Newsletter

June is the last month that I will be serving as the newsletter editor. If you are considering taking this publication over, now is the time to let Mary Henning know! You do need a computer, and although you could work it out in a Word Document, I use Microsoft Publisher 2010 which has helpful templates and PDF ability. It is not an expensive program, if you do not already have it.

The "Jellyroll Workshop" on June 16 presented by Sharon Rehrig is a great way to make an oncology quilt for your community service requirement. You have time to get it in for this year or be ahead of the game for next. To make a quilt 42 x 44 you will need 26 strips cut 2 ½" wide or to make a quilt 42 x 54 you will need 31 strips cut 2 ½" wide. These sizes do not have borders. If you care to add 3 or 4" borders, simply bring an additional ¾ yards of a fabric to go along with your strips. If you are not making an oncology quilt, one jellyroll with 40 or 42 strips makes a quilt approximately 48" x 64" without borders. If you are cutting your strips, try to cut each one from a different fabric. Even different lengths gives you a more interesting quilt in the end. Also bring machine in good working order; a neutral thread such as beige, gray, or green/gray; scissors; rotary cutting set and any other basic sewing supply you need. We start at 9:00 AM and will work until you are completed. It takes about 3 or 4 hours without rushing. Bring snacks, lunch and beverage.

Colonial Quilters Guild Minutes May 8, 2012

Before the meeting and program the raffle quilt was presented to Dawn Anderson who won it with a ticket purchased from At Piece Quiltery in Easton. Dawn herself is a quilter and was thrilled to be the winner.

Michele McLaughlin, a guild member and historian, presented a program on "The History of Quilts and Why We Should Care." Her informative as well as entertaining lecture was illustrated with examples of quilts and fabrics from her private collection.

After a short break president Mary Henning called the meeting to order. On a motion made by Annette Mihalow and seconded by Joan Bellis the minutes of the previous meeting were approved as they were published in the newsletter.

Treasurer - Linda Kleppinger. Starting balance $14,440.61, incoming funds $38.75, outgoing funds $1,239.79 for a total balance of $13,239.47. Linda also thanked the guild members for their support during a difficult time she had experienced.

Vice-president - Shirley Chiles - 97 members were in attendance with 2 guests. Linda Kleppinger won the door prize. Additional prizes were won by Margo Billetz and Sheri Seip.

Program Committee - Susie Metz and Betsy Lawrence - The June meeting will be an ice cream social. Pat Knoechel will be presenting her talk and items from Eleanor Burns on Thursday, June 14th. In October Peggy Oppenheimer will be doing a lecture on Square in a Square with a workshop held at Heart In Hand Quilt Guild in Wind Gap. The Pocono Guild is also participating.

Bus Trips - Boots Horvath. The bus trip to the Hershey show on July 28th has 39 people signed up already. The total cost is $33 with $25 for the bus and $8 for admission.

Saturday Sewcials - Wendy Harwick - Sharon Rehrig will be leading a Jelly Roll race on Saturday, June 16th. Participants should bring 40 to 45 2 ½" strips. Those not wishing to race can always participate at a leisurely pace.

Open sew will be held during the summer months, July 10th and Aug. 14th from 6 - 9:30 pm. This is a great way to meet new people and share quilting camaraderie.
