BULLA REGIA offers top-of-the-range products at competitive prices thanks to a close cooperation with its sister company “SENTOLIA”, which is one of the major Olive Oil exporters in bulk towards the American & European markets, with an average of 20,000 tons of Olive Oil exported per year including more than 4,000 tons of Organic Olive Oil.

BULLA REGIA

The ancient city of BULLA REGIA was known for millennia as one of the largest exporter of Olive Oil to the Roman Empire. Proud to have been nurtured in this part of the world, Tunisia, our mission is to bring you the most Authentic Extra Virgin Olive Oil you can trust.

From the historic site of BULLA REGIA, we have chosen to use for our label one of the finest & most preserved mosaics in the world, Venus, the symbol of fertility. It suggests authenticity and know-how and reflects a mosaic of terroirs & flavors.

Thanks to our well-equipped facility, we can offer a wide range of Glass, PET and Tins packaging.

We always select the best quality profile to preserve sensory & health properties of Olive Oils until the best before date.

All our Olive Oils are stored under nitrogen to make sure that aroma and taste are preserved.

This historical Extra Virgin Olive Oil was previously the most appreciated by the Roman Empire and today it is still praised by their descendants. The secret behind this is the unusual combination of freshness, delicate taste and early harvest. Our goal is to preserve freshness, sensory complexity & the health properties until the “best before date” marked on our labels.

Located between the desert of the Sahara, the Atlas mountains and the Mediterranean sea, Tunisia microclimate creates the unique and ideal climate for olive trees to grow and thrive. Indeed, Tunisia has the largest cultivated area of ORGANIC olive groves in the world. This organic EVOO gives a unique feeling of freshness : green olive fruitiness enhanced by sweet notes of aromatic herbs. Its taste confirms his character with a well balanced bitterness and pungency.
