TURKISH STATE THEATERS, KONYA 19th INTERNATIONAL THEATRE FESTIVAL

One Thousand Breaths, One Voice - International Festival of Turkish-Language Theatre| 3–10 May 2027 | Konya, Türkiye

Invitation to Apply

On behalf of Turkish State Theatres, Konya State Theatre is pleased to announce the 19th International Konya Theatre Festival, "A Thousand Breaths, One Voice", to be held in Konya from 3 to 10 May 2027.

The festival brings together theatre companies from different countries, encouraging artistic exchange, international cooperation and opportunities for future joint projects. It seeks to foster dialogue among directors, performers and technical professionals through the shared language of theatre.

In addition to their main productions, participating companies are welcome to propose workshops, street theatre, dance performances, concerts and other complementary activities, subject to the festival programme and available facilities.

Konya is a city with a rich cultural heritage, historically known as Iconium and closely associated with the poet and thinker Mevlana Jalaluddin Rumi. Inspired by the city's tradition of hospitality and cultural exchange, we look forward to welcoming artists and audiences from around the world.

We warmly invite your company to apply for the 19th International Konya Theatre Festival and look forward to the possibility of welcoming you to Konya.

Festival Participation Conditions

1. The host institution will provide bed-and-breakfast accommodation for participating company members during the period agreed with the festival organisers. In addition, each participant will receive the Turkish lira equivalent of EUR 25 per day as a meal allowance for lunch and dinner.

2. Each participating company may include a maximum of 20 people, including performers, artistic personnel and technical staff. Any exception requires prior written approval.

3. Following confirmation of participation, each company shall designate at least two representatives to attend a coordination meeting at a date and time communicated by the host theatre.

4. The selection committee will evaluate applications. Submission of an application does not constitute an official invitation or guarantee participation.

5. Detailed technical requirements and performance arrangements will be reviewed with selected companies following acceptance.

Room allocation: One single room will be provided for the production director; other room arrangements will be confirmed with selected companies. Matters to be confirmed in writing: international and domestic travel arrangements, local transfers, performance fees (if any), number of performances, and Turkish surtitles or translation responsibilities.
