#RV/RV South Carolina Gamecocks
(1-0, 0-0 SEC)

Saturday, Sept. 12, 2026 ♦ 7 p.m. (ET)
Williams-Brice Stadium (77,559) ♦ Columbia, S.C.

QUICKLY: The 133rd season of South Carolina football is officially underway as the Gamecocks opened the season with a resounding 57-0 shutout of Kent State last Saturday at Williams-Brice Stadium. The 57 points scored were the most in a season opener in program history. The 57-point margin of victory was also the most in a season opener in program history, surpassing a 53-0 win over Erskine on Sept. 19, 1938. Head coach Shane Beamer, who is in his sixth season as head coach, improved to 6-0 all-time in home openers at Carolina with the win over the Golden Flashes. His 33 wins in his first five seasons from 2021-2025 trail only Joe Morrison (37) and Steve Spurrier (35) for the most victories in program history through a head coach's first 63 games.

OVER THE AIRWAVES: Saturday night's game will be broadcast on SEC Network+ with Richard Cross and (ppx) former Louisville, Texas and South Florida head coach Charlie Strong (analyst) on the call. The Gamecock Sports Radio Network features a pair of Gamecock Hall of Fame quarterbacks in play-by-play voice Todd Ellis (35th season) and analyst Tommy Suggs (54th season). Chet Tucker (4th season) will be on the sidelines.

YOU GET A TOUCHDOWN! AND YOU GET A TOUCHDOWN! AND YOU GET A TOUCHDOWN! After punting on the opening drive, South Carolina scored eight-straight touchdowns in its win over the Golden Flashes last Saturday. Six different players scored touchdowns for the Gamecocks marking the 15th different time that's happened since 1995 and the fourth time under Beamer. Sophomore wide receiver Donovan Murph and sophomore transfer running back Jabree Coleman each recorded their first career games with multiple TDs. Murph had four catches for a team-high 92 yards (23.0 avg), hauling in TD receptions of 29 and 37 yards. Coleman had four carries for 77 yards (19.3 avg) with TD runs of 60 and five yards. Senior running back Isaiah Augustave, junior wide receiver Mazeo Bennett Jr., junior running back Matthew Fuller and sophomore tight end Mike Tyler each added TDs as well. Augustave and Tyler's scores were each the first of their careers. Senior quarterback LaNorris Sellers had three TD passes and sophomore quarterback Cutter Woods added the first career passing TD of his career as well when he connected with Tyler from seven yards out with 6:24 remaining in the third quarter. Sellers' three TDs moved him into the top-10 all-time at South Carolina with 36 career TD tosses.

WE'VE GOT OURSELVES AN OFFENSE: Under first-year offensive coordinator Kendal Briles, the Gamecock offense racked up 645 yards of total offense (367 passing, 278 rushing) against Kent State, the fifth-most total yards in program history and the most in the Beamer era dating back to 2021. Carolina also had 35 first downs, which tied a program record (previously happened vs. Tennessee on 11/19/22). It marked the 12th time under Beamer with 500 yards of total offense and the 12th time with over 200 rushing yards.

DONUTS FOR DINNER: The South Carolina defense pitched a shutout against the Golden Flashes for the second time in the Beamer/Clayton White era (previously happened vs. EIU on 9/4/21). The Gamecocks allowed just 179 yards of total offense, forced eight punts and held the Golden Flashes to 5-of-14 (35.7%) on third down.

WHEN WE LAST MET: South Carolina and Towson will meet on the gridiron for the first time on Saturday.

GAMECOCKS VS. THE CAA: The Gamecocks will be facing a team from the Coastal Athletic Association for the first time on Saturday. The CAA has 13 teams from Maine to North Carolina. Current Gamecock George Wilson played at CAA member Campbell in 2023 and 2024.

WELCOME BACK, STEVE! Towson Vice President of Athletics Steve Eigenbrot returns to Williams-Brice Stadium with the Tigers on Saturday. Eigenbrot, who started at Towson in 2022, spent nearly 12 years at South Carolina, serving as the Deputy Athletics Director and Executive Associate Athletics Director/CEO of the Gamecock Club.

YOU'RE NOT WORTHY: The Gamecocks are 50-17 in their last 67 non-conference games, a .746 winning clip. The Gamecocks went 3-1 in non-conference play in 2025 with wins over Virginia Tech, South Carolina State and Coastal Carolina before a loss to Clemson in the season finale. The Gamecocks opened the 2026 season with a win over Kent State this past Saturday.

TIGER TALES: Towson has already played a pair of games before visiting Columbia. The Tigers opened the season with a 21-18 loss at home to Maine on August 27. Maine scored the first 21 points of the contest, before Towson came back and had a chance to tie the game but missed a field goal with 3:53 left in the fourth. Towson then went on the road and fell, 42-15, to Navy on September 5. Andrew Indorf threw a pair of touchdown passes for Towson in defeat.

HOME COOKING: South Carolina has won 44 of its last 52 home games (.846) against non-conference foes. The Gamecocks had won a school-record 22-straight home games against non-conference teams before dropping the final two games of the 2015 regular season to The Citadel and Clemson. The Gamecocks were 3-0 in home non-conference games in 2024, defeating Old Dominion, Akron and Wofford and Carolina was 2-1 in 2025, defeating South Carolina State and Coastal Carolina before falling to Clemson. The Gamecocks got off on the right foot in non-conference home games this season with a 57-0 win over Kent State on Sept. 5.

THE POWER OF 4: Since the turn of the century, the Gamecocks have a 60-4 mark (.938) against teams not currently in a Power-4 conference. The only four losses in that stretch came to UConn in the 2010 PapaJohns.com bowl, to The Citadel in 2015, to South Florida in the 2016 Birmingham Bowl and to Appalachian State in 2019. It should be noted that UConn was in the Big East, which was a BCS automatic qualifier during the 2009 season.

PISTOL PETE: Towson is led by fourth-year head coach Pete Shinnick, who has an 18-19 record with the Tigers. Shinnick has 178 career wins in stops at Azusa Pacific, UNC Pembroke and West Florida. He had four double-digit win seasons at West Florida, going 11-4 in 2017, 13-2 in 2019 and 12-2 in his final year in 2022. Shinnick guided UWF to a 2019 Division II national championship, defeating Minnesota State, 48-40, in the title game.

STAT LEADERS: Quarterback Andrew Indorf is 28-for-39 for 475 yards and four touchdowns after

A South Carolina win over Towson would...

- ◆ Be the first ever over the Tigers in program history.
- ◆ Improve the Gamecocks to 49-16 in their last 65 non-conference games.
- ◆ Be the third-straight 2-0 start under head coach Shane Beamer and fourth 2-0 start in his six seasons as head coach dating back to 2021.

el capitán: For the first time in the Shane Beamer era at South Carolina, the team voted on its captains prior to the start of the season. In the past, individual captains have been selected on a game-by-game basis with a permanent vote at the end of the season. Fifth-year tight end Brady Hunt, junior linebacker Fred "JayR" Johnson, fifth-year defensive back Gerald Kilgore, fifth-year linebacker Shawn Murphy, senior quarterback LaNorris Sellers and fifth-year defensive back Peyton Williams were voted as captains for the 2026 season by their teammates. Sellers is now a three-time captain.

EXPERIENCE, EXPERIENCE, EXPERIENCE: Via Sam Khan Jr. and David Ubben of The Athletic, South Carolina has one of the most experienced teams in major college football this season ranking No. 10 amongst ACC, Big 12, Big Ten and SEC programs with career snaps played on its roster. The Gamecocks' 2026 squad features 43,292 career snaps, 507 career starts and 1,386 career games played. Ole Miss is the only other SEC school to rank ahead of Carolina on the career snaps chart, checking in at No. 9 on the 68-team list.

KEEPING THE GANG TOGETHER: Carolina returns 32 letterwinners total this season, 13 on the offensive side of the ball and 17 letterwinners from 2025 on defense. The Gamecocks retained a number of key players in the offseason in quarterback LaNorris Sellers, EDGE Dylan Stewart, wide receiver Nyck Harbor, linebacker Fred "JayR" Johnson, defensive back Vicari Swain, runningback Matthew Fuller, linebacker Justin Okoronkwo, defensive back Gerald Kilgore, linebacker Shawn Murphy, defensive back Judge Collier, defensive lineman Gabe Brownlow-Dindy, defensive back Peyton Williams, tight end Brady Hunt, wide receiver Donovan Murph and wide receiver Mazeo Bennett Jr. The 15 players listed have combined for 343 career games played and 165 career starts over the last three seasons at South Carolina.

TRANSFER HAUL: The Gamecocks' 2026 roster welcomes a 28-man transfer class which was recently completed with the signing of fifth-year defensive back Ethan Johnson (App State) and fifth-year kicker Ethan Sanchez (Houston). Offensive tackle Jacarius Peak headlines the portal class on the offensive side of the ball. The Valdosta, Ga. native was an All-ACC selection last season, playing in 38 career (32 starts) games in four seasons at NC State from 2022-25. A trio of players from UCF, wide receiver DJ Black, tight end Max Drag and offensive lineman Carter Miller are other key additions. Running back Christian Clark (Texas) and wide receiver Nitro Tuggle (Purdue) also headline some of the transfer class on the offense. Defensively, Kelby Collins (Alabama), Tomiwa Durojaiye (Illinois) and Jordan Thomas (Georgia) were added to bolster the interior of the defensive line. Collins' younger brother, Drew (Arkansas State), and Caleb Herring (Tennessee) were added to the EDGE room. Quay'sheed Scot (Kentucky) projects to be in the mix at the nickel in school history, also winning four road games in 1968, 1994 and 2006. They logged a trio of impressive SEC road wins, all by at least three touchdowns, posting a 31-6 victory at Kentucky, winning in a 35-9 rout at Oklahoma and knocking off 24th-ranked Vanderbilt 28-7, holding all three of those opponents to under 10 points. They also won at Clemson, holding the ACC champions to just 14 points. South Carolina recorded three conference road wins for the first time since 2011 when they won at Georgia, Mississippi State and Tennessee en route to an 11-2 mark overall and a 6-2 SEC record.

ROAD WARRIORS: The Gamecocks won four true road games in 2024 for just the fourth time

MAKING SOME HISTORY: The Gamecocks recorded five SEC wins in 2024 for the first time since 2017 and for just the ninth time since joining the league in 1992.

BEAMER BEATS THE BEST: In his first four seasons as a head coach from 2021-2024, Shane Beamer collected seven wins over ranked opponents, including three over top-10 teams, the most by any coach in South Carolina history in their first four campaigns. Here's how others fared in their first four seasons in Columbia:

Head Coach	Top-25	Top-10
Shane Beamer	7-13-0	3-4

THE FREAKS LIST: South Carolina had three players named to Bruce Feldman's annual Freaks List: wide receiver Nyck Harbor (No. 1), EDGE Dylan Stewart (No. 14) and quarterback LaNorris Sellers (No. 37). It's the third time (2022 & 2023 the others) Harbor has topped the list. He's the only player to be No. 1 three times since its start in 2005.

Feldman on Harbor:
"I've done this for almost a quarter century, and Harbor was the first back-to-back No. 1 Freak. It took a generational talent like Jeremiah Smith to bump him from the top spot, but Harbor is back at No. 1. To be this big and this blazing fast is truly rare. NFL scouts who came through Columbia this offseason measured him at 6-foot-6, 243 pounds with over 35-inch arms. His wingspan is 82 1/2 inches. He ran a 10.1 in the 100 and 20.20 in the 200 for the Gamecocks track team, where he's competing in the NCAAs against runners 60 and 70 pounds lighter than him."

Harbor, who just turned 21 in July, has continued to blossom as a receiver. He caught 30 passes last season for a team-leading 618 yards and six TDs. His 20.6 yards per reception ranked third in school history. He finished the season with back-to-back 100-yard receiving games — the first of his career — against Texas A&M and Clemson.

This offseason, Harbor, while weighing in at 235 pounds, topped out at 23.8 mph on the GPS and also measured in at just 5 percent body fat."

Feldman on Stewart:
A second-team All-SEC player in 2025, the 20-year-old is as talented as any D-lineman in college football. In 11 games last year, he had 12 TFLs, 4.5 sacks, eight QB hurries and three forced fumbles. In 2024, Stewart had 10.5 TFLs, 6.5 sacks and forced three fumbles as a freshman. The 6-6, 250-pounder, who has hit 22 mph on the GPS, was measured at just 8 percent body fat this summer.

Feldman on Sellers:

"At times, Sellers looks like Superman on the field. Clemson had a D-line full of NFL talent, and Sellers ran around and through each of them two years ago in a big road win for the Gamecocks against their archrival. He took home SEC Freshman of the Year honors in 2024 after he completed 66 percent of his passes for 2,534 yards with 18 TDs and seven INTs to go with 674 rushing yards and seven more TDs. Last year, with an offensive coordinator change, Sellers wasn't quite as sharp, but with Kendal Briles taking over, Sellers is expected to bounce back. The 6-3, 235-pound Sellers, who is down a few pounds, dropped his body fat from 7 percent to 6 percent this offseason. He also topped 22 mph on the GPS."

BROTHERLY LOVE: South Carolina is one of 13 teams in FBS with multiple sets of brothers on its squad: quarterback LaNorris Sellers and wide receiver Jayden Sellers, defensive lineman Kelby Collins and EDGE Drew Collins and linebacker Andrew Harris and defensive lineman Aiden Harris. The Harris brothers uncle is former NFL All-Pro linebacker Thomas Davis Sr.

STUDENT-ATHLETES: The Gamecocks' 2026 roster features 13 players who have already earned their undergraduate degrees: tight end Maurice Brown II, defensive back Judge Collier, wide receiver Jayden Gibson, offensive lineman Nolan Hay, tight end Brady Hunt, defensive back Gerarld Kilgore, defensive back Ethan Johnson, offensive lineman Carter Miller, linebacker Shawn Murphy, linebacker Jamian Risher Jr., offensive lineman Seth Smith, defensive back Peyton Williams and EDGE George Wilson Jr. In six years under head coach Shane Beamer, Carolina has had 111 total graduates. The team's graduation success rate is 96%, No. 2 in the SEC in that stretch. The team's top-five team GPAs all-time have come under Beamer. Sixteen current players are set to earn their undergraduate/graduate degrees in December from the University of South Carolina.

WORKING OVERTIME: The Gamecocks are 3-4 in games decided in overtime since the rule was added in 1996, the most recent being a double-overtime win at Georgia in 2019, a victory that earned them National Team of the Week honors.

OFFENSE

WELCOME HOME: The Carolina offense has a trio of new coaches this fall led by offensive coordinator Kendal Briles. Briles has 11 years of experience as a play caller at the FBS level, most recently spending the last three seasons at TCU (2023-25). He had top-35 offenses every season in Fort Worth, finishing No. 40 or higher in scoring offense each season there as well. Offensive line coach Randy Clements and running backs coach Stan Drayton were hired as well back on Dec. 11, 2025 shortly after the conclusion of the regular season. Clements and Drayton have a wealth of experience at their respective positions with Clements having 23 years of offensive line coaching under his belt and Drayton having 26 years of coaching the running back position on his resume in college and the NFL. Drayton was the running backs coach on teams that won the National Championship at Ohio State (2014) and Florida (2006), working under Urban Meyer.

THE QUARTERBACK: A three-time team captain, LaNorris Sellers returns for his third season as the Gamecocks' starting quarterback. He is one of 22 starting QBs in FBS with 24 or more career starts. Auburn's Byrum Brown (32), Ole Miss' Trinidad Chambliss (29) and Oklahoma's John Mateer (24) are the only other QBs on the list from the SEC entering Week 1 this season. Sellers' 64.1% career completion rate is No. 3 all-time in program history behind only Spencer Rattler (67.5%) and Connor Shaw (65.5%). His 36 career touchdown passes are 10th in school history. His 13 career rushing touchdowns are fifth-most by a QB in program history, trailing Jeff Grantz (26), Connor Shaw (17), Garry Harper (15) and Stephen Garcia (15).

THE PLAYMAKERS: Nyck Harbor is back for his senior season as he looks to lead a talented crop of wideouts. A preseason All-SEC selection, he had the best season of his career in 2025 with 30 catches for 618 yards (led team) and six touchdown receptions (led team). His 20.6 yard per reception average in 2025 was No. 3 highest in school history. Harbor is a big play threat and his 17.5 career yard per catch average is No. 4 in program history. Despite losing a pair of talented players in preseason camp due to season-ending lower body injuries in sophomore Jayden Sellers and transfer Jayden Gibson (Oklahoma), it's a deep receiving corps behind Harbor with junior Mazeo Bennett Jr. and sophomore Donovan Murph. Transfers DJ Black (UCF) and Nitro Tuggle (Purdue) expect to play key roles. There's more talent with a trio of redshirt freshmen in Malik Clark, Lex Cyrus and Jordon Gidron. True freshman Sequel Patterson has had a strong preseason camp as he has pushed for early playing time as well.

THE RBs: Junior Matthew Fuller and transfer Christian Clark (Texas) headline the running back room with seniors Isaiah Augustave and Jawarn Howell and transfer Jabree Coleman (Penn State) in the mix for playing time. Fuller has homerun potential and Clark is a solid all-around back who rushed for 105 yards and a TD in the Longhorns' 41-27 win over Michigan in the 2025 Citrus Bowl.

REVAMPED O-LINE: The Gamecock o-line has nine transfers headlined by offensive tackle Jacarius Peak, an All-ACC performer and a three-year starter at NC State.

DEFENSE

MOLDING THE CLAY: Sixth-year defensive coordinator Clayton White, who has established himself as one of the top defensive play callers in the SEC, brings back 17 letterwinners from a defense that allowed 22.1 points per game and forced 22 turnovers (25th nationally) last season. Junior EDGE Dylan Stewart highlights the crop of returners with 22.5 career tackles for loss and 11.0 sacks in 24 games played the last two seasons.

SEE BALL, GET BALL: The Gamecock defense has been opportunistic under White's direction. The Gamecocks have ranked in the top-25 nationally in turnovers forced in four of his five seasons leading the defense. Carolina has forced 111 turnovers over the past six seasons, which is No. 1 in the SEC (T-7th nationally) during the stretch. White's defenses in Columbia have helped account for 24 total non-offensive touchdowns (seven each in 2025 and 2022) over the last five seasons.

THE LINEBACKERS: The linebacker room is led by three veterans in Fred "JayR" Johnson, Shawn Murphy and Justin Okoronkwo, who tied for the team lead last year with 64 tackles. Johnson was third with 61 stops and Murphy was sixth with 49 tackles. Former walkon Jamian Risher Jr. has had an excellent camp and projects to see some playing time as well behind the veteran trio.

THE INTERIOR OF THE DL: One of the deepest position groups on the Carolina squad projects to be the defensive tackle room led by returner Gabriel Brownlow-Dindy. The Gamecocks add three transfers who will make an immediate impact in Kelby Collins (Alabama), Tomiwa Durojaiye (Illinois) and Jordan Thomas (Georgia). Letterwinner Troy Pikes is also back. True freshmen Noah Clark and Aiden Harris are two talented players the coaching staff is high on as well. Clark checks in at 6-5, 345 pounds.

THE SECONDARY: Three-year letterwinner Judge Collier and two-year letterwinner Vicari Swain anchor the Gamecock defense at the corner spots. The safety position features veterans Peyton Williams and David Bucey with a pair of underclassmen in sophomore Kendall Daniels Jr. and true freshman J'Zavien Currence expected to see significant roles as well. Both players check in at 6-4 with size and speed to boot. Currence was an outstanding QB in high school amassing 4,403 total yards and 44 TDs his senior season in leading South Pointe (Rock Hill, S.C.) to the 4A state title.

THE EDGE FELLAS: Stewart, a consensus preseason First Team All-American, headlines the group as one of the best defensive players in the country. Transfers Drew Collins (Arkansas State) and Caleb Herring (Tennessee) provide some experienced depth. Anthony Addison, Jaquavious Dodd and Kobby Sakti-Prah are in their second years with the program, all with a chance to make an impact this season for Carolina. Highly-touted true freshman Julian Walker enters the fold as well this season and has pushed for early playing time with a strong preseason camp. The Dutch Fork (Irmo, S.C.) product is 6-6, 255 pounds.

SPECIAL TEAMS

MAKING A POINT: Sophomore Max Kelley earned the start at kicker on Saturday against Kent State and was 3-for-3 on extra points. Sophomore Malik Orsan was 4-for-4 on extra points. It marked the first career points scored for each. Kelley had seven kickoffs for 454 yards (64.9 avg) and six touchbacks as well.

IT'S A BIRD! IT'S A PLANE! IT'S SUPERSWAIN: All-SEC punt returner Vicari Swain is back in the fold this season for South Carolina. He enters 2026 with three career punt returns for touchdowns (all last season), trailing school record holder Dick Harris (1969-71) by one. Swain and Iowa's Kaden Wetjen were the only players in FBS in 2025 with three punt return TDs. Swain's 302 punt retrun yards last season were the most by a Gamecock since Ace Sander's school record 429 yards in 2012. His 15.9 yard per punt return average was No. 3 in the SEC No. 7 in the country last season.

The Beamer File

Born: March 31, 1977
Hometown: Blacksburg, Va.
Wife: Emily
Children: Sutton, Olivia and Hunter

Shane Beamer is in his sixth season in Columbia leading the South Carolina Football program in 2026.

Beamer, who owns 33 wins in five seasons at the helm, ranks in a tie with Lou Holtz for seventh among all South Carolina head football coaches. With a 33-30 record, he has coached the eighth-most games in school history. He has posted three wins over top-10 teams and seven wins over top-25 teams in his first five seasons at Carolina, tops among all Gamecock head football coaches over their first five seasons. During his tenure he has posted victories over three coaches who have won national championships – Jimbo Fisher, Dabo Swinney and Mack Brown, and has led the Gamecocks to three bowl appearances.

Beamer's 2025 squad was competitive in every game but fourth quarter struggles produced a 4-8 mark. The Gamecocks played nine teams that were bowl-eligible, six games against teams that were ranked when they played, and five that finished in the top-15 in the final CFP rankings. Carolina either led or was within a touchdown entering the fourth quarter in 10 of the 12 games, including losses to No. 23 Missouri, No. 4 Alabama and No. 3 Texas A&M when they took a lead into the final stanza. Individually, the Gamecocks placed two players on the Coaches' second-team All-SEC unit, two on the third-team and two on the SEC All-Freshman squad.

Beamer's 2024 squad was his most successful to date. The Gamecocks finished the season with a 9-4 record including a 5-3 mark in the SEC, posting nine wins in a season for just the eighth time in school history. The Gamecocks recorded a school-record four wins against ranked opponents, including three in consecutive weeks as part of a regular season-ending six-game winning streak. Carolina finished the season ranked 19th in both the final Associated Press and Coaches polls, its highest ranking since 2013 and its second top-25 ranking in the past three seasons.

Beamer was the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week for the third time in his career following the Gamecocks' upset win over Texas A&M and earned SEC Coach of the Year accolades from the AP, USA TODAY, Bear Bryant and College Football Nation. He was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, the Bobby Dodd, and the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year honors and was a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year.

Individually, edge rusher Kyle Kennard was the school's first Bronko Nagurski Award winner as the nation's top defensive player and was the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year. Kennard, along with safety Nick Emmanwori, earned first-team All-America honors, while punter Kai Kroeger was a second-team selection. Quarterback LaNorris Sellers was selected as the SEC's Freshman of the Year. Sellers, offensive tackle Josiah Thompson and Edge rusher Dylan Stewart earned Freshman All-America honors, giving the Gamecocks six All-Americans as selected by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), the most of any FBS school in 2024. In addition, Kennard and Raheim Sanders were named first-team Academic All-America.

Named the Gamecocks' 36th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2020, Beamer had a successful first season in Columbia, improving the Gamecocks by 3.5 games, from a 2-8 mark in 2020 to a 7-6 campaign in 2021, including a convincing win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. He tied the school record for wins by a first-year head coach, doubled the preseason's expected win total and surpassed the win total of the two previous seasons combined, earning him a share of the Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach of the Year Award, presented by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). Safety Jaylan Foster earned All-America honors and three players were selected in the NFL Draft following his inaugural season.

In 2022, the team again exceeded expectations by recording eight wins, including three wins over ranked opponents. The Gamecocks won eight games for just the 15th time in 129 seasons and for the first time since 2017. The Gamecocks were ranked 23rd in the country in the final AP and USA Today Coaches' polls. It marked the first time since 2013 that the Gamecocks finished the season ranked in the top-25 and the 10th time Carolina has finished the season ranked in the final AP poll. The Gamecocks defeated No. 5 Tennessee and No. 7 Clemson in the final two games of the regular season, the first time Carolina has posted back-to-back wins over top-10 teams and just the seventh time in history that a school has defeated AP Top-10 opponents in consecutive weeks as an unranked team, the first since 2003. Coach Beamer was a two-time Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week recipient after wins over Kentucky and Tennessee. Punter Kai Kroeger earned All-America honors, leading a special teams unit ranked No. 1 in the country. Five players were selected in the NFL Draft off that squad, the most since 2013.

Challenged by one of the toughest schedules in the FBS and in a season mired by numerous injuries, decimating the offensive line most notably, the 2023 Gamecocks finished the campaign with a 5-7 mark. The squad was led by quarterback Spencer Rattler and wide receiver Xavier Legette. Rattler set the school's single-season record for completions (275) and completion percentage (68.9), while his 3,186 passing yards was the third-highest total in school history. Legette, a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, led the team with 71 receptions for 1,255 yards and seven receiving touchdowns. His 1,255 receiving yards was the second-highest single-season mark in school history.

Prior to his first head coaching stint, Beamer had been an assistant coach at seven FBS schools for 21 seasons. During his career as an assistant, he coached in 17 bowl games, including a College Football Playoff National Championship Game, posted 18 non-losing seasons, six of those with double-digit victories, and his teams won 63 percent of its games. He coached all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams.

Beamer is not new to Carolina. The Charleston, S.C. native served as an assistant coach with the Gamecocks for four seasons from 2007-10 under Steve Spurrier. In 2007, he served as the outside linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator. He mentored the cornerbacks in 2008, then coached the Spurs and strong safeties and was the special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2009 and 2010, setting the foundation for the most successful run in school history.

In 2009 at South Carolina, Beamer was nominated for the Frank Broyles Award. His special teams' units recorded five blocked kicks, tying for the SEC lead and for eighth in the nation. He also helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 15th in the country in total defense, and eighth in the nation in passing defense.

As the Gamecocks' recruiting coordinator, his 2009 class was ranked 12th-best in the country, and the 2010 and 2011 classes were ranked in the Top 25.

During his tenure as recruiting coordinator, nine Gamecocks were selected in the NFL Draft, including first round selection Stephen Gilmore (Buffalo) and second round picks Alshon Jeffery (Chicago) and D.J. Swearinger (Houston).

The Gamecocks all-time winningest quarterback, Connor Shaw, and rushing touchdown leader, Marcus Lattimore, were also in the 2010 class.

Beamer has helped build several programs during his career. He was on three coaching staffs where the head coach was in his first or second season at the school. He joined Sylvester Croom's staff at Mississippi State in his first season, Kirby Smart's program at Georgia in his first season, and Lincoln Riley's unit at Oklahoma in his second season.

Beamer served as the assistant head coach for offense and mentored the tight ends and H-backs at Oklahoma from 2018-20. In 2020, Oklahoma ranked sixth in the country in scoring, 11th in total offense and 14th in passing offense. In 2019, the Sooners led the nation in yards per play, ranked third in total offense and fourth in passing efficiency rating. Oklahoma led the nation in total offense, scoring offense and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), and ranked second in passing efficiency rating in 2018.

Beamer spent two seasons (2016-17) at Georgia as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator under Kirby Smart, helping the Bulldogs to a 21-7 combined record. In 2017, UGA won the SEC Championship before falling in the CFP title game to Alabama in overtime. His special teams ranked eighth nationally in net punting and 20th in kickoff returns while blocking four kicks.

The son of Hall of Fame coach Frank Beamer, he worked with his father as the associate head coach and running backs coach at Virginia Tech from 2011-15. In his first year, he coached David Wilson, who broke the Tech single-season rushing record, was named All-America and ACC Player of the Year, and went on to become a first-round NFL draft selection. Shane served as the Hokies' acting head coach in the 2014 Military Bowl win while his father watched from the press box following throat surgery.

Beamer's first full-time coaching position came at Mississippi State in 2004 as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first two seasons at State, he guided three defensive backs to SEC All-Freshman Team accolades. He maintained the recruiting coordinator title but made the move to running backs coach in the spring of 2006 where he tutored running back Anthony Dixon to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Beamer spent three seasons (2001-03) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, helping with the cornerbacks and assisting in all special teams areas. He also oversaw game opponent scouting while earning a master's degree in sport management in Dec. 2003.

Before joining the staff at UT, he worked one season (2000) as a G.A. at Georgia Tech, helping with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A December 1999 graduate of Virginia Tech, Beamer was a member of five bowl teams (1995-99 seasons) and three Big East Conference championship squads on the Hokie football team as a long snapper and wide receiver. He was a long snapper on the 1999 Virginia Tech team that played for the BCS National Championship.

Beamer and his wife, Emily, who was named the 2025 South Carolina Football Hall of Fame Humanitarian of the Year, are the parents of three children – two daughters, Sutton and Olivia, both born in Columbia, and a son, Hunter, born in Blacksburg, Va.
