

MIYAKONOJO WINERY FARM CORP.

Wines from the Land of the Gods with a sense of romance

「Wines Steeped in Mythology」

The gods in Japanese mythology probably drank wine made from fruit. So Takachiho, the place where a god descended to earth, may be the birthplace of Japanese wine. With these thoughts of the past in mind, we aim to create wines that resonate with the delicious ingredients of our hometown, Miyakonojo.

Our location inspired us to name our wines after the gods that we are thankful for.

Please have a taste of the world of mythology along with our wines.
