

ANNEX 2

Supplier Responsibilities:

- The supplier shall provide the following services free of cost without any charges. Installation of equipments, replacements of spares or an equipment where required for repair, scheduled preventive maintenance. KRH will not bear any costs for the related to the above-mentioned activities.
- The supplier shall also design and renovate the room as per given requirement by KRH.
- The supplier shall also ensure the equipment are at all times in operational condition without any services interruption.
- The supplier shall perform equipment preventive maintenance as per equipment manufacturers policy.
- The supplier shall deliver the necessary consumables related to dialysis machines according to the requirement of KRH within 45 days upon request (Purchase Order) and ensure constant supply of reagents as per the regular usage of KRH at all times, without any delay.
- The supplier shall attend to service calls within 2 hours from reporting & shall coordinate with inhouse engineers in resolving the issue immediately. If problem is not resolved within 6 hours, the supplier shall arrange to send an engineer/application specialist or technician who is most appropriate to attend the situation.
- The In-House engineers in KRH has to be trained for basic troubleshooting on application /breakdown calls at the time of installation.
- If equipment cannot be repaired at site and is needed to be transported to a workshop at another site, the supplier shall ensure a backup machine or equipment is kept before the equipment relocation is approved.
- Without any justifiable reason the services shall not be interrupted. Where there is a service interruption for any reason, a time plan for restoring the services shall be communicated with KRH.
- Within one year of installation the supplier shall train KRH engineers and staff on both technical and application training.

- The supplier should keep the basic/essential spare parts at the site or at the supplier’s warehouse for emergency shipment.
- The supplier shall also provide key operator training and awareness to KRH staff and also conduct refresher trainings for the user periodically.

KRH Responsibilities:

- KRH shall provide a place to install the equipment.
- To ensure users are operating equipment as per manufacturers recommendations and advice.
- To prepare and share with supplier KRH consumables requirements required to provide services.
- KRH will purchase machine related consumables exclusively from the supplier.

Total number of dialysis done in 2022

Months	No. of Dialysis	Months	No. of Dialysis
January	206	July	215
February	174	August	218
March	186	September	203
April	169	October	219
May	188	November	205
June	194	December	211

- Please note this is an estimated number which can either increase or decrease based on patient count.

Rental period:

- The rental period will be for a term of 5 years.