Perennial Power

Under Dawn Staley, South Carolina women's basketball had been a perennial national power since winning its first SEC title in 2013-14. A few highlights from that stretch.

- 6 straight NCAA Final Four appearances (2021-2026) is the longest active streak and the second-longest streak in tournament history.
- 3 National Championships are third most by a single program in tournament history.
- 10th undefeated National Championship season in NCAA history (2023-24)
- 89 AP No. 1 rankings are third-most by a program in the poll's history.
- 140 straight AP Top-10 rankings is the longest active streak – more than three times the next program
- 15 Gamecocks have earned All-America status at least once in their careers

The FGCU Series

The Gamecocks are 2-0 all-time against FGCU with both games coming in the Dawn Staley era. This is the first game between the two in Columbia.

The series began on Nov. 23, 2012, at the Paradise Jam in St. Thomas, USVI, with a 65-46 South Carolina victory. It was renewed last season when the third-ranked Gamecocks traveled to Fort Myers and posted a 105-43 victory on Dec. 20, 2025. The effort was a defensive masterpiece as the Eagles shot just 26.9 percent, including 1-of-11 (.091) in the third quarter. The Gamecocks posted a school-record 74 points in the paint.

Home Sweet Home

The Gamecocks are 564-168 (.770) in home games (some records prior to 1976-77 did not include location of games). Current head coach Dawn Staley is 252-35 at home for a program-best .878 winning percentage.

Playing in its 25th season at Colonial Life Arena, South Carolina boasts a 315-68 (.822) record in the building, including four undefeated seasons since 2013-14. Staley's share of that record is 249-35 (.877).

Ranking Review

South Carolina continues to be ranked No. 1 in both the AP and USA Today/WBCA Polls.

Overall, South Carolina has earned the No. 1 spot in the AP Poll 89 times – the third-most of any program in that poll's history (2nd is Tennessee, 112).

The Gamecocks have the longest active streak of weeks in the AP Top 10 at 140, beginning with the 2019-20 preseason poll. Their 271 straight appearances in the AP Poll, dating back to Dec. 10, 2012, marks the second-longest active streak in the nation and the sixth longest all-time (tie-4th place, Stanford and Duke, 312).

In the USA Today/WBCA Coaches' Poll, South Carolina has been in the top 10 since claiming the No. 10 spot in the 2019-20 preseason poll.

Ranked Readings

Against ranked teams, South Carolina is 150-75 (.667) in the Dawn Staley era (beginning 2008-09), and even that mark is skewed by the early seasons of her tenure.

Since the start of the 2014-15 campaign, the Gamecocks are 135-36 (.789) against ranked teams, including a 65-9 (.878) mark since the start of the 2021-22 season. The Gamecocks are 133-25 (.842) under Staley when ranked higher/better than their opponent.

This season, South Carolina is 3-0 against ranked opponents. The Gamecocks' 84-39 win over #12/11 North Carolina (Nov. 8) was the largest margin of victory over a ranked team in program history and the fourth 40-point win over a ranked opponent in the last three seasons.

Schedule Sketch

Dawn Staley has built the program's success by challenging her teams throughout the year to prepare for the NCAA Tournament.

In 2026-27, South Carolina's full 32-game schedule includes 15 games against teams ranked at the time of the game or in the most recent polls, including six against top-10 foes – vs. #3/3 Southern Cal (W, 89-85), vs. #7/4 UConn (11/24), at #5/5 Duke (12/3), at #6/6 Texas (1/3), at #11/8 Vanderbilt and #9/9 LSU (2/21).

Eight of the 15 games are against non-conference teams. Eleven of the 15 games are on the road (5) or at neutral sites (6).

Staley's Standard

Now in her 27th season as a head coach, Dawn Staley has a .780 (687-194) winning percentage, which ranks fifth in the nation among active head coaches with at least 15 years of experience and ninth all-time. With three national championships, she ranks fourth among head coaches all-time in NCAA titles.

Staley is one of just two women's basketball coaches to lead their teams to multiple 40-game win streaks in NCAA history with the Gamecocks' program-record 43-game streak (2023-24) ranking seventh longest in NCAA history. She is one of just 11 men's or women's basketball coaches all-time to win at least three NCAA National Championships and the first Black head coach to win multiple titles. She is one of seven coaches to lead a team to at least four NCAA National Championship games.

In her 19th season with the Gamecocks, Staley is the program's all-time winningest coach (515) with a program-record 15 postseason appearances. She accounts for all eight of the Gamecocks' Final Four appearances and the only NCAA National Championships in program history. Her leadership on the court and in the community resulted in the City of Columbia commissioning a statue of Staley, which stands a short distance from the Gamecocks' home Colonial Life Arena.

Staley's 10 SEC regular-season championships trail only Pat Summitt's 16 in league history, and she has joined Summitt as the only coaches to win five consecutive SEC regular-season titles (2022-26). Staley's seven SEC Coach of the Year awards trail Summitt's league record by just one. Staley's 229 SEC regular-season wins are the most among active league coaches and third all-time – behind just Summitt (Tennessee, 306) and Andy Landers (Georgia, 273). She was the second-fastest to the 200-win mark in league history with her 255 games trailing Summitt's mark of 229. Staley's .800 SEC winning percentage (229-57) is second only to Summitt (.874) among coaches in the league more than five seasons. Staley owns the SEC record for consecutive regular-season conference victories with a 57-game streak that began in the 2021-22 season and ended in 2024-25.

Power in the Paint

Playing arguably the toughest early season schedule in the nation, the Gamecocks are still controlling the paint, outscoring opponents by an average of 18.0 points in that space (41.5-23.5). Their 41.5 paint points per game accounts for 49.0 percent of their total offense.

South Carolina has allowed opponents to shoot just 39.2 percent in the paint while pouring in 55.7 percent of its own inside attempts. Post players have been responsible for 57.8 percent of the paint points (24.0 ppg).

Thrice as Nice

South Carolina is ranked 11th in the nation in 3-point field goal percentage, hitting 41.5 percent from the arc this season, which includes 45.2 percent accuracy against ranked opponents.

Three Gamecocks are shooting at least 50.0 percent from the arc, led by Agot Makeer at 63.6 percent (7-of-11). Freshman Jerzy Robinson is just behind at 62.5 percent (5-of-8) and Tessa Johnson rounds out the group at 50.0 percent with her team-high nine 3s coming on 18 attempts.

Turnover Tally

The Gamecocks are winning the turnover battle where it counts most – points scored off them. South Carolina's +2.5 turnover margin has become at +10.0 points per game advantage in points off turnovers.

On the season, the Gamecocks have scored 1.04 points per opponent turnover, and that number rises to 1.11 against ranked opponents. Meanwhile, the defense has held opponents to 0.87 points per Gamecock turnover for the season.

Committee Work

While there has been a lot of outside talk about South Carolina's lack of a traditional point guard, one of the best point guards of all-time in Dawn Staley has not been concerned. The "point guard by committee" philosophy has yielded an efficient offense that includes three Gamecocks atop the assist leaderboard, including a pair of post players.

South Carolina's top scorers are also its most frequent distributors this season. Forwards Joyce Edwards and Chloe Kitts along with guard Agot Makeer lead the team with 3.0 assists per game, while also averaging double-figure points. Top scorer Tessa Johnson is handing out 2.5 assists per game as well.

ESPN released its first ranking of the top 50 players in college women's basketball, and the Gamecocks led the way with five entries – all coming in the top 31. Freshmen were not eligible for this first list but can play their way onto the list later this season.

Joyce Edwards came in at No. 6 after back-to-back All-America seasons. Tessa Johnson ranked No. 15 behind her steady improvement throughout her career. Chloe Kitts' return from injury has her 27th on the list. Transfer Jordan Lee came in at No. 30, and Agot Makeer rounded out the group at No. 31.

New to the Nest

South Carolina welcomes seven newcomers for the 2026-27 season, including five freshmen who made up the No. 2 signing class in then nation.

Junior guard Jordan Lee leads the transfer duo as the No. 6 impact transfer in the nation, according to ESPN. Last season at Texas, she started 38 games with career-high marks of 13.2 points per game on 42.2 percent shooting to go with her defensive bona fides.

Fifth-year guard Brooke Daniels joined the Gamecocks in early September, bringing Big Ten All-Defensive Team honors to the backcourt.

A pair of top-10 signees highlight Staley's elite Class of 2026 with No. 3 Oliviyah Edwards and No. 6 Jerzy Robinson, who was a Naismith Player of the Year finalist. No. 19 Kaeli Wynn and No. 30 Kelsi Andrews further bolstered the class, despite injuries curtailing their senior seasons and higher class rankings. French freshman Justine Loubens finalized the incoming class after spending a season averaging 6.5 points on 47.2 percent shooting in France's first division for women's basketball.

Everybody's All-American

The Gamecocks' 15-woman roster includes eight McDonald's All-Americans – Joyce Edwards, Oliviyah Edwards, Tessa Johnson, Jordan Lee, Agot Makeer, Ayla McDowell, Jerzy Robinson and Ashlyn Watkins .

At South Carolina, Staley has coached 32 McDonald's All-Americans, including 24 who signed as freshmen.

They Got Next

South Carolina locked in another elite class in the early signing period, adding four top-30 signees, including two top-10 entries. All four are on the Naismith Girls' High School Player of the Year Watch List.

No. 4 GG Banks (5-foot-10 guard) is a dynamic scorer

DAWN STALEY LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

In Fall 2026, the University of South Carolina's College of Hospitality, Retail and Sports Management (HRSM) launched the Dawn Staley Leadership Academy, inspired by Staley's legacy of excellence, resilience and service.

The idea was borne from a leadership course based on her New York Times bestselling autobiography Uncommon Favor: Basketball, North Philly, My Mother, and the Life Lessons I Learned from All Three that started in Fall 2025 and was immediately wildly popular among students.

The Academy will select approximately 30 students per year to take part in the six-hour curriculum that will equip them with the vision, network and experiences to influence their industries, strengthen their communities and lead beyond graduation.

The curriculum includes four courses taught by full-time faculty and also include frequent appearances by Coach Staley. Those who complete the work, which includes creating and with the help of grant money executing a project that gives back to their communities.

with a point guard's mentality and a competitor's focus on winning. She was a 2026 second-team All-American.

No. 7 Jordyn Palmer (6-foot-1 wing) has the skill and basketball IQ to play any position on the floor and has two international gold medals, including MVP honors in the 2026 FIBA U18 AmeriCup.

No. 18 Zaniya Johnson (6-foot-4 center) is a true post player who attacks the glass and can run the floor, and she has already earned two South Mississippi Player of the Year honors.

No. 30 Taylor Brown (5-foot-6 guard) is a playmaker on both sides of the ball who embraces defense and has championship experience with a state title as a freshman.

WNBA Pipeline

Dawn Staley's status as a dream merchant is most evident by the steady stream of Gamecocks being drafted into and enjoying lengthy careers in the WNBA. Since her first Gamecock was drafted in 2015, she has seen 21 have their name called on draft night – the second-most by a program in that time.

Staley's numbers have skyrocketed since 2020 with an NCAA-best 15 draft picks since then, including a best-in-the-nation eight first-round selections in that time.

In proof Staley sends players to the league ready, six Gamecocks have earned All-Rookie Team honors, including three WNBA Rookies of the Year – Allisha Gray (2017), A'ja Wilson (2018), Aliyah Boston (2023).

Great Gamecock Fans

Including a 15,368 mark last season, South Carolina fans have led the nation in average attendance for the last 12 seasons, although the NCAA does not officially recognize the COVID-limited attendance in 2020-21. The official mark of 11 consecutive seasons atop the stat matches Tennessee's NCAA-best run from 2004 to 2014.

Selling out of season tickets for the third-straight season, South Carolina is on track to own sole possession of the record.

The Gamecocks have had at least one sellout of the 18,000-seat Colonial Life Arena for 10 straight seasons (excluding COVID-limited 2020-21) dating back to the first ever sellout of 18,000 on Feb. 8, 2016.

South Carolina's 2024-25 attendance average of 16,437 was the second-highest in the history of the NCAA, narrowly trailing Tennessee's 1998-99 average of 16,565. That mark included a program-record seven sellouts.

SEASON THEME: PRO.

South Carolina women's basketball annually builds its season around a theme, and this year's is PRO. Overall, it is defined as a women's basketball Gamecock shaped by preparation, discipline, accountability, leadership and an uncompromising standard of excellence; one who prepares like a professional, competes like a professional and carries herself like a professional before the title is ever given.

Beyond that, the theme lends itself to many themes central to the Gamecocks' culture under Staley – the PROgram is the difference, trust the PROcess, PROgress never stops, PROdUction at South Carolina. Fans will see these and many other messages centered on similar word play as the team's story unfolds throughout the season.

27th Season in Career

Since thrusting South Carolina into the national spotlight when she was hired in May 2008, Dawn Staley has made the Gamecocks a mainstay in the battle for SEC and national championships. The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame inductee as a player is angling for another induction as a coach with her standing as one of five head coaches with at least three women's basketball National Championships and the only Black basketball head coach with multiple national titles, one of five head coaches to lead an undefeated team to a National Championship, and the first Black head coach of the USA Basketball Senior National Team.

In her 19th season at the helm of the Gamecocks, highlights include:

- Three National Championships (2017, 2022, 2024)
- Eight NCAA Final Fours in the last 11 tournaments, including six consecutive which is the second-longest streak in tournament history
- Ranking in the AP Top 25 every week since Dec. 10, 2012, the second-longest active streak in the nation and sixth-longest all-time (269)
- 38 straight weeks at No. 1 in the AP Poll, just the third program to go wire-to-wire in back-to-back seasons

- Nine 30-win seasons, including a program-record 38 wins in 2023-24
- 10 SEC regular-season championships, including a current streak of five
- Nine SEC Tournament titles
- SEC-record 57 consecutive league regular-season victories, which ranks sixth in NCAA history for conference win streaks
- Five top-two recruiting classes (#2 in 2025, #2 in 2024, #1 in 2021, #1 in 2019, #2 in 2014)
- 11 consecutive NCAA Attendance titles
- 21 WNBA Draft selections, including 13 first-round and two overall No. 1 picks

Staley is recognized for her work beyond basketball, and her leadership in the community continues to yield accolades. In 2023, the City of Columbia announced plans to erect a statue of Staley, which was installed in April 2025 on Senate Street a short distance from the Gamecocks' home arena to honor her commitment to leadership, community empowerment and uplifting future generations as much as her coaching legacy. Her autobiography Uncommon Favor: Basketball, North Philly, My Mother, and the Life Lessons I Learned from All Three was published in May 2025 and became a New York Times bestseller, rising to No. 2 on the Combined Print and E-Book Nonfiction list shortly after it was published. In April 2026, Staley became one of the rare sports figures elected to the American Academy of. Arts and Sciences, which recognizes leaders in academia, the arts, industry, journalism, philanthropy, policy, research and science. She was selected in the scientific, cultural and nonprofit leadership category.

In her 27th season as a head coach, Staley has led her college teams to 16 25-win seasons, a total of 22 postseason appearances (two WNIT) and 228 weeks in the Associated Press top 10, including 88 in the No. 1 spot – the third most times in the top spot in the history of that poll. Her .780 winning percentage (687-194) ranks fifth in the nation among active head coaches with at least 15 years of experience and ninth all-time.

In her 19th season at the helm of the Gamecocks, Staley has been named National Coach of the Year five times. Her 2020 unanimous selection made her the first former Naismith Player of the Year to earn the Naismith Coach of the Year award, and she became the first men's or women's coach to claim the award in three straight seasons 2022-24. She is a seven-time SEC Coach of the Year and was the 2012 BCA Female Coach of the Year. She is the only Gamecock basketball coach – men's or women's – to amass 300 victories at South Carolina and became the fastest coach to 200 wins in program history, needing just 277 games at South Carolina to reach the plateau. She is the program's all-time winningest coach with 515 wins, a .819 (515-114) winning percentage and a program-record 15 postseason appearances. She is just the fourth head coach to reach 500 wins at an SEC school while it was in the league.

In the vaunted SEC, Staley's 229 league wins are the most among active league coaches and third all-time, trailing just Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Inductees Andy Landers (Georgia, 273) and Pat Summitt (Tennessee, 306). She was the second fastest to 200 league wins (255 games), trailing only Summitt at 229. Her .800 SEC winning percentage (229-57) is second only to Summitt (.874) in league history. Her Gamecocks are the only SEC program with multiple 16-0 seasons in league history, hitting that mark four times (2015-16, 2019-20, 2022-23, 2023-24). Staley's back-to-back SEC undefeated seasons helped the Gamecocks to an SEC-record 57-game win streak in league play, which ranks sixth in NCAA history for conference win streaks. In 2026, she joined Summitt as the only head coaches to win five straight SEC regular-season titles.

In addition to coaching two National Players of the Year, two National Defensive Players of the Year and a National Freshman of the Year, Staley has helped 16 Gamecocks collect 32 All-America selections, three to pick up seven SEC Player of the Year honors, five to earn SEC Defensive Player of the Year recognition a total of nine times, three to SEC 6th Player of the Year honors and six to capture SEC Freshman of the Year. She has coached 26 Gamecocks to All-SEC honors a combined 49 times, including 23 first-team selections. Since her first Gamecock was selected in the 2015 WNBA Draft, a total of 21 South Carolina alums have been chosen, which is the second-most of any program in that timeframe. Of those 21, 13 have been first-round picks, highlighted by two No. 1 overall picks since 2018. Three Gamecocks have been named WNBA Rookie of the Year and have amassed 13 All-Star selections. A'ja Wilson went on to become a the WNBA's first four-time MVP and is a three-time WNBA Defensive Player of the Year. Three Gamecocks have won a combined four WNBA Championships.

Also a force in USA Basketball, Staley was named the U.S. Women's National Team head coach for 2017-21, leading the U.S. to 2018 FIBA World Cup gold to earn USAB National Coach of the Year honors that year, adding gold medals at the 2019 and 2021 FIBA AmeriCups and stretching the U.S. Olympic gold medal streak to seven straight at the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games, for which she again earned Coach of the Year honors. Prior to that appointment, Staley led three other U.S. teams to gold medals – 2015 FIBA U19 World Championships, 2014 FIBA U18 Americas Championship, 2007 Pan Am Games – and served as an assistant on the Senior National Team 2006-08 and again 2014-16, during which the U.S. claimed gold in the 2014 FIBA World Championship and the 2008 and 2016 Olympics.

While her coaching career is in full bloom, Staley is still recognized for her body of work as a one of the most decorated participants in United States women's basketball history. The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame solidified that legacy with her individual enshrinement as a player in the Class of 2013 and against as part of the 1996 U.S. Women's Olympic Team enshrined with the Class of 2026. The Phoenix Club of Philadelphia established the Dawn Staley Award recognizing the nation's top guard in women's Division I basketball in 2013 as well. Staley was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2012, and she was part of the FIBA Hall of Fame Class of 2025.
