TOWSON CHALLENGES SEC OPPONENT SOUTH CAROLINA

Towson will play its second straight FBS opponent on Saturday, Sept. 12, taking on South Carolina at 7 p.m.

Towson, currently 0-1 in Coastal Athletic Association play, fell to Navy on the road 42-15 on Sept. 5 to go to 0-2 overall. Southeastern Conference member South Carolina won its non-conference home opener 57-0 vs. Kent State on Sept. 5.

This is the first-ever meeting between these programs. Towson is 0-2 all-time against SEC opponents, falling 38-22 at LSU in 2012 and 38-0 at Florida in 2019.

It is Towson's second straight game in a state capital, having played Navy in Annapolis on Sept. 5. This is also Towson's first game in the state of South Carolina since Aug. 31, 2019, a 28-21 victory over The Citadel in Charleston.

Towson director of athletics Steve Eigenbrot served as a deputy AD at South Carolina before taking the helm of the Towson athletics department.

FOURTH YEAR IN PETE SHINNICK ERA

Towson enters its fourth season under head coach Pete Shinnick in 2025. Under coach Shinnick, Towson has earned three victories over then-top-15 teams and has finished at least .500 in CAA play in each of his first three years.

Towson has had five head coaches in program history: Carl Runk (1969-71), Phil Albert (1972-91), Gordy Combs (1992-2008), Rob Ambrose (2009-22) and Pete Shinnick (2023-pres.).

THREE TIGERS RECOGNIZED IN CAA PRESEASON AWARDS

Three players were recognized in the CAA Preseason Honors, led by KJ Brooks being CAA Preseason All-Conference while each Andrew Indorf and Daniel Anderla being CAA Preseason All-Conference Honorable Mention. All three are honored with preseason league awards for the first time.

Brooks, a former FCS Freshman All-American in 2023, has been Towson's primary player at right tackle for the past three seasons. In 2025, the senior from Olney, Maryland started all 12 games for the Tigers, having starts at right tackle, left guard and left tackle.

Indorf, the 2025 CAA Co-Rookie of the Year, was Towson's starting quarterback in all 12 games last year, throwing 59.6% for 2,344 yards, 16 touchdowns and just four interceptions, helping Towson have the fewest interceptions among CAA teams.

Anderla worked as Towson's long snapper in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman in 2025. Towson's kicker and punter each were all-conference honorees last season, including Caden Williams setting a Towson football single season record for best field goal percentage at 88.2%.

THE 2025 STARTING QUARTERBACK RETURNS

Andrew Indorf, the 2025 CAA Co-Offensive Rookie of the Year and Jerry Rice Award finalist, has returned to Towson as the presumptive starting quarterback for 2026. Indorf was the first Towson player to be a CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year since Shane Simpson in 2016 and the first to be a Jerry Rice Award finalist since Mason Woods in 2022.

AIR RAID OFFENSE

Towson's passing game has produced some big passing plays in the early going of the season. So far, Andrew Indorf has four completions of at least 47 yards and three passing touchdowns of at least 30 yards.

NEARLY ALL NEW SPECIAL TEAMS

Towson has a very different special teams group from the 2025 season, needing to replace its primary kicker, punter and returners. The lone returner to the group is long snapper Daniel Anderla, who was named Pre-season All-CAA.

Two players have taken over kicking duties: redshirt freshman Zaydaan Faridi is 2-for-3 on field goals, including a long of 40 yards so far, while redshirt sophomore and Mercyhurst transfer Max Young is now taking kick-offs.

Towson, Maryland native and Loyola Blakefield graduate redshirt freshman Owen Scheihing is Towson's new punter. He is currently second in the CAA with 44.6 yards per punt, having two punts over 55 yards.

A couple of transfers have taken over return duties on special teams. Hampden-Sydney transfer Mason Cunningham, the 2025 ODAC Offensive Player of the Year, returns punts while Monroe C.C. transfer Jashaun Amin, who is third all-time in receiving yards at Monroe, is the primary kickoff returner.

FRESHMEN FORTHCOMING

Towson brought in 26 true freshmen for this season after bringing in 27 true freshman last year. The 2025 freshmen class ties the largest freshmen class at Towson since 2014. Including 23 true freshmen brought in for 2024, Shinnick has had three of the largest four freshmen classes at Towson since 2014, with 26 freshmen brought in for 2017. Of the 26 freshmen for 2026, 14 come from the home state of Maryland.

CHESTNUT NAMED CAA ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Seth Chestnut was selected as the CAA Rookie of the Week after leading the Tigers in tackles with seven and tackles for loss with 1.5 in the Week 0 contest vs. Maine. Four of his seven tackles came in the fourth quarter.

Towson University Head Coach Pete Shinnick

4th Season as Head Coach

2017, 2019 DII National Coach of the Year

Baltimore native Pete Shinnick, who guided the University of West Florida (UWF) to a Division II national championship in 2019 and playoff appearances in four of the last five seasons played, was named Towson University's head football coach on December 11, 2022.

The son of former Baltimore Colts linebacker Don Shinnick, Pete Shinnick is 177-84 (.678 winning percentage) all-time as a college head coach, spanning 22 seasons with stops at West Florida, UNC Pembroke and Azusa Pacific. He has earned Division II National Coach of the Year twice and is Towson's fifth head coach in its history.

2025 saw the Tigers earn a .500 or better CAA season for the sixth time in seven fall seasons as Towson went 6-6 overall and 4-4 in CAA play, including five road victories on the season. True freshman quarterback Andrew Indorf was CAA Co-Offensive Rookie of the Year, Towson's first since 2016, and a finalist for the Jerry Rice Award. Towson also had highlights with Xavier Terry becoming Towson's first All-CAA First Team safety since 2013 and Caden Williams having an 88.2% field goal %, the top field goal percentage in a single season in Towson history.

In 2024, Shinnick led Towson to its first seven-win season since 2019 and winning CAA season, at 5-3, since 2018. Towson finished 7-5 overall, finishing the season on a three-game winning streak plus earned a win over then to-10 William & Mary. Carter Runyon became Towson's first multiple-year All-American since 2018, being named an All-American tight end by the Associated Press, STATS Perform, FCS Football Central and FCS ADA and would later be a free agent signee by the Las Vegas Raiders. Runyon was one of six Tigers honored on the All-CAA Postseason Teams.

Shinnick came to West Florida in 2014 as the school's first football head coach. Two years later, the Argonauts won five games in their inaugural season. In 2017, the Argos went 11-4 and advanced to the national championship game in just their second season of competition. Shinnick earned the first of two National Coach of the Year awards.

Two years later, UWF went 13-2 and defeated three number one seeds and four consecutive undefeated teams to win the national title. Shinnick was named the National Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons while quarterback Austin Reed earned National Freshman of the Year honors after throwing for 4,089 yards and 40 touchdowns. After not playing in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, West Florida earned playoff berths the last two seasons. The Argos went 12-2 in 2022, losing in the national semifinals. His overall record at UWF was 56-21.

Shinnick was hired at UNC Pembroke in 2006 to bring football back to the university after an absence of more than 50 years. He built the Braves into a nationally ranked Division II team and finished with a 50-24 record over seven seasons (2007-13). The 2013 squad was ranked as high as No. 8 in the American Football Coaches Association national poll.

Shinnick's first head coaching position was at Azusa Pacific (1999-2005). In seven years, his teams were 53-22 and advanced to two national NAIA semifinals. Azusa Pacific set a total of 77 school records as the Cougars appeared in the NAIA top 25 rankings 48 consecutive times and 75 out of 86 weeks during his tenure.

Shinnick began his coaching career at Richmond in 1988 and had stops at Arkansas (1989), Clemson (1990-91), Oregon State (1992-93), Northern Michigan (1994), St. Cloud State (1995-97) and Humboldt State (1998). He graduated with a bachelor's degree in business from the University of Colorado in 1988. Shinnick appeared in 21 games for Buffaloes as an offensive lineman, including the 1985 Freedom Bowl and the 1986 Bluebonnet Bowl. He earned his master's degree in guidance and counseling from Clemson in 1992.

Pete Shinnick was born in 1965, at Baltimore's MedStar Union Memorial Hospital. His father, Don Shinnick, played 13 seasons at linebacker for the Baltimore Colts (1957-69). The elder Shinnick helped the Colts to the 1958 and 1959 NFL championships and played in Super Bowl III.
