The 200 largest firms in the world have 110,000 attorneys who annually provide $130 billion of legal services. Global Legal Leaders begins with the largest and leading firms in 30 countries in 30 countries and 18 US states.

Networks are the largest practice organizations in the world. Law members provide $120 billion of legal services and accounting network members $60 billion of accounting services. Law network members have spent $3 billion creating relationships over 25 years.

The 200 consultants have unique skill sets that firms, and corporate legal department require. Many consultants have been honored by admission to the College of Law Practice Management.

Alternative Legal Services Providers deliver their clients a range of law-related services. Their expertise and resources supplements the knowledge found in firms or corporate legal departments. They are a cost effective way for clients to receive assistance.
