the Week. He followed that up later in the season with eight catches for a season-best 161 yards and a score against Vanderbilt, and five catches for 116 yards and a touchdown against Arkansas.

Jeffery's best statistical season for the Gamecocks was his sophomore campaign in 2010. He led the SEC with 88 catches for 1,517 yards and nine touchdowns enroute to earning All-America and unanimous All-SEC honors and helping the Gamecocks to their first SEC Eastern Division title. He was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top wide receiver. Against Auburn, during the regular season, Jeffery had eight catches for career-high 192 yards and two touchdowns. At the time, it was the fourth-highest receiving yardage game in school history and remains sixth on the all-time list. He earned the Ernest Brooks Offensive MVP Award with five catches for 141 yards in a win over Clemson and had nine catches for 130 yards against Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Prior to his junior season, ESPN ranked Jeffery as the best player in the SEC. He had 49 catches for 762 yards and eight touchdowns in his junior campaign. He was the Capital One Bowl MVP, catching four passes for 148 yards and had a 51-yard TD catch at the end of the first half to give Carolina a halftime lead that helped propel the Gamecocks to a win over Nebraska.

Jeffery was selected in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

Heisman Trophy

George Rogers - 1980

George Rogers rolled up 21-consecutive 100-yard rushing games, including every game in his senior year when he led the nation in rushing with 1,781 yards and tied for third in touchdowns with 14, helping Carolina to eight wins.

Bronko Nagurski Trophy

Kyle Kennard - 2024

Edge Rusher Kyle Kennard logged 28 tackles including 15.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks, both tops in the SEC in 2024. He had the second-highest sack total and the fourth-best TFLs in a single season in school history.

Ted Hendricks Award

Jadeveon Clowney - 2012

In 2012, Jadeveon Clowney became the first sophomore to win the Hendricks Award. He set the school single season record for sacks (13.0) and tackles for loss (23.5), tied for third in the nation in sacks and tied for second in tackles for loss.

Freshman of the Year

Steve Taneyhill - 1992

Steve Taneyhill engineered Carolina to five wins in the last six games after being named the starter. He threw for 1,272 yards and seven TDs in nine games, including 296 yards and two TDs in the win over Clemson, earning Sports Illustrated Freshman of the Year.

Sidney Rice - 2005

Sidney Rice was named the Rivals.com National Freshman of the Year after leading the Gamecocks with 70 catches for 1,143 yards and 13 TDs, earning consensus first team All-SEC and Freshman All-America accolades.

Marcus Lattimore - 2010

Marcus Lattimore led Carolina with 1,197 yards rushing and 17 TDs in 2010, earning National Freshman of the Year honors. As a true freshman, he notched the third-best single-season rushing total in school history behind only George Rogers.

Jadeveon Clowney - 2011

Jadeveon Clowney was credited with 36 tackles, including 8.0 sacks and 12.0 tackles for loss. The defensive end also forced five fumbles, earning FoxSportsNext.com's Defensive Freshman of the Year accolades in 2011.

LaNorris Sellers - 2024

LaNorris Sellers was the FWAA's choice as Freshman Offensive Player of the Year after leading the Gamecocks to nine wins. He threw for 2,534 yards and 18 TDs and rushed for 674 yards and seven TDs, a school record for a QB.

Coach of the Year

Joe Morrison - 1984

Joe Morrison's 1984 squad posted a 10-2 record and was ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation after winning its first nine games, earning the second-year Carolina head coach National Coach of the Year honors from the Walter Camp Foundation.

Lou Holtz - 2000

Coming off a winless season, Lou Holtz led Carolina to eight wins in 2000, the biggest regular-season turnaround in SEC history, earning Coach of the Year honors from Football News and American Football Coaches Quarterly.

First-Year Coach of the Year

Shane Beamer - 2021

Shane Beamer earned the Steve Spurrier/FWAA First-Year Coach of the Year Award after taking a 2-8 team to a 7-6 mark, a school record for wins by a first-year coach, including a victory in the Duke's Mayo Bowl.

Assistant Coach of the Year

John Gutekunst - 2000

Defensive Backs Coach John Gutekunst was named the Assistant Coach of the Year by AFCA after the Carolina pass defense, led by All-American Sheldon Brown, ranked near the top of the SEC, allowing a just five touchdowns while intercepting 20 passes.

Skip Holtz - 2001

Offensive coordinator Skip Holtz earned Assistant Coach of the Year accolades from the All-American Football Foundation after taking the Carolina offense from the bottom of the SEC to rank in the upper half of the league in rushing, passing and total offense.

Blanchard-Rogers Trophy

Kevin Harris - 2020

Kevin Harris led the SEC in rushing yards per game (113.8) and ran a total of 1,138 yards in just 10 games in 2020, earning first-team All-SEC honors. He recorded five 100-yard games including a pair of 200-yard games and scored a school record five TDs against Ole Miss.

Xavier Legette - 2023

In 2023, Xavier Legette logged 71 receptions for 1,255 yards and seven TDs. He averaged 17.7 yards per catch and 104.6 yards per game with six games over 100 yards. The 1,255 receiving yards in a single-season was the second-highest mark in school history.

Kyle Kennard - 2024

Kyle Kennard posted 15.5 tackles for loss including 11.5 sacks en route to winning the Bronko Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2024. He added SEC Defensive Player of the Year, first-team All-America and Academic All-America honors.

Coach of the Year

Lou Holtz - 2000

Coming off back-to-back 0-8 conference seasons in 1998 and '99, Lou Holtz led Carolina to a 5-3 SEC mark and eight wins overall including an Outback Bowl win over Ohio State, earning SEC Coach of the Year honors from the AP and Football News.

Steve Spurrier - 2005

In his first season in Columbia, Steve Spurrier led the Gamecocks to a 7-5 mark. He was honored as the AP's SEC Coach of the Year after leading Carolina to a record five-straight SEC wins, their first win at Tennessee and their first win over Florida since 1939.

Steve Spurrier - 2010

Steve Spurrier was named the Coach of the Year by the SEC coaches after his 2010 squad went 9-5, earning its first Eastern Division title. The Gamecocks defeated No. 1 Alabama and finished the season ranked 22nd in both national polls.

Shane Beamer - 2024

Shane Beamer earned SEC Coach of the Year honors from the AP, USA TODAY and Bear Bryant in 2024 after leading Carolina to a 9-4 mark, including a school-record four wins against ranked opponents, and won its last six regular season games.

Defensive Player of the Year

Jadeveon Clowney - 2012

Jadeveon Clowney was the coaches' pick as the SEC Defensive Player of the Year in 2012. The Gamecock sophomore set the school single season record for sacks (13.0) and tackles for loss (23.5), tied for third in the nation in sacks and tied for second in tackles for loss.

Kyle Kennard - 2024

Kyle Kennard was the 2024 AP and the coaches' choice as SEC Defensive Player of the Year. He logged 28 tackles including 15.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks, both tops in the SEC. He had the second-most sacks and the fourth-best TFLs in a single season in school history.

Special Teams Player of the Year

Ace Sanders - 2012

Electric return specialist Ace Sanders was the coaches' selection as the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year in 2012 after leading the conference in punt return average (15.3 yards per return) including a pair of touchdowns.

Steve Taneyhill - 1992

Steve Taneyhill engineered Carolina to five wins in the last six games after being named the starter. He threw for 1,272 yards and seven TDs in nine games, earning SEC Offensive Freshman of the Year accolades in Carolina's first season in the conference.

Ko Simpson - 2004

Safety Ko Simpson was named the AP SEC Freshman of the Year and second-team All-SEC after tying for the SEC lead with six interceptions, ranking third nationally. Also credited with six pass breakups and ranked second on the squad with 61 tackles.

Sidney Rice - 2005

Sidney Rice was the 2005 Sporting News SEC Freshman of the Year after leading the team with 70 catches for 1,143 yards and 13 TDs. A consensus first-team All-SEC selection, Rice led the SEC and ranked fifth in the nation with 103.9 receiving yards per game.

Marcus Lattimore - 2010

A unanimous choice for SEC Freshman of the Year, Marcus Lattimore led Carolina with 1,197 yards and 17 TDs on 249 carries. He set the school's freshman record-hold for rushing yards and notched the third-best single-season rushing total in school history.

Jadeveon Clowney - 2011

Jadeveon Clowney was credited with 36 tackles, including 8.0 sacks and 12.0 tackles for loss. He was the only freshman in the SEC's top 10 in sacks, earning the SEC Coaches' Freshman of the Year accolades.

LaNorris Sellers - 2024

LaNorris Sellers was the SEC coaches' choice as Freshman Offensive Player of the Year after leading the Gamecocks to a nine-win season. He threw for 2,534 yards and 18 touchdowns and added 674 yards and seven TDs rushing, a school record for a quarterback.

Michael D.
AMIRIDIS
University President
Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki in Greece (1985)

Michael Amiridis, the University of South Carolina's 30th president, is committed to using two of the university's greatest strengths — education and research — to improve prospects for all South Carolinians.

The challenges facing higher education are many, but President Amiridis is confident in the university's ability to address them with a commitment to excellence, transparency and accessibility. As the university's 30th president, he is drawing on his experience as a faculty member, academic administrator and higher education leader to guide South Carolina into its next era of success.

President Amiridis began his term at South Carolina on July 1, 2022. Prior to coming to South Carolina, he had served as chancellor of the University of Illinois-Chicago since 2015.

Amiridis is a 1985 graduate of Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki in Greece. He earned his Ph.D. in chemical engineering from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1991. As a researcher, he earned the National Science Foundation's award for early-career scientists and engineers in 1999. He was elected a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in 2012 and a fellow of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers in 2015.

During his tenure at UIC, the school completed a successful capital campaign that raised more $750 million and saw six years of record campus enrollment, while winning national accolades for attracting an increasingly diverse student population. He served on the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors for seven years.

Prior to his leadership at UIC, Amiridis spent more than two decades at the University of South Carolina in Columbia. He held positions as a chemical engineering professor, department chair, dean of the College of Engineering and Computing and, from 2009 to 2015, the university's executive vice president for academic affairs and provost. He received numerous awards as a professor, including the University of South Carolina's Michael J. Mungo Undergraduate and Graduate Teaching Awards and the Samuel Litman Distinguished Professor Award.

Amiridis was born in Greece and was recognized by Carnegie Corporation of New York as a Great Immigrant in 2022. He and his wife, Ero Aggelopoulou-Amiridis, have two children, Aspasia and Dimitri, both graduates of the University of South Carolina.

Jeremiah DONATI

Athletics Director

University of Puget Sound (2001)
Whittier Law School (2005)

Jeremiah Donati was named the University of South Carolina's 31st Director of Athletics on December 5, 2024, and officially began his tenure on January 2, 2025. Since arriving in Columbia, Donati has provided steady leadership during a transformative period in college athletics while helping position Gamecock Athletics for long-term success.

During his tenure, Carolina announced a landmark 10-year partnership with Nike, moved forward with the Williams-Brice Stadium Reimagination project, and welcomed new head coaches in baseball, beach volleyball and volleyball.

The Gamecocks have enjoyed considerable success in competition under Donati's leadership. The women's basketball program captured two SEC championships, made back-to-back Final Four appearances, and finished national runner-up twice, while the equestrian team claimed the 2026 national championship after winning the 2025 SEC title. In addition, the women's golf team won the 2025 SEC championship — the program's first conference crown since 2002.

Donati came to South Carolina after serving as the Athletics Director at TCU since December 2017, where he led the Horned Frogs' athletics program to new heights including eight team national championships and 11 Big 12 Conference titles. In addition to TCU being the first Texas team to appear in the College Football Playoffs, TCU's men's basketball program appeared in the last three NCAA Tournaments while its baseball team won back-to-back Big 12 championships and made one appearance in the College World Series.

In the 2023-24 athletics season, TCU was one of only five schools nationally to win multiple NCAA Championships. In the previous 2022-23 season, TCU became the first school in the College Football Playoff era to reach the CFP, NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and College World Series in the same academic year. Under first-year head football coach Sonny Dykes, the Horned Frogs reached the College Football Playoff in 2022, defeating Michigan in the CFP semifinals of the Fiesta Bowl and played Georgia in the national championship game.

That same season, TCU set a school record with six conference coach of the year recipients: football, women's diving, beach volleyball, men's golf, men's tennis and equestrian.

Donati arrived at TCU in 2011 as Executive Director of the Frog Club, playing a major role in fundraising and project development before being named AD. His efforts enhanced the TCU student-athlete experience through significant facility upgrades totaling nearly $500 million.

Under Donati, TCU also has enjoyed record levels of donor support for its athletics program. In the four years he oversaw fundraising in the Frog Club, TCU recorded its three highest totals in overall athletics giving. Additionally, TCU reached record levels in men's basketball attendance as well as setting new marks in ticket and licensing revenues.

In March 2019, Donati worked with TCU football legend LaDainian Tomlinson to create the Tomlinson Student-Athlete Development Endowment Fund to help prepare student-athletes from all of TCU's sports programs for their lives and careers after graduation.

Prior to joining TCU, Donati was with Leigh Steinberg Sports and Entertainment as general counsel and director of player representation. His experience in professional and intercollegiate athletics includes fundraising positions with the University of Arizona Wildcat Club, Washington State University Cougar Athletic Fund and the Cal Poly University Mustang Club.

Donati earned a bachelor's degree in politics and government in 2001 from the University of Puget Sound, where he was a basketball student-athlete. He received a Juris Doctorate from Whittier Law School in 2005 and is a member of the California Bar Association.

While at TCU, he was a member of the Big 12 Conference's Athletics Directors Executive Committee and Football Working Group, Learfield's AD Advisory Board, the Board of Trustees for the Davey O'Brien Foundation in Fort Worth and the Coalition Academy in conjunction with the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches.

Donati and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters: Colette and Naomi.

A four-time recipient of the Super 11 Award (2021, 2022, 2024, 2025) as presented by the Football Writers Association of America in the last five years, the University of South Carolina Athletics Communications and Public Relations department's mission is to strategically provide communication between the athletics department and its internal and external constituents, increase awareness of and interest in Gamecock Athletics and to publicize the activities and achievements of the student-athletes, coaches, teams and the athletics department.

We recognize and understand the importance of assisting the media in providing coverage of the University, its athletics programs, administrators, coaches and student-athletes. Our goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using accepted media standards. To this end, the best attempt will be made to fill reasonable requests by recognized media outlets. Members of the media are encouraged to work with our staff to assist in that endeavor.

Gamecock Sports Properties, a partnership between the University of South Carolina Athletics Department and the country's leaders in the collegiate sports marketing industry, Learfield, is the originating medium for radio coverage of the South Carolina Gamecocks.

2026 marks the 10th and final year of a 10-year extension between the University and Learfield. The extension adds to an agreement between the University of South Carolina and Learfield that dates to 2003. 2025 is also the final year of a five-year extension with Cumulus Media for WNKT-FM (107.5 The Game) to continue as the official flagship station of Gamecock Athletics.

Gamecock Sports Properties is responsible for the overall management of the athletics program's corporate partnership effort, which includes producing, selling and distributing the Gamecock Radio Network (live play-by-play and call-in shows) and coaches television shows, print advertising in various athletics department publications, and selected signage in university athletic facilities.

The Gamecock Sports Network from Learfield counts two dozen affiliate stations for the 2026-27 season. For Sirius/XM subscribers, follow the Gamecock Radio Twitter page for weekly updates on channel information for Gamecock broadcasts.

Todd Ellis, the all-time leading passer in Gamecock history, is in his 35th season with the network and his 24th as the play-by-play voice of Carolina football. Ellis previously served as sideline reporter for the radio network and as a color analyst and play-by-play announcer for Comcast Sports Southeast for Gamecock telecasts. Ellis has also hosted the coach's television show and served on CBS's bowl game radio coverage. He hosts the Shane Beamer Television Show and Carolina Calls with Shane Beamer, the Coach's weekly radio call-in show. Ellis set more than 20 school passing marks during his career (1986-89) while throwing for 9,953 yards. In 2026, Ellis received the Honorary Life Membership Award from the South Carolina Broadcasters Association (SCBA) and was enshrined in the South Carolina Football Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2025.

Tommy Suggs, a former standout Gamecock quarterback, is back for his 54th year as color analyst for the radio network. Suggs played for Carolina from 1968-70 and is regarded as one of the school's all-time premier signal-callers. He led the Gamecocks to the 1969 ACC championship and Peach Bowl berth and was named MVP of the 1970 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic. Suggs was inducted into the University's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989 and is also a member of the state of South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2012, friends and colleagues of Tommy and Jane Suggs established the Tommy Suggs Endowed Quarterback Scholarship to honor his long-time commitment to the University and Gamecock Athletics. The scholarship is awarded to a quarterback each year and was the first endowed scholarship for the football program. He was a 2020 recipient of the South Carolina Broadcasters Association Honorary Life Membership Award.

Chet Tucker returns for his fourth season as the sideline reporter for the Network. Tucker is not new to Carolina Football, having previously served as a co-host for the network's pregame and postgame shows. Tucker was a placekicker/punter on the Carolina football squad in the late 1990s, including a stint as the starting placekicker at the end of the 1998 season while playing for head coach Brad Scott.

Liz McMillan serves as the Executive Director of Gamecock Sports Properties in Columbia, while Nick Kistler is the General Manager. David Spence is the spotter and Doug Adams is the statistician. Chris Miller returns for his seventh season hosting for the Network, participating throughout the six-hour gameday broadcast.

The weekly Carolina Calls show airs Thursdays from 7-8 p.m. on the flagship station of the Gamecocks, WNKT-FM, across the Palmetto State on the Gamecock Radio Network and over the Internet at GamecocksOnline.com. It is conducted live each week at Backstreets Grill, 2400 Devine Street.

Southeastern Conference Mission Statement

The purpose of the SEC is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

The SEC

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports. The Southeastern Conference crowns champions in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports.

National Champions since 1992

Since it expanded in 1992, the SEC has the most football national championships (AP, USA Today) with 17, including 13 titles in the last 20 seasons. During that time, the SEC has had more teams (6) with national titles than any other conference.

SEC: Florida (1996, 2006, 2008), LSU (2003, 2007, 2019), Tennessee (1998), Alabama (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017, 2020), Auburn (2010), Georgia (2021, 2022)

Big 12: Texas (2005), Oklahoma (2000), Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997)

Big Ten: Ohio State (2002, 2014, 2024), Michigan (1997, 2023), Indiana (2025)

Pac-12: Southern California (2003, 2004)

ACC: Florida State (1993, 1999, 2013), Clemson (2016, 2018)

Big East: Miami, Fla. (2001)

SEC Tops in Fan Support

The SEC has led the nation in total attendance in football every year since 1981 and since 1988, the SEC has led the nation in average attendance. An average attendance of 80,362 witnessed first-hand, the excitement of SEC football in 2025. Every year since 1988, the SEC has had at least four teams ranked in the top 10 in average attendance, with seven in the top-10 in 2025. South Carolina ranked 14th in the country in attendance in 2025, averaging 79,334 fans per game.

SEC Shines in NFL Draft

- The SEC led the nation's conferences in NFL Draft picks for the 20th-consecutive year in 2026 with 87 selections., a record for a conference in a single NFL Draft.
- The SEC has either tied or led the nation in First Round NFL Draft selections in 14 of the past 16 years.
- During the last 22 NFL Drafts, the SEC has a nation-leading 201 players taken in the opening round, an average of over nine per season.
- 2026 marked the 12th-straight year for the SEC to see 50 or more players taken in the NFL Draft. Only five times in the last 30 years has another conference other than the SEC seen 50 or more players drafted.
- 2026 was the 10th-consecutive year the SEC has seen 25 or more players selected through the first three rounds of the NFL Draft.
- The SEC has averaged over 50 selections per draft since 2006.
