TRIKI was founded in 1948 by Ahmed Triki, and still up to now run proudly under the same culture implanted by the founder. The company has been using the most advanced technologies, in confectionery, and market-oriented approach pushing the company to a consistent double-digit growth. TRIKI has been using a brand oriented philosophy; Its brands Le Moulin (Halva), Florida (Chewing gum) and Ballon (Bubble gum & soft candy) are leaders in its home market Tunisia and neighboring Northern African countries. TRIKI'S main objective is to enter the global market by forming long-term partnerships with worldwide companies. Its strongest attribute to succeed this goal is its steady management. Celebrating its 70th anniversary in 2018, the company is maintaining the same principles. TRIKI has multi-technologies and multi packaging presentations. This is a must to fulfill the demand in our local market and our main asset to adapt our offer to every single international conditions. By creating a fulfilling workplace, TRIKI built a happy work environment where employees thrive to work with a very low rate of turnover.
