

“ It was a blessing that I was able to come here. I was here before for therapy and that was the reason I came back. The therapy department is so helpful, and they teach you what you need to know to succeed. The other staff is very helpful and works to meet your needs. This is a very clean facility and the food is good. I would come back again, if needed.”

Billy Sharp
Rehab patient

