#21/RV/RV South Carolina Gamecocks
(6-4, 4-4 SEC)
VS.
#1/1/1 Georgia Bulldogs
(9-1, 7-1 SEC)

Saturday, Nov. 21, 2026 ◆ 7:30 p.m. (ET)
Williams-Brice Stadium (77,559) ◆ Columbia, S.C.

QUICKLY: South Carolina saw its four-game SEC win streak come to an abrupt halt this past Saturday on the road in Fayetteville with a difficult loss to Arkansas. The Gamecocks entered the ball game No. 17 in the College Football Playoff Rankings. The loss was a blow to the team's hopes of having a shot at finishing inside the top-12. The Gamecocks were No. 21 in the initial CFP Rankings (Nov. 3), marking the program's first time being ranked in the initial CFP Top-25. Carolina slid back to No. 21 this week and was one of nine SEC teams represented in the third iteration of this year's CFP Top-25. The Gamecocks four-straight SEC victories featured a 17-9 win over Texas A&M (Nov. 7), an impressive 42-25 road win at Oklahoma (Oct. 31) and back-to-back top-25 victories prior to that (27-24 win at home over No. 11/11 Tennessee on Oct. 24 ; 38-19 road win at No. 16/15 Florida on Oct. 10). The back-to-back ranked wins over the Gators and Vols marked the third time under head coach Shane Beamer the team has post consecutive top-25 wins. Beamer's nine ranked wins in his first 70 games tied a school record with College Football Hall of Famer and former head coach Steve Spurrier. Since 1962, Carolina has beaten consecutive top-20 opponents just three times with two of those occurences happening under Beamer's direction. Beamer (2024, 2026) also joined Spurrier (2005, 2012) as the only coaches in program history to have multiple four-game, SEC win streaks in their tenures. The Gamecock offense has moved the ball well in all 10 games so far this season and is one of just 33 FBS teams with over 400 yards of offense in at least six games this season (Georgia, LSU, Ole Miss the others from SEC on list). Quarterback LaNorris Sellers (637 yards) and running back Matt Fuller (530 yards) spearhead a rushing attack that ranks No. 25 nationally and No. 3 in the SEC with 194.7 yards per game on the ground. The duo has combined for 29 of the team's 38 total touchdowns. Sellers leads the SEC and ranks No. 20 nationally, with a 6.1 yard per carry average. Fuller is No. 34 nationally and No. 2 in the SEC with a 5.6 yard per carry average. Sellers was suited up but did not play against Arkansas (ankle injury), missing his first start since Sept. 21, 2024 against Akron. Fuller has been out with an ankle injury since the first quarter of the Oklahoma game. He had surgery and potentially could return for the team's bowl game.

OVER THE AIRWAVES: Saturday's SEC contest at Williams-Brice Stadium will feature Chris Fowler and Kirk Herbstreit in the booth for ABC. Laura Rutledge will be on the Carolina sideline with Holly Rowe on the Georgia sideline. It will be the 4th nationally televised game of the season for the Gamecocks and the 8th ABC game under Beamer. The Gamecock Sports Radio Network features a pair of Gamecock Hall of Fame quarterbacks in play-by-play voice Todd Ellis (35th season) and analyst Tommy Suggs (54th season). Chet Tucker (4th season) will be on the sidelines. Ellis was named the recipient of the 2026 Chris Schenkel Award by the National Football Foundation earlier this season. The prestigious honor recognizes distinguished broadcasters with direct ties to a specific school.

LAST TIME OUT: With star quarterback LaNorris Sellers on the sidelines with an ankle injury, sophomore Cutter Woods earned his second career start at Arkansas (Nov. 14). The Gamecock offense moved the ball and had chances to swing momentum all night, but scored just six points in five red zone trips in a 34-6 defeat. The Razorbacks won the turnover battle 4-0 and had two takeaways in the red area on scoring opportunities for Carolina. Woods led a nice 2-minute drive to Arkansas' 16-yard line at the end of the opening half, but it resulted in no points as the clock expired before the Gamecocks' field goal unit could get on the field. Midway through the third quarter, Carolina had an 11-play, 74-yard touchdown drive that was finished off by a 3-yard run by Jabree Coleman to pull within 11, 17-6. The defense got a stop on the ensuing series and the Gamecocks were driving down the field again before a back-breaking, 63-yard pick six by Joker Johnson. Arkansas had a 17-0 advantage in points off turnovers. Senior linebacker Fred "JayR" Johnson continued his standout play with 13 tackles, his fourth-straight double-digit tackle outing. Fifth-year safety Peyton Williams had a career-high 10 tackles with a team-high six solo stops. Leading receiver Mazeo Bennett Jr. left the game in the first half and did not return. Senior receiver Nyck Harbor did not make the trip due to injury and missed his first game of the season as well.

CAROLINA VS. GEORGIA: This is the 77th meeting between these two bordering flagship state universities. Georgia leads the all-time series by a 55-19-2 margin, including a 23-10-2 advantage in Columbia and a 31-9 mark in Athens.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET: The Gamecocks went into Athens to face the two-time defending national champion and top-ranked Georgia as a four-touchdown underdog. The Gamecocks gave the Dawgs a scare, opening up a 14-3 halftime advantage before succumbing by a 24-14 score. Spencer Rattler completed 22-of-42 passes for 256 yards with a touchdown and a pair of late interceptions.

THE LAST TIME THEY MET IN COLUMBIA: South Carolina ran into a buzzsaw when the newly minted op-ranked team in the country, Georgia, invaded Williams-Brice Stadium on Sept. 17, 2022 for an SEC Eastern Division showdown. The defending national champions showed the country why they may be the team to beat this season, as they rolled to a 48-7 win. Nick Emmanwori had a team-best 14 tackles in the game.

THE LAST GAMECOCK WIN: In the high point of the 2019 season, the Gamecocks went into Athens on Oct. 12 and knocked off the No. 3/3 Bulldogs by a 20-17 mark in double-overtime. Israel Mukuamu was the star of the game, intercepting three Jake Fromm passes, including a 53-yard pick-six in the upset win. Parker White connected on a 24-yard field in the second overtime, before Rodrigo Blankenship missed from 42, providing the winning score. Georgia outgained Carolina 468-297 on the afternoon, but four turnovers proved costly for the Dawgs. The win matched the best road win for Carolina in school history and the Gamecocks were recognized as the National Team of the Week.

BEEN HERE, DONE THAT: Georgia enters this week's game ranked atop the Associated Press poll. Four of South Carolina's top nine wins in school history according to the A.P. have come against Georgia, with three of those coming in Williams-Brice Stadium.

A South Carolina win over Georgia would...

◆ Be the program's second win all-time against a No. 1 team and first since a 35-21 win over top-ranked Alabama on Oct. 9, 2010 at Williams-Brice Stadium.
◆ Give head coach Shane Beamer career win No. 40 in 74 career games. He will surpass Billy Laval (1928-1934) for the fourth-most wins all-time at Carolina with a victory Saturday night. Spurrier (70 games) & Jim Carlen (70 games) are the only coaches all-time at SC to get to 40 wins faster.
◆ Be Beamer's first career win in four tries against the Bulldogs.
◆ Mark the Gamecocks' first victory over Georgia since a 20-17 double overtime win on Oct. 12, 2019 in Athens.

GROUND GAME (#RTDB): The Gamecocks rushed 41 times for 416 yards (9.9 avg) against Towson on Sept. 12, the third-most rushing yards in a single game in program history. Matthew Fuller (125) and LaNorris Sellers (119) eclipsed the century mark and the Gamecocks had three touchdown runs of 50-yards or more for the first time in program history (Sellers - 58, Fuller - 55 & Isaiah Augustave - 55). Thru 10 games, South Carolina is No. 3 in the SEC and ranks No. 25 nationally in rushing offense, averaging 194.7 yards on the ground. The Gamecocks' 5.3 yard per carry average is No. 13 nationally. Sellers (637), Fuller (530) and Jabree Coleman (386) are the team's three leading rushers. Under Beamer, Carolina is 14-3 when rushing for 200 or more yards.

GAP INTEGRITY: Under sixth year defensive coordinator Clayton White, South Carolina has allowed just eight rushing TDs this season (T-2nd in the SEC), all coming in SEC play. The Gamecocks are No. 45 in rushing defense, allowing 129.4 yards on the ground. Against Towson on Sept. 12, the Gamecocks allowed just 21 rushing yards, the fourth-fewest single game rushing yards allowed in program history. Carolina has 25.0 sacks this season and the team's 2.50 sacks per game are T-37th nationally (10th in SEC).

SUPER SWAIN: All-SEC punt returner Vicari Swain cemented his name in the record books vs. Towson (Sept. 12) with two punt returns for touchdowns, the fourth and fifth of his career at South Carolina. He broke a 55-year old school record previously held by Dick Harris (1969-71) for the most career punt return touchdowns. Swain got loose for 58 yards with 9:37 to go in the first quarter and broke away for 45 yards with 3 seconds left in the third quarter to break Harris' long-standing program record. Since 1995, only 32 players have recorded multiple punt return TDs in the same game. Swain is the ONLY player on that list to do it twice (had two punt return TDs in a 38-10 win over SC State last season). So far this season, he's averaged 12.9 yards per return on 19 attempts. He's one of three SEC players with 15 or more punt returns and of the FBS players with 15 or more punt returns, his 12.9 average is fifth-best. Swain's 231 punt return yards are No. 8 in the nation. He was named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for the third time in his career for his performance against the Tigers. His five career punt return TDs are T-3rd most in SEC history. He was recently named one of five finalists for The Jet Award, given to the nation's top return specialist.

JUST WIN BABY: With a late 10-9 lead (Nov. 7) and the ball on the plus side of midfield for Texas A&M, South Carolina's defense came up clutch on fourth down with 1:33 remaining as defensive tackle Gabe Brownlow-Dindy got interior push against the Aggie front. EDGE Anthony Addison and linebacker Justin Okoronkwo cleaned up and sacked Marcel Reed for a loss of 14 yards to give the ball back to the Gamecock offense in favorable field position. Playing through pain with an ankle injury sustained late in the first half, quarterback LaNorris Sellers knifed through the A&M defense on a read-option call the ensuing play for a 41-yard touchdown run to put Carolina in front 17-9 with 1:19 to go. The Gamecock secondary then forced two incompletions deep in the redzone to preserve the team's fourth-straight SEC win. Linebacker Fred "JayR" Johnson led the way again with 11 tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack, his fourth double-digit tackle outing in the team's last five games. Addison had a career-high eight tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks, one QB hurry and one forced fumble as he stuffed the stat sheet. EDGE Dylan Stewart provided pressure all night with a team-high four QB hurries. Sellers continued his standout play with 285 yards of total offense (251 passing, 34 rushing) and a pair of touchdowns. His 70 career TDs (50 passing, 20 rushing) now trail only Gamecock great Connor Shaw (74 from 2010-13) for the most total touchdowns in program history. Wide receiver Mazeo Bennett Jr. had solid numbers as well again finishing with three catches for 66 yards and a TD. Running back Isaiah Augustave flashed with 10 carries for 50 yards to lead the Gamecocks with the asbence of Matt Fuller in the backfield. The victory marked just the fifth four-game or better SEC win streak all-time at South Carolina dating back to 1992.

CAROLINA COWBOYS: South Carolina rolled to a 42-25 road win at Oklahoma (Oct. 31) with strong performances on both sides of the ball. The Gamecock offense racked up 521 yards of total offense (309 passing, 212 rushing) with quarterback LaNorris Sellers accounting for five touchdowns (three passing, two rushing). It was the team's third time in an SEC game with 500 yards of offense under head coach Shane Beamer (team 3-0 in those games and first time since 530 yards in 44-20 win vs. Texas A&M Nov. 2, 2024). Carolina was 8-of-14 (57.1%) on third down against the nation's top third down defense. Sellers had TD tosses of 84 yards to DJ Black and 79 yards to Mazeo Bennett on third and long situations. He's the first QB in program history to have multiple 79-yard plus passing TDs in the same game. The 84-yarder to Black was the ninth longest passing play in program history and longest since 2014. Sellers finished the game with a season-high 397 yards of total offense (301 passing, 96 rushing). He surpassed Connor Shaw (17) for second-most rushing TDs by a QB with the 18th and 19th rushing TDs of his career. Sellers won SEC Offensive Player of the Week, AP National Player of the Week and was named to the Davey O'Brien Great 8 list for the third time in the last four weeks for his standout performance. Offensive tackle Darius Gray was also named SEC Freshman of the Week for his efforts in Norman. Through three quarters, the starting defense held the Sooner offense to just three points and 113 total yards. Linebackers Fred "JayR" Johnson (11) and Justin Okoronkwo (9) combined for 20 tackles and defensive tackle Tomiwa Durojaiye continued his stellar play on the interior with three tackles, 1.5 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and one QB hurry. The defense held OU's offense scoreless on their first eight drives of the game as Carolina built a 35-10 advantage in the third quarter.

WALK OFF WINNER: Trailing 24-17 to No. 11/11 Tennessee (Oct. 24) with 3:37 left in the game, the South Carolina defense got a critical fourth down stop to give the ball back to the offense on its own 39-yard line. Quarterback LaNorris engineered a six play, 61-yard touchdown drive to tie the game with 1:17 remaining that he capped with a highlight reel run in which he broke a number of tackles and reached the ball across the pylon to send Williams-Brice Stadium into a frenzy. On the ensuing Vol drive and the game tied at 24-all, EDGE Dylan Stewart got the ball back to the offense again with a strip sack that was recovered by Tomiwa Durojaiye with 33 seconds to go. Sellers then had a critical 9-yard rush on third down to setup the game-winning field goal by Malik Orsan from 48-yards out which he split right the uprights on as time expired and fans stormed the field. It was the Gamecocks' first walk-off win over a top-25 opponent since Parker White's field goal in double overtime in a 20-17 win at No. 3/3 Georgia in 2019. Orsan was tabbed SEC Special Teams Player of the Week and fifth-year offensive lineman Nolan Hay, who started his second striaght game at center, earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors. Hay helped pave the way for a pair of Sellers rushing touchdowns and 340 yards of total offense against one of the best defensive fronts in the nation. Sellers accounted for 306 total yards (210 passing, 96 rushing) and three touchdowns (two rushing, one passing). The Gamecocks averaged 5.5 yards per play, the most allowed by the Vol defense all season. Stewart's forced fumble late in the game was the ninth of his career, which tied a school record for most career forced fumbles with Gamecock great Jadeveon Clowney. Forced fumbles became an official NCAA stat in 2004. Stewart (28) matched Clowney (36) in eight less games played. The Washington, D.C. native is the SEC leader with three forced fumbles in just three games played so far this season.

WON'T BACK DOWN: Entering the game as two touchdown underdogs, the Gamecocks went into The Swamp for an impressive 38-19 win over No. 16/15 Florida on Oct. 10. The 38 points scored were the most ever by a South Carolina team in Gainesville and the 19-point margin of victory was the highest in school history over an AP Top-25 team on the road. It was just the program's third all-time victory at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium (first since 2014) as head coach Shane Beamer joined former Gamecock head coach Steve Spurrier as the only coaches in school history to beat the Gators on the road. Florida jumped out to a 7-0 lead early in the game but Carolina responded with a 38-6 scoring run from there. Vicari Swain intercepted an Aaron Philo pass late in the first half that helped swing momentum for good as LaNorris Sellers found Mazeo Bennett Jr. from 12-yards out on the ensuing possession to give Carolina a 17-10 lead at the break. Sellers was dialed in from start to finish, accounting for 299 yards of total offense (279 passing, 20 rushing) and five touchdowns (four passing, one rushing). He threw TD passes to four different receivers and connected with eight different total receivers in the game. Sellers was named the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week and the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week for the standout performance. He now has 17 career games with over 250 yards of total offense, the most by any Carolina player dating back to 1995. Sellers' five games this season with over 250 yards of total offense are tied for the SEC lead. The Gamecock defense provided consistent pressure throughout the game, finishing with 3.0 sacks, 6.0 tackles for loss, two INTs and two forced fumbles. Dylan Stewart had five tackles, two forced fumbles and a sack. It was his third career game with two or more FFs and he's the only Gamecock player over the last 21 seasons to have multiple games with a sack and two or more FFs. Stewart is one of just 22 players in FBS this season with multiple FFs in a game and he's one of just two players to do it so far this season in an SEC game.

DOWN-TO-THE-WIRE: Carolina endured a difficult 35-34 overtime loss to No. 24/RV Kentucky on Oct. 3 at Williams-Brice Stadium. The Gamecocks jumped out to a 17-0 lead but the Wildcats scored 10 points late in the first half to pull back some momentum. UK scored a pair of TDs in the third quarter to take its first lead of the game, 24-20. Carolina responded with a touchdown on its ensuing possession as LaNorris Sellers connected with DJ Black from 15 yards out. Sellers setup the score with a 74-yard run. Adam Zouagui hit a 29-yard field with 4:13 left to tie the score at 27-all. Sellers found Maurice Brown II from 5-yards out on the opening posession of OT as Carolina took a 34-27 lead. The Wildcats then scored and went for two successfully to earn the comeback road victory. Sellers led all players with 147 rushing yards, his fourth career 100-yard rushing game. He finished with 373 yards of total offense, the third-most in his career. He was 20-of-36 for 226 yards and a pair of TDs, passing Gamecock great Connor Shaw for No. 6 on the all-time passing yards list at South Carolina. Sellers' four career, 100-yard rushing games are tied for the most by a Gamecock QB in program history with Ron Bass (1973-77) and Jeff Grantz (1972-75). Matt Fuller had a rushing TD for the fifth-straight game, the first Gamecock to do it since Kevin Harris in 2020. Carolina finished the game with 37 carries for 232 yards (6.3 avg). The Gamecocks are now one of nine teams in FBS to eclipse the 200-yard rushing mark as a team four times this season. Mazeo Bennett Jr. led the team with eight catches for 92 yards, career-best marks. Linebackers Justin Okoronkwo and Fred "JayR" Johnson led the team with 11 tackles each. Carolina had 7.0 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks, season highs in both categories. Noah Clark, Kelby Collins and Caleb Herring each recorded their first sacks in Garnet and Black. Carolina lost the turnover battle losing two fumbles that led to 10 points for Kentucky.

ROAD OPENER IN T-TOWN: The Gamecocks fell 49-18 at No. 8/8 Alabama in the team's SEC road opener on Sept. 26. The Crimson Tide built a 35-10 halftime lead thanks to three long pass plays. Alabama won the turnover battle 2-0 and scored 14 points off their their two takeaways. The Gamecocks finished with 419 yards of total offense, including 216 yards on the ground (40 carries, 5.4 ypc average). Alabama entered the game with the No. 5 rushing defense in the country, allowing just 53.0 yards per game and 1.8 yards per carry. Matt Fuller had 19 carries for 112 yards (5.9 avg) with a touchdown on the ground for the fourth consecutive game. It marked his second career 100-yard performance and first against an SEC opponent. LaNorris Sellers had 13 carries for 72 yards (5.5 avg). In the air, he was 18-of-30 for 185 yards and a touchdown, connecting with Nyck Harbor from 41 yards out late in the first half. It marked Sellers' 15th career game with 250 yards of total offense, the most by any Gamecock player dating back to 1995. Former Gamecock great Connor Shaw is No. 2 on that list with 13 career games with 250 yards or more of total offense. Sellers now has 39 career TD tosses, the seventh most in program history. Fred "JayR" Johnson led the defense at Bryant-Denny Stadium with eight tackles. Tomiwa Durojaiye and Anthony Addison each had a sack. Addison now leads the team with 3.0 sacks this season

TOUGH ONE AT HOME: Carolina fell in the SEC opener on Sept. 19 to Mississippi State, 41-34 at home. The Gamecocks jumped out to a 16-0 lead but were unable to capitalize on two redzone trips in the first half having to settle for field goals. A late strip-sack by Anthony Addison was overturned for a defensive penalty that would have setup Carolina inside the Bulldogs' 10-yard line with 35 seconds left in the opening half. The Gamecocks led 23-14 at the break. Mississippi State took a 31-23 lead after outscoring Carolina 17-0 in the third quarter. The Bulldogs scored 10 points off of a pair of interceptions. The Gamecocks battled back late but a pair of onside kicks were unsuccessful as Mississippi State prevailed 41-34 for the road victory. Running back Matt Fuller had a solid game with 158 all-purpose yards (85 receiving, 73 rushing) and a pair of TDs (1 rushing, 1 receiving). His career-high seven catches were the most by a Gamecock running back since Oscar Adaway III in the Citrus Bowl against Illinois (12/31/24). Fuller is one of 15 Gamecock RBs since 1995 to record seven or more catches in a game. Quarterback LaNorris Sellers accounted for 334 yards of offense (282 passing, 52 rushing) and a pair of passing TDs.

YOU GET A TOUCHDOWN! AND YOU GET A TOUCHDOWN! AND YOU GET A TOUCHDOWN!: After punting on the opening drive, South Carolina scored eight-straight touchdowns in its season-opening win over Kent State on Sept. 5. Six different players scored touchdowns for the Gamecocks marking the 15th different time that's happened since 1995 and the fourth time under Beamer. Sophomore wide receiver Donovan Murph and sophomore transfer running back Jabree Coleman each recorded their first career games with multiple TDs. Murph had four catches for a team-high 92 yards (23.0 avg), hauling in TD receptions of 29 and 37 yards. Coleman had four carries for 77 yards (19.3 avg) with TD runs of 60 and five yards. Senior running back Isaiah Augustave, junior wide receiver Mazeo Bennett Jr., junior running back Matthew Fuller and sophomore tight end Mike Tyler each added TDs as well. Augustave and Tyler's scores were each the first of their careers. Senior quarterback LaNorris Sellers had three TD passes and sophomore quarterback Cutter Woods added the first career passing TD of his career as well when he connected with Tyler from seven yards out with 6:24 remaining in the third quarter. Sellers' three TDs moved him into the top-10 all-time at South Carolina with 36 career TD tosses.

WE'VE GOT OURSELVES AN OFFENSE: Under first-year offensive coordinator Kendal Briles, the Gamecock offense racked up 645 yards of total offense (367 passing, 278 rushing) in the opener against Kent State, the fifth-most total yards in program history and the most in the Beamer era dating back to 2021. Carolina also had 35 first downs, which tied a program record (previously happened vs. Tennessee on 11/19/22). It marked the 12th time under Beamer with 500 yards of total offense and the 12th time with over 200 rushing yards. The 57 points scored against the Golden Flashes were the most in a season opener in program history. The 57-point margin of victory was also the most in a season opener in program history, surpassing a 53-0 win over Erskine on Sept. 19, 1938.

DONUTS FOR DINNER: The South Carolina defense pitched a shutout against the Golden Flashes in the opener for the second time in the Beamer/Clayton White era (previously happened vs. EIU on 9/4/21). The Gamecocks allowed just 179 yards of total offense, forced eight punts and held the Golden Flashes to 5-of-14 (35.7%)on third down.

el capitán: For the first time in the Shane Beamer era at South Carolina, the team voted on its captains prior to the start of the season. In the past, individual captains have been selected on a game-by-game basis with a permanent vote at the end of the season. Fifth-year ight end Brady Hunt, junior linebacker Fred "JayR" Johnson, fifth-year defensive back Gerald Kilgore, fifth-year linebacker Shawn Murphy, senior quarterback LaNorris Sellers and fifth-year defensive back Peyton Williams were voted as captains for the 2026 season by their teammates. Sellers is now a three-time captain.

EXPERIENCE, EXPERIENCE, EXPERIENCE: Via Sam Khan Jr. and David Ubben of The Athletic, South Carolina has one of the most experienced teams in major college football this season ranking No. 10 amongst ACC, Big 12, Big Ten and SEC programs with career snaps played on its roster. The Gamecocks' 2026 squad features 43,292 career snaps, 507 career starts and 1,386 career games played. Ole Miss is the only other SEC school to rank ahead of Carolina on the career snaps chart, checking in at No. 9 on the 68-team list.

KEEPING THE GANG TOGETHER: Carolina returns 32 letterwinners total this season, 13 on the offensive side of the ball and 17 letterwinners from 2025 on defense. The Gamecocks retained a number of key players in the offseason in quarterback LaNorris Sellers, EDGE Dylan Stewart, wide receiver Nyck Harbor, linebacker Fred "JayR" Johnson, defensive back Vicari Swain, running back Matthew Fuller, linebacker Justin Okoronkwo, defensive back Gerarld Kilgore, linebacker Shawn Murphy, defensive back Judge Collier, defensive lineman Gabe Brownlow-Dindy, defensive back Peyton Williams, tight end Brady Hunt, wide receiver Donovan Murph and wide receiver Mazeo Bennett Jr. The 15 players listed have combined for 343 career games played and 165 carere starts over the last three seasons at South Carolina.

TRANSFER HAUL: The Gamecocks' 2026 roster welcomes a 28-man transfer class which was recently completed with the signing of fifth-year defensive back Ethan Johnson (App State) and fifth-year kicker Ethan Sanchez (Houston). Offensive tackle Jacarrius Peak headlines the portal class on the offensive side of the ball. The Valdosta, Ga. native was an All-ACC selection last season, playing in 38 career (32 starts) games in four seasons at NC State from 2022-25. A trio of players from UCF, wide receiver DJ Black, tight end Max Drag and offensive lineman Carter Miller are other key additions. Running back Christian Clark (Texas) and wide receiver Nitro Tuggle (Purdue) also headline some of the transfer class on the offense. Defensively, Kelby Collins (Alabama), Tomiwa Durojaiye (Illinois) and Jordan Thomas (Georgia) were added to bolster the interior of the defensive line. Collins' younger brother, Drew (Arkansas State), and Caleb Herring (Tennessee) were added to the EDGE room. Quay'sheed Scot (Kentucky) projects to be in the mix at the nickel position on defense next to Gerald Kilgore.

35 YEARS IN THE SEC: The 2026 season will mark South Carolina's 35th year in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina and Arkansas joined the SEC prior to the 1992 campaign. The Gamecocks earned the SEC Eastern Division title in the 2010 season. The Gamecocks are 114-158-1 (.419) all-time in SEC regular season play but posted a 42-38 (.525) record in conference action from 2010-19.

IT JUST MEANS MORE: Carolina's 2026 schedule features six teams ranked in the preseason AP/Coaches poll: No. 3/3 Georgia, No. 8/8 Texas A&M, No. 10/9 Oklahoma, No. 13/11 Alabama, No. 20/18 Tennessee and No. RV/23 Clemson in the regular season finale. Three of the games will be at Williams-Brice Stadium (Tennessee on 10/24, A&M on 11/7 and Georgia on 11/21). Entering the season, the Gamecocks' 2026 slate ranks No. 23 toughest in the ESPN Football Power Index (FPI).

REUNITED & IT FEELS SO GOOD: Georgia, Florida and Tennessee, old SEC East foes who Carolina met every year since joining the SEC in 1992 until 2024, are back on the schedule this season.

IN THE POLLS: The Gamecocks finished the 2024 season ranked 19th in both the Associated Press and the AFCA Coaches polls. It was the second time they have finished the season ranked under head coach Shane Beamer (also No. 23 in 2022) and was their highest final ranking since the 2013 season when they finished fourth, their highest ranking in school history.

FINAL AP RANKINGS: Here are the 11 seasons in which Carolina finished ranked in the AP final poll:

Year	RK	Year	RK
2013	4	1958	15
2012	8	1987	15
2011	9	2000	19
1984	11	2024	19
2001	13	2010	22
		2022	23

THEY CALL IT A STREAK: The Gamecocks won six-straight games to finish the 2024 regular season, the first four of which came against SEC opponents (Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Vanderbilt and Missouri), and the last of which came against ACC Champion Clemson.

THAT'S A RECORD: The Gamecocks set a school record for wins over a ranked opponent in a season with four in 2024, knocking off the AP's No. 10 Texas A&M, No. 24 Vanderbilt, No. 24 Missouri and No. 12 Clemson over the final five weeks of the regular season. They had defeated three ranked teams in a season on six occasions previously. Here are the years, opponents and rankings of those wins:

2000 Georgia (9), Miss. State (25), Ohio St. (19)
2001 Georgia (25), Miss. State (17), Ohio St. (22)
2010 Georgia (22), Alabama (1), Florida (24)
2012 Georgia (5), Clemson (12), Michigan (19)

2019	John Dixon
2019	Jammie Robinson
2024	Josiah Thompson
2024	Michael Smith
2026	Darius Gray

NINE WINS: After finishing with a 9-4 record in 2024, the Gamecocks have won nine or more games eight times in their history. Carolina posted a school-record 11 wins in three-straight seasons from 2011-13...
11 wins - 3 times (2011, 2012, 2013)
10 wins - 1 time (1984)
9 wins - 4 times (2001, 2010, 2017, 2024)

ROAD WARRIORS: The Gamecocks won four true road games in 2024 for just the fourth time in school history, also winning four road games in 1968, 1994 and 2006. They logged a trio of impressive SEC road wins, all by at least three touchdowns, posting a 31-6 victory at Kentucky, winning in a 35-9 rout at Oklahoma and knocking off 24th-ranked Vanderbilt 28-7, holding all three of those opponents to under 10 points. They also won at Clemson, holding the ACC champions to just 14 points. South Carolina recorded three conference road wins for the first time since 2011 when they won at Georgia, Mississippi State and Tennessee en route to an 11-2 mark overall and a 6-2 SEC record.

MAKING SOME HISTORY: The Gamecocks recorded five SEC wins in 2024 for the first time since 2017 and for just the ninth time since joining the league in 1992.

BEAMER BEATS THE BEST: In his first four seasons as a head coach from 2021-2024, Shane Beamer collected seven wins over ranked opponents, including three over top-10 teams, the most by any coach in South Carolina history in their first four campaigns. Here's how othersfared in their first four seasons in Columbia:

Head Coach	Top-25	Top-10
Shane Beamer	7-13-0	3-4
Lou Holtz	6-13-0	1-6
Steve Spurrier	5-12-0	1-7
Warren Giese	4-4-0	1-2
Sparky Woods	3-12-0	0-3
Jim Carlen	3-4-1	0-2
Will Muschamp	2-14-0	1-9
Joe Morrison	2-9-1	0-3
Brad Scott	1-0-1	0-7
Rex Enright	1-3-1	0-0

THE FREAKS LIST: South Carolina had three players named to Bruce Feldman's annual Freaks List : wide receiver Nyck Harbor (No. 1), EDGE Dylan Stewart (No. 14) and quarterback LaNorris Sellers (No. 37). It's the third time (2022 & 2023 the others) Harbor has topped the list. He's the only player to be No. 1 three times since its start in 2005.

Feldman on Harbor:
"I've done this for almost a quarter century, and Harbor was the first back-to-back No. 1 Freak. It took a generational talent like Jeremiah Smith to bump him from the top spot, but Harbor is back at No. 1. To be this big and this blazing fast is truly rare. NFL scouts who came through Columbia this offseason measured him at 6-foot-6, 243 pounds with over 35-inch arms. His wingspan is 82 1/2 inches. He ran a 10.1 in the 100 and 20.20 in the 200 for the Gamecocks track team, where he's competing in the NCAAs against runners 60 and 70 pounds lighter than him.

Harbor, who just turned 21 in July, has continued to blossom as a receiver. He caught 30 passes last season for a team-leading 618 yards and six TDs. His 20.6 yards per reception ranked third in school history. He finished the season with back-to-back 100-yard receiving games — the first of his career — against Texas A&M and Clemson.

This offseason, Harbor, while weighing in at 235 pounds, topped out at 23.8 mph on the GPS and also measured in at just 5 percent body fat."

Feldman on Stewart:
A second-team All-SEC player in 2025, the 20-year-old is as talented as any D-lineman in college football. In 11 games last year, he had 12 TFLs, 4.5 sacks, eight QB hurries and three forced fumbles. In 2024, Stewart had 10.5 TFLs, 6.5 sacks and forced three fumbles as a freshman. The 6-6, 250-pounder, who has hit 22 mph on the GPS, was measured at just 8 percent body fat this summer.

Feldman on Sellers:
"At times, Sellers looks like Superman on the field. Clemson had a D-line full of NFL talent, and Sellers ran around and through each of them two years ago in a big road win for the Gamecocks against their archrival. He took home SEC Freshman of the Year honors in 2024 after he completed 66 percent of his passes for 2,534 yards with 18 TDs and seven INTs to go with 674 rushing yards and seven more TDs. Last year, with an offensive coordinator change, Sellers wasn't quite as sharp, but with Kendal Briles taking over, Sellers is expected to bounce back. The 6-3, 235-pound Sellers, who is down a few pounds, dropped his body fat from 7 percent to 6 percent this offseason. He also topped 22 mph on the GPS."

BROTHERLY LOVE: South Carolina is one of 13 teams in FBS with multiple sets of brothers on its squad: quarterback LaNorris Sellers and wide receiver Jayden Sellers, defensive lineman Kelby Collins and EDGE Drew Collins and linebacker Andrew Harris and defensive lineman Aiden Harris. The Harris brothers uncle is former NFL All-Pro linebacker Thomas Davis Sr.

STUDENT-ATHLETES: The Gamecocks' 2026 roster features 13 players who have already earned their undergraduate degrees: tight end Maurice Brown II, defensive back Judge Collier, wide receiver Jayden Gibson, offensive lineman Nolan Hay, tight end Brady Hunt, defensive back Gerarld Kilgore, defensive back Ethan Johnson, offensive lineman Carter Miller, linebacker Shawn Murphy, linebacker Jamian Risher Jr., offensive lineman Seth Smith, defensive back Peyton Williams and EDGE George Wilson Jr. In six years under head coach Shane Beamer, Carolina has had 111 total graduates. The team's graduation success rate is 96%, No. 2 in the SEC in that stretch. The team's top-five team GPAs all-time have come under Beamer. Sixteen current players are set to earn their undergraduate/graduate degrees in December from the University of South Carolina.

WORKING OVERTIME: The Gamecocks are 3-5 in games decided in overtime since the rule was added in 1996, the most recent one last Saturday against No. 24/RV Kentucky. Both teams scored TDs but the Wildcats went for two and converted to earn the comeback road victory.

OFFENSE

WELCOME HOME: The Carolina offense has a trio of new coaches this fall led by offensive coordinator Kendal Briles. Briles has 11 years of experience as a play caller at the FBS level, most recently spending the last three seasons at TCU (2023-25). He had top-35 offenses every season in Fort Worth, finishing No. 40 or higher in scoring offense each season there as well. Offensive line coach Randy Clements and running backs coach Stan Drayton were hired as well back on Dec. 11, 2025 shortly after the conclusion of the regular season. Clements and Drayton have a wealth of expereince at their respective positions with Clements having 23 years of offensive line coaching under his belt and Drayton having 26 years of coaching the running back position on his resume in college and the NFL. Drayton was the running backs coach on teams that won the National Championship at Ohio State (2014) and Florida (2006), working under Urban Meyer.

THE QUARTERBACK: A three-time team captain, LaNorris Sellers returns for his third season as the Gamecocks' starting quarterback. He is one of 22 starting QBs in FBS with 24 or more career starts entering 2026. Auburn's Byrum Brown (32), Ole Miss' Trinidad Chambliss (29) and Oklahoma's John Mateer (24) were the only other QBs on the list from the SEC entering Week 1 this season. Sellers' 63.2% career completion rate is No. 3 all-time in program history behind only Spencer Rattler (67.5%) and Connor Shaw (65.5%). His 50 careeer touchdown passes are 4th in school history. His 20 career rushing touchdowns are No. 2 all-time by a QB at SC behind only Jeff Grantz (26). Sellers is No. 5 on the all-time passing yards list (7,157). His 8,789 total yards are No. 2 all-time behind only Todd Ellis (9,351).

THE PLAYMAKERS: Nyck Harbor is back for his senior season to lead the WR room. A preseason All-SEC selection, he had the best season of his career in 2025 with 30 catches for 618 yards (led team) and six touchdown receptions (led team). His 20.6 yard per reception average in 2025 was No. 3 highest in school history. Harbor is a big play threat and his 17.3 career yard per catch average is 5th in program history. Junior Mazeo Bennett Jr. leads the team in receptions (42 - career high) and yards (558). Over his last six games, Bennett has caught 32 balls for 449 yards and 4 TDs (5.3 catches, 74.8 yards per game). Transfer DJ Black is No. 2 in the SEC (No. 16 nationally) in yards per catch (19.3).

THE RBs: Junior Matthew Fuller leads a talented running back room. In eight games, Fuller had 530 rushing yards (No. 10 in SEC) on 94 attempts (5.6 avg). He scored a rushing TD in 5-straight games to start the season, the first Gamecock to do that since Kevin Harris in 2020. Sophomore Jabree Coleman has five TDs on the ground. He has 71 attempts for 386 yards this season (5.4 avg). With Fuller down due to an ankle injury, Coleman slides into the lead role in the backfield.

REVAMPED O-LINE: The Gamecock o-line has nine transfers headlined by offensive tackle Jacarrius Peak, an All-ACC performer and a three-year starter at NC State. Stud freshman Darius Gray anchors the other tackle spot with Hank Purvis (LG) Nolan Hay (C), Emmanuel Kojo Poku (RG) and Shed Sarratt Jr. (OT) rounding out Carolina's current top rotational group on the frontline. The group has blocked well, allowing just 19.0 sacks while blocking for the No. 25 rushing attack in the nation, which averages 194.7 yards per game on the ground and 5.3 yards per carry (No. 13 in the nation).

DEFENSE

MOLDING THE CLAY: Sixth-year defensive coordinator Clayton White, who has established himself as one of the top defensive play callers in the SEC, brings back 17 letterwinners from a defense that allowed 22.1 points per game and forced 22 turnovers (25th nationally) last season. Junior EDGE Dylan Stewart highlights the crop of returners with 27.5 career TFLs, 13.0 sacks and nine FFs in 31 games played the last three seasons.

SEE BALL, GET BALL: The Gamecock defense has been opportunistic under White's direction. The Gamecocks have ranked in the top-25 nationally in turnovers forced in four of his five seasons leading the defense. Carolina has forced 116 turnovers over the past six seasons, which is T-4th in the SEC (T-23rd nationally) during the stretch. White's defenses in Columbia have helped account for 26 total non-offensive touchdowns (seven each in 2025 and 2022) over the last six seasons which ranks in the top-10 nationally and leads the SEC. Turnovers have been tough to come by this season for the group as the team has just six.

THE LINEBACKERS: The linebacker room is led by three veterans in Fred "JayR" Johnson, Shawn Murphy and Justin Okoronkwo. Johnson leads the team with 83 tackles (No. 3 in the SEC) and has had double-digit stops five times in the last six games. Okoronkwo has 73 tackles (T-13th in SEC).

THE INTERIOR OF THE DL: One of the deepest position groups on the Carolina defense is the defensive tackle room led by fifth-year player Gabriel Brownlow-Dindy. The Gamecocks added three transfers in Kelby Collins (Alabama), Tomiwa Durojaiye (Illinois) and Jordan Thomas (Georgia). Durojaiye leads the team with 4.0 sacks and 7.0 TFLs (both career highs). His 31 tackles are 6th on the team. Noah Clark, aka The Deep Freezer, has made seven starts as a true freshman. The 6-5, 345-pounder has 18 tackes, 2.5 TFLs and 1.5 sacks.

THE SECONDARY: Three-year letterwinner Judge Collier and two-year letterwinner Vicari Swain anchor the Gamecock defense at the corner spots. The safety position features veterans Peyton Williams and David Bucey with a pair of underclassmen in sophomore Kendall Daniels Jr. and freshman J'Zavien Currence. Both players check in at 6-4 with size and speed to boot. Currence was an outstanding QB in high school amassing 4,403 total yards and 44 TDs his senior season in leading South Pointe (Rock Hill, S.C.) to the 4A state title. Williams is No. 3 on the team with 57 tackles.

THE EDGE FELLAS: Stewart, a consensus preseason First Team All-American, headlines the group as one of the best defensive players in the country. Stewart was SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week for his performance at No. 16/15 Florida (Oct. 10). He had two FFs for the 3rd time in his career and is one of just 22 players in FBS to have multiple FFs in a game this season. Transfer Caleb Herring (Tennessee) has 2.0 sacks. Sophomore Anthony Addison has flashed this season so far. The Sumter, S.C. native, is T-1st on the team with 4.0 sacks. His seven QBHs are tied for the team lead with Stewart. Highly-touted freshman Julian Walker enters the fold as well this season. The Dutch Fork (Irmo, S.C.) product is 6-6, 255 pounds and had his first career sack in the win over Towson (Sept. 12).

SPECIAL TEAMS

DIALED IN: Sophomore Malik Orsan went 4-for-4 on field goals in the SEC opener against Miss. State (Sept. 19), connecting from 30, 34, 51 and 52 yards out for his first career field goal makes in college. He became the first Gamecock kicker since Mitch Jeter in the 2022 season-opener against Georgia State to make two, 50-plus yard field goals in a game. Orsan is 11-of-15 (73.3%) on FGs this season and 30-of-30 on extra points. He hit the first game-winning kick of his career from 48-yards out as time expired to push Carolina to a 27-24 win over No. 11/11 Tennessee (Oct. 24).

IT'S A BIRD! IT'S A PLANE! IT'S SUPERSWAIN: All-SEC punt returner Vicari Swain broke Dick Harris' (1969-71) 55-year old school record with his fourth and fifth career punt return TDs vs. Towson (Sept. 12). He had three punt return TDs in 2025 (tied for the NCAA lead). Swain's 302 punt retrun yards last season were the most by a Gamecock since Ace Sander's school record 429 yards in 2012.

BLOCK THAT KICK: The Gamecocks have led the SEC in blocked kicks over the past six seasons, topping the conference with 18 during that time frame. South Carolina is T-3rd in the nation with Texas & Miami (OH) in that stretch behind only Notre Dame (21) and Indiana (19).

ALMOST AUTOMATIC: Dating back to 2021, the Gamecocks have successfully converted 78 of their last 96 field goal attempts (81.3%), the third-best mark in the SEC behind only Georgia and Ole Miss.

HEAD COACH

Virginia Tech (1999)

The Beamer File

Born:	March 31, 1977
Hometown:	Blacksburg, Va.
Wife:	Emily
Children:	Sutton, Olivia and Hunter

Shane Beamer is in his sixth season in Columbia leading the South Carolina Football program in 2026.

Beamer, who owns 35 wins in his six seasons at the helm, recently surpassed Lou Holtz for seventh among all South Carolina head football coaches. With a 35-30 record, he has coached the eighth-most games in school history. He has posted three wins over top-10 teams and seven wins over top-25 teams in his first five seasons at Carolina, tops among all Gamecock head football coaches over their first five seasons. During his tenure he has posted victories over three coaches who have won national championships – Jimbo Fisher, Dabo Swinney and Mack Brown, and has led the Gamecocks to three bowl appearances.

Beamer's 2025 squad was competitive in every game but fourth quarter struggles produced a 4-8 mark. The Gamecocks played nine teams that were bowl-eligible, six games against teams that were ranked when they played, and five that finished in the top-15 in the final CFP rankings. Carolina either led or was within a touchdown entering the fourth quarter in 10 of the 12 games, including losses to No. 23 Missouri, No. 4 Alabama and No. 3 Texas A&;M when they took a lead into the final stanza. Individually, the Gamecocks placed two players on the Coaches' second-team All-SEC unit, two on the third-team and two on the SEC All-Freshman squad.

Beamer's 2024 squad was his most successful to date. The Gamecocks finished the season with a 9-4 record including a 5-3 mark in the SEC, posting nine wins in a season for just the eighth time in school history. The Gamecocks recorded a school-record four wins against ranked opponents, including three in consecutive weeks as part of a regular season-ending six-game winning streak. Carolina finished the season ranked 19th in both the final Associated Press and Coaches polls, its highest ranking since 2013 and its second top-25 ranking in the past three seasons.

Beamer was the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week for the third time in his career following the Gamecocks' upset win over Texas A&M and earned SEC Coach of the Year accolades from the AP, USA TODAY, Bear Bryant and College Football Nation. He was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, the Bobby Dodd, and the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year honors and was a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year.

Individually, edge rusher Kyle Kennard was the school's first Bronko Nagurski Award winner as the nation's top defensive player and was the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year. Kennard, along with safety Nick Emmanwori, earned first-team All-America honors, while punter Kai Kroeger was a second-team selection. Quarterback LaNorris Sellers was selected as the SEC's Freshman of the Year. Sellers, offensive tackle Josiah Thompson and Edge rusher Dylan Stewart earned Freshman All-America honors, giving the Gamecocks six All-Americans as selected by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), the most of any FBS school in 2024. In addition, Kennard and Raheim Sanders were named first-team Academic All-America.

Named the Gamecocks' 36th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2020, Beamer had a successful first season in Columbia, improving the Gamecocks by 3.5 games, from a 2-8 mark in 2020 to a 7-6 campaign in 2021, including a convincing win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. He tied the school record for wins by a first-year head coach, doubled the preseason's expected win total and surpassed the win total of the two previous seasons combined, earning him a share of the Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach of the Year Award, presented by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). Safety Jaylan Foster earned All-America honors and three players were selected in the NFL Draft following his inaugural season.

In 2022, the team again exceeded expectations by recording eight wins, including three wins over ranked opponents. The Gamecocks won eight games for just the 15th time in 129 seasons and for the first time since 2017. The Gamecocks were ranked 23rd in the country in the final AP and USA Today Coaches' polls. It marked the first time since 2013 that the Gamecocks finished the season ranked in the top-25 and the 10th time Carolina has finished the season ranked in the final AP poll. The Gamecocks defeated No. 5 Tennessee and No. 7 Clemson in the final two games of the regular season, the first time Carolina has posted back-to-back wins over top-10 teams and just the seventh time in history that a school has defeated AP Top-10 opponents in consecutive weeks as an unranked team, the first since 2003. Coach Beamer was a two-time Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week recipient after wins over Kentucky and Tennessee. Punter Kai Kroeger earned All-America honors, leading a special teams unit ranked No. 1 in the country. Five players were selected in the NFL Draft off that squad, the most since 2013.

Challenged by one of the toughest schedules in the FBS and in a season mired by numerous injuries, decimating the offensive line most notably, the 2023 Gamecocks finished the campaign with a 5-7 mark. The squad was led by quarterback Spencer Rattler and wide receiver Xavier Legette. Rattler set the school's single-season record for completions (275) and completion percentage (68.9), while his 3,186 passing yards was the third-highest total in school history. Legette, a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, led the team with 71 receptions for 1,255 yards and seven receiving touchdowns. His 1,255 receiving yards was the second-highest single-season mark in school history.

Prior to his first head coaching stint, Beamer had been an assistant coach at seven FBS schools for 21 seasons. During his career as an assistant, he coached in 17 bowl games, including a College Football Playoff National Championship Game, posted 18 non-losing seasons, six of those with double-digit victories, and his teams won 63 percent of its games. He coached all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams.

Beamer is not new to Carolina. The Charleston, S.C. native served as an assistant coach with the Gamecocks for four seasons from 2007-10 under Steve Spurrier. In 2007, he served as the outside linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator. He mentored the cornerbacks in 2008, then coached the Spurs and strong safeties and was the special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2009 and 2010, setting the foundation for the most successful run in school history.

In 2009 at South Carolina, Beamer was nominated for the Frank Broyles Award. His special teams' units recorded five blocked kicks, tying for the SEC lead and for eighth in the nation. He also helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 15th in the country in total defense, and eighth in the nation in passing defense.

As the Gamecocks' recruiting coordinator, his 2009 class was ranked 12th-best in the country, and the 2010 and 2011 classes were ranked in the Top 25.

During his tenure as recruiting coordinator, nine Gamecocks were selected in the NFL Draft, including first round selection Stephen Gilmore (Buffalo) and second round picks Alshon Jeffery (Chicago) and D.J. Swearinger (Houston).

The Gamecocks all-time winningest quarterback, Connor Shaw, and rushing touchdown leader, Marcus Lattimore, were also in the 2010 class.

Beamer has helped build several programs during his career. He was on three coaching staffs where the head coach was in his first or second season at the school. He joined Sylvester Croom's staff at Mississippi State in his first season, Kirby Smart's program at Georgia in his first season, and Lincoln Riley's unit at Oklahoma in his second season.

Beamer served as the assistant head coach for offense and mentored the tight ends and H-backs at Oklahoma from 2018-20. In 2020, Oklahoma ranked sixth in the country in scoring, 11th in total offense and 14th in passing offense. In 2019, the Sooners led the nation in yards per play, ranked third in total offense and fourth in passing efficiency rating. Oklahoma led the nation in total offense, scoring offense and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), and ranked second in passing efficiency rating in 2018.

Beamer spent two seasons (2016-17) at Georgia as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator under Kirby Smart, helping the Bulldogs to a 21-7 combined record. In 2017, UGA won the SEC Championship before falling in the CFP title game to Alabama in overtime. His special teams ranked eighth nationally in net punting and 20th in kickoff returns while blocking four kicks.

The son of Hall of Fame coach Frank Beamer, he worked with his father as the associate head coach and running backs coach at Virginia Tech from 2011-15. In his first year, he coached David Wilson, who broke the Tech single-season rushing record, was named All-America and ACC Player of the Year, and went on to become a first-round NFL draft selection. Shane served as the Hokies' acting head coach in the 2014 Military Bowl win while his father watched from the press box following throat surgery.

Beamer's first full-time coaching position came at Mississippi State in 2004 as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first two seasons at State, he guided three defensive backs to SEC All-Freshman Team accolades. He maintained the recruiting coordinator title but made the move to running backs coach in the spring of 2006 where he tutored running back Anthony Dixon to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Beamer spent three seasons (2001-03) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, helping with the cornerbacks and assisting in all special teams areas. He also oversaw game opponent scouting while earning a master's degree in sport management in Dec. 2003.

Before joining the staff at UT, he worked one season (2000) as a G.A. at Georgia Tech, helping with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A December 1999 graduate of Virginia Tech, Beamer was a member of five bowl teams (1995-99 seasons) and three Big East Conference championship squads on the Hokie football team as a long snapper and wide receiver. He was a long snapper on the 1999 Virginia Tech team that played for the BCS National Championship.

Beamer and his wife, Emily, who was named the 2025 South Carolina Football Hall of Fame Humanitarian of the Year, are the parents of three children – two daughters, Sutton and Olivia, both born in Columbia, and a son, Hunter, born in Blacksburg, Va.

- Hit a career-high six extra points in as many attempts but was not needed for a field goal in the Oklahoma drubbing.
- Named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week for his game-winning heroics vs. No. 11 Tennessee.
- Nailed the walkoff field goal from 48 yards out as time expired to complete the comeback vs. the Vols, also having been good from 22 and all three PATs earlier in the night.
- Missed from 47 yards but rebounded to make a 37-yard field goal and a career-high five PATs in the road win over No. 16 Florida.
- Was perfect vs. Kentucky with 29 and 48-yard field goals in the second quarter and going 4-for-4 on point-after attempts.
- Saw a 45-yard field goal attempt doink off the right upright on the first drive of the game at No. 8 Alabama but made his other attempt and lone PAT.
- Emerged as the leading placekicker for the Gamecocks after burying 4-of-4 attempts in the SEC opener against Mississippi State, including a pair of field goals from 50+ yards.
- Connected from 30, 34, 51 and 52 yards with his pair of 50+ yard makes marking the first time since Mitch Jeter (2022) that a Gamecock kicker has made two from 50+ in the same game.
- Also logged five kickoffs for 321 yards (64.2 avg) with three touchbacks when he split kickoff duties with Max Kelley through the first two games.
- Is a perfect 30-for-30 in PATs in his young career.
