

Engineer Officer Refresher and Updating Course

SUMMARY

Professional

60 Hours

Available Modes (Full-Time)

Overview

Engineer Officer Refresher and Updating Course (EORUC) covers all the required competencies to refresh and upgrade seafarers to revalidate the Certificate of Competency of Chief Engineer, Second Engineer, and Watchkeeping Engineer from STCW 78/95 to STCW 2010 and meets the requirement of STCW Regulation 1/11 and Section A-1/11 of the STCW Code.

In order to establish continued professional competence in accordance with section A-1/11 of the STCW Code, candidates are required to complete the EORUC course.

This course is open to all seafarers holding a valid OR expired Maldivian STCW Certificate of Competency as Chief Engineer, Second Engineer, and Watchkeeping Engineer.

The course consists of the following modules

1. Conventions-20 hours
2. Safety-20 hours
3. Engineering knowledge-20 hours

Entry criteria

The applicants shall hold the relevant STCW Certificate of Competencies of

4. Officer in Charge of an Engineering Watch (Limited/Unlimited) Certificate of Competency OR
5. Second Engineer (limited/unlimited) Certificate of Competency OR
6. Chief Engineer (limited/unlimited)

Careers

1. Chief Engineer and Engineers of merchant vessels, Cruise ships, and Super yachts.
2. Engineers of Power houses of resorts and islands
3. Engineers of ship repair yards