MAKES FOOD TASTE GOOD

A delightful range ideal for the hospitality industry and perfect for families and individuals alike.

A CONCOCTION OF DELICIOUSNESS IS OUR PROMISE!

Already a trusted name across multiple industries, Sharaf Group envisioned a better life for everyone by applying their high standards to culinary products. After all, who doesn't love good food? And just like that, in 2004, Gulf Processing Industries LLC (GPI) was born.

Since then, GPI has been creating pure goodness and packing them into jars and bottles, to help you start your day right, or indulge in that comfort food. Over the years, GPI has successfully crafted an impressive collection of the finest culinary products using industry best practices with complete transparency, passion, and professionalism. The exceptional range is crafted to delight individuals, families and the HoReCa industry alike. And they're all delicious, we can assure you.

And then there was Herman! Our little labour of love was born in 2011.

With products that were already loved by people all over the world, we thought, why not take our commitment to excellence a step further, and pack all our expertise under one name? And then, our range of nut spreads, mayonnaise, sauces, condiments, baking mixes and cooking pastes came together under the brand that is Herman.

Being the best is about more than just great taste and excellent standards. It's about caring and making sure what you eat is as pure as love. And we know you will give that love right back, as we've seen Herman grow leaps and bounds over its short life. Keep it coming, and we promise we will too.

COOKING PASTES & SAUCES

Cooking pastes work their magic in the background. They are not as glamorous as exotic ingredients, but the most certainly add that extra zing to food. Herman's Cooking Paste range consists of the conventional kitchen flavors (Ginger, Garlic, Tomato, Pizza & Pasta Sauces) and the Middle East's very own Tahina paste.
