1. BACKGROUND AND OBJECTIVE

The Maldives Monetary Authority (MMA) is seeking to procure the services of an independent legal expert to develop legal framework for negotiable instruments in Maldives. The purpose of this is to develop the existing legal framework applicable to negotiable instruments in the country in accordance with international best practices and in a way which complements the payments infrastructure of the Maldives. In this regard, the expert will review the current legal framework including Law No.: 16/95 [Negotiable Instruments Act] and other relevant laws, and draft a complete set of legal instruments needed to ensure a modern and effective legal framework on negotiable instruments, which includes development of a bill on negotiable instruments which will replace the existing Act, as well as all supporting secondary legislative instruments which will be required under the Bill.

2. INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS

2.1. GENERAL INFORMATION

- 2.1.1. Project Development of legal framework for negotiable instruments.
- 2.1.2. Contract Consultancy for the development of legal framework for negotiable instruments.
- 2.1.3. Proposal
- a) Prospective bidders are invited to submit proposals for the contract. The Proposal will be the basis for contract negotiations and ultimately for a signed contract with the selected bidder. The title and reference number of this Request for Proposals (RFP) are provided in “Invitation for Bids”.
 - b) The bidders shall familiarise themselves with local conditions and take them into account in preparing their proposals.
 - c) MMA reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids, at any time prior to award of contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected bidder or bidders or any obligations to inform the affected bidder or bidders of the grounds for MMA’s action.
 - d) Each bidder is permitted to submit only one proposal.
- 2.1.4. Fraud and Corruption Bidders must observe the highest standard of ethics during the execution of contracts. In pursuance of this policy, MMA will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the bidder recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices in competing for the contract in question.

2.1.5. Eligibility of Bidders

- a) A bidder may be a natural person, private entity, or government owned entity or any combination of them in the form of a joint venture, under an existing agreement, or with the intent to constitute a legally enforceable joint venture. All partners shall be jointly and severally liable for the execution of the contract in accordance with the contract terms.
- b) The bidder shall not sub-contract any part of the requirements stated and should declare the same in the bid.

2.1.6. Qualifications of the bidder

By submission of documentary evidence in its bid, the bidder must establish to MMA's satisfaction that it has the technical capability necessary to perform the contract, meet the minimum evaluation criteria stated in Clause 4.6 and has a successful performance history.

2.1.7. Cost of Bidding

The bidder shall bear all costs associated with the preparation and submission of its bid, and MMA will in no case be responsible or liable for those costs.

2.2. CONTENTS OF RFP

2.2.1. Contents for bid preparation

- a) The contents of the RFP listed below should be read in conjunction with any addenda issued in accordance with Clause 2.2.3:
- Section 2 Instructions to Bidders
 - Section 3 Terms of Reference of the Consultant
 - Section 4 Bid Evaluation Methodology
 - Section 5 Standard Proposal Forms
- b) Bidders are expected to examine all instructions, forms, terms and other information in the RFP. Failure to furnish all information required by the RFP may result in the rejection of the bid.

2.2.2. Clarification of information in the RFP

Bidders requiring any clarification of information in the RFP shall email their queries to procurement@mma.gov.mv. Such clarifications can only be made before the deadline for submission of bid provided in section 2.4.2 of this RFP. MMA will respond in writing to any request for clarification. Should the clarification result in changes to the essential elements of the RFP, MMA will amend the RFP following the procedure under Clause 2.2.3.

2.2.3. Amendment of information in the RFP

- a) At any time prior to the deadline for submission of bids, the MMA may, for any reason, whether at its own initiative or in response to a clarification requested by a prospective bidder, amend the RFP. Later amendments on the same subject shall modify or replace earlier ones.
- b) Any amendment issued shall be part of the RFP and will be informed to the prospective bidders in writing, and such amendments will be binding on them.
- c) In order to afford prospective bidders reasonable time in which to take the amendment into account in preparing their bids, the MMA may, at its discretion, extend the deadline for the submission of bids, in which case, the MMA will communicate it to the prospective bidders in writing.

2.3. PREPARATION OF BIDS

2.3.1. Language

The language of the proposal shall be in English.

2.3.2. Documents comprising the bid

The bid submitted by the bidder shall comprise:

- i) The duly completed Bid Submission Form provided in Section 5 signed by a person or persons duly authorized to bind the bidder to the contract;
- ii) Work Plan duly completed and signed by a person or persons duly authorized to bind the bidder to the contract;

Also, outline the plan for performing the assignment, including a plan to carry out activities required for the deliverables of this assignment and timeline or work schedule. the human and other resources the bidder proposes to use. In addition, the Work Plan should state the bidder's assessment of what it expects the MMA and any other party involved in the Project to provide during the consultancy and how the bidder proposes to coordinate the activities of all involved parties;
- ii) the Bidder's Financial Proposal, i.e., a detailed description of the costs and prices for the consultation services to be rendered. The consultancy service's financial proposal must have a breakdown, and prices should be tied to deliverables and tasks performed rather than to a timeline.

2.3.5. Bid Validity
Period

- a) Bids shall remain valid, at a minimum, for a period of 6 (six) months after the deadline for bid submission prescribed by the MMA. During this period, the bidder shall maintain its original bid proposal without any change, including the availability of key experts, the proposed fees or rates and the total price.
- b) If it is established that any key expert nominated in the bid proposal was not available or was included in the bid proposal without the key expert's confirmation, the bid proposal will be disqualified and rejected for further evaluation.
- c) MMA will make its best effort to complete the negotiations within the bid proposal's validity period. However, should the need arise, MMA may request, in writing, all bidders who submitted Proposals prior to the submission deadline to extend the bid proposals' validity.
- d) If the bidder agrees to extend the validity of its bid proposal, it shall be done without any change in the original bid proposal.

- e) The bidder has the right to refuse to extend the validity of its bid proposal in which case the bid proposal will be considered withdrawn.

2.4. SUBMISSION OF BIDS

2.4.1. Submission

- a) All bids must be sent via email to procurement@mma.gov.mv
- b) Proposals must be submitted in PDF format.
- c) The attachment containing the Proposal and enclosed other documents should not be larger than 10 MB. If the archive is larger than this threshold amount, please send the proposal in multiple parts.

2.4.2. Submission Deadline

- a) All bids must be submitted to MMA via email on or before 1500 hours (local time) of 07th April 2022. MMA will only consider if the bid document is received at the email address provided in Clause 2.4.1 on or before the bid submission deadline.
- b) The MMA may, at its discretion, extend this deadline for submission of bids by amending the RFP in accordance with Clause 2.2.3, in which case all rights and obligations of the MMA and Bidders will thereafter be subject to the deadline as extended.

2.4.3. Late Bids

Any bid received by MMA after the bid submission deadline prescribed by MMA in Clause 2.4.2, will be declared late, and rejected.

2.4.4. Withdrawal, Substitution, and Modification of Bids

- a) A bidder may substitute, or modify its bid after it has been submitted by sending a written notice, prior to the bid submission deadline specified in Clause 2.4.2.
- b) A bidder may withdraw its bid at any time. In case of the selected bidder, at any time before a binding contract is signed between the MMA and the selected bidder.

2.5. BID EVALUATION

2.5.1. Clarification of bids

During the bid evaluation, the MMA may, at its discretion, ask the bidder for a clarification of its bid. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing, and no change in the price or substance of the bid shall be sought, offered, or permitted.

2.5.2. Preliminary Examination of Bids

- a) MMA will examine the bids to determine whether they are complete, whether any computational errors have been made, whether required sureties have been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order.
- b) Arithmetical errors will be rectified on the following basis. If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price, which is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, or between subtotals and the total price, the unit or subtotal price shall prevail, and the total price shall be corrected. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail. If the bidder does not accept the correction of errors, the bid shall be rejected.
- c) The MMA may waive any minor informality, nonconformity, or irregularity in a bid that does not constitute a material deviation and provided that such waiver does not prejudice or affect the relative ranking of any bidder.
- d) Prior to the detailed evaluation, the MMA will determine whether each bid is of acceptable quality, is complete, and is substantially responsive to the RFP. For purposes of this determination, a substantially responsive bid is one that conforms to all the terms, conditions, and specifications of the RFP without material deviations, exceptions, objections, conditionality, or reservations.
- e) A material deviation, exception, objection, conditionality, or reservation is one:
 - (i) that limits in any substantial way the scope, performance or quality of the consultancy; or
 - (ii) that limits, in any way that is inconsistent with the RFP, the MMA's rights or the successful bidder's obligations under the contract; or
 - (iii) the acceptance of which would unfairly affect the competitive position of other bidders who have submitted substantially responsive bids.
- f) If a bid is not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by MMA and may not subsequently be made responsive by the bidder by correction of the nonconformity. The MMA's determination of bid responsiveness will be based on the contents of the bid itself.

2.5.3. Evaluation and Comparison of Bids

- a) MMA will evaluate all bids that are in acceptable quality, complete and are substantially responsive pursuant to Clause 2.5.2. The evaluation of a bid will exclude and not taken into account any additional documentation or information other than those specifically requested in the RFP.
- b) MMA's evaluation committee will review all proposals to determine the highest scored bidder. The criteria listed in Section 4 would be used for determining the highest scored bidder.
- c) The MMA is not obliged to select the bidder with the lowest Financial Proposal.
- d) In addition to submission of the proposal by the submission deadline as per Clause 2.4.2, Bidder may, at the discretion of MMA, be required during the evaluation process to make a formal presentation to and/or attend a meeting to discuss the proposal. MMA reserves the right to contact any references that may be listed in the proposal to validate any claims made by bidders.

2.5.4. Contacting MMA

- a) From the time the bid proposals are opened to the time the contract is awarded, a bidder should not contact MMA on any matter related to its bid proposal (technical and/or financial proposal). Information relating to the evaluation of bid proposals and award will not be disclosed to the Bidders, Until the bid evaluation process is concluded.
- b) Any attempt by a bidder or anyone on behalf of a bidder to influence MMA in the evaluation of the bid proposal or contract award may result in the rejection of the corresponding bid.

2.5.5. Rejection of Bids

The MMA reserves the right to accept or reject any or all submitted proposals for any reason and to annul the selection process at any time prior to signing a binding contract without incurring thereby any liability to the affected bidder(s). The MMA reserves the right to not award, award part of, or award the entire contract for the required services for any reason that is, in its opinion, in the best interest of MMA.

2.5.6. Confidentiality All bids received shall remain with MMA. MMA assures complete confidentiality of the documents.

2.6. AWARD OF CONTRACT

2.6.1. Award Criteria Subject to the evaluation criteria MMA will select the bidder whose bid has been selected as the highest scored bidder and will invite the selected bidder to negotiate the contract.

2.6.2. Notification of Award Prior to the expiration of the bid validity period, the MMA will notify to the selected bidder, in writing. At the same time, MMA shall also notify the unsuccessful bidders.

2.6.3. Negotiations and Award of Contract

a) Negotiations shall include discussions of the Terms of Reference (TOR) stated in Section 3 of this document along with the timeline proposed, the methodology, study visits and special needs of the Project.

b) The terms and conditions of the contract between the MMA and the selected bidder shall be in conformity with the standard policy and practice of MMA in similar contracts. A sample contract with standard terms and condition is included in Section 6.

c) These discussions shall not substantially alter the original TOR and scope of work or the terms of the contract, lest the quality of the final project, its cost, and the relevance of the initial evaluation be affected.

d) If the negotiations fail to result in an acceptable contract, MMA shall terminate the negotiations with the bidder and invite the next ranked bidder for negotiations.

2.6.4. Signing of Contract

a) MMA will email the draft contract to the successful bidder after the notification as per Clause 2.6.2, incorporating all agreements between the parties.

b) The contract shall be signed between MMA and the successful Bidder.

2.7. PAYMENT TERMS

2.7.1. Payment will become payable upon completion and acceptance of the respective deliverables or tasks or if the Project is phased out, upon completion all deliverables and tasks of each phase as described in Clause 3.4, in accordance to the terms and condition of the contact.

- 2.7.2. The cost shall be provided in breakdowns for each deliverable and two-third of the fee should be allocated for the delivery of final draft law and relevant regulations
- 2.7.3. All professional fees and charges, costs and expenses payable in relation to the consultancy services shall be provided in the financial proposal and MMA will only pay those fees and charges, costs and expenses that are explicitly provided in the contract.
