COMPANY BACKGROUND

MFAEZ FOOD INDUSTRIES SDN BHD (1304106-W), the proud creator of the known brand Mama Jie's, is a leading nutritious cookies manufacturer committed to delivering exceptional taste and quality. With a passion in providing delicious treats for all ages, we have become a trusted name in the bakeries industry.

At MFAEZ FOOD INDUSTRIES SDN BHD, we firmly believe that everyone should enjoy healthy and delicious cookies. This syncs with our mission "To provide customers with healthy products produced from collaborations with health and food technology experts that satisfy the customers' needs"

We understand that today's consumers are looking for healthier food options, so we proudly introduced our groundbreaking invention; our cookie, which is gluten-free, sugar-free and high in fiber. It is a product developed through collaboration with the Faculty of Health Sciences, National University of Malaysia (UKM).

Join us on this delightful journey as we redefine the world of cookies, one delicious bite at a time. Experience the magic of Mama Jie's and discover why our brand has become synonymous with superior taste, quality, and innovations.

HONEY GINGER IN COOKIES?

DO YOU KNOW....

Ginger adds a unique and distinct flavor to cookies as it provides a warm, spicy and slightly sweet taste that make the cookies more interesting and enjoyable.

Ginger is rich in antioxidants, which can help soothes the digestive system by reducing oxidative stress in the gut.

Antioxidants in ginger may contribute to heart health by protecting the heart and blood vessels from oxidative damage.

Ginger's natural aroma can make the cookies more enticing and appetizing. The pleasing fragrance of ginger can enhance the sensory experience of consuming the cookies.
