SUPER SEASON

The 1988-89 Bearcats compiled a 21-9 ledger under Laurie Pirtle and made the school's first appearance in the NCAA tournament. Cincinnati opened the campaign with victories over UCLA, Ohio State, Kentucky and Bowling Green in December while reeling off a then school record-tying 12 consecutive wins. That start drew attention as the Bearcats received votes in the national polls. After earning an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament, the Bearcats played at Bowling Green due to the construction of the Shoemaker Center.

CHERYL COOK: THE COOKIE MONSTER

Cheryl Cook is Cincinnati's top women's basketball performer and one of the best female student-athletes ever.

The Indianapolis, Ind., native set virtually every Bearcat scoring record, tallying 2,367 points during her four-year career, the seventh-highest total in NCAA women's basketball history at the time she concluded her career.

"Cookie" was one of the nation's top six scorers her junior and senior seasons. After earning honorable mention All-American honors as a junior, she was selected for the Olympic Trials, though an injury hampered her efforts to earn a berth on the 1984 U.S. team.

Cook returned to garner second team All-America honors as a senior, and was the nation's second-leading scorer.

An all-around player, Cook not only tallied the most assists by a UC performer by the close of her career (her 360 currently ranks fourth), the 5-9 guard also is sixth in rebounding (688).

A two-time Metro Conference Player of the Year selection, Cook landed a berth on the 1986 U.S. Pan American Game team.

She is the only player to have her jersey number, 24, retired.

In the fall of 1995, Cook was further honored by selection to the James P. Kelly University of Cincinnati Athletic Hall of Fame.

HALL OF FAME BEARCATS

Seven UC women's basketball players have been elected to the James P. Kelly University of Cincinnati Athletic Hall of Fame. Former student-athletes become eligible for the hall of fame five years (formerly 10) after they have completed their eligibility, and six of seven women's basketball players were elected in the first year in which they became eligible.
