On the roads

It is easy to become a Goodfellow

By Johnny 'O

Goodfellows' client shopping at Meijer will be Monday through Thursday (December 4 through 7) this year; there will be no Sunday shopping. Another change is Club Kokomo Roadrunners can volunteer for any day. It is easy to become a Goodfellow; just contact Johnny 'O at (765) 438-9545, or email john\_wiles\_150@comcast.net

Goodfellows has contributed thousands of dollars to Club Kokomo and CK's Coyote Kids program, and for 11 years CK members have returned the favor by becoming Goodfellows and assisting the all-volunteer group in bringing smiles to needy children's faces during the Christmas season.

Center Township Trustee office, Club Kokomo, Kokomo Firefighters, UAW 1166, and the Marine Corps League helped Goodfellows during registration and shopping last year.

Johnny 'O asks Club Kokomo members to spend three hours (6 p.m. to 9 p.m.) helping Goodfellow recipients shop this year at Meijer on either Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday. Just let Johnny 'O know what day you can help.

Last year, Goodfellows, including 26 CK volunteers, provided clothing to more than 1,002 children in Howard County. Goodfellows is the only organization that can say that all the money it receives from We Care is used to purchase clothing for needy children or fund scholarships for high school seniors in Howard County.

Goodfellows also receives individual and corporate donations. Money not spent on the Christmas program is used for scholarships and other youth programs, such as Coyote Kids. As it has for several years, Goodfellows donated $2,500 to CKRR this year.

At 106 years old, Goodfellows is the oldest Christmas gift program in Howard County. It was started by Kokomo Tribune employees in 1911. The program now is a not-for-profit organization that is directed by a community-based volunteer board of directors.

Johnny 'O has been associated with Goodfellows for 47 years. He is a member of its board of directors. Starting in 2015, UAW 1166 became responsible for the Goodfellows' Christmas program. Goodfellows still is responsible for the cost. UAW 1166 member Brian West is the Goodfellows' Christmas program director; he also is a member of the Goodfellows' board. Johnny 'O is proud that fellow CK member Charlie Skoog received Goodfellows' 2008 Volunteer of the Year Award.

CK Goodfellows help bag recipient clothes or use hand-held scanners to total dollar amounts before applicants go through the cash register lines at Meijer in December.

Approved families receive vouchers for clothing. Parents will redeem the vouchers at Meijer from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Dec. 4-7. Recipients are assigned a specific day to shop with the number of shoppers each session based on the total number approved for assistance. Last year, about 75 families shopped each night.

You can bring a smile to a child's face this Christmas season. Just contact Johnny 'O.
