ABOUT US

Founded by Charles Attard and family-owned since the 1970's, the second generation of JOSEFA family is continuing the commitment to bring our customers the highest quality foods available.

Since its inception, JOSEFA has developed into Malta's recognized name for pasta pâtés and dips, boasting a portfolio of local and internationally-renowned clients.

JOSEFA has been providing an exceptional selection of gourmet pasta sauces, pâtés, pastes and dips from the simplest to the most refined, ready in an instant.

JOSEFA's speciality foods are available in retail grocery stores including supermarkets across the Maltese Islands, as well as club stores, fine restaurants, wine-bars and bistros, hotels and factories. Caters as well for well-known international food franchises.

JOSEFA products have been successfully exported to EU countries amongst which United Kingdom and Ireland. Encouraged by successful trade abroad, the company intends to increase exports, as it is the major priority of the company. Further to exporting its products to EU countries, the management envisaged exports towards Middle East and North African countries.

CERTIFIED QUALITY

JOSEFA Manufacturing company and products are certified by TUV ICB, London, for Food Safety, ISO, HACCP and HALAL.

The Company has implemented HACCP as a management system in which food safety is addressed through analysis and control of biological, chemical, and physical hazards from raw material production, procurement and handling, to manufacturing, distribution and consumption of the finished product.
