LISTENING TO GOD'S VOICE
GCF MISSIONS MONTH

SERMON SERIES

TODAY'S MESSAGE | JULY 25, 2021

Listening to the Voice

1 SAMUEL 3:10

I. Call of Samuel

- Samuel heard the voice but was not sure who it was
- Eli lost his hearing but know enough to direct Samuel
- Eli was also judged for indulging his sons

II. Nature of Noise and the Whisper of God (1 Kings 19:11-13a)

III. We listen through...

- Holy scriptures
- Prayer
- Prompting, dreams and visions
- Godly counsel
- The Times
- Family and Community
- Pain and Suffering

IV. Paradigm Shifts Post-COVID

- Beyond the church building
- No frills faith
- Social, Workplace, Family and Community ministries

V. Relevance

VI. Changes in Workplaces

VII. Changes in Social Interaction

Discussion Questions

1. What makes it difficult for you and for the world today to hear and obey God's voice? What are the noises that prevent you from hearing God well?
2. What is one concrete step that you can commit to start in order to avoid the sins that Eli and his sons made against God?
3. Like Samuel who obeyed God's voice, individually or as a group, pray and ask God to help you change your mindset and lead you to practical actions that would impact the lives of people around you in light of the "new normal" challenges we're all facing.

The Shepherd's Voice

Living Missionally: Listening to God's Voice GCF Missions Month

BY PASTOR MIKE KING LI

The pandemic and the community quarantine have caused many of us to become isolated and disconnected from one another. This situation goes against God's design for man. God created man for relationships. That's why when God saw Adam alone in the Garden of Eden, He said, "It is not good that the man should be alone" (Genesis 2:18). Compounded to this isolation, many experience fear and anxiety because of loss of income. We long to connect with people who can encourage and support us.

We desire to see GCF be a community where people feel they belong, God's love is manifest, and God's care is available. We have various avenues to meet the need for connection, encouragement, and support. Here are some of the various ways for you to stay connected in our disconnected world.

If you struggle with fear, anxiety, or depression, our counselors at Emmaus Road Counseling Center (ERCC) are ready to help you. Don't hesitate to get in touch with our ERCC hotline at 0917 532 7794. One of our counselors will come alongside you in your life journey.

If you are seeking to connect with our church community but don't know how to go about it, go to bit.ly/GCFWelcome. Expect somebody to get in touch with you within the week.

If you are looking to belong to a small group but are intimidated that you might feel out of place in a group of people who already know each other, we can help you by forming a new small group composed of new people like yourself. You can contact Marj at 0917 779 1549 and let her know that you'd like to be part of a new small group.

If you have been worshipping with us regularly and are ready to become an official church member, visit tinyurl.com/gcfmaf to get started on your membership journey. One of our teammates will contact you within the week.

The Shepherd's Voice

Suppose you are a member already but you miss serving God alongside your brothers and sisters in church ministry. In that case, you can look at our different ministry opportunities where you may be interested in serving. Go to bit.ly/GCFMinistryOpportunities

I pray that we experience the hope and life that Christ offers amidst a world filled with fear and hopelessness. And I pray that God's church be a bastion of support and hope for people during these trying times. As Missions Month comes to a close, getting ourselves connected to a local church community can be the start for us to live missionally by listening to God's voice as we pray for the nations.
