

Tuscany is for lovers

14/02/14 at 10:20 AM | 0 Comments

Perfect for love-birds and newlyweds searching for a trip that combines romance, beautiful scenery, culture and art, the FrancigenaWays.com walking holiday in the heart of Tuscany follows the ancient Via Francigena trail from San Miniato to Siena.

This six night holiday is split into five easy walking days, covering between 12km and 18km per day - meaning it is perfect for beginners.

Staying in gorgeous medieval towns with unique accommodation and atmospheric cobbled streets, you will taste the best in local Italian cuisine, including the famous white truffles in San Miniato, enjoy some pampering in the spa town of Gambassi Terme, be amazed by the mighty medieval towers of San Gimignano and the fortress-village of Monteriggioni, and finally, fall in love with the stunning UNESCO-listed town Siena.

This romantic break with a difference is now available from FrancigenaWays.com from €599pps for six nights including accommodation on a half-board basis, luggage transfers and a holiday pack. Visit francigenaways.com, or call 01-525-28-86 for more details.