INTRODUCTION

The first half of the letter of Ephesians tackled spiritual truths about a believer's wealth in Christ. In the first chapter we saw some of the blessings God poured out for believers. In chapter two, we see how through Christ's finished work on the cross, He united believers into one body. In chapter three, we see the immeasurable love and power of God for the saints. In the second half of the letter, Paul tackled how believers should walk in relation to all these spiritual truths.

Paul exhorted believers to be united (vv. 1-3)

1. What did Paul urge the believers to do?
2. How would you describe one who walks in a manner worthy of God's calling?
3. Paul listed several virtues in verse 2. Take time to describe each virtue and how it affects one's relationships with others.
4. How do you think these virtues are connected to walking in a manner worthy of God's calling?
5. Why do you think it is important for believers to maintain unity?
6. How would you describe believers being united in the bond of peace?
