CLUB KOKOMO ROAD RUNNERS

THE ROADRUNNER

Charity Race

Happy Fall to you all. The Charity Race is coming up November 12th at 9am. I hope we have a large turnout for this race as you know the this race goes to benefit the Magic Closet and Student Assistance Fund. A free will donation is all it takes to compete in this fun race. It again will held at McKinley School. I will gladly welcome volunteers—club members are awarded 20 pts for this race so make this one your volunteer race and get those points. Last year we were able to raise over $1400 and the school relies on our contribution to help meet the needs of the kids. The need continues to grow every year.....Come out November 12 for a fun race with other club members and friends. I hope to see some new faces this year volunteering. I am calling on anyone that bakes....some cookies or muffins would be great to share, there will be a few door prizes again this year. I will draw early and post the number so you can check it as you come in post race {sorry I didn't do that last year—learning all the time} Looking forward to hearing from you. Call/text to let me know if you would like to volunteer or bring some goodies to share....Thank you, Jeannie Townsend 765-437-2076

I learned something about myself recently. I always knew I could get stressed out over things, but recently, I can see how it affects me and my dealings with other people and it keeps them from seeing Christ in me. I know that I need to manage my stress better and learn to trust in God more than my own abilities. I know that if I turn it over to Him it will be fine...may not be exactly how I had envisioned it, but it will turn out as it should.

I need to remember to give each day to God, and pray for His calming Presence and Peace. I try to ask that He watch over me and guard my tongue and words each and every day...especially on work days J

I can be very sharp and short with people when I get stressed out...that is one of my biggest faults that I need to pray about and make a conscious effort to work on daily.

Do you have things in your life that you need to work on and pray about? Do you reflect Christ when you are at work, at play or at races? Do you run/walk or do the things you do for YOUR glory or for HIS GLORY??

It's so easy to get caught up in relying on our own abilities and taking credit for all that goes right in our lives, but when things get a little uncomfortable or sour we want to cry out to God and ask "WHY did you let this happen to me??" When more than likely, it was a choice WE made that created the mess we find ourselves in.

Remember to give praise to God for all that you have and all that you are, without Him, we are nothing. And without Him our lives would be so empty.

May peace be with you!!

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3:5-6
