

The Royal Film Commission - Jordan opens the call-out for directors, producers, and rights holders to submit their films for the third edition of the Children Film Festival that will take place in Amman-Jordan, August 2024

All those who have interest in participating and competing for the festival's prizes are advised to review the following conditions and send us the link of screener no later than Saturday 20 July 2024 and contact us at JCFF@film.jo for more information.

To be eligible for consideration, all films must meet the following requirements: -
The film must not have been released before 2022.

- The film must not have been previously broadcast or shown on any TV channel or public online platform.

- The film must be in digital formats, MOV or MP4 in high quality.

- The film should not contain scenes or contents that are not appropriate for the targeted age groups from 6 to 16 years old.

- A selection committee will choose eligible films to compete.

- Intellectual property rights must be considered when submitting the films. The film should be translated into Arabic for non-Arabic language films or have the Required files to provide translation or dubbing into Arabic.

- Long and short narrative and animation films will be accepted.