

Regina Foods Company is one of the major leading honey factories in European, headquartered in the city of Thessaloniki, Greece, since 1958. Our dedication extends beyond honey, encompassing a big assortment of products such as jams, traditional Greek jellies, sesame bars and Delights (loukoumi).

We select only the finest raw materials, subjecting them to rigorous daily inspections. Regina Foods proudly holds ISO 22000 and IFS certifications, underscoring our unwavering dedication to food safety and quality assurance.

Our global reach extends far and wide, with exports spanning across Europe, Africa, Asia, Australia, Saudi Arabia, and the USA.

Regina was the first Greek company to participate in the "ANUGA 1973" exhibition and continues to maintain a presence at every significant exhibition in its field. Through our presence at these exhibitions, we promote the cultural heritage of Greece and the unsurpassed quality of our products, strengthening the global reputation and recognition of Greek products.

