2025 SEC Champions

Rydvqvist sinks long birdie putt to give Gamecocks first SEC Title since 2002

BELLEAIR, Fla. – It was a historic day at Pelican Golf Club as No. 4 South Carolina defeated No. 24 Florida, 4.5-0.5, to win the SEC Championship. It is the program's second SEC title and first since 2002. It is the first SEC Championship under four-time SEC Coach of the Year Kalen Anderson.

Senior All-American Louise Rydvqvist made a 60-foot birdie putt on hole 17 to clinch the third and decisive team point. The Värnamo, Sweden native was 1-down in her match thru 12 holes but then won the next two holes to go back 1-up where it stayed until her long birdie bomb at 17 to win it for Carolina. Rydvqvist went 3-0 in her matches over the last two days in wins over Tennessee, No. 18 Ole Miss and the Gators too.

Sophomore Maylis Lamoure led from hole three on in a 3&2 victory putting the first point on the board for the Gamecocks on the green at hole 16. She was hot with putter all day keeping the momentum from a win in the semifinals yesterday against the Rebels.

Freshman Eila Galitsky put the second point on the board for South Carolina, also making birdie on hole 17 to win 3&1. Galitsky nearly drove the green at the difficult par-4. Like Rydvqvist, Galitsky won all three of her matches the last two days improving her match play record to 6-0 this spring.

Senior All-American Hannah Darling was on the 19th hole of her match when Rydvqvist made the birdie putt on 17 today. Darling got 2-down early but battled back to tie her match on the front nine. She also birdied 17 to go 1-up in her match. Her birdie putt sat on the edge of the hole on 18 and Francisco of Florida made birdie to force extra holes.

Rydvqvist, Galitsky and Darling all finished in the top-10 individually in the stroke play portion of the championship Monday thru Wednesday.

Graduate Sophia Burnett battled all day in a tight match ultimately falling 3&1. She contributed in a big way with wins in the quarterfinals and semifinals on Thursday to help send the Gamecocks to the title match today at Pelican.

South Carolina made SEC history as well today becoming the first No. 1 seed from stroke play to win the SEC Championship in women's golf. The league switched to its new match play format in 2018 and this year marked the seventh time match play has determined the SEC Champion.

Four-time All-American Louise Rydvqvist sunk a 60-foot birdie putt from just off the green at the par-4 17th hole to secure a 2&1 victory and the decisive third point against the Gators that clinched the title for South Carolina. She was 1-down with six holes to play before taking control of her match down the stretch. The senior from Värnamo, Sweden went 3-0 in her matches at Pelican Golf Club to help power the Gamecocks to victory.

2002 SEC Champions

South Carolina knocks off top-ranked Auburn by three strokes to claim first SEC crown; McPherson earns medalist honors for second-straight year.

No. 25 South Carolina captured the women's golf program's first Southeastern Conference Championship behind a school-record three-day total of 861. The Gamecocks finished three shots ahead of Auburn after entering the final round tied with the top-ranked team.

While the Gamecocks were posting their first team title, junior All-American Kristy McPherson made it a clean sweep as she became just the second player in SEC women's golf history to win back-to-back individual titles. She carded a three-day 209 to win the title by two strokes over Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler. McPherson continued her mastery of the SEC Tournament by posting her sixth-straight sub-par round in the event and, after opening last year's tournament with a five-under 67, has led each round in the SEC Championship over the last two seasons. The only other SEC women's golfer to earn back-to-back SEC individual titles was Florida's Deb Richard, who won three consecutive crowns from 1982-84.

"I'm so proud of the ladies," said head coach Kristi Coggins. "They played with so much heart and fought until the final putt dropped. Our goal was to be in contention coming into the final round because we have played so well all spring on the last day.

The Gamecocks picked the right time to crush the previous school record for team tournament score, topping it by 23 strokes. The 861 was also three strokes better than the SEC Championship record of 864 set by Georgia at the 1988 event at Gulf Breeze, Fla. Prior to posting 290 or lower in all three rounds at the event, Carolina had turned in just four sub-300 rounds all season.

South Carolina shot its highest score of the tournament in the final round, but played a solid back nine to recapture the lead and hold on. USC stood at five-over par after the first nine holes and fell three strokes behind No. 9 Tennessee, which was eight-under at the turn. But the Lady Vols cooled down, and the Gamecocks played the back nine collectively at three-under to win the title. Carolina handed Auburn its fifth second-place showing on the year to go along with its five tournament victories. Tennessee finished third, five shots off the pace.

In the individual competition, McPherson got a scare from Vanderbilt's Nicki Cutler, who finished before her and was in the clubhouse with a five-under 211 after a final-round 67. Tied with Cutler entering the final six holes, McPherson carded three birdies down the stretch and earned the win. Her 209 was the second-best individual three-round score in SEC Tournament history, two strokes off the previous record of 207, which she shot in 2001.

"Every putt ... every shot ... all I wanted to do was make it for the team," McPherson said. "Winning the individual title this year is so much better because the team won. It was awesome last year - don't get me wrong - but I get to share it with the team this season. I was thinking about team honors all weekend, and it just so happened that the individual victory came around."

The Malaga, Spain, native totaled a three-round mark of 216 (E) to share the individual title with Florida's Kelly Grassel, while Gamecock senior Katelyn Dambaugh and junior Ainhoa Olarra also grabbed top-five finishes at the 54-hole event at the Scarlet Course.

Wednesday's victory marked the fifth regional title in eight years for the Gamecocks, who earned their eighth-straight trip to the NCAA Championship by virtue of their top-six finish. All five wins have come under coach Kalen Anderson.

No. 5 Florida State (891, +27) Ohio State (893, +29) and Purdue (904, +40) rounded out the top five spots, while Michigan (908, +44) marked the final school to advance to the NCAA Championship from the Columbus Regional.

The 2017 NCAA Championship will feature a 24-team field and take place May 19-24 at Rich Harvest Farm in Sugar Grove, Ill. This season will mark Carolina's 17th appearance at the NCAA Championship and the ninth time it has reached the event under Anderson. The Gamecocks reached the match-play portion of the tournament for the first time in school history last year.

Pelaez was brilliant down the stretch Wednesday, tallying four of her five birdies after the turn. Birdies on Nos. 10 and 12 moved the freshman into a tie for first, and she grabbed the solo lead with another birdie on the par-5 14th. Pelaez stuck her tee shot on the difficult par-3 17th to within two feet before converting her final birdie of the day, and she finished her week at even after a bogey on No. 18.

Dambaugh, the medalist at the 2016 NCAA Baton Regional, tied for third this week with a three-round mark of 217 (+1). She totaled five birdies on her round, including one on her final hole, the par-4 18th. Dambaugh's 13 birdies for the tournament led the 96-player field.

Olarra, who placed in a tie for fifth, turned in her best performance of the tournament Wednesday, firing a 2-under 70 in the final round. She posted a back-nine 33 (-3) in a stretch that was highlighted by an eagle on the par-5 14th. The junior added a birdie on No. 16, and amassed 11 pars for her round.

Carolina sophomore Marion Veyseyre finished tied for 61st with a 54-hole total of 236 (+20), and senior Jia Xin Yang tied for 82nd (244, +28). Yang notched two birdies over her final nine holes, while Veyseyre sunk a 20-foot putt on the par-5 14th to register an eagle.

South Carolina collects its fourth NCAA Regional title in the last seven years

BATON ROUGE, La. - For the second-straight season and the fourth time in the last seven years, the South Carolina women's golf program finished atop the leaderboard at an NCAA Regional. The No. 24 Gamecocks posted a final-round 290 (+2) on Saturday to earn a share of the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional title with a three-day total of 857 (-7). No. 5 Florida converted a birdie on its final hole of the tournament and fired a 277 (-11) in round three to rally from a 13-stroke deficit and match South Carolina's 54-hole total at University Club.

Junior Katelyn Dambaugh powered the Gamecocks to victory in historic fashion, matching the program's top 54-hole individual score (207, -9) on the way to her first career medalist honors. The Goose Creek, S.C., native tallied a tournament-best 16 birdies and finished under par in all three rounds throughout the week.

The Gamecocks, who distanced themselves from the field with a program-record 277 (-11) in round two, finished just four strokes off the school 54-hole record. Three golfers finished par or better for South Carolina on Saturday, including senior Sarah Schmelzel, who converted a clutch birdie putt on No. 17 to help secure the win. With the victory, the Gamecocks earned a spot in the 24-team field at the NCAA Championships, set for May 20-25 at Eugene Country Club in Eugene, Ore. No. 13 Washington, No. 4 Duke, No. 20 Oregon and BYU marked the other schools to qualify for the women's golf national championship event from the Baton Rouge Regional.

This week was the first victory of the season for South Carolina and the eighth time the Gamecocks have won a tournament under head coach Kalen Anderson. Dambaugh becomes the 16th player in program history to earned medalist honors, and she is the third Gamecock to accomplish the feat at an NCAA postseason event. All four of South Carolina's NCAA Regional victories have come under Anderson.

Dambaugh carded a final-round 71 (-1), with all three of her birdies coming on the front nine. The junior finished her week ranked second in par-4 scoring and third in par-3 scoring, and her performance marked her third-straight top-three finish.

Schmelzel finished in a tie for 12th following her final-round 72 (E). The Phoenix, Ariz., native collected three birdies and played her last nine holes at 1-under (35) to end her week with a 216 (E). Schmelzel has placed in the top-15 at the NCAA regionals in each of the last two seasons.

Freshman Marion Veyseyre (T19), one of three South Carolina golfers making their NCAA postseason debut this week, marked the other Gamecock to garner a top-20 finish. She totaled a career-best 219 (+3) and finished par or better in two of her three rounds. Veyseyre registered six birdies in the final round, including three over her final six holes.

Katelyn Dambaugh matched the program's lowest 54-hole individual score (207) in Baton Rouge on the way to her first collegiate medalist honors

2015 NCAA East Regional Champions

South Carolina captures third NCAA East Regional crown since 2010 with a stellar second round

RALEIGH, N.C. - Top-seeded South Carolina fired a final-round 296 (+8) to clinch its third NCAA East Regional title since 2010 on Saturday at the Lonnie Poole Golf Course in Raleigh, N.C. The Gamecocks finished the tournament with a 54-hole score of 877 (+13) and captured the win by eight strokes to advance to their sixth-straight NCAA Championship. Senior Justine Dreher earned her sixth top-five finish of the season, finishing the weekend at even-par.

The Gamecocks entered the day with an eight-stroke lead after posting the only under-par team score of the tournament (-2, 286) on Friday. Alabama and LSU each made runs at the Gamecocks, particularly on the front nine when Alabama drew within five on a few occasions, but South Carolina fought its way through a difficult back nine to stay on top.

Dreher continued her career of strong postseason play, registering her second-straight top-five finish and her sixth of the season. Her 54-hole score of 216 (E) tied her for fifth with two others. After making the turn at 1-over, the senior played bogey-free on the back nine and holed a birdie on No. 15 to finish the day with a 72 (E).

Sophomore Katelyn Dambaugh turned in her best round of the weekend with a 2-under 70 on Saturday. She did not post a bogey on the front nine and made the turn at 3-under. She went 1-over on her final nine holes and posted her best career regional result in a tie for 12th at 5-over (221).

Junior Sarah Schmelzel also posted her best NCAA Regional finish. The Gamecock struggled after the turn and carded a final-round 77 (+5). With a three-round score of 220 (+4), Schmelzel captured 11th place, her best result since the season-opening Florida State Match-Up (T9) in February.

After a solid front nine, junior Mary Fran Hillow was 5-over on the back to card a third-round 77 (+5). Hillow was the fourth Gamecock to earn a top-25 result, tying for 22nd with a 54-hole score of 224 (+8).

After making the turn at 6-over, sophomore Jia Xin Yang battled on the back nine, carding eight pars and a birdie to also end the day at 5-over (77). Yang finished with a three-round score of 229 (+13, T48).

The Gamecocks capture the moment after earning the 2015 NCAA East Regional championship and their sixth-straight trip to the NCAA Championships.

Notables

- The Gamecocks depth was on display this week with a different Gamecock carding the low individual round each day of the regional.
- Each of South Carolina's three regional titles have come when the Gamecocks were placed in the East Regional.
- South Carolina has posted 10 top-five finishes this season, a new school record.

2012 NCAA East Regional Champions

South Carolina leads wire-to-wire to claim second East Regional title in three seasons.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. – For the second time in three years, the South Carolina women's golf team claimed the NCAA East Regional title. The Gamecocks led wire-to-wire and wrapped up the tournament with a final-round 291 (+3) to win by five strokes on Saturday at the Penn State Golf Course.

Carolina held a seven-shot lead heading into the round and was never threatened as it went on to post a three-day total of 873 (+9), which ties for the fifth lowest 54-hole total in school history. The win is the Gamecocks' first since claiming the 2010 NCAA East Regional.

"It's unbelievable. To come out on top in such a deep regional, we just did a phenomenal job," South Carolina head coach Kalen Harris said. "We are lucky to come away with it. The team played so solid. They were mentally tough every day and just stayed in the present. That's more than we can ask for, and we just need to do that going into the NCAA Championship."

Texas A&M and Texas finished tied for second with a score of 878 (+14) to clinch two of the eight available spots for the NCAA Championships, while Alabama (879), Florida (879), Arizona State (887), Michigan State (887) and Duke (887) will also advance.

Sophomore Suzie Lee made sure the Gamecocks held on to first place by firing a career-low 68 (-4), which ties for the third lowest score by a sophomore in school history. Lee bounced back from Friday's 83 to climb the leaderboard and finish in a tie for 41st with a score of 224 (+8). She played her best golf of the season on the front nine, shooting a 4-under 32. The highlight of her round came on the par-4 sixth when she sank her approach shot from 127 yards for eagle.

"That's so impressive," Harris said. "She got off to a 1-under start. Then the eagle at No. 6 got her to 3-under, and she just kept it going. I couldn't be prouder of her for her comeback after an 83 (on Friday)."

Senior Katie Burnett carded a 1-over 73 and finished in a tie for third with a score of 216 (E). She came up three shots shy of forcing a playoff to play for her second medalist honor at the NCAA East Regional in three years. After shooting even par on the front side, she struggled at times on the back nine with three bogeys as she fell back to 2-over heading to the 18th tee box. However, she closed out the round on a positive note by making birdie on the final hole to secure the seventh top-five finish of her career, which moves her into a tie for fourth in top-five finishes all-time at South Carolina.

Junior Amanda Strang shot an even-par 72 to post a career-best NCAA Regional finish of a tie for 14th with a score of 220 (+4). After shooting a 3-over 39 on the front nine, she settled down to play her best nine holes of the tournament on the back side, recording birdies on three of her first four holes and making par the rest of the way to get back to even for the round.

Freshman Justine Dreher wrapped up an impressive NCAA Regional debut with a final-round 78 (+6). She finished the tournament in a tie for 19th with a score of 221 (+5). On the day, Dreher carded one birdie, three bogeys, two double bogeys and 13 pars. She played a key role in building Carolina's cushion heading into the final day with rounds of 70 (-2) and 73 (+1) on the first two days.

Junior Meredith Swanson turned in an 80 (+8) to finish in a tie for 87th. She produced one birdie on the day as she sank a three-foot putt on the par-4 13th after narrowly holing out on her approach shot from the rough.

Texas A&M's Katerina Ruzickova shot a 1-over 73 to hold on to win medalist honors with a score of 213 (-3).

The Gamecocks will now advance to the NCAA Championship for the fourth time in five years. This year's tournament will be held May 23-26 at the Vanderbilt Legends Club in Franklin, Tenn. South Carolina will be joined by SEC foes Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, LSU, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. The Gamecocks finished 18th at last year's NCAA Championship.

2010 NCAA East Regional Champions

South Carolina holds off Tennessee by two strokes to win first regional title in program history; Burnett shoots 210 (-6) to take medalist honors.

GREENVILLE, N.C. – It finally all came together.

After going five years without a team tournament victory of any kind, the South Carolina women's golf team took down some of the nation's best teams in winning the NCAA East Regional on Saturday, posting a 54-hole score of 864 (E) to defeat Tennessee by two shots.

The key component of the Gamecocks' team victory came in the person of sophomore Katie Burnett, who shot a closing round of 71 (-1) to earn medalist honors for the first time in her collegiate career with a 3-day total of 210 (-6), one shot ahead of Auburn's Carlie Yadloczky.

"I'm really proud of them," coach Kalen Harris said. "They played really steady for three days, and played very well under really windy conditions today. We've been knocking on the door for a couple of tournaments now where they've been close and just haven't finished one, but they finished one at the right time (today) and I'm really proud of them."

The Gamecocks posted the best team round of the final day at 290 (+2) to overcome a five-shot deficit entering Saturday's third round. Duke, who led after two rounds of play, fell back to a tie for third after a closing round of 300 (+12). Tennessee, meanwhile, traded the lead with South Carolina and Duke for most of the day, but struggled down the stretch to post a final-day score of 296 (+8).

Carolina traded the lead back and forth with Duke, Tennessee, Auburn and Pepperdine throughout the day, but it appeared late in the day that it would come down to a duel with the Lady Vols. But the Gamecocks, as a team, were 3-under over their final three holes of the day while Tennessee was 1-over in that same stretch on the back nine, including one double-bogey at 18 that proved to be the difference.

Burnett was steady as a rock throughout the day and throughout the tournament. On a day when par was a very good score, the sophomore from Brunswick, Ga., had 15 of them. She first moved into red figures with a birdie at the dogleg-left par-4 14th, then saw a putt at the 18th just miss as she made the turn at 1-under. She faced a tough start to the more-exposed front nine as she fought her way out of a fairway bunker to make bogey at No. 2, then had a birdie putt at No. 4 lip out. She took dead aim at the par-5 seventh hole to card what would be the clinching birdie, then made pars at the eighth and ninth to hold on for the victory.

"To be honest, I don't think it's really hit me yet," Burnett said. "I'm still a little speechless at the moment. But I really couldn't be happier. I missed a few putts here and there, but I knew that if I kept playing the way I was playing, a few putts would fall coming down to the end."

Coming to the ninth and final hole, Burnett hit her approach past the flag to about 12 feet, but didn't know if she needed to make it to secure the victory. It turned out that all she needed was a two-putt for par, and that's what she managed to do as the awaiting Gamecock team stormed the green for hugs and high-fives all around.

Burnett's round of 210 ties for the fifth-best 54-hole individual total in school history, equaling an effort by Siew-Ai Lim at the 1994 Carolyn Cudone Invitational. In addition to becoming the 12th different Gamecock women's golfer to win an individual title, she is the third to win an NCAA East Regional. Teammate Benedicte Toumpsin won the 2008 event in Athens, Ga., and Lim was the medalist at the 1995 regional in Memphis, Tenn.

But it wasn't just Burnett's effort that led to the 17th team title in program history. Toumpsin turned in her second-straight round of even-par 72 to post a three-day total of 218 (+2) and a likely top-20 finish. She started off her final round with eight consecutive pars before coming to the 18th hole that had been a death trap for the Gamecocks all week. The pond down the left side claimed Toumpsin's tee shot, and she settled for a bogey to make the turn at 1-over. She would get that stroke right back at No. 1 with a birdie, then rolled off five more pars before running into trouble at No. 7. After an errant drive forced a layup, she hit her third shot into the hazard. But somehow, she was able to get up and down for bogey to minimize the damage. And once again, she fought right back for a birdie at No. 8 to get back to even par; a par at the ninth finished a strong day.

Senior Corrine Carr was the second-highest finisher for the Gamecocks, fighting her way to a closing 74 (+2) to finish at 217 (+1) overall, also a likely top-20 placement. Carr fought off bogeys at 12 and 13 by making back-to-back birdies at 14 and 15, then dropped another shot after a three-putt bogey at 16. She would hold on to par 17 and 18, then rolled off three more pars before bogeys at the windswept fourth and fifth holes. She would get one shot back with birdie at the seventh, then made two pars to close. Her 54-hole total of 217 equals a career-best, which previously came at the Mercedes-Benz Collegiate earlier this season.

Amanda Strang recovered from a tough 79 in Friday's second round to sign for a 73 (+1) Saturday, a six-shot improvement for the freshman. Standing 2-over after bogeys at 11 and 18, she finally got one stroke back with a birdie at the par-4 fifth. A bogey at No. 6 dropped her back to 2-over, then she made back-to-back birdies at the par-5 seventh and the lengthy par-3 eighth. However, a missed four-footer at nine kept her from level par as she finished 1-over for the day, 6-over for the week.

Taylor Barrett, the third senior on the Gamecock roster, was consistent throughout the week as she carded rounds of 76 (+4) all three days. A bogey-birdie start preceded six straight pars to keep her even as she came to the 18th. As with two of her teammates, she found rough going on the course's closing hole and made bogey to make the turn at 1-over. The wind got the best of her on the opening holes of the front nine as she made bogey on Nos. 1, 2 and 5, but recovered to post four straight pars to close a solid tournament.

All-Americans Eila Galitsky, Hannah Darling and Louise Rydqvist with their 2025 ANWA invitations. The trio of players were all ranked inside the top-20 of the World Amateur Golf Rankings.

Augusta National WOMEN'S AMATEUR

Beginning in 2019, the event was established to inspire greater interest in the women's game by creating a new pathway for players to fulfill their dreams.

Gamecock Participants:

Ainhua Olarra - 2019 (T-12th)
Kalen Anderson - 2019 (Caddy)
Pauline Roussin-Bouchard - 2021 (T-3rd)
Ana Pelaez - 2021 (T-12th)

Louise Rydqvist - 2024 (T-24th); 2025 (T-27th)
Eila Galitsky - 2025 (T-4th)
Eila Galitsky - 2026 (missed cut)

Following Ainhua Olarra's strong performance in the first edition of the tournament in 2019, four more Gamecocks got the chance to play in the Augusta National Women's Amateur in the second edition of the tournament in 2021.

Pauline Roussin-Bouchard tied for third place, using a blistering final round to miss out on the playoff by one stroke. In her final round, Roussin-Bouchard sank an ANWA record seven birdies, carding a 2-under (70) in round three. Ana Pelaez notched a 12th place finish in the event, using her 1-under (71) to move just shy of a top-10 finish. Pelaez matched the finish of her former teammate, Olarra, who tied for 12th in the first edition of the ANWA in 2019.

Hannah Darling, who played in ANWA all four years of her career at South Carolina, finished solo seventh in 2024. She was the 18-hole leader after firing a 6-under 66 at Champions Retreat.

True freshman Eila Galitsky, who was making her third appearance in the event in 2025 and first as a Gamecock, set the golf world on fire with her final round 66 (-6) that tied the tournament record at Augusta National Golf Club. She turned in a front nine 31 (-5) that featured a stretch on holes six thru eight that went birdie-birdie-eagle. Her front nine 31 was the first ever 5-under, 9-hole score at Augusta National in the six-year history of the event.

Eila Galitsky awaits her opening tee shot at the par-4 first hole at Augusta National Golf Club during the final round of the tournament on April 5, 2025. She made five birdies and an eagle en route to tying the tournament final round scoring record previously set in 2024.

1994 - Second Team (NGCA)

1995 - First Team (NGCA)

Siew Ai Lim completed her career in 1995 as the only Gamecock women's golfer to compete in the NCAA Championship four times. She has the best record of any South Carolina player at the national championship, posting three top-20 efforts - including a tie for sixth place in 1996 and a tie for ninth in 1995 - in her four appearances. She propelled the Gamecocks to the 1995 NCAA Championship by winning the NCAA East Regional - the first NCAA Regional title for Gamecock women's golf - and helped the team to its best-ever NCAA finish, a tie for ninth. Named the 1995 SEC Player of the Year, her regional title was one of two individual medalist honors claimed by the Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, native; the other being a win at the 1994 Carolyn Cudone Intercollegiate.

Kristy McPherson

2001, 2002, 2003 - First Team (NGCA)

The most decorated golfer in South Carolina history, Kristy McPherson remains one of only two players in Southeastern Conference history to win back-to-back SEC Women's Golf Championship titles, claiming medalist honors in 2001 and 2002. The second year, her 7-under-par 209 helped lead the Gamecocks to its first team SEC Championship, defeating Auburn by three strokes. She led the Gamecocks to the NCAA Championship each year from 2001 to 2003 and was the team's top finisher each time. McPherson is the all-time leader in individual victories at South Carolina, winning six tournaments in her four years. A four-time All-SEC selection and the 2003 SEC Player of the Year, McPherson left USC with the all-time lead in scoring average at 74.42; she currently ranks sixth all-time.

DINAH SHORE TROPHY

Adrienne Gautreaux
2004 Dinah Shore Trophy

Erica Battle
2006 Dinah Shore Trophy

The Dinah Shore Trophy Award, a part of the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund, is a cooperative effort between The LPGA Foundation, the Friends of Golf (FOG), and the Nabisco Dinah Shore, one of the LPGA's four major championships and largest contributor to the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund. The LPGA Foundation introduced the Dinah Shore Scholarship Fund in March 1994 in honor of the late Dinah Shore, and together with FOG and the Nabisco Dinah Shore, developed the Dinah Shore Trophy Award and its criteria. A fundraising organization administered by Eddie Merrins, head golf professional at Bel Air Golf Club in Beverly Hills, CA, FOG contributes annually to collegiate, high school and junior golf programs throughout the country, and Dinah Shore was considered the "First Lady" of FOG. A selection committee of The LPGA Foundation chooses the Dinah Shore Trophy Award recipient from nominations submitted by the National Golf Coaches Association. Nominees for the award must meet the following criteria:

- * An overall grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.2 on a 4.0 scale;
- * Played in at least 50% of her team's scheduled events;
- * Maintained a scoring average of 78 or less;
- * Demonstrated leadership skills and/or extraordinary community affairs work.

The perpetual Dinah Shore Trophy is a crystal trophy, created by Tiffany & Co. with an engraving of Dinah Shore. The trophy is housed at Mission Hills Country Club, site of the annual Nabisco Dinah Shore.
