SPECIAL JAPANESE TEA SHOP

MATCHA SPECIALIST

ROKUBEI is a tea company that provides selected Japanese teas. Our expertise is rooted in more than 200 years of familial craft. We provide high quality teas, such as organic tea, pesticide-free tea, but also high-class tea utensils and Matcha sweets.

We provide high quality and original teas, such as Uji tea, and teas cultivated by farmers all over Japan.

We also customize products for partner companies, and we guarantee short delivery times, even for short lots.

With our registered trademarks “Ichigo Ichie” and “Choju-giga” from the Kozanji temple, we offer high-quality products.

By participating in overseas exhibition and business meeting , we actively promote Japanese tea.

Through selling organic, pesticide-free teas, and by using natural materials, we make it our duty to respect the nature.

We hold seminars all over the world to share the wonders of Japanese tea.

Reliable cooperative tea factories / Network of tea farmers

We deliver high-quality Japanese teas directly from farmers and wholesalers all over Japan. In the future, we will expand the offer for organic and pesticide-free teas.

There are over 100 stone mills in our cooperative tea factory to produce high-quality Matcha.

We visit organic and pesticide-free tea farmers all over Japan, and build a personal cooperation system with them.

We hold regular meetings with our partners to produce the best Japanese tea.
