

"Ladha" is a traditional dance from the Maldives, performed during religious and cultural events. It is characterized by its graceful movements and the use of traditional costumes. The dance is often performed in groups and is a popular form of entertainment in the Maldives.

"Ladha" is a traditional dance from the Maldives, performed during religious and cultural events. It is characterized by its graceful movements and the use of traditional costumes. The dance is often performed in groups and is a popular form of entertainment in the Maldives.

"Ladha" is a traditional dance from the Maldives, performed during religious and cultural events. It is characterized by its graceful movements and the use of traditional costumes. The dance is often performed in groups and is a popular form of entertainment in the Maldives.

"Ladha" is a traditional dance from the Maldives, performed during religious and cultural events. It is characterized by its graceful movements and the use of traditional costumes. The dance is often performed in groups and is a popular form of entertainment in the Maldives.