

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Post: Head of Maldives Monetary Authority Institute for Research & Training (MMA IRT)

Rank: Executive Director

Post Type: 03 years tenure

Reporting Relationships: Governor

JOB SUMMARY

The Head of Maldives Monetary Authority Institute for Research & Training (MMA IRT) is responsible for development of the Maldives Monetary Authority (MMA) Institute for Research and Training (IRT) and all its related mandates and functions.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Planning and implementation oversight of all necessary activities for establishment and development of the MMA IRT under the direction of the Governor.
- Formulation, review and implementation of strategies related to the functioning and development of the MMA IRT in line with the strategic mandates, directions and guidance of the Governor.
- Oversight and management of all MMA Research fund and scholarship resources within the operational scopes of the MMA IRT as per the directions and guidance of the Governor.
- Determining the training and research programs to be planned and implemented by the MMA IRT and to oversee the effective implementation of such programs under the direction of the Governor.
- Establish and develop strategic relationships with external stakeholders and third parties aligned with the strategic interests, directions and objectives of the MMA IRT.
- Strengthening and modernization of the MMA IRT in line with relevant and prevalent industry best practice trends and developments by identifying and developing resources to enhance service excellence.

JOB SPECIFICATION

Qualification:

- A Bachelor's Degree or equivalent in the field of Business, Economics, Finance, Banking, Accounting, HR, Management or related field AND;
- A Master's Degree in a relevant field.

Experience:

Minimum 10 years of experience in a related area of which 5 years of experience in a managerial / leadership role

Salary:

Can be negotiated based on qualifications and experience.
