

Hi, we're Nach Food Co.

Nach Food Co. has over 30 years experience supplying premium signature and branded meats to discerning customers globally. This continuous quality supply includes importers, retailers, food service providers, and restaurant chains. Nach Food Co. regularly manages air freight and sea freight programs for its customers internationally.

"We pride ourselves in providing you with service excellence, and through our knowledge and expertise in the meat and food industries, we can help you craft supply programs to enhance and expand your business."

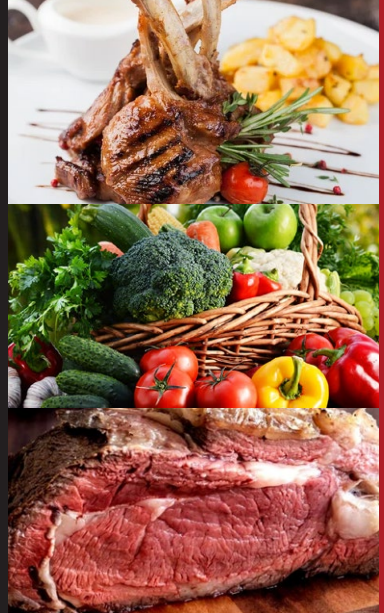

What can Nach do for you?

We source the finest quality meat and produce in Australia including beef, veal, lamb, mutton, goat, poultry, and a range of fruit and vegetables. Nach is well placed to cater for any solution you may require.

Our strong buying power, extensive network of suppliers and business partners mean we always deliver a competitive solution to help you create a streamlined food supply operation.

Nach Food Co. has full distribution capability in Australia. Products are sourced on a weekly basis from renowned producers which has enhanced our supply relationships and ability to extend our supply to our valued international clients.

Here's a taste of what's on the menu:

Beef in a range of chilled or frozen premium cuts & trims from grass and grain-fed, aged tender beef - this includes MSA-graded, Halal-accredited, Wagyu, Black Angus and Angus from the finest producers in Australia.

Lamb is renowned internationally for tenderness & flavour, all our lamb is Halal-accredited and grass fed from local growers. We source cross-bred and Merino lambs depending on our customer application and requirements. Full carcass lamb through to customer specific primal cuts can be tailored to your needs.

Mutton - We supply a full range of mutton carcass and primal cuts which includes fully denuded products and products for manufacturing from dedicated Halal producers.

Goat carcasses and cuts - the world's most consumed red meat is sourced regularly by Nach Food Co. from Australia for many overseas and domestic destinations.

Other products are regularly exported to complete our customer programs including a complete range of chilled or frozen beef and sheep offals from Australia.
