A top-down view of several wooden spoons arranged on a light-colored, textured surface. The spoons contain various types of tea leaves and flowers, including loose-leaf tea, dried herbs, and small, colorful blossoms. Some tea is spilled around the spoons. Decorative teal leaves and flowers are scattered around the spoons.

WHAT WE OFFER

We market three of our own brands , which are, Windsor, Golden Era and Four Seasons. Our expertise is in bulk tea, packets, tea bags catering to white labelling requirements and customized tea solutions.

The Windsor brand epitomizes Royalty. This exclusive Ceylon tea pays homage to the tea consumed in Sri Lanka during the Colonial era. It's flavors are defined by the richness and vastly unique characteristics that can't be replicated anywhere in the world. Our Windsor brand deeply considers the regal nature of Ceylon tea. It has a rich, aromatic, and flavorful blend that offers opulence and luxuriousness.

The Golden Era exemplifies the unique strength and aroma that Ceylon tea offers. These handpicked tea leaves are artistically produced from the finest facilities in the verdant hills of Ceylon. The Ceylon tea comes with a refined and superior aroma, which epitomizes the natural and traditional flavors of Sri Lanka.

Ceylon is a small island with no distinguishable seasons. However, the island experiences fluctuations in weather patterns following the elevation of the locality. As a result, the tea grown in distinct locations yields a divergent range of aromas, flavors, and properties. The Four Seasons teas results from unique tea production in microclimatic areas. As a result, the brand features distinct flavors, aromas, brightness, and appearances that glorify each season.
