Health Benefits

IT'S A LOW CALORIES FRUIT

The Consumption of pomegranate is low in calories. This means that, in 100 grams of this poroduct, there are hardly 34 kilocalories, and so it can be included in any diet to maintain or lose weight. Besides, the pomegranate fruit has a low glycemic index, this is its consumption is not prohibited for diabetics.

PREVENTS HEART ATTACKS

This happens because pomegranates contain polyphenols; these cause the bad cholesterol to decrease, and therefore promote heart caring. The polyphenols in pomegranates also provide anti-oxidant qualities.

THE POMEGRANATE IS ANTIOXIDANT RICH

On account of this its consumption gets to be highly beneficial to beat free radicals that are so harmful to human beings.

As a matter of fact, including pomegranates into a diet reduces drastically the risk of suffering from degenerative diseases.

IT HAS ANTI-INFLAMMATORY PROPERTIES

As a consequence its consumption is recommended when suffering from inflammatory diseases related to prostate or lung. This specific quality comes up from the acid content found in this fruit. These citrus aspects also provide antiseptic properties.

IT'S A RICH POTASIAM FRUIT

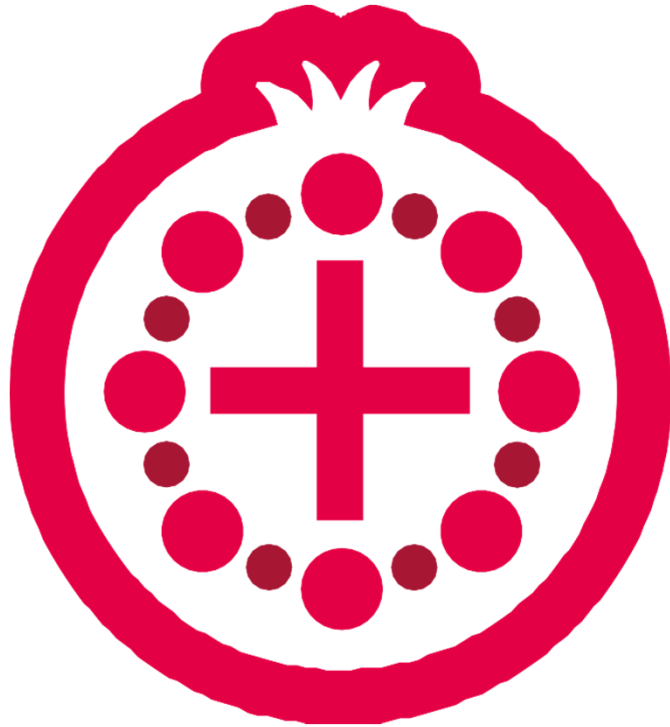

Among the minerals that the pomegranate has are iron, zinc, selenium, calcium, magnesium and potassium. This last one makes the pomegranate a fruit that is recommended to clear the kidneys. Potasium is also a mineral that provides proven benefits to nervous system and muscle activity.

THE POMEGRANATE IS HIGHLY BENEFICIAL FOR DIGESTIVE ANOMALIES

Pomegranates have tannins, something for which are widely recommended in case of diarrhea caused by any sort of infection, indigestion, meteorism, etc.

Plus, the pomegranate contains alkaloids whose consumption is recommended to expel instestinal parasites

Health Benefits

LOTS OF SCIENTIFIC STUDIES HAVE DISCLOSED AMONG OTHERS THE FOLLOWING HEALTH BENEFITS:

- Fights aging, protects against UV Rays and it is anti-oxidant rich.
- Controls glucose levels, it is also perfect for diabetes.
- Protects the heart, improves blood flow and fights cholesterol.
- Take care of your skin, rich in iron, oxygenates skin cells, regenerates the dermis and epidermis.
- Fights cancer, rich in polyphenols and flavonoids that inhibit growth and cancer cells.
- It is beneficial for people suffering from Alzheimer's.
- Fights dental plaque.
