Introduction of BunjongThai

Bunjong Thai comes from the word Bunjong, which means meticulous and beautiful, And Thai reflects Thainess. It comes out in the form of food, Whether it is royal or street food, which is one of Thailand's unique characteristics and has created a reputation until it has been called Thailand: the Kitchen of the World. From this idea, the concept was born. "Thai Kitchen to World Kitchen," which, from this concept, is consistent with our idea that we intend to spread Thai food. All around the world, people will be able to taste the freshest food and ingredients.

We strive to deliver the best
Thai curry to our customers worldwide.

Foods Technology

Spray Dry

Our Thai curries capture the essence of traditional recipes, thanks to innovative Spray Dry technology. This method preserves the vibrant flavors and aromas of our curry pastes, transforming them into a convenient, shelf-stable powder. Enjoy the authentic taste of Thailand anytime, anywhere.

Freeze-Dried

Our Thai curry utilizes cutting-edge freeze-drying technology to lock in freshness, preserve nutritional value, and ensure maximum safety. This innovative approach extends shelf life up to one year, while creating a lightweight, convenient product that perfectly suits today's busy lifestyles.

Bunjong Thai: Authentic Thai Flavors, Elevated Standards

At Bunjong Thai, we're passionate about bringing the authentic taste of Thailand to kitchens around the world. But our commitment goes beyond just flavor – we uphold the highest standards of quality and safety in every product we create.
