Prayer Requests

Children's Ministry

- Spiritual Growth. Pray that the children will continue to grow in the love and fear of the Lord and be rooted in God's Word.
- Intentional Discipleship. Pray for the parents that they will become more intentional in disciplining their children.
- Parent-Teacher Training. Pray for the upcoming parent-teacher training under Life 300 called the Precept Training with Precept International speaker Mimi Voo on October 15. The topic is How to Study the Bible Inductively for Kids. Pray that 100 Sunday School teachers, parents and children workers will attend this and be equipped in teaching and disciplining the children.

Young Adults

- Young Adults Retreat. Praise God for the recently concluded retreat, No Filter.
- Follow-up for Attendees. Please pray for follow-up of those who attended the retreat and that many will be plugged in to Growth Groups.
- Growth Group Community. Pray that the Young Adults will grow into a community of Growth Groups serving the Lord together.

Youth Ministry

- One Gospel Conference on November 5. Pray that as Youth LIVE hosts and plans for this missions event, that God would powerfully speak to the attendees about joining Him in His mission for the world.
- YGroup and Frontline Campus Ministry. Pray that as disciples of Christ, that our high school and college students would grow by God's Word, fostering deeper relationships by caring for one another as a family, by sharing the Gospel to others and by living to worship God in all areas of their lives.
- Youth LIVE Volunteers. Pray that the Lord would continue to call and raise up young people who would further embrace His Kingdom cause by always living in view of eternity through Jesus Christ.

Heartfelt Thanks

To all our dear PRAISE FACTORY PARENTS & FAMILIES THROUGH THE YEARS—for their love, patience, support, and surprise food donations during rehearsals to keep us healthy and energetic;
 To the WORSHIP & CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES—for their partnership and provision of much-needed guidance and resources;
 To those who have contributed to our exciting choreography: NIKITA LIGOT (Everywhere), MISHKA LIGOT (Your Love for Me), & TEACHER NIKOY DE GUZMAN (Castles in the Sky);
 To ARIELLE ALVARADO—for being the unnamed rehearsal assistant—helping make stage direction and coordination much easier;
 To KIRSTEN FABELLAR & ALYSA REYES—for being the music & choreography warm-up assistants;
 To MRS. CHETTE KING (an original Praise Factory member)—for her efficient guidance and advice in the concert's financial matters;
 To all the FACILITIES & ACCOUNTING & STAFF, USHERS, COUNSELORS, CUSTODIANS & GUARDS—for their able assistance and willing accommodation of requests;
 To EVERYONE whom we might have inadvertently missed mentioning here but have sacrificed time and energy to make this reunion musicale possible;
 And above all, to our LORD & SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST—for Your mighty power and sustaining grace at work in us. Your faithfulness simply moves us 2 RePraise You!

a PRAISE FACTORY REUNION CONCERT

September 24 SATURDAY 5pm
 September 25 SUNDAY 10am & 5pm

“Know therefore that the Lord your God is GOD; He is the faithful God, keeping His covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love Him and keep His commands.”
 -DEUTERONOMY 7:9

Rooted in Christ

PASTOR LARRY PABIONA

You are watching more than just a concert today. Usually ministry concerts are intentionally tailored to bless God's people who will be there to watch. Not this time. This concert was created to bless the ones participating as much as the ones watching.

Welcome to the Praise Factory Reunion Concert!

Everyone involved in this wants to bless you. But this concert was also conceived to draw and encourage former Praise Factory members and their families to go back to their roots in Christ and in GCF.

I may not have a green thumb or a botanical knowhow, but this much I know: a tree without roots soon withers. I recall the story of a rare and expensive tree that was planted by a former head of state on a hilltop. The common people, in their desire to preserve the tree from vandalism, surrounded it with a low brick wall anchored several feet below the ground. Years later, one forester noted that this tree was dying. It was easy for the botanists to find out that the roots of the tree were kept from spreading by the brick wall that extended several feet below the ground. The tree was dying from within because its roots were compromised.

In the same way, those who leave their spiritual homes often suffer more than anyone else. Especially if there were flimsy rather than sound reasons for leaving—reasons like “I was hurt by this or that member or church leader”, or “the preaching was too deep for me then” (haven't you grown spiritually since?), or “the pastor didn't greet me one Sunday” and so on.

So sit back and relax. Better yet, listen, react, reflect, sing along, participate, clap, shout “Alleluia”—but don't be passive. Because now that you know what this is all about—glorifying God by blessing you, and glorifying God by blessing the participants themselves—isn't this worth your time, your silent prayer support, and personal involvement? Let this concert bless you, even as it blesses those doing it. Our God is glorified when we are blessing each other for His sake.

2RePraise with the Praise Factory

Thirty-one years ago, they began simply as a children's choir. But as the years went by, they grew into something much more—a kind of spiritual and musical greenhouse that nurtured raw talents and tender spirits into a blossoming group of talented and committed believers who sang praises to the Lord with their voices and their lives. And now, 31 years later, our faithful God has kept His word and continues to bring sovereign glory to His Name through their lives lived solely by His grace.

It's one thing for them to have praised the Lord when they were young kids. But it is quite another thing for them to come together with the present batch, this time as young adults, praising Him from a place of deeper knowledge of Him—tested by life's circumstances and still choosing to lift up His Name so that others may know Him and be encouraged to make Him known. So today, once again under the now honored directorship of Kathy Alvarado (nee Garcia), they choose 2RePraise their Lord Jesus Christ. All praise be to Him!

“Know therefore that the Lord your God is GOD; He is the faithful God, keeping His covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love Him and keep His commands.”
 -DEUTERONOMY 7:9
